HALL OF REPRESENTATIVES, STATE HOUSE,
SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 20, 1906, 7 o'clock, P. M.

THE GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS was called to order by Grand Master Wm. R. Humphrey.

Upon call of the roll, Grand Officers were found present as follows:

WM. R. HUMPHREY.....	Grand Master.
FRED B. MERRILLS.....	Deputy Grand Master.
OWEN SCOTT.....	Grand Warden.
JOHN H. SIKES.....	Grand Secretary.
THOS. B. NEEDLES.....	Grand Treasurer.
J. A. LUCAS.....	Grand Representative.
JOHN J. BROWN.....	Grand Representative.
WM. M. GROVES.....	Grand Chaplain.
CHAS. E. BOYER.....	Grand Marshal.
JOHN E. JENNINGS.....	Grand Conductor.
ISAAC N. ROLAND.....	Grand Guardian.
JOHN B. CHICK.....	Grand Herald.

The Grand Secretary reported a quorum of Representatives in attendance.

The Grand Master announced appointments as follows:

Assistants to the Grand Marshal—Bros. W. H. Bean, No. 825; Fred Strohm, No. 8; J. W. Spalding, jr., No. 333; A. T. Rorer, No. 506; Axel O. Pilo, No. 812; John H. Shelton, No. 374; Chris. Christensen, No. 123; James J. Routt, No. 901.

Assistants to the Grand Guardian—Bros. Wm. Duggans, Ervin Withey, and Geo. Whittle, all of No. 6.

Janitor and Messenger—Bro. Chas. R. Coon, No. 6.

Ass't Janitor and Messenger—Bro. Mathias Blumle, No. 196.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The "Old Folks' Home" was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Deputy Grand Master, by order of the Grand Master, then proclaimed the Grand Lodge open for the transaction of business.

The printed Reports of the Grand Officers were presented, and were referred to a Special Committee of three for analysis and distribution, as follows:

Committee on Analysis and Distribution—Willis Melville, No. 693; E. B. Chenoweth, No. 740; F. M. Warrington, No. 875.

On motion of Bro. Ellacott, of 416, reading of the Journal of the last annual session was dispensed with, and the Journal as printed was approved, with corrections as follows: on page 321, sixth line from foot of page, instead of the word "become" read "be found": on page 532, in Section 19, eighth line of section, instead of the word "court" read "case."

By instruction of the Grand Master, the following telegraphic message was sent:

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., NOV. 20, 1906.

W. H. LEEDY, Grand Secretary I. O. O. F., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois sends fraternal greetings to the Grand Lodge of Indiana. The best year in the history of the best fraternity in Illinois.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary I. O. O. F. of Illinois.

GRAND MASTER'S REPORT.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

MY BROTHERS: As directed by the Constitution of this Grand Lodge and in accordance with well established custom, I hereby submit to you my report of work done in this jurisdiction during the past year.

When I accepted the office of Grand Master I said that I had made it the rule of my life to put forth every effort in my power to successfully accomplish whatever I had undertaken, but that I knew then full well that even if I should do my work most efficiently and enthusiastically, even though I should give all of my time to do the work of the office of Grand Master, that I could not succeed unless I had the active, earnest and enthusiastic support of the members throughout our jurisdiction. I said further that if the brothers would stand by me shoulder to shoulder we would make Odd Fellowship ring throughout this grand old state as it never did before. We would place it even on higher ground. The year has ended, the brothers have stood by me as Grand Master and my prophecy is fulfilled. Never did any Grand Master have a more loyal, a more enthusiastic and a more efficient band of workers than it has been my good fortune to have. During the past year success was evident from the very beginning. Lodges and individual members have put forth every effort to do the most possible of good during the year. The enthusiasm grew until there was scarcely a village, town or city in Illinois that did not feel the influence of Odd Fellowship as never before. The credit for the wonderful success is most largely due to the deputies and the active, earnest officers and members of the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges. The real advancement of our Order must be made in the lodges, and if the members will work earnestly, enthusiastically, efficiently and persistently, advancement will be made. Unless they do this, the Grand Master is perfectly helpless. He can outline the work, advise with the lodges and members and perchance may enthuse, but success, both in increase of membership and in the influence of our Order, lies with the lodges themselves. Our Order is today the largest fraternal Order in the world and likewise the richest, and in my opinion the best. An organization that is founded on a friendship such as existed between Jonathan and David and puts into practice the lesson as taught by the Good Samaritan, and an Organization which has expended more than $110,000,000 in its work in less than eighty-eight years of history and which is expending now more than $4,700,000 annually in its work of relief and education, should command the respect of all good men and good women. The greatest education today is heart education—heart culture. Illinois is in the very front rank in this great work. Much has been done in Illinois during our sixty-eight years of history, much more could have been done and vastly more will be accomplished in years to come than has ever been dreamed of. For nearly eighty-eight years we have demonstrated that it is not in wealth, it is not in position, it is not in great learning but it is in great heart—in great love for our fellowman lies true happiness. It is not what we do for ourselves but that which we do for others that lifts us up and places us upon a higher plane of life. We must never become selfish in the good we do—never do any good work for the mere purpose of receiving commendation from our fellowmen. What we do must be because it is right. If we do a kind deed we must not remember it, and if any one does us an unkind act, we must likewise not dwell upon that, but rather forgive and forget the wrong that is done.

INTRODUCTORY LETTER TO LODGES.

CHICAGO, ILL., NOV. 25, 1905.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois;

GREETING—We now begin a new year in Odd Fellowship. The past year with its successes and failures, its joys and sorrows, has passed into history. The next year is but a prophecy; but this year—the one in which we are now living—is the one in which to put forth our every power for success. We must go forth to our work with an earnestness and an enthusiasm that will stop at nothing short of success. Nothing can stand in successful opposition to downright earnestness. "Let us each act well his part." We should be true to our Order, true to ourselves and do all the good we can for those around us. Let us be more kind to each other, more kind to the members of our families, more kind to the stranger, more kind to our friends and neighbors than we have been in the past. Think not evil against anyone, but be considerately kind and helpful. The Grand Master needs your help in our work in Odd Fellowship. He wishes that each lodge and each Rebekah lodge will put forth a special effort to make a net gain in membership of fifteen or more by keeping the membership you have and by enrolling other good men and women, as members; that each Subordinate lodge will raise at least $25.00 for the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home—this to be in addition to what is now being regularly contributed. He wishes each lodge to send this amount or more, with its representative, as a free will offering to be presented to the Grand Lodge on Tuesday evening at the first regular session of the Grand Lodge to be held next November. He wishes each Rebekah Lodge to do more in helping the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home than ever before—continue more than ever to remember our little ones at Lincoln and our aged and helpless brothers and sisters at Mattoon. Let the sunshine in—make their hearts glad. We should be more faithful and kindly considerate to those of our membership who are afflicted either in body or mind. Cheer them up—scatter flowers along life's pathway.

I appreciate most fully the high honor conferred upon me by the Grand Lodge at its recent session in making me the Grand Master of this Grand Jurisdiction, and I am deeply grateful for it. I assure you, however, that I shall appreciate it much more if each lodge will do its duty as Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Put forth every effort to maintain enthusiasm and harmony and to avoid lack of interest, dissension and strife. It is much more important that you be right and kind than it is that you should have your particular way in doing some work, even though what you have undertaken is right. Do right; let that be our motto, not only for this year, but for life. Do not permit jealousy and strife to enter in. Remember that each Odd Fellow is your brother and that each Rebekah is your sister.

In each Subordinate lodge it is the wish of the Grand Master that you recommend some competent brother, a past grand, to be appointed as Deputy Grand Master for your lodge. Select a harmonizer and a worker—one on whom the lodge and the Grand Master can depend. In each Rebekah lodge some competent, faithful sister, a past noble grand, should be selected for recommendation to the Grand Master as deputy. Select a sister that has great tact and good common sense—and one who wishes above all other things that right prevail. These recommendations from both the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges should be made immediately upon the receipt of this letter or as soon thereafter as possible. The deputy, in addition to the performance of the usual duties which have heretofore been required, will be expected to report to the Grand Master each month what the lodge has done the previous month—how many members admitted, how many withdrawn and any other matters which may be of special interest.

The Grand Master will be pleased and he recommends that each lodge and each Rebekah lodge subscribe for and keep on file the Odd Fellows' Herald of Springfield, and the Illinois Odd Fellow of Chicago. It will be a good investment for the lodge and will extend proper support to these publications of our Order in Illinois which have done and are doing so much for Odd Fellowship. Let us encourage the press of our Order by support as lodges and as individuals.

Let us put Illinois in the very front—the largest in membership, the richest in wealth and the best. Let us make it a grand jurisdiction in which our next Grand Sire, Brother E. S. Conway, of our Grand Lodge, will take great pride, because it will be a model and a great help to him as Grand Sire to do the most possible of good during his term of office.

Assuring you, my brothers and sisters, of my best wishes, I am

Yours most sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY.

Grand Master.

LETTER TO DEPUTIES.

CHICAGO, ILL., Dec. 20, 1905.

To the Deputies of Subordinate and Rebakah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois:

MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS: I am sending you with each of your commissions eleven post cards, to be used in reporting to the Grand Master each month, beginning January 5, 1906. Fill out the blanks properly and put one cent stamp on each card and mail it to the Grand Master. There is a card for January, one for February, one for March, etc., and be careful to use the right card at the right time, and also be careful not to lose your cards and report to the Grand Master whether you have done any work or not. Do not forget about it. As the personal representative of the Grand Master, do your duty promptly, carefully and cheerfully. Do not annoy and disappoint the Grand Master by failing to report. I trust that each Lodge will begin now to put forth every effort to make a net gain of fifteen members and to raise not less than $25.00 for the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home. Urge your Lodge and assist it all you can to comply with the wishes of the Grand Master. Let enthusiasm, harmony and success be your determination and we shall have the greatest year in the history of Odd Fellowship.

Extend to the Lodge, in behalf of the Grand Master, his best wishes for the success and happiness of each member of the Lodge, and that he wishes for all of them and their families the brightest, happiest and most prosperous New Year that they have ever known.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,
W. R. HUMPHREY,
Grand Master.

THE OLD FOLKS' HOME.

In accordance with the instructions of the Grand Lodge, I began the consideration of the affairs at the Old Folks' Home immediately upon the adjournment of the Grand Lodge. Inasmuch as Past Grand Master Chas. S. Harris was the chairman of the Committee on the State of the Order at the last Session, I requested him to call a meeting of the Trustees and Advisory Board to meet in Chicago to determine upon the course they might decide to pursue. At this meeting, the four holdover Trustees decided to resign. I accepted their resignations on December 2nd and appointed their successors December 4th. On that date I sent the following letter to the Lodges:

CHICAGO, ILL., Dec. 4, 1905.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

MY BROTHERS AND SISTERS: As Grand Master, I wish to call your attention to the following letters which are self-explanatory and which are of general interest to the order in Illinois:

"December 1, 1905.

W. R. HUMPHREY, Grand Master I. O. O. F.,

Chicago, Ill.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: We, the members of the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, hereby tender our resignations as members of said Board, to take effect at your pleasure.

CHAS D. BRAINARD,

GEO. E. DIECKMANN,

J. M. MINER,

CHAS. F. W. EBERHARD."

"CHICAGO, December 2, 1905.

CHAS. D. BRAINARD, }
GEO. E. DIECKMANN, } Trustees I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, Illinois.
J. M. MINER, and }
CHAS. F. EBERHARD, }

DEAR BROTHERS: Your favor of the 1st inst. in which you tender your resignations as trustees of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, received, and I thank you for this magnanimous act on your part—this sacrifice—for what you feel to be for the best interests and for the harmony of our beloved order. As Grand Master, I accept your resignations, the same to take effect at once. I wish to thank you in behalf of the order for the faithful work that each of you has done in behalf of Odd Fellowship, and especially do I thank you for your earnest and faithful work as trustees of the Old Folks' Home. You have no doubt made mistakes, but yours has been an exceedingly difficult task, and I believe you have done honestly what you have believed for the best.

Again thanking you and assuring you of my best wishes, I am

Yours truly and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master."

To fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of the above named trustees, I hereby appoint the following brothers:

L. M. KAGY, Salem, Lodge No. 114, four years;

J. W. WEBSTER, Decatur, Lodge No. 69, three years;

F. D. P. SNELLING, Chicago, Lodge No. 601, two years;

O. B. ANDERSON, Dixon, Lodge No. 39, one year.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Attest:

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

The Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent, Brother R. N. Rickard, and wife, Sister Lola L. Rickard, also resigned and their resignations were accepted by the Trustees to take effect March 1st, 1906. Their successors, Brother Chas. E. Wyman and wife, Sister Gertrude Wyman, took charge at that time. I am pleased to report that the trustees have given of their time cheerfully and by their able management have put the affairs of the Home on a completely successful basis. They have succeeded and I am delighted to say that the Home is in perfect working order and we should all do what we can to assist the Trustees and the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent in keeping it from again becoming as it was one year ago, prior to the changes made in the Trustees and the active management of the Home.

Inasmuch as the former Trustees and the Superintendent and Matron resigned, and inasmuch as the penalty fixed by this Grand Lodge was removal, if after investigation by me I found them incompetent or unworthy, I did not consider it for the best interests of the Order to enter into an exhaustive investigation which would but result in harm to the Home and the Order. I have endeavored to assist the Trustees all in my power to remove the harm done by widely advertised hurtful accusations. I am of the opinion that the former trustees and the two principal employees were not only not in harmony but that they talked too freely about the affairs of the Home at all times. Their talk was oftentimes, no doubt, misconstrued or added to, resulting in great injury to the Home and the Order. The affairs of the Home should be in the control and under the direction of the Trustees. The sisters of the Advisory Board should do what is in their power to promote harmony and to assist the trustees by helpful suggestions, but it should be understood that they have nothing whatever to do with the active business management of the Home. Unless the sisters are perfectly willing to do as here suggested, then, in my opinion, the Advisory Board should be dispensed with altogether. Paramount to all else is the good of the Home and the good of the Order.

In order to assist in bringing the affairs of the Home into perfect harmony and to have all of the helpless aged ones understand that everything would be all right and to encourage them in every way in my power—listen to their troubles and sympathize with them—and to suggest improvements where possible, I attended every meeting of the Trustees and I am satisfied that it was time well spent. Elsewhere will be found the report of the Trustees and I know it will please the members of the Grand Lodge.

PICNIC AT THE OLD FOLKS' HOME.

CHICAGO, ILL., Apr. 16, 1906.

Greeting:*

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS: It is the wish of the Grand Master that during this year every Odd Fellow and every Rebekah of Illinois will think of Our Orphans' Home and our Old Folks' Home and do all in their power to bring happiness into the lives of our helpless ones. In order to bring the work of our Homes closer together, I have decided to take the children of the Orphans' Home for a picnic to be held in the beautiful grove at the Old Folks Home, on LaFayette Heights, in Mattoon, on Friday, June 15th. I wish that each Subordinate Lodge and each Rebekah Lodge will, if possible, send some member of the Lodge to this picnic. Each one should take a basket well filled and join in the picnic dinner. It will be a most delightful occasion and one long to be remembered. Please have the Deputy report to me in his May or June report as to whether or not it will be possible for your Lodge to be represented. I shall endeavor through the railroad committee to secure reduced rates on all lines in Illinois.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Attest:

Jno. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 29, 1906.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS: For the meeting at Mattoon, June 15, the Committee on Railroads finally succeeded in securing a one fare rate plus twenty-five cents for the round trip from points in Illinois within the Central Passenger Association territory (except that where the regular one fare to Mattoon is less than $1.00, the additional twenty-five cents will not be required.) The following railroads belong to the Central Passenger Association: B. & O. S.-W. R. R., Big Four Route, C. & A. Ry., C. & E. I. Ry., C. I. & S. R. R., C. R. I. & P. Ry., C. H. & D. Ry., Ill. Central R. R., L. E. & W. R. R., L. & N. R. R., M. & O. R. R., Southern Ry. (St. L. Div.), T. P. & W. Ry., T. St. L. & W. R. R., Vandalia R. R., Wabash R. R.

On all lines in territory in Illinois controlled by the Western Passenger Association, being the following: A. T. & S. F., C. & A., C. & E. I., C. & N. W., C. B. & Q., C. G. W., C. M. & St. P., C. P. & St. L., C. R. I. & P., Illinois Central, Iowa Central, Wabash, Wisconsin Central, no rate has yet been made but it is anticipated that most of the lines belonging to this association will make the same rate as announced by the Central Passenger Association.

The tickets are good going June 14th and 15th, the return limit being the 16th. All who expect to go to Mattoon should consult their local agent and show him this letter. If he has not yet received instructions request him to confer with his General Passenger Department concerning the reduced rates for which arrangements have been made. Also where it is desired to have a special train, the matter should be taken up at once through the local agent.

Take well filled baskets and join in the picnic dinner in the beautiful grove at the Old Folks' Home. A table will be arranged for all the children of the Orphans' Home and they will chant their beautiful words of thanks, the same as they do at their home every day, before they partake of the good things that will be provided for them by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home. I trust all who can arrange to attend this great meeting will do so. It will be an inspiration for all of us.

Thanking you for your splendid work and great assistance in making our Order a wonderful power for good and assuring you of the best wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

In response to this invitation fully 5,000 people visited the Old Folks' Home to witness the beautiful scene presented, all of our orphan children and all of our helpless aged ones enjoying a picnic in the beautiful grove there. It was a great heart warmer and a splendid educator. Much good was done on that day and all were greatly pleased with the management of both the Old Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home. The Orphans' Home Band furnished the music. An informal program was arranged and short addresses were delivered by the Grand Master, Supt. J. A. Lucas and the Asst. Supt., Mrs. J. A. Lucas, of the Orphans' Home; Supt. Chas. E. Wyman and Asst. Supt., Mrs. Wyman, of the Old Folks' Home; Mrs. Lina D. Carlin, President of the Rebekah State Assembly, and by Trustee L. M. Kagy for the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home. June 15th will long be remembered by all who were so fortunate as to be present. The special train taking the children to Mattoon cost $300, $1.50 for the round trip on a basis of 200. This amount was taken from the Orphans' Home Picnic Fund. The amount received by Brother Lucas for tickets by members of the Order in Lincoln amounted to nearly $100. I instructed that this be placed back in this fund.

THE ORPHANS' HOME.

Sister Lizzie L. Morrison, the Superintendent and Matron of the Orphans' Home since it was opened in January, 1893, died suddenly in the depot at Bloomington, November 27th, 1905, and was buried at Rose Hill Cemetery, Cook County, the services being in charge of American Rebekah Lodge, No. 188, of which she was a member. For the last two or three years of her life she had suffered much from heart trouble which finally resulted in her death. The loss to the Order in the death of Sister Morrison was keenly felt by every one and all were anxious as to her successor. The Directors of the Orphans' Home, after careful consideration, employed Dr. J. A. Lucas, P. G. M., and his wife, as Superintendent and Matron. This action of the Board has met with universal favor. I am pleased to state that the Home was never in a more prosperous or successful condition. Elsewhere will be found a full and complete report by the Directors of this Home and I am confident it will give satisfaction. I wish to add my approval of the central heating plant, etc., which it is desired to install and I trust that it will be approved by the Grand Lodge.

DROPPING FOR NON-PAYMENT OF DUES.

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 26, 1906.

To Subordinate Lodges I. O. O. F., of Illinois.

BROTHERS: It is of the greatest importance that you exercise great care about dropping members for non-payment of dues. I wish you would put forth every effort to collect the dues and assessments so that the number of members which you must drop will be reduced to the smallest possible. I shall be pleased to assist you, and in order to do so, I request that you send to me on the enclosed card the names of those brothers which appear hopeless—the ones you have concluded you must lose, as members. If you will do this, I shall send each one a letter and it may be by so doing we can save to the Order some worthy brothers, who might otherwise be lost. The fewer the members you drop, the easier it will be to make your net gain larger. If you admit sixteen members and drop fifteen of the members you have now, your net gain is but one; while on the contrary if you drop but one, your net gain is fifteen. It is equally of great importance, if not greater, to keep the members you have than to admit new members. I trust you will realize the importance of this.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Address

CHICAGO, ILL., July 21, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

DEAR BROTHERS: I wish to inform you that the reports of the work done throughout Illinois continue most favorable. I trust each lodge will put forth a special effort during the summer weather to keep up the interest among its members. Remember that the semi-annual reports will close September 30th, 1906, and I wish you would do all in your power to secure as many good members as possible and especially am I anxious that you lose as few members as possible. In April I sent out over 1200 letters to brothers liable to be dropped and I trust that my efforts assisted you in saving to the Order many most worthy brothers. I wish each lodge to take action now to have its secretary or financial secretary to begin in a systematic way to collect the dues and assessments, so that the smallest possible number may seem hopelessly lost by September 1st. Finally, before dropping any members, I wish you would send me the list in ample time so I can send a letter to each brother, that, if possible, we may save him to our Order. It is not advisable to build up a great fraternity and then let it suffer useless loss on account of indifferent attention. Lest you may forget, I wish to add that it has been my earnest wish since I became Grand Master that each lodge during the year ending October 1, 1906, make a net gain of not fewer than fifteen members and raise an amount not less than $25.00 for the Endowment Funds of our Orphans' Home and Old Folks' Home, this to be presented to the Grand Lodge in November by the Representative of the lodge.

Assuring you that I appreciate your most earnest efforts in behalf of our beloved Order and with best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

This plan necessitated my sending out personal letters to about 1200 brothers in March and about 800 in August and September. This work resulted in saving about 600 or 700 brothers to our Order. In March 1906, 309 fewer were dropped than in March 1905. In September the saving was about the same. I am sure this special effort will result in benefit to the Order in years to come, for a great many lodges have been made to realize that it is a wonderful mistake to have such a heavy and needless loss to the Order by dropping so many every year, and hereafter, they will put forth a greater effort to save them.

THE ENDOWMENT FUNDS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME AND THE OLD FOLKS' HOME.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois:

DEAR BROTHERS: I wish to call your attention briefly to the building up of the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home at Lincoln and the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, and as an introduction I wish you would carefully read the following letter dated April 12, 1906, written to me by Deputy Grand Sire E. S. Conway, one of the first and one of the best friends the Homes have ever had and who is one of the most successful business men in this great state. He says:

"DEAR BROTHER HUMPHREY: Knowing your interest in the Orphanage and the Old Folks' Home of our Order, and your desire to increase as rapidly as possible the Endowment Funds, I beg to suggest to you the plan we have adopted in our lodge, viz.: from the first of this month to the Grand Lodge Session under the head 'Good of the Order' our Warden passes the hat, the brethren contributing just such amounts as they see fit, from five cents up, which amount when collected is turned over to the Secretary, entered on the books, and by him turned over to the Treasurer, who is to hold said fund in his possession as lodge money until the Grand Lodge Session, at which time he will secure a draft payable to the Grand Secretary, and turn same over to the Representative to take with him to the Grand Lodge, to be turned over to the Grand Lodge during the half hour set apart for presentation of contributions to the Endowment Funds of the two Homes.

We already have $54.00 thus secured in our lodge and I am of the opinion that by adopting this rule in all lodges in our state, and the hat passed every night under head of 'Good of the Order' that we will secure an average of five cents per week from every member in our jurisdiction. That, you will observe, would give us a fund of over $70,000. The little box in the corner will not do the work; the brethren forget it and pass it by, but with their attention called to this most righteous object and the hat passed every week, the brethren will naturally cut out a cigar occasionally and drop a nickel, dime or quarter into the hat, and it is surprising what will be accomplished between now and the Grand Lodge Session if you should see fit to adopt this plan, and secure, as I know you will, the hearty co-operation of every lodge in the state. In fact, our Noble Grand has made a notation in the rule of order, with his pencil, just prior to 'Good of the Order' that the Warden pass the hat.

Brother Humphrey, this takes us back in our memory to the days when the ax was passed around the lodge room, and during that period there were fewer suspensions for non-payment of dues than now. I believe the plan a good one, especially so when we are working for the Homes.

If you can extract any good out of this communication it will be all I desire. One thing is certain, we should increase our Endowment Funds during this period of unprecedented commercial and industrial prosperity. The time to make hay is when the sun shines, and certainly, the commercial sun is shining at the present time."

As has been stated very frequently, it is my wish that each lodge raise at least $25.00 for the Endowment Funds, the same to be presented at the session of the Grand Lodge in November at its first meeting, Tuesday evening, November 20, 1906. Lodges that can raise $50.00, $100.00, $200.00, $300.00 or more should be glad to do so. The object of building up the Endowment Funds is to place the lodges in a position to do the most possible of good for the helpless young and the helpless aged without the per capita tax ever exceeuing $1.00. While we congratulate ourselves upon the great work we are doing in caring for the orphan, yet we are doing scarcely more than one-half of our duty. There are scores of half-orphan children that should be admitted to the Orphans' Home and the sorrowing mother or father temporarily, at least, assisted. As it is now we can not do this, because our Orphans' Home is not large enough. Then, too, our Old Folks' Home must be prepared to take care of many more helpless aged in the future; instead of there being fewer than sixty in this Home there will be more than 300 and possibly as many as 500. As indicated by Brother Conway, a wise man prepares for the future. To care for the half orphans and to care for more members of our Old Folks' Home will require new buildings and an added expense in maintaining them. Suppose we had securities amounting to $500,000 or $1,000,000 at say 3 per cent, we would have $15,000 to $30,000 annually to supplement the amount already used in this God given work. I trust that the lodges will act upon this suggestion of Brother Conway and proceed at once to build up as large amounts as possible for their representatives to take to the Grand Lodge in November. In no case, I trust, will the amount be less than $25.00. I shall send out final instructions relative to this subject in October.

Assuring you that I fully appreciate your earnest work and thanking you for your valued assistance, I am

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

SPECIAL OFFERING FOR THE ENDOWMENT FUNDS.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 1, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

DEAR BROTHERS: We have had a wonderful year and I wish to thank every one who has in any way assisted in making the year's work such a phenomenal success. I am deeply grateful to every lodge that has made its net gain of fifteen, and there are many of them (some of them gaining several times that number), and also to every lodge that has made an honest, earnest effort, even though not successful. My thanks are also extended to every lodge that has put forth a special effort and that has done all in its power to save the members that we now have. I am also thankful to every lodge that has conferred the degrees in a creditable manner, teaching the beautiful lessons most impressively. There is one thing more that I very much desire and that is for each lodge to make a Special Offering to the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home at Lincoln and the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon. This offering I wish in addition to the amounts that are regularly contributed by some lodges. The amount may be raised either by popular subscription, by giving an entertainment or by donation out of the general fund of the lodge. I am anxious for each lodge to raise as large an amount as possible but in no case less than $25.00. By building up these funds sufficiently we will be able to keep our per capita tax so that it will not exceed one dollar. I have contributed regularly two dollars a year (less than four cents a week) for these Funds since 1898. If even 50,000 members had done equally well we would today have $900,000, instead of about $30,000. The interest each year would be about $36,000 at 4 per cent and this would enable us to take care of half orphans, which we are now unable to do and it would also enable us to extend the help of the Old Folks' Home to many whom we cannot now accommodate. As a special favor, whether you enthusiastically believe in the Endowment plan or not, I earnestly request you to assist in this offering this year. You will find an envelope to be used by your representative and which will be taken up on Tuesday evening, November 20th, 1906, at the first session of the Grand Lodge. If possible, raise $1.00 for every member you have, but I trust under no circumstances will you permit the amount to be less than $25.00. If you fail in this, I shall be greatly disappointed. I have every confidence that you will gladly assist in this most worthy undertaking.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Attest:

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

The response to my request to make a special offering to the Endowment Funds at this session of the Grand Lodge will doubtless be a generous one. Three trustees should be selected to invest the Endowment Funds. These Trustees should be appointed by the Grand Master upon the recommendation of the Finance Committee, the Chairman of the Orphans' Home Board, the Chairman of the Old Folks' Home Trustees and the Grand Treasurer. Good careful business men should be selected, one to serve one year, one to serve two years, and one to serve three years. Their successors should be appointed to serve three years, one being appointed every year after the first year. These trustees should be authorized to loan these funds on first mortgage Illinois real estate security, at not to exceed forty per cent of the cash value of the property. In addition, as now provided, all investments should be approved by the Grand Master. These funds should net 4 per cent at least. Good farm loans can be secured at 5 per cent and loans could be made to lodges at 5 per cent for building purposes. The present requirements of having the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary act as a committee to approve loans and build up these funds is not a good plan. The Grand Master and Grand Secretary are too busy to give the matter proper attention. The lodges could be notified every year by the Committee on Endowment Funds as to the advisability of building up these funds. The interest on these funds should not be used but added to the principal every year until the per capita tax reaches $1.00. When it is found the per capita tax must exceed that amount the interest should then be used. The day will come when we shall have from one-half million to a million dollars in these funds and we should begin now to handle these sacred funds in a way to insure absolute safety and at the same time to enable us to realize as much as possible from the investments so that we can do the greatest amount of good in taking care of the helpless orphans and half-orphans and assisting the helpless aged and indigent.

LETTERS TO LODGES.

At the beginning of the year I wrote each subordinate lodge that had lost in membership, to each one that had gained in membership and to each one that had neither gained nor lost. I also wrote each weak lodge—having a membership of 35 or fewer—there being at the beginning of the year 176 such lodges. These letters to the lodges and the hundreds that followed assisted very much in stimulating them to greater effort.

CALIFORNIA DISASTER.

Earthquake Sufferers, I. O. O. F., California, April 18, 1906.

CHICAGO, ILL., April 19, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting

DEAR BROTHERS: California has been stricken by an awful calamity. The beautiful city of San Francisco on the morning of April 18, was visited by an earthquake that wrecked a large portion of the city and that which was not affected by the shock has since been almost completely destroyed by fire. Twenty-two other cities have been either damaged or destroyed. California writhes in agony on account of this dire calamity. Our Order in that magnificent jurisdiction will need help to feed the hungry, to furnish clothing for the unfortunate and to supply resting places for the tired heart-broken ones to lay their heads. I have sent the following telegrams:

"CHICAGO, April 19, 1906.

HON. W. W. PHELPS, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., Riverside, Cal.:

The members of the Order in Illinois are bowed in grief on account of California's great sorrow. Accept our heartfelt sympathy. Have directed the Grand Treasurer to telegraph you two thousand dollars.

WM. R. HUMPHREY,
Grand Master."

"CHICAGO, April 19, 1906.

HON. THOS. B. NEEDLES, Grand Treasurer I. O. O. F. of Illinois, Nashville, Ill.:

Telegraph two thousand dollars to W. W. Phelps, Grand Master, Riverside, Cal., for immediate relief. I shall send appeal to lodges at once.

WM. R. HUMPHREY."

"CHICAGO, April 19, 1906.

MR. JOHN H. SIKES, Grand Secretary, Springfield, Ill.:

Have directed Grand Treasurer Needles to telegraph Grand Master California two thousand dollars. Will get out appeal at once.

WM. R. HUMPHREY."

The following telegram has been received by the Grand Master from the Grand Treasurer:

"NASHVILLE, ILL., April 19, 1906.

WM. R. HUMPHREY, Grand Master, 79 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.:

Two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) telegraphed to California as directed.

T. B. NEEDLES,
Grand Treasurer."

In accordance with these telegrams to the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary I desire that each subordinate lodge make a donation of not to exceed twenty cents per member and to send the amount direct to Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Springfield, Ill. Brother Sikes will turn all such donations over to Grand Treasurer Thos. B. Needles to be used as may be needed in assisting the stricken members of our Order and their families in our sister jurisdiction. A full and complete report will be made to the Grand Lodge. Should the amount raised be in excess of the amount needed it can be placed in the fund for special relief or used as the Grand Lodge may direct. I am sure that you will all gladly assist in this work of relieving those in such awful distress.

Tuesday,
Nov. 20, 1906.

With a sorrowful heart for our stricken brothers and their families and their neighbors and friends and knowing full well that every member of our Order in Illinois is equally grieved, I am

Yours in deepest sympathy,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Earthquake Sufferers.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting

DEAR BROTHERS: Up to this date the Grand Secretary has received $6,020.21 on account of the relief for our stricken California brothers and their families and the same has been turned over to the Grand Treasurer. April 28th, 1906, I, as Grand Master, requested Grand Treasurer Thomas B. Needles to send $3,000 to Hon. F. B. Ogden, Oakland, California, who is in charge of the relief work of our Order, made necessary on account of the awful earthquake of April 18th and the fire which followed it. The Grand Treasurer complied with my request. The total amount contributed by the Order in Illinois up to this date is $5,000. Further assistance will be rendered and I shall keep you informed as to what is being done.

Thanking you for your prompt and liberal response to my appeal in behalf of our stricken brothers and their families, I am

Gratefully and fraternally yours,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

California Earthquake Sufferers.

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 1, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting

DEAR BROTHERS: I wish to make a final report to you relative to the contributions for the relief of the California earthquake sufferers. In my letter to the lodges dated May 1, 1906, I informed you that up to that time $5,000 had been sent to Hon. F. B. Ogden, Oakland, California, who is in charge of the relief work of our Order. The total amount contributed by the Subordinate Lodges of Illinois toward this relief is $9,549.07. This entire amount has been forwarded to California, as directed, to Hon. F. B. Ogden, the present Deputy Grand Master of California. Brother Ogden says in his letter dated July 20th, 1906, acknowledging the receipt of the last remittance ($2,049.07) sent July 16, 1906: "Our heartfelt thanks go out to our brethren of sister states for their generosity in this hour of trial." Up to August 10th, 1906, he reports having received a total of $198,345.73 from the Grand Jurisdictions of our Order. July 3, 1906, the President of the Rebekah State Assembly of Illinois, Sister Lina D. Carlin, sent $1,213.15, the amount donated by the Rebekah lodges of this Jurisdiction. This makes a total of $10,762.22 contributed by the Subordinate Lodges and Rebekah Lodges of Illinois. I am very thankful indeed for the prompt and generous response to the appeal sent out from this office April 19, 1906, the day following the great calamity. I wish to add for your information that the first Two Thousand ($2,000) Dollars that we sent to California, being on April 19th, was taken from the Special Relief Fund and that this amount has again been replaced in that fund from the $9,549.07 contributed by the Subordinate Lodges of this Jurisdiction.

Again thanking you for your generous and prompt assistance, I am

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Attest:

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

Since sending out the above final report the Grand Secretary informs me that $25.40 have been further contributed. I recommend that this amount be returned to the lodges contributing it or that it be placed in the Special Relief Fund.

ANNIVERSARY AND MEMORIAL PROCLAMATIONS.

CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 26, 1906.

Anniversary Proclamation.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting

Whereas, in accordance with usage and in compliance with the proclamation of Grand Sire R. E. Wright, under date of February 16, 1906, in which he enjoins upon all Grand and Subordinate Bodies to take appropriate action for the due commemoration of the

of our Order on the twenty-sixth day of April, 1906, by suitable exercises in observance of the day and by public thanksgiving to Almighty God for his manifold mercies to us as individuals and as an Order; and whereas the Order in this Grand Jurisdiction has been so wonderfully blessed and which is today so harmonious, successful and powerful for good, has abundant reason for thanksgiving for the wonderful blessings received and for the general prosperity of our Order during the year just ended. Therefore, I, Wm. R. Humphrey, Grand Master, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do most earnestly enjoin all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of the Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois to comply with the general custom and earnest wishes of the Grand Sire by a proper observance with appropriate public exercises on the 26th day of April, 1906, or on a day approximate thereto. To all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I do hereby grant a general dispensation to wear the regalia of the Order upon such occasion in accordance with the prescribed laws.

Done at the City of Chicago, this twenty-sixth day of February, Anno Domini nineteen hundred and six, and of the Order the eighty-seventh year.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Memorial Day Proclamation.

CHICAGO, ILL., April 28, 1906.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting
DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:

In accordance with the requirements of a standing resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. and in accordance with the proclamation of Grand Sire R. E. Wright, I, Wm. R. Humphrey, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Illinois, do hereby request all subordinate and Rebekah lodges of this jurisdiction to assemble on the second Tuesday of June next, being the 12th of June, 1906, or any day nearest thereto, which may be convenient, and engage in appropriate exercises in memory of our deceased members. A general dispensation to wear the regalia of our Order at such memorial exercises or in parade is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah lodges.

Done at the City of Chicago, Illinois, this the 28th day of April, A. D. 1906, and of the Order the Eighty-eighth year.

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

Attest:

The ceremony for Memorial Day and for decorating the graves of deceased members, (two in one book,) may be obtained from the Grand Secretary, Jno. H. Sikes, Springfield, Ill., at 25 cents per copy.

SPECIAL SESSIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

Special Sessions of the Grand Lodge were held as follows: on request of the Deputies' Association of Cook County a Special Session was held in Chicago, March 29th, 1906. Special Committee on Credentials, E. E. Skillin, Lodge No. 217; Joseph Weigselbaum, Lodge No. 22; W. H. Pease, Lodge No. 80.

On request of Paxton Lodge No. 418, a Special Session was held at Paxton, May 8, 1906. Special Committee on Credentials, G. J. Johnson of Lodge No. 418; Jno. M. Miner, Lodge No. 358; Thos. Crowe, Lodge No. 259.

On request of Danville Lodge No. 69, a Special Session was held at Danville, June 13, 1906. Special Committee on Credentials, W. M. Canady, W. W. Current and Chas. Hacker, all of Lodge No. 69.

On the request of Momence Lodge No. 771, a Special Session was held at Momence, Aug. 8, 1906. Special Committee on Credentials, James M. Hall, Brady Croman and George Marland, all of Lodge No. 771.

All of these Special Sessions were largely attended and there was much interest evidenced. In all probability more Past Grands received the Grand Lodge Degree at these Special Sessions than in any former year in the history of our Order. I trust that many of the brothers who received the Grand Lodge Degree may be present at this Session of the Grand Lodge.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.

CHICAGO, ILL., Dec. 5, 1905.

Rebekah Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting

As Grand Master I wish to call the attention of the Rebekah Lodges, of Illinois, to Sec. 6, Article XIII, constitution of Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois, which is as follows: "These articles or any part thereof shall not be altered, amended or annulled except by motion made in the Grand Lodge at a regular session, in writing; and such motion shall not be finally acted upon the day of its presentation."

Whereas document No. 60, being a resolution passed by the Rebekah State Assembly, of Illinois, and presented to the Grand Lodge, on Wednesday, November 22, 1905, and the same being adopted on that day, in conflict with the foregoing section above quoted, therefore as Grand Master I declare the amendment to Article VI, Sec. 3, wherein it changes the term of office of Rebekah Lodges from six months to one year, to be null and void and of no effect whatsoever. Rebekah Lodges are hereby directed to elect their officers and install them for a term of six months as heretofore.

Yours fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,
Grand Master.

To the Subordinate Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—

DEAR BROTHERS: The Committee on Legislation, at the last session of the Grand Lodge, presented an amendment to Art. VIII., Section 1, of the Grand Lodge Constitution as a substitute for three amendments presented to that section last year and referred to it by the Grand Lodge. As this amendment contained matter other than did those referred to the Committee, it should have lain on the table for action at the session of 1906, but in some way the Grand Lodge voted upon and adopted it. See page 340, Grand Lodge Journal of 1905. Under Art. XI., Sec. 1 of our Constitution and the law as found in Busbee's Digest, Sections 609-16, the Grand Lodge had no authority to vote upon it when it did and its action was illegal. Therefore, by authority vested in me as Grand Master, I hereby set aside said vote and declare it null and void, and of no effect whatever, and direct that the amendment reported by the Committee on Legislation be reported to the Grand Lodge at its session of 1906 for such action as it may direct.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS: Grand Sire R. E. Wright under date of January 8th, 1906, writes the Grand Master as follows:

"At the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge held in Philadelphia Sept. 18-23, 1905, I was instructed by that body to call your attention to the law prohibiting public exhibition of costumes and paraphernalia used in conferring the degrees. The law upon this subject is found on page 141, paragraph 484, of Busbee's Digest, and is as follows:

"The costumes used in conferring lodge and encampment degrees form part of the paraphernalia belonging to the secret work, and it is improper to make a public display of them."—1890 Journal 11892, 12217, 12281.

"There has been frequent violation of this law which called for this action by our Supreme Body, and there is an urgent necessity for Grand Masters and Grand Patriarchs to impress their subordinates with the provisions of the law. The costumes and paraphernalia are not to be used in connection with any public functions of the Order, not even in connection with sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

"You will, therefore, call the attention of your subordinates to the law and instruct them to eliminate such exhibitions from all public exercises of the Order."

You will read this communication at your first regular meeting after receiving it, make a note on your records and file this letter for future reference. The law above quoted applies to Rebekah lodges, the same as to Subordinate lodges. I trust that in the future there will be no cause for criticism, so far as Illinois is concerned.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,
Grand Master.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS: It is very gratifying to me to inform you that the growth of our beloved Order in Illinois for the past five months has been phenomenal—unparalleled in the history of our jurisdiction. This is largely due to the active, earnest interest and work of the Lodge Deputies, the Noble Grands and other active earnest officers and members of the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges. I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks to all who have in any way assisted in this great revival in Odd Fellowship in Illinois. Remember that I shall expect each Subordinate Lodge and each Rebekah Lodge to make a net gain of fifteen and each Subordinate Lodge to raise at least $25.00 for the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home. Any lodge can do this that has one downright earnest member who will work and sacrifice, if necessary, for the good of Odd Fellowship.

Again thanking you for your valued assistance and assuring you of my best wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,
Grand Master.

DISPENSATIONS.

During the year I have granted 225 dispensations for entertainments of various kinds. Some lodges and associations are inclined to fail to ask for dispensations. While it is a great burden upon the Grand Master to examine carefully all these requests for dispensations yet it is the only safeguard. Every lodge, every association and every individual desiring to give any entertainment or excursion in the name of this Order should be required to live up to the law regulating the granting of dispensations.

SPECIAL RELIEF FUND.

During the year I had occasion to use this fund three times. On the day following the great calamity in California I directed the Grand Treasurer to send $2,000 to the Grand Master of that Jurisdiction. This amount has since been returned to this fund from the amount contributed for this purpose by the Subordinate lodges of Illinois. At the close of the Orphans' Home School, there were eleven graduates. Realizing that these children needed a little money—most of them going from the Home—I presented in behalf of the Order in Illinois a ten dollar gold coin to each one—making the total amount $110.00. I have also presented $200 to Brother John P. Foss, the aged member of Chicago Lodge No. 55. He is the only surviving charter member of this lodge and in great need. It was my wish that the lodge be the custodian of this money for Brother Foss and that some brother of the lodge take from seven to ten dollars of this amount each week and give to the brother to help him and his aged wife through the winter. Brother Chas. E. Boyer, Grand Marshal, a member of Chicago Lodge, was requested to carry out my wishes in this matter. The Special Relief Fund now exceeds $3,000 and I recommend that it be kept for future use. I also wish the Grand Lodge would instruct that all interest received from the investment of any moneys belonging to this fund be placed each year in the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, being equally divided between them.

APPEALS FOR AID.

The only appeal for aid that was sent out was for the sufferers in the California disaster mentioned elsewhere in this report. There were a few requests to make appeals for unfortunate members but I declined to grant the requests. I also refused to grant a single request to a lodge permitting it to mail tickets for an entertainment to all the lodges in this Jurisdiction. In my opinion this is a practice that should be stopped. If the case is deserving enough to even ask to be permitted to raise money in this way it is important enough to present to the Grand Master for his consideration and if found worthy to grant aid from the Special Relief Fund.

OTHER JURISDICTIONS.

During the year correspondence has been had with a number of other Jurisdictions and a most cordial adjustment was made in the cases presented.

MONTHLY REPORTS FROM DEPUTIES.

As will be observed in my letter to deputies I arranged for the deputy to report to me on the fifth of each month for the work done the previous month. More than four-fifths of the deputies complied with my request. I wished a report whether any work had been done or not. These reports have kept me informed of the work that was being done and at any time an intelligent estimate could be given of the progress of the Order in all parts of the Jurisdiction. In this way the Grand Master is the best informed one in the jurisdiction of the actual work of the Order. If he does not receive his information in this direct way he is at a loss as to what is being done and must work in a hap-hazard way instead of a systematic manner. I am satisfied that while it results in the necessity of writing many letters that it also saves the Grand Master from receiving hundreds of unpleasant communications. When the brothers and sisters are kept busy building up the Order and the deputy is interested in letting the Grand Master know what is being done there is neither much desire nor much time to spend in contention or in tearing the Order down. When a report was received showing that the lodge had made a decided increase in membership or had done any other specially commendable work, I have written such lodge a letter of congratulations and thanks. By thus working the lodges have realized that the Grand Master was paying special attention to what they were doing.

FRATERNAL PAPERS.

I am specially thankful to our two Fraternal Papers, the Odd Fellows Herald of Springfield and the Illinois Odd Fellow of Chicago. These papers have worked most faithfully and effectively for the advancement of our Order. Both of them merit liberal patronage by the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges and the brothers and sisters of our Jurisdiction. Nothing can succeed to any great extent without a friendly press devoted to its advancement and our Order has been somewhat tardy in realizing the great work done by the editors of publications devoted to Odd Fellowship.

REMOVALS.

During the year permission was given Joppa Lodge No. 135, of Hillerman, Ill., to move to Joppa.

I. O. O. F. CODE OF 1906.

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 1, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois—

DEAR BROTHERS: The Illinois I. O. O. F. Code of 1906, edited by Deputy Grand Master Fred B. Merrills, has been completed and a copy sent free of cost to every lodge in Illinois. This New Code is now the law of the Order in Illinois. It is a most excellent work, a credit to the Editor and also to the Order. It should be studied carefully for the purpose of conducting the affairs of our lodges in accordance with the law and well established customs. It should be kept in the lodge room and be in the special care of the Noble Grand and the Lodge Deputy. Any member of the Order may procure a copy of this Code by ordering the same from the Grand Secretary and upon the payment of Two Dollars. I am very much pleased indeed that this excellent work is now in every lodge room in our jurisdiction and trust that the brothers will become well informed as to our laws and regulations. The arrangement of the work and the index are so complete that it will not be difficult for even the inexperienced to become familiar with the laws governing the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

With best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

Report of Committee.

AURORA, ILL., Oct. 19th, 1906.

W. R. HUMPHREY, Grand Master I. O. O. F., Chicago, Ill.—

DEAR GRAND MASTER: The work of the Special Committee on the Revision of the Code having been completed, the Code under the direction of the printing committee having been printed and distributed by the Grand Secretary, we would respectfully report as follows: Since the report of the committee to Grand Master J. A. Lucas, found on page 23 Journal of 1905, three meetings have been held in your office in the city of Chicago, namely, Nov. 14th, 1905, Jan. 2nd, 1906, and Aug. 1st, 1906. Aside from these meetings, the business has been completed by correspondence and meetings during the last session of the Grand Lodge. Each part of the work has been gone over as carefully as the time available would permit, not only as to the plan and scope of the work as outlined, but also the completed work of the editor. The work of the committee and the free distribution of one copy of the completed Code to each Subordinate Lodge of the Jurisdiction has been conducted under the authority of report No. 68 found on page 313, Journal of 1905. The only vacancy on the committee, caused by your election as Grand Master, was filled by the appointment of Brother W. R. Payne, P. G. of No. 240, under authority of resolution No. 76, found on page 336, Journal of 1905. The completed work speaks for itself so that it is not deemed necessary to add anything further to our report of August 1st, 1906, found on the last page of the Code, other than to say that at the meeting of Nov. 14th, 1905, all members of the Committee were present (except P. G. M., C. S. Harris). John R. Camp, Chairman Printing Committee, and the editor, Fred B. Merrills, G. W., also were present. At the meeting of Jan. 2nd all members of the Committee were present, also the editor, Fred B. Merrills, D. G. M., and Henry Dinkelman of the Printing Committee. At the meeting of Aug. 1st all members of the Committee were present (except Brother Duncan McDougall), also the editor, Fred B. Merrills, D. G. M. You yourself were kind enough to be present at each meeting held this year.

The total expenses of the Revision Committee, including those of the editor in meeting with us, have been as follows:

Meeting of Nov. 14, 1905.....	33.80
Meeting of Jan. 2, 1906	50.10
Meeting of Aug. 1st, 1906.....	40.00
Postage, telegraph and telephone of Chairman for both years....	6.75
Postage of Secretary for the two years.....	3.00

Total expense of Revision Committee.....$215.21

The following is summary statement of the total expense of the Grand lodge for the completed work delivered to the Lodges:

Fred B. Merrills, Editorial Contract.....	$2,000.00
Phillips Bros., Springfield, Printing and binding.....	1,114.48
Revision Committee, Expenses.....	215.21
Printing Committee, Expenses	113.60
C. Ripley Tuttle, measuring work.....	5.00
John H. Sikes, G. S., postage delivering to lodges.....	135.00

Total $3,583.29

Number of copies issued as per order of the Grand Lodge, two thousand, making the total cost of each book a fraction less than $1.80.

In conclusion we desire to commend the excellent results secured by the editor in the compilation of our Code and to thank him for the courtesies he has extended this Committee.

We, your committee, are especially gratified to learn of the very general satisfaction expressed as to the completeness of this Code and Index by the officials of the Grand Lodge, by the Fraternal Press and the Order in general throughout our Jurisdiction.

Fraternally submitted,

HENRY A. STONE, P. G. M., Chairman,
J. R. KEWLEY, P. G. M., Secretary,
CHAS. S. HARRIS, P. G. M.,
DUNCAN McDougall, P. G.,
WM. R. PAYNE, P. G.,

SALARIES.

In my opinion the Grand Master of Illinois should receive a salary of $100 per month instead of $55.55 and be allowed office and traveling expenses to the amount of $600 a year instead of $500 and also a stenographer at a salary of $50.00 per month instead of $40.00. In my opinion the Grand Secretary should now receive a salary of $2,000 a year instead of $1,800 and be allowed a clerk at a salary of $75.00 per month, the same as heretofore, and also a stenographer at a salary of $50.00 per month, instead of $40.00. The Grand Treasurer should be paid a salary of $50.00 per month, and the funds of the Order placed in two or more depositories throughout the state, the same to be selected by the Grand Treasurer and approved by the Grand Master, upon the recommendation of the Finance Committee, and the interest allowed on such funds to be placed to the credit of this Grand Lodge. In the matter of the increase of the amount of the allowance to the Grand Master it is but just, and while our Order cannot afford to be extravagant, yet neither can it afford to be unfair to any one. If a Grand Master gives his time he should not be compelled to expend his own private funds for the purpose of conducting the work of the office of Grand Master. The allowance of $600 for expenses should be paid, or as much of it as the Grand Master may need, which will depend largely upon what he does. It appears to me that the increase of the Grand Secretary's salary to $2,000, an increase of $200.00, is reasonable. The stenographers' salaries should be $50.00 per month instead of $40.00. A good stenographer competent to do the work of these offices earns a salary of at least this amount. In the matter of changing the plan in regard to paying a salary to the Grand Treasurer, in my opinion, this should be done in justice to the Grand Treasurer and as a safeguard to the funds of the Grand Lodge. We shall not always have the present Grand Treasurer, whose honesty is absolutely unquestioned. This change would not question his honesty nor the honesty of his successor, but would place our finances in a more safe and on a sane basis. The strongest business safeguards should be thrown around every dollar of the funds belonging to our Order. The total yearly increase here recommended is as follows: Salary of Grand Master, $533.34; expenses of Grand Master, $100; salary of Grand Secretary, $200; salaries of the two stenographers, $240; salary of the Grand Treasurer, $600. Total $1,673.34. There would be a credit of about $600 for the interest received on deposits, making the net increase not to exceed $1,100.00.

DEATH OF BROTHER SAMSON—VACANCY FILLED.

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 21, 1906.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

DEAR BROTHERS: Brother C. B. Samson, of Chicago, died at his home August 26th. He had been ill for more than a year and hopes were entertained for his recovery until a short time before his death. Brother Samson was at the time of his death a member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. He had served on this Committee for many years and also had often been a member of the Committee on Legislation and other important committees of the Grand Lodge. His membership was in Templar Lodge, No. 440, I. O. O. F. He was an able lawyer and a most beautiful character. Every one who knew him recognized in him a perfect gentleman. He had been a member of the Grand Lodge for more than a quarter of a century and he will be sadly missed in the work of that body. He leaves a heart-broken wife to mourn his loss and she has the sympathy of our entire membership.

To fill the vacancy caused by the death of Brother Samson, I have appointed Brother Ed. H. Taylor, of Deering Lodge, No. 717, I. O. O. F.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

W. R. HUMPHREY,

Grand Master.

CHANGE OF LANGUAGE.

During the year Teutonia Rebekah Lodge, No. 226, I. O. O. F., of Quincy, changed from the German to the English language.

CONSOLIDATIONS.

American Rebekah Lodge, No. 188, I. O. O. F., of Chicago, and Bernice Rebekah Lodge, No. 556, I. O. O. F., of Chicago, were consolidated under the name and number of American Rebekah Lodge, No. 188, on January 16th, 1906, by Brother James Ewing Davis, of Chicago.

Ottawa Lodge, No. 41, I. O. O. F., of Ottawa, Ill., and Lessing Lodge, No. 326, I. O. O. F., of Ottawa, Ill., were consolidated under the name and number of Ottawa Lodge, No. 41, on the 12th of July, 1906, by Brother Theodore Finn, of Chicago.

NEW REGALIA FOR GRAND LODGE OFFICERS.

While not specifically instructed to do so, I decided to procure a set of regalia for the officers of the Grand Lodge to remain the property of the Grand Lodge. An amount of $200 was expended for this purpose and I trust my action in this matter will meet the approval of this Grand Lodge. It seemed to me we could afford this expense this year, especially as we made a net saving of over $500 on this year's per capita tax by retaining more than 600 members that would in all probability have been lost had not special and exceptional work been done to save them.

BONDS.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge requires its Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary to each furnish surety company bonds and long ago dispensed with personal bonds. It is my opinion that the Grand Lodge of Illinois should also require its Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary to be bonded in a more modern business-like way. The personal bond is a cumbersome, unsafe way to bond these officers. This requirement of bonds should be put on a safe business basis as early as possible.

The trustees of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home required the Superintendent to furnish a surety bond of $1,000 and the secretary has given a similar bond of $2,000 and at my request the Directors of the Orphans' Home required a bond of $1,000 for the present Superintendent of that Home. The Secretary of that Board should also give a bond for $2,000.

THE NEW GRAND SIRE.

At the recent session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in Toronto, Past Grand Master E. S. Conway, and who was six times the unanimous choice of this Grand Lodge for Grand Representative, was chosen by a unanimous vote as the Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, being the first time in the history of our Order that a member from the Jurisdiction of Illinois was so honored. It is a source of much satisfaction that we realize that a more able and a more deserving brother could not have been selected. Upon his return to his home in Oak Park after the session, on Thursday evening, September 27th, the lodge of which he is a member, Cicero Lodge, No. 217, extended to him a magnificent reception. On Saturday evening of the same week, September 29th, 130 Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of Cook County joined in a wonderful demonstration in his honor at the Auditorium. Every one of the nearly 4,000 seats had been procured in addition to box seats and the 200 seats on the stage. Orders for nearly 1,000 seats could not be filled. It was a wonderful expression of love and esteem for the new Grand Sire and it doubtless made his heart beat faster to know that those who know him best love him most. Many prominent members of the Order in our own Jurisdiction were present and also Past Grand Representative W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary of the Jurisdiction of Indiana, who came from his home in Indianapolis to be present at this wonderful meeting. He brought with him the greetings from our sister Jurisdiction and his earnest words of encouragement were much appreciated. The following was the program of that evening: Organ recital, Harrison M. Wild; Orphans' Song, by audience, led by Harry Scott, soloist, Orphans' Home Band; prayer, Dr. J. A. Lucas, Past Grand Master; introductory, W. S. Adams, President Deputies' Association; quartette, Chadwick Brothers; selection, Prof. W. W. Carnes; cornet solo, Harry Scott; address, William Rodgers Humphrey, Grand Master; quartette, Chadwick Brothers; address, Edwin Stapelton Conway, Grand Sire; closing song, "The Old Folks' Home Song," by audience, led by Harry Scott.

In a letter written to all Grand Masters soon after his election, Grand Sire Conway said: "I am convinced that if our Order succeeds to the extent it should succeed that we must put forth a systematic effort—all working together for the same end. I wish to assure you that if there is anything that I can do to assist you in your Jurisdiction it will be cheerfully done. I very much desire that our Order increase at least ten percent each year hereafter and I trust to receive the hearty co-operation of your Jurisdiction. The present Grand Master of Illinois, Brother Wm. R. Humphrey, by a systematic plan in which he has sought to both increase the membership and to retain the members the lodges now have, has succeeded in making a net gain of about 7,000—a gain of about ten per cent. The usual increase is about five per cent and hence this additional increase may be credited to his systematic work. The Grand Master should take the initiative and set forth something definite for which to work. In Illinois the Grand Master made a special request that each Subordinate lodge and each Rebekah lodge make a net gain of fifteen and lodges in endeavoring to do this have many of them gained many times that number, while all have done better than if they had not been working with a definite aim. A good plan would be to set aside a night for the initiatory work two or three weeks in advance and during this time let the Noble Grand urge each member of the lodge to secure every application possible and this might be done about four times every year. This would result not only in a decided increase in membership but in the usefulness of our great Order in like ratio. Shall be pleased to hear from you at your early convenience and if convenient once a month. If you could arrange to receive a report from every lodge in your Jurisdiction once a month through your deputy or through the secretary of the lodge it would aid you very much in knowing the actual situation. This plan has worked most successfully in Illinois.”

ILLINOIS ODD FELLOWS' LEAGUE.

I am of the opinion that this Organization has, probably unintentionally, assumed to use the name of the Order to an extent never intended to be delegated to it by this Grand Lodge. It conducts entertainments, excursions, raffles and rummage sales in the name of the Order without asking the dispensation of the Grand Master. It is certainly not the desire of this Grand Lodge to delegate to any organization in matters of this kind greater rights than are accorded to the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges of this Jurisdiction. Also letters of appeal should not be sent out to the lodges without the approval of the Grand Master.

DEGREE STAFFS TO EXEMPLIFY THE DEGREES.

Inasmuch as we usually have no session of the Grand Lodge on Wednesday evening of the week of our Grand Lodge and after consulting with other Grand Officers and members, I decided to engage Central Music Hall for that evening, November 21st, and to invite four degree staffs to confer the degrees. The following lodges were extended an invitation by me to do this work, the expenses of the staff to be paid by the lodge or the members of the staff: John Ericsson Lodge, No. 361, Chicago, the Initiatory degree; Sangamon Lodge, No. 6, Springfield, the First Degree; “I Will” Lodge, No. 141, Chicago, the Second Degree;

Cook County Lodge, No. 240, Chicago, the Third Degree. Every representative who can do so should witness this work and fully realize the beauty of the work when the degrees are conferred in a creditable manner. We have a large number of degree staffs in Illinois that do the work well and it was not difficult to secure degree staffs upon condition that the expenses of the staffs be paid. In my opinion the Grand Lodge has heretofore wisely decided not to incur an annual expense for this purpose and therefore I extended the invitation and it was accepted upon the conditions mentioned herein. I shall appoint a special committee of three to witness this work and report to this Grand Lodge on Thursday, November, 22d.

CHANGE OF NAME.

The name of South Englewood Lodge No. 448, I. O. O. F., of Chicago, was changed to Gresham Lodge No. 448, on the 23d of October, 1906.

THE REBEKAH LODGES.

Reports from the deputies of Rebekah lodges indicate an active interest in the work of the Order and the increase in membership has been fairly satisfactory. There have been but very few complaints brought to my attention and I am of the opinion that the Rebekah lodges are working with less friction than in former years. The district meetings that have been held under the direction of the President of the Rebekah State Assembly have been the means of educating the members to such an extent that they are reasonably well informed as to what should be done in order to successfully conduct the affairs of a Rebekah Lodge. Elsewhere in this report will be shown that a large number of Rebekah lodges have been closed by my direction. Many of these lodges had been dormant for many years—some of them for six or seven years. It is my belief that a dormant lodge is a discredit to the Order. Sister Lina D. Carlin, President of the Rebekah State Assembly, succeeded in reviving quite a number of Rebekah lodges and put forth much effort to revive these lodges, but failed to do so. She took the matter up with me and we agreed upon the lodges that should be closed. The Rebekah lodge and the Subordinate lodge should work together in perfect harmony and as a rule they do so in this Jurisdiction. We have reason to be pleased with the good work of our sisters and they are entitled to and should receive the encouragement of the brothers of the Subordinate Lodges. I have endeavored as much as possible to refer the affairs of the Rebekah lodges to the President of the Assembly and by my request she selected the passwords for the Rebekah lodges.

FIRST REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RAILROADS.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., October 4, 1906.

Mr. W. R. Humphrey, G. M., I. O. O. F. of Illinois, Chicago, Ill.—

SIR AND GRAND MASTER: We, your Railroad Committee of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, have the honor and pleasure of submitting to you our official acts in the matter of securing railroad rates for the coming session of the Grand Lodge.

We beg to report that we have secured an open rate of one fare plus twenty-five cents for the round trip to Springfield and return over all lines in the Central and Western Passenger Associations.

This rate can be secured by anyone desiring to come to Springfield on the date of ticket sale. Tickets can be purchased on November 18, 19, 20 and 21, but must be used on the day of purchase. The return limit on tickets is November 24th, 1906.

We herewith submit a list of railroads in each of the above named Associations which will participate in this rate.

Central Passenger Association Lines.

B. & O. S-W. R. R.,	I., I. & I. R. R.,	T. P. & W. Ry.,
Big Four Route,	L. E. & W. R. R.,	Vandalia Line,
C. & E. I. R. R.,	L. & N. R. R.,	Wabash R. R. (east of
T., St. L. & W. R. R.,	Southern Ry. (St. Louis	Tolono),
C. H. & D. Ry.,	Div.),

Western Passenger Association Lines.

C. & A. Ry.,	A., T. & S. F. Ry.,	Wisconsin Central Ry.,
C. & N-W. Ry.,	C. & E. I. R. R.,	St. L. I. M. & S. Ry.,
C. G. W. Ry.,	C. P. & St. L. Ry.,	(Illinois Div.),
Iowa Central R. R.,	Illinois Central Ry.,	C., M. & St. P. Ry.
Wabash R. R.,

We deem the Grand Lodge fortunate in securing this favorable rate and particularly in being able to do away with the certificate plan which heretofore prevailed.

Fraternally yours,

E. S. CONWAY,

W. H. BEAN,

JAMES HENRY HARRIS.

REPORTS OF THE CHIEF AND ASSISTANT CHIEF OF EXAMINERS AND INSTRUCTORS.

Chief of Examiners and Instructors, Grand Lodge, Illinois, I. O. O. F.

JERSEYVILLE, Oct. 20, 1906.

Hon. W. R. Humphrey, Grand Master I. O. O. F.—

DEAR GRAND MASTER: Conformably to the requirements of the law, I have the honor to present my Annual Report as Chief of Examiners and Instructors in the unwritten work. On Monday, November 20th, 1905, in conjunction with Henry A. Stone, P. G. M., Assistant Chief, I held a School of Instruction in the afternoon and evening, more particularly to verify the proficiency of those who had held Commissions during the year, and also to examine any new applicants who were present desirous of being appointed.

These meetings were well attended, and we found enough properly qualified in the work to assist in making examinations of those desirous of being examined during the Grand Lodge week.

From the examinations then made by Brother Stone, myself and other Official Examiners, I prepared a list of Official Examiners and Instructors for the year, which list I sent you early in December, and by your direction they were duly commissioned, there being 60 in number—forty-one Official Examiners and Instructors, and nineteen Official Instructors.

Since Commissions were sent to the original list mentioned, two have been recommended for appointment as Official Examiners and Instructors, and seven as Official Instructors, and the nine were duly commissioned, to-wit:

Official Examiners and Instructors:

Ira W. Mullen.....Danville.
Chas. A. Hurd.....Marseilles.

John RenstromCambridge.
James YoungMahomet.
A. M. HouserOttawa.
J. J. McDermit.....Smithfield.
Wm. ShepardLebanon.
Ira B. Apperson.....Louisville.
George ColeyTuscola.

From the report of Brother Stone, Assistant Chief, and the reports received from other Official Examiners and Official Instructors, although not many regular schools have been held for instruction in the unwritten work, a fair degree of interest is still manifest throughout the State, and Illinois maintains its position in the front in this branch of the work of the Order.

Many Lodges have secured the cipher key, and where they have brothers who have learned the work, the key enables them to keep the work correctly, while to those not in possession of the work, the key is of little, if any, help.

As heretofore, with Brother Henry A. Stone, I will hold a school Monday, Nov. 19th, the day preceding the approaching Grand Lodge session, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Fourth and Monroe streets, Springfield, to which all Representatives and Past Grands will be welcome.

Thanking you for my appointment, and earnestly congratulating you upon your active, earnest work, by which the membership has been so largely augmented this year, I am, with high regard,

Sincerely and fraternally,

W. E. CARLIN,
Chief of Examiners and Instructors.

AURORA, ILL., Oct. 17, 1906.

Hon. W. R. Humphrey, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., Chicago.—

DEAR GRAND MASTER: In accordance with the laws of the Order, as well as a pleasant duty to myself, I beg to report to you my official acts during the fiscal year, as your Assistant Chief of Examiners and Instructors.

The most of my official acts were during the week of Grand Lodge of last November, a summary of which was reported to you under date of Dec. 2nd, 1905.

A general school of Examiners and Instructors was held in I. O. O.

F. hall, Springfield, Monday afternoon and evening, November 20th, 1905, in connection with Brother W. E. Carlin, Chief of Examiners and Instructors. At these meetings and during the session of the Grand Lodge meeting the following brothers were examined in the unwritten work and were reported to me personally, to-wit:

A total of fifteen examiners and instructors and eleven as instructors only.

The Journal of 1905, page 482, shows that thirty-eight examiners and instructors and nineteen instructors had passed successfully examination, and been appointed up to the time the Journal went to press, making the total fifty-seven. Others have been commissioned since then but none have been reported to me.

Inasmuch as the last session of the Grand Lodge wisely passed the resolution so long recommended by your Chief and Assistant Chief, found on page 304, Document 53 of 1905 Journal, I desire to request that you kindly furnish Chief and Assistant Chief, not later than Monday, Nov. 19th, 1906, the names of all commissioned instructors who may have reported their official acts direct to you, by Oct. 15th as requested, as no brother holding commissions this year who may fail to comply

The jurisdiction of Illinois, as regards all branches of the Order, enjoys the proud distinction of being in the foremost rank in all those matters that relate to a better understanding of the work, and a determination and desire to excel in it. The Rebekah branch has, in this as in other phases of fraternal exemplifications, kept fully abreast with the times, in fact it was the desire of the members to keep themselves informed in the unwritten work that caused the office of chief of instructors to be created in order that the examiners and instructors throughout the jurisdiction might have an official to whom they could look for authority to act.

It was this thought that caused the creation of district assemblies, through the medium of which the spirit and enthusiasm incidental to the state assembly might be diffused throughtout a greater area, thus affording to a larger number the benefit accruing therefrom.

It has been my privilege and pleasure to visit various districts in the state, and I am very glad to be permitted to report that the interest in the work is unabating, and the desire for knowledge of its details undiminished.

I would deem myself as derelict in the performance of a most pleasant duty did I close this report without commending you for the splendid effort that you have made, the magnificent results obtained as Grand Master, and to say in connection with your work, that you were unfailing in fulfilling the many demands made upon you by the chief of instructors, at the same time evincing a courtesy so splendid, and so freely given as to deserve my most profound thanks, and which I do herein publicly extend.

Yours fraternally,

NELLIE L. HARRIS,

Chief of Instructors.

GRAND LODGE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

First Report by Brother James Ewing Davis of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report that they met in the office of the Grand Secretary on the 12th day of May, A. D. 1906, and made a careful inventory of the stock of supplies and fixtures on hand, and for a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements as well as an inventory, see Grand Secretary's Report.

Your Committee checked up the office, and found the business conducted in a very satisfactory manner, and the funds and property of the Grand Lodge duly and properly accounted for.

The receipts of the office for the six months ending April 30th, 1906, were as follows:

Aged Odd Fellows' Fund	$ 41.79
Donations to Orphans' Home.....	96.00

Total$38,902.36

We have also examined and audited the bills for current and contingent expenses of the Grand Secretary's Office for the six months ending April 30th, 1906, amounting to the sum of $1,655.79.

We found that the same is a necessary expenditure, and that proper vouchers are on file, and we recommend that the secretary's bill therefor be allowed.

The profit on the first six months' business, from November 1st, to April 30th, 1906, on supplies was $926.00.

The following lodges were delinquent both in the matter of capita-tion tax and reports, May 1st, 1906:

The following lodges have been consolidated: 2 and 17.

The following lodges have been closed: 181, 424 and 705.

The following lodges which were delinquent November 1st, 1905, are still delinquent: 168, 187, 559, 586, 737, 802 and 854.

Fraternally submitted,

JAMES EWING DAVIS,

GEORGE F. KOESTER,

E. H. KINNEY.

Second Report by Brother George F. Koester of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

Your Committee on Finance begs leave to report as follows:

We visited the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, on Tuesday, Oct. 9th, 1906, and met with the Board of Trustees and Advisory Board of the Home, and audited their books and accounts, from Oct. 15th, 1905, to and including Oct. 10th, 1906, and find the same correct.

Your Committee desires to commend the business like manner in which the Board of Trustees have transacted their business, and also desires to compliment the Secretary of the Board, for the excellent manner in which his books are kept.

We find the total receipts including Grand Lodge appropriations	$24,107.13
Total disbursements	17,860.13
Balance on hand	$ 6,247.00

Made up as follows:

Building Fund	$2,520.00
Maintenance	3,255.49
Repair Fund	2.09
Elevator Fund	110.00
Henry Ebert Fund	53.77
Cemetery Fund	55.65
Heater Fund	100.00
Well Fund	150.00
Total	$6,247.00

The condition of the Home and Farm are certainly commendable, and a credit to our noble institution. The Home last year was decorated throughout, and the work was exceptionally well done at a very reasonable contract.

The boilers in the Home are old and in bad repair, and should immediately be thoroughly overhauled or replaced with new ones. We might here suggest that the proposition of a central heating plant, outside of and away from the main building, which would also take care of any additional buildings, which, from the present outlook will be needed in the very near future, should now be fully considered.

There are at present at the Home, 65 people, 55 brothers, and 10 sisters, and from the number of applications that are coming in, it is only a question of a short time when additional quarters will have to be provided. This should, therefore, in making your appropriations, not be lost sight of, so that provision might be made to take care of our future requirements.

The appropriation made last year for building a new barn, is still intact, it not being sufficient to do the work that was thought necessary. An additional appropriation is asked for this year so as to put a sufficient sum in that fund to do the work as it should be done.

The following is the appropriation that will be needed for the following year:

Maintenance	$15,000.00
Repairs	750.00
Cemetery	100.00
Central heating plant.....	5,000.00
Additional for barn, (building fund).....	1,500.00
Total	$22,350.00

Fraternally submitted,

GEORGE F. KOESTER,
EDGAR H. KINNEY,
JAMES EWING DAVIS.

Third Report by Brother E. H. Kinney of No. 726.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.—

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows: We visited the Orphans' Home at Lincoln, on Wednesday, Oct. 10th, 1906, and there met the Trustees and Advisory Board.

We found the general condition of the Home to be first class. That it was being ably and economically managed by the Trustees and the present Superintendent (Bro. Lucas); that all money received was properly accounted for.

We find, however, that but few books are kept, those interested depending on stubs, receipts and other loose papers. We would, therefore, recommend that the Trustees and Superintendent be asked to keep a complete set of books, so that, in years to come, the Grand Lodge (through the proper officer or committee) may look back and find any item or records desired.

We find they needed a team of horses for farm work, hauling, etc., and that the Trustees purchased a team of mares weighing 1800 lbs., at a cost of $700.00. Your committee are of the opinion that a much better team was purchased than was necessary.

After investigating the old heating plants in the different buildings, we are of the opinion that extensive repairs must be made at once in some of the apparatus, and in some buildings new boilers should be placed before winter. The matter of a central heating plant has been presented to the lodges of the State, and, as this matter is to come before the Grand Lodge, your Committee deems that it is unnecessary, at this time, to make any recommendation.

We find the receipts and disbursements to be:

Cash balance on hand	$ 5,824.72
Grand Lodge appropriations	20,039.50
Received from donations, farm, guardians, estates, etc.	1,980.16

Total	$27,844.38
Disbursements as per vouchers	22,625.05

Balance in hands of Grand Treasurer	$ 5,219.30

Which said balance is divided as follows:

Balance in Maintenance Fund	$ 2,773.69
Balance in Repair Fund	2,445.61

$ 5,219.30

We find that Dr Lucas has turned over to the Endowment Fund $120.00 for lectures delivered by him; also $85.50 received from picnic

Respectfully submitted,

E. H. KINNEY,
JAMES EWING DAVIS,
GEO. F. KOESTER,

Committee.

Fourth Report by Brother James Ewing Davis of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the resolution of Representative William A. Hubbard of No. 342, referring to this committee the reports of the Trustees of the Old Folks' and Orphans' Homes, as presented in the report of the Grand Master, 1905, pages 51-115, with instructions to report to the Grand Secretary before the Journal of Proceedings was printed. (See resolution Grand Lodge Journal, 1905, page 336.)

Your committee, from an examination of these reports as published, was of the opinion that this work could not be properly done without having before them the original books from which the entries were taken in preparing the reports, and consequently postponed this work until the annual visit of the committee to the Homes in October, 1906. On October the 9th, 1906, your committee met at Mattoon, and checked up the report of the Trustees with the original books of the Home, and compared each item as published in the report with the original entries. Your committee made a very careful examination and audit of the published report and books, and found a number of clerical and typographical errors.

Your committee found the total cash receipts collected, as per report, $6,837.09. To this should be added the sum of $135.00, made up of several small items which through an omission did not appear in the published report, making the total receipts $6,972.09.

Your committee found that there had been remitted to the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer the sum of $4,691.11, and also the Ebert Fund $300.00, making $4,991.11.

Your committee further reports that after the audit was made, it met the former Secretary, and the former members of the Board of Trustees, and that the above figures were found to be correct.

Your committee would further report that it has received the difference between the total receipts, $6,972.09, and the amount previously remitted to the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, $4,991.11, namely: $1,980.98, which had been held pending the report of this committee, and the above amount has been turned over by this committee to the Grand Secretary, to be credited to the maintenance account of the Old Folks' Home, which will appear in the report of the Trustees of the Home next year, as their report for the previous year had already been closed. The statement of disbursements as published, with the exception of a few errors made by the printer, was substantially correct.

Your committee would further report that on the 10th of October, 1906, they met at Lincoln, and checked up the receipts and disbursements of the Orphans' Home as shown in the Grand Lodge Journal of 1905, pages 55 to 71, both inclusive, and found the following:

Receipts.

Balance on hand	$ 5,402.93
Grand Lodge appropriations	21,500.00
Receipts from donations, sales, etc.	2,136.08
	$29,039.01
Donations direct to Grand Secretary	38.55
Total receipts		$29,077.56

Disbursements.

Vouchers 2372 to 2641	$22,752.84
Transferred to Chalmers Fund	500.00
		<hr/>

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES EWING DAVIS,
GEORGE F. KOESTER,
E. H. KINNEY.

Fifth Report by Brother George F. Koester of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

Your Committee on Finance begs leave to report that in their examinations of the affairs at the Orphans' Home and at the Old Folks' Home, they at neither place found that there had ever been kept a complete inventory of all the personal property of said Homes, and we would therefore suggest that the Board of Trustees of each Home be requested to at once make, and at all times keep, a complete inventory of such personal property in their care.

Fraternally submitted,

GEORGE F. KOESTER,
EDGAR H. KINNEY,
JAMES EWING DAVIS.

Sixth Report by Brother E. H. Kinney of No. 726.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report that they met in the office of the Grand Secretary on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1906, and made a careful inventory of the stock of supplies and fixtures on hand, and have made a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements as well as an inventory, see Grand Secretary's report.

Your committee checked up the office and found the business conducted in a very satisfactory manner and the funds and property of the Grand Lodge duly and properly accounted for.

The office receipts for the six months ending October 31, 1906, were as follows:

Total	$32,431.75

The profit on the second six months' business, from May 1st, 1906, to November 1st, 1906, on supplies was $806.03.

We have examined and audited the bills for current and contingent expenses of the Grand Secretary's office for the six months ending November 1st, 1906, amounting to the sum of $718.46.

We find that the same is a necessary and proper expenditure and that regular vouchers are on file in the Grand Secretary's office, and we recommend that the Secretary's bills therefor be allowed.

The following Lodges were delinquent both in the matter of Capitation tax and reports, November 1st, 1906: 32, 33, 63, 66, 77, 84, 100, 122, 144, 149, 152, 168, 175, 177, 187, 207, 217, 269, 272, 279, 280, 283, 317, 335, 367, 370, 379, 382, 386, 388, 399, 414, 468, 470, 490, 502, 503, 516, 517, 537, 540, 550, 556 563, 580, 581, 586, 591, 592, 644, 654, 662, 680, 682, 693, 695, 700, 707, 709, 736, 737, 766, 785, 788, 802, 814, 815, 819, 822, 833, 846, 850, 854, 864, 867, 869, 882, 896, 907, 916.

The following Lodges were delinquent in their semi-annual reports November 1, 1906: 11, 71, 139, 218, 233, 284, 298, 351, 358, 436, 445, 481, 507, 696, 704, 738, 774 and 927.

The following Lodges were short in their remittance, November 1st, 1906: 52, .05c; 218, 45c; 413, .05c; 511, 10c; 765, $1.00.

The following Lodges sent their report but no money was remitted: 403 and 476.

The following Lodges which were delinquent May 1st, 1906, are still delinquent: 122, 168, 187, 317, 367, 424, 586, 680, 737, 802, 854 and 882.

The following Lodges have been consolidated: 41 and 326.

Fraternally,

E. H. KINNEY,

GEORGE F. KOESTER.

JAMES EWING DAVIS.

IN CONCLUSION.

It is with pleasure and much satisfaction that I now surrender this office to my successor and wish for him the same earnest, helpful support that has been extended to me throughout the year. I am pleased to surrender it because the sacrifice in time and expense has been almost greater than I could bear and I surrender it with great satisfaction because the work that I outlined to do has been accomplished. To do the work of this office has required all of my time—an average of more than ten hours for every day during the year. Notwithstanding it has been to me a year of great personal sacrifice, yet it has been the happiest year of my life because it has been devoted entirely to the service of others without financial compensation and without thought of special reward. I have endeavored to leave myself out of consideration entirely and to do in every particular what I believed for the best interest of the Order. I have placed the welfare of this Order above all else. It is a great satisfaction to realize the work that has been accomplished and I am deeply grateful to my brothers for their assistance and encouragement. I wish to specially thank the deputies, the noble grands and the other active, earnest and efficient officers and members of the Subordinate and Rebekah lodges. They have made it possible for the year to be a successful one. Then, too, I wish to acknowledge the great assistance of the Grand Secretary, Brother John H. Sikes. He is a most efficient officer and he has cheerfully aided me in every way possible. Never have I requested him to do for me any work that he did not gladly do and I wish to thank him for his valued assistance. The President of the Rebekah State Assembly, Sister Lina D. Carlin, has been of very great help to me in my work. She has done excellent work in keeping up the enthusiastic interest in the Rebekah lodges and in maintaining harmony. If the Rebekah lodge is working harmoniously it is a stimulus to the Subordinate Lodge. I am deeply thankful and grateful to this good sister for her splendid work and for her beautiful pure, and unselfish life. I also wish to specially thank Deputy Grand Master Fred B. Merrills, Grand Warden Owen Scott, Past Grand Master John W. Yantis, Past Grand Master M. P. Berry, Past Grand Master J. R. Kewley and Grand Sire E. S. Conway, for their willing and effective help in many matters pertaining to the Order. Also my thanks are extended to the scores of special deputies that have done so much to assist in the work during the year, and to all others who have in any way assisted in the work of the year I extend my thanks.

I wish to assure you, my brothers, that I have appreciated your friendship and the high honor you conferred upon me in electing me Grand Master and I thank you for both. I trust that I have done my work in such a manner as to give you no cause to regret your action. I appreciate being elected Grand Master, because it has given me a greater opportunity to work in behalf of this Order which is so dear to all of us.

Again assuring you of my appreciation of your great assistance and with full confidence in the future of our Order, I submit to you this my report for your consideration.

Yours sincerely and fraternally,

To the Grand Master:

The annual duty of reporting to you and through you to the Grand Lodge and the members of the Order is specially agreeable and pleasant to us because of the interest amounting to enthusiasm with which you have during the year entered into all our work and our plans for the future. As a board we have been greatly assisted and encouraged by your frequent visits and wise suggestions.

The death of our Sister L. L. Morrison, Nov. 26, 1905, was the greatest misfortune ever suffered by the Home. Mrs. Morrison was not only our first superintendent, but she had for years been active in arousing the fraternal sentiment which resulted in the creation of the Home. Her work done here was the ripest fruit of her life. Her influence with the children was complete and always for good. Her government firm but her ministrations motherly, gentle and affectionate. Her character strengthened with the years of service and the high degree of confidence which the board came to repose in her was shared as we believe by the members of the Order throughout the State.

While not wholly unexpected, her death came as a stunning blow to those at the Home and the board took several months in considering the matter of appointing a successor, the result being that Rev. J. A. Lucas, P. G. M., and his estimable wife, were appointed respectively Superintendent and Matron of the Home. Both have entered into the life of the Home with conscientious zeal and enthusiasm. Brother Lucas has a varied talent suitable to the lines of work required in such a station and we feel that the wisdom of these selections will be surely verified by the future.

Owen Scott

How to Gain Admittance.

Lodges or guardians wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Lucas, at Lincoln for a blank form of application, this to be filled and signed by the guardian and Lodge (under seal) of which the father was a member at the time of his death. The application should be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter. Parties making application will be notified as soon as practicable thereafter.

All applications coming before the Board are carefully considered as eligibility and individual merits demand.

Lodges or guardians are expected to provide children with at least one change of clothing before sending them to the Home.

Cash Donations, Etc.

The following, given in detail, are the cash receipts by donations and otherwise during the year. Useful and valuable articles have been given as in former years, but as they have been duly acknowledged in The Odd Fellows' Herald and The Illinois Odd Fellow, from time to time, it seems unnecessary to again enumerate them, as they would require much space and expense.

Belmer, $4.00, Warren Co., dormitory, Sister Glazier, 1st Dis. Chicago, $10.00, where needed; Rockford R. L., $5.00, for mattress.

The Health of the Home.

While we have had quite a little sickness during the year there has been but one or two cases of serious illness. Death has not invaded our Home or taken any of our former children. We had some cases of scarlatina during the year about which we felt greatly anxious, but all were in comparatively light form and no bad results have followed. The whooping cough paid its unwelcome regards to us but both of these troubles are now of the past and we greatly wish that they may never again encroach upon our territory, for they are not welcome.

Drs. Wilson, Prince and Goebel have been ever ready to meet every demand made upon them for the comfort of the children.

We constantly pray for our heavenly Father's presence and His kind protection over us.

Excursion.

True to his natural instinct and great love for the Homes, Grand Master Humphrey arranged for an excursion of all the people of the Home to the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon. This was successfully carried out on the 15th day of June. A special train was chartered. The train was loaded with the Home folks and friends from Lincoln and without a jar we were landed at, and returned from, Mattoon.

The day at Mattoon was ideal. Everybody was happy and the crowd was very large and enthusiastic. The two Homes were met. The old vied with the young. Col. Wyman and his good wife, assisted by the Odd Fellows of Mattoon, made the occasion one of the noted events of the year, yea, of the Order. Brother Humphrey will be in the minds of all who were there for many a year to come. The Mattoon picnic was a pronounced success.

The Band.

Better than ever! That is certainly true. The boys are thoroughly equipped. They wear new uniforms and have new instruments. They were purchased with their own earnings. We expect greater work this year than ever before. Why not? Every year should be an improvement on the past.

Prof. Geo. D. Barnard is still teaching our band. To know this is to know enough about what is being done.

Repairs on Buildings.

The buildings have been quite generally overhauled and yet there is much to be done. The girls' cottages have been redecorated throughout and all the metal beds have been re-enameled. All the buildings have been re-painted on the outside. The inside of the buildings needs revarnishing which will be done as soon as the Board feel that they have the means at hand to do so.

With the aid of the gift of the Assembly of $250.00 the main building has been very greatly improved in many of the dormitories. And these good sisters can never really know the value of this gift, year by year, unless they personally inspect the work the money accomplishes. $63.50, the balance, to be used on kitchen.

School, Music, Etc.

The last year has been a very fruitful one in point of work done. While there were not so many graduates in the class yet each one did nobly and we hope for our boys and girls better things. The school work is up to the standard. We follow as closely as we can the State course of study, hence when the work of the eighth grade is done in our school the pupil is admitted to the high school without examination.

Commencement day was marked by a new regime. The Grand Master not only presented the diplomas and made the baccalaureate address, but presented each member of the class with ten dollars in gold out of a fund at his command.

Grand Master W. R. Humphrey delivered one of his characteristic addresses in such a forceful way that the members of the class and the friends present will scarcely forget. The Grand Secretary, J. H. Sikes, gave the class some good advice. The Assembly hall was crowded with many guests. A program in which each graduate took part was carried out. The music was under the direction of our capable teacher, Miss Peters.

No changes were made in the corps of teachers for the year.

Religious and Moral Training.

It is the constant aim of the management to give the best possible direction and throw around these young lives an environment that will bind them to the best of all there is in life. It is our endeavor to make this an ideal Home. That, it seems, is the best solution of the problem as best how to make the children strong in noble character.

Industrial Training.

We sincerely hope the time is not far off when the best of training in the cooking school and trades will be a part of the discipline in this noblest work. Should not the girl know how to keep house and prepare the best of wholesome meals when she goes out in the world to mingle with active, busy cares? Is it any the less important that our boy should know how, in a systematic way, to cope with the trained hand, head and heart of others with whom he must come in touch? We are doing our best to prepare these dear children that God has seen fit to place in the care of the Odd Fellows of the great State of Illinois. While it is a great responsibility it is a great opportunity for the practice of our principles. It likewise furnishes a chance to conquer our selfishness and subdue our ambitions for the good of our brother.

Conclusion.

Another year has passed. For every blessing received and every favor granted we are devoutly thankful.

The friends from every part of the State have assisted us in every way possible and to them we extend our sincerest thanks.

In closing this report let us hope that the future will be brighter and that our Order will be still more prosperous.

TRUSTEES' REPORT.

Mattoon, Ill., Oct. 11, 1906.

HON. WILLIAM R. HUMPHREY, Chicago.

Grand Master of The I. O. O. F., of Illinois.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER: We most respectfully, herewith, submit to you, the regular annual report of the Trustees of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home of the State of Illinois for the fiscal year ending September 30th, 1906, giving as near as possible in detail, an account of the work that has been accomplished at the Home during that period.

We trust that the membership of this jurisdiction will examine the same carefully and criticise or approve the actions of the Board of Trustees, as their actions may merit criticism or approval, assuring you and the entire membership of our order that the business and welfare of the Home, has, during the time we have administered its affairs, received our most earnest and solicitous care and attention. Our aim and desire has been to so conduct the Home, that it shall stand as a home in truth, as well as in name, for our aged and afflicted sisters and brothers who are sheltered within its walls, and be justly pointed to as an everlasting monument to the spirit of Oddfellowship in this Grand Jurisdiction.

Change in Management.

On January 3rd '06 the resignation of brother W. N. Rickard as Superintendent and Sister L. L. Rickard as Matron, to take effect Feb. 28th, '06, were tendered to the Board and were duly accepted. Notices were then inserted in the Odd Fellows Herald and the Illinois Odd Fellow, stating that applications for these positions would be considered at the February meeting. We received more than one hundred applications and after careful consideration and investigation the Board concluded to employ brother Charles E. Wyman of Ark Lodge No. 16 as Superintendent and his wife, sister Gertrude F. Wyman of Superior Rebekah Lodge No. 18 as Assistant Superintendent.

Brother Wyman's bond in the amount of one thousand dollars having been approved, they were duly installed on March 1st, 1906. Their management of the affairs at the Home has been satisfactory to the Board of Trustees and we sincerely hope to the entire membership throughout the State.

Membership.

The present membership of the Home is sixty-five—fifty-five brothers and ten sisters. The oldest member is sister Carrie A. Kent, age 87, the next older is Brother W. H. Welch, age 86.

N M Groves

GRAND WARDEN.

The general health of all members is good and while their average age is 73, the sunshine in many of their dispositions drives the lines of care from their faces and makes their hearts youthful, so that it is a pleasure to visit and converse with them. They take marked interest in the "Home" and it is quite gratifying to be able to report the eagerness with which many of the members lend a hand to assist the management in the many little things, which they are able to do both for themselves and for each other.

Of course where the Grim Reaper forces so many of his visitations as here, there are many sad hearts and shadowed feelings, for out of the 128 who have been admitted to the Home in the past, 41 have been called to the Grand Lodge above, and many who remain are patiently waiting for the final summons. But every Odd Fellow's heart must surely be warmed in passing among the membership, amid all the comforts of life, to know that they are contributing to a Home that gives such pleasure to their brothers and sisters who are fast journeying toward the sunset of life.

We hope that as many of you as can make it convenient, will pay a visit to the Home, where you will receive the warm hand grasp and happy greetings of "Our Old Folks," "Because you are an Odd Fellow."

The capacity of the Home is now taxed to its limit. The Board has been obliged to refuse several applications for the reason that they were not prepared at the Home to give them the necessary care. We believe that in the near future there should be provided additional rooms with some suitable preparation and equipment necessary to care for a class of aged members who are so sorely in need of relief, but who owing to their advanced infirmities, cannot be cared for with our present facilities.

Picnic.

June 15th, 1906, was a "Red Letter Day" with us. The children from Our Orphans' Home at Lincoln, to the number of about one hundred and fifty came by special train to spend the day with "The Old Folks" and enjoy an outing in the beautiful grove surrounding the Old Folks' Home.

The weather was fine, and thanks to the untiring efforts of Grand Master Humphrey, in whose mind the happy thought first originated, many lodges from all over the state were liberally represented. Fully five thousand visitors were in attendance and many baskets and boxes of delicious cakes, pies, fruits and fried chicken were donated by lodges and individuals.

Long tables with seats were placed in the grove for the use of the Old People and the Children, where they all enjoyed the beautiful repast furnished by loving sisters and brothers of our order.

The "Orphans' Home Band" was the centre of attraction and enhanced the pleasure of all by their excellent music. The management of the Home was ably assisted by a committee of fifteen sisters and fifteen brothers from the Mattoon local lodges, which the Board greatly appreciated. Many Grand Lodge officers and representatives were in attendance and the day passed in one round of pleasure.

Religious Services and Entertainment.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the churches of the City of Mattoon and vicinity for the interest taken by them in the religious advancement of our Home. The ministers of the various congregations have each donated a portion of their time and valuable services and have so arranged that religious services are now being held each Sabbath afternoon at the Home.

This seems to be very much appreciated by the members of the Home and we desire to express our gratitude to the ministers, and to thank Brother and Sister Wyman through whose efforts this arrangement was made.

We wish also to thank the State W. C. T. U. who while holding their annual meeting in the City of Mattoon, held one of their regular Sunday services at the Home. There were more than fifty of the W. C. T. U. delegates who took part in this service, which was enjoyed very much by the members and employees of the Home. The Board appreciates all such generous manifestations of good will. They add to the comfort and happiness of all. We therefore extend to the various church denominations, to the W. C. T. U. and to all kindred organizations, a hearty welcome to visit our Home whenever convenient.

Lawn, Farm and Garden.

It is with great pleasure that we refer to our Lawn, Farm and Garden. The flowers have been the special care of brother Andrew Jackson, a member of the Home, and under his careful attention they have flourished and beautified the Home as never before. The garden and farm have yielded bountifully as shown by this report and we thank, with pleasure all the members of the Home who have so willingly assisted our Superintendent, brother Wyman, and gardener, brother DeBuhr, in this part of their duties.

Barn.

The appropriation last year for the purpose of building a barn has not been expended. After carefully investigating the necessity for this improvement and satisfying ourselves as to the kind and size of building required to meet all present demands, we find that a permanent building, suitable for and in keeping with the institution, cannot be built for the amount of money appropriated. We therefore come to you with the full amount of your last appropriation and respectfully ask that an additional sum of fifteen hundred dollars be given us so that we may have constructed a permanent building, large enough to fully satisfy all the demands of the Home.

It is the policy of the Board that all improvements of this kind should be of a permanent nature and in keeping with our main building.

Visitors.

The records of the Home show a marked increase in the number of visitors for the past year and it has been very gratifying to note their surprised and pleased expressions, and to hear the many compliments paid our order, when they are shown our well furnished and well kept apartments.

Repairs.

The entire interior of the main building has been thoroughly cleaned and defective plastering repaired, after which, the walls and ceilings of all rooms and hallways were well painted and decorated by brother Will H. Peters of Chicago with whom your Board of Trustees placed the contract.

We take pleasure in stating that the work was very satisfactorily executed and is not only greatly admired by all the members of the Home, but by the visiting public as well—our large dining room being especially beautiful.

All doors, hinges and locks have been repaired by brothers of the Home and are now in good working order. The interior of our cottage of ten rooms, which is occupied by the family of brother DeBuhr and our house girls, has also been cleaned, papered and painted, and is kept in a perfect sanitary condition, as required by our rules.

We found the roof of the main building without sufficient supports to properly sustain the weight and at once had additional supports placed in position.

With the assistance of several of the members of the Home, our greenhouse has been thoroughly repaired and painted at very little cost to the order.

Our engineer has overhauled, cleaned and repaired the boiler, engine and machinery in the laundry and one of the boilers in the basement of the Home building. The other boiler, which was a second hand one when purchased, is in such bad condition that it cannot be safely used this winter for heating purposes. All of the radiators also have been overhauled and repaired, during the summer.

We believe it necessary for the preservation of the main building and cottage to repaint the exterior wood work the coming year and have so figured in our request for appropriation.

Heating Plant.

Our present heating plant consists of two low pressure boilers, located in the basement under the main building, one of which was placed in position at the time the Home was built, nine years ago. The other is a second hand boiler purchased and set about two years ago, and is now so defective that it is unsafe and cannot be used. The expense of repairing it, if it could be repaired, would exceed its value. The first boiler has been repaired so that it will probably furnish steam enough for this winter, but it would not be safe to depend upon it for a longer period. It is the opinion of the Board that the heating plant should be separate and apart from the main building on account of the danger to our members and property from possible explosion or fire.

Inasmuch as it will be necessary to purchase new boilers to reconstruct this plant next year, we believe that it is best to construct a boiler room adjoining the laundry, purchase one new boiler, which in connection with the present laundry boiler, will furnish, not only the necessary steam for heating and power now required, but will supply any additional buildings which it may be necessary to erect in the near future.

We have studied this situation for the past year, have carefully estimated the possible cost, and have included same in our request for appropriations.

Wagonette and Lawn Mower.

Perhaps nothing in the way of purchases has given the genuine good cheer to the sisters and brothers, as the new wagonette that carries twelve passengers, and is built for the ease and comfort of the Old People. Such a conveyance was much needed for their general use.

The Lawn Mower is operated by horse power is a saver of time and a great assistance in keeping the large lawn beautiful and in proper condition.

It enables the members of the Home to assist in the work which they were not able to do with the hand power machine.

Insurance.

We carefully looked after the fire insurance policies as soon as we were organized and found that they were being kept in the iron safe in the Home building.

We deemed this inadequate protection and after examining the policies carefully, we recorded the same on our records and then forwarded the policies to the Grand Secretary to be filed in his vault.

We are at present carrying the following insurance.

On Main Building:	Fire	$25,000.00

Conclusion.

In closing our report we wish to express our deep appreciation to those who have aided in advancing the interests of the Home. Especially to the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges that have contributed so liberally, to the members of the Advisory Board for their assistance, and to you, Grand Master, who have attended every session of the Board, visited each member of the Home and cheered them with your kind, fraternal words, and by your presence.

The many valuable suggestions made by you, have left your impress on the members of the Old Folks' Home as a kind but fearless friend.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the Mattoon and Coles County Lodges have been universally kind, and their influence for good has extended to the citizens of the county who are not members, but who visit and speak in praise of the Home, and the Order it represents.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN W. YANTIS, Chairman,

L. M. KAGY,

F. D. P. SNELLING,

O. B. ANDERSON,

J. W. WEBSTER, Secretary.

Mattoon, Ill., Oct. 11, 1906.

Geo. H. Sikes,

GRAND SECRETARY.

REPORT OF GRAND SECRETARY.

To the Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

DEAR BROTHERS: At the close of another fiscal year it is my pleasure to be able to report a most satisfactory condition of our Order, not only in Illinois, but wherever Odd Fellowship is known.

The present year has been a remarkable one in this Jurisdiction, largely due to the personality of Grand Master, Wm. R. Humphrey, whose energy and enthusiasm have leavened the entire membership.

All departments of the Order are working in perfect harmony. The Orphans' Home and Old Folks' Home are what they should be; our most eloquent advocates of the principles for which Odd Fellowship stands. They are thoroughly organized and systematized and under most excellent management.

The business of the Grand Lodge so far as your Secretary is able to judge, has been transacted faithfully and promptly by all of its Grand Officers and Committees. The Committee on Finance and the Special Committee on Revision of the Code deserve special commendation for their services to the Order.

Table of Averages, Subordinate Lodges, Illinois.

Average membership per Lodge in Illinois, 81.21+.

Average amount of relief paid by the Order for each day in 1905-6, $634.17+.

The number of brothers who received benefits was one in every 12.27+.

Average amount received by each sick brother $19.32+.

Average cost per member to pay sick benefits, $1.57+.

Average duration of sickness, 6 weeks, 1 day, 15 hours, 57 minutes.

Average duration of sickness if spread over the entire membership, 3 days, 13 hours, 20 minutes, 34 seconds.

Average amount paid by each member for maintenance of Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes, $0.528+.

Ratio of deaths, 8.22 per 1,000.

Average amount of funeral benefits and expenses paid for each death, $77.80.

Total average receipts per member, $10.103+.

Average cost per member for relief and charity, $3.10+.

Average excess of receipts over expenditures, $1.75+.

Sick Benefits.

In order to view the work of the Order intelligently and prepare for the future, it frequently becomes necessary to resort to the law of averages; and for this purpose I have compiled a table below showing the membership of the Order, the number of weeks' benefits paid, and the average number of days' sickness per member for twenty years.

It is most gratifying to note that the per cent has varied little, and from this table we draw the conclusion that the average age of the organization has not materially increased, having been kept down by a strong, healthy growth. It requires no figures to prove an increase in the average age, average amount of sickness and the average amount of sick benefits to be paid were our growth to cease, but in this, a most prosperous period of our Order, it is difficult to anticipate any serious decrease in annual growth.

Sovereign Grand Lodge Journals.

I received enough Journals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to supply our Subordinate Lodges. Formerly a large number of extra journals were received to supply the individual demand for these journals, which supply has been discontinued, and hence it has been necessary to deny many requests. It would seem that each Grand Jurisdiction should be allowed a reasonable number in excess of the number required to supply our Lodges.

Grand Lodge Journal of 1905.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1905, consisted of 615 pages, being somewhat larger than the Journal of the previous year.

To arrange copy, read proof and index the Grand Journal requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we have for several years secured in the person of Bro. Past Grand Secretary N. C. Nason. As has been the rule of this office for many years, the Journal was delivered to all Subordinate Lodges and Representatives in a little more than thirty days after adjournment.

Veteran Jewels.

Illinois is one of the first Jurisdictions in the number of Veteran and Honorable Veteran Jewels sold annually. During the past year 162 Veteran and 6 Honorable Veteran Jewels have been sold, proving that the value and worth of Odd Fellowship was early recognized in this State, as well as indicating the pride and loyalty of our membership.

Trustees of the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $17,860.13 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $22,625.08 to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $40,485.21.

Judiciary and Appeals Committee.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1905, February, May and August of the present year. At the November session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from thirty-seven Subordinate and four Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session three opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from twenty-nine Subordinates and ten Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session two opinions were rendered ered and the By-Laws from forty-five Subordinate and thirteen Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from thirty-two Subordinate and thirteen Rebekah Lodges acted upon—making a total of nine opinions rendered and one hundred eighty-three codes of By-Laws acted upon.

Grand Secretary's Office.

The rooms occupied by the Grand Secretary are located on the fourth floor of the Odd Fellows Building on the corner of Fourth and Monroe streets, and are numbered 405 to 410 inclusive, and also rooms 413 and 414, including a large brick vault.

These quarters were leased for five years at $60.00 per month, which lease expires on the 30th day of November, 1907.

In view of the fact that the lease will expire immediately following the next session of the Grand Lodge, it will be wise to place the matter of securing suitable quarters in the hands of a Committee with power to act or at least report to the next session of the Grand Lodge.

The present lease was negotiated by the Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, acting for the Grand Lodge, at that time.

Salary.

The salary of this office is $1,800.00 together with an allowance of $900.00 per year for clerk hire and $480.00 per year for a stenographer.

I am paying my stenographer $8.00 per week, amounting to $34.66 per month or $416.00 per year, plus $10.00 for overtime during the Grand Lodge session, leaving a balance of $54.00.

A question has been raised as to my right to use for other services this balance.

The appropriation for clerk hire is more than consumed by a competent bookkeeper, additional help and services rendered by Past Grand Secretary N. C. Nason.

I have followed precedents in handling these appropriations and if your Secretary has no discretion as to these funds, it is desirable that in future appropriations the intention of the Grand Lodge should be more specifically defined.

Illinois I. O. O. F. Code of 1906.

Two thousand copies of the Illinois I. O. O. F. Code of 1906 adopted and authorized by the Grand Lodge and compiled by Deputy Grand Master Fred B. Merrills have been delivered to my office and are accounted for in my statements. The work is a most excellent digest of our laws evincing a great amount of labor and painstaking on the part of the editor and committee having it in charge.

Illinois Code, I. O. O. F. 1896.

In the Grand Secretary's office are 552 Codes of the edition of 1896, including the plates from which they were printed. The Session of 1905 ordered me to dispose of 500 copies at 25c each, but there has only been sale for 42 books at this price. This supply of Codes and plates would now appear to be practically worthless, except that a reasonable number of them should be kept for future reference.

I would recommend that 100 copies of the Code of 1896 be retained in the Grand Secretary's office and that the remainder, together with the plates from which they were printed, be disposed of as dead property for whatever can be realized.

Grand Lodge Degree.

Grand Secretary R. L. Tilton, of Iowa, sends official notice under date of October 31, 1906, that Bros. E. L. Payne and C. Christianson, Past Grands of Savanna Lodge No. 164, I. O. O. F., of Savanna, Ill., received the Grand Lodge Degree in that Jurisdiction on October 17, 1906.

Russian Jews.

Pursuant to instructions embodied in Document No. 14, Journal 1905, page 263, a warrant was drawn on the Grand Treasurer in the sum of one hundred dollars for the relief of Russian Jews, receipt of which was acknowledged as follows:

"CHICAGO, ILL., November 29, 1905.

Thankfully received of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F., one hundred dollars, being their contribution for the purpose as indicated in their resolution.

CHICAGO RELIEF FUND FOR RUSSIAN JEWS.

By Moses E. Greenebaum, Treasurer."

Hugh McCracken.

The object of this section is to correct, so far as possible, an unfortunate error which occurred in the Journal of 1905, wherein the name of Bro. Hugh McCracken, a most worthy member of Ben Hur Lodge No. 870, I. O. O. F., of Aurora, appears among the expulsions, an error committed in abstracting from the Semi-annual report. Bro. McCracken's name should have been listed among the deaths.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE, I. O. O. F.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FIRST SESSION.

Case No. 353.

Eden Rebekah Lodge No. 118, I. O. O. F.	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, February Session, 1906.
vs.
Daisy Smith.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

The records in this case show that Sister Daisy Smith was expelled by the Lodge for contempt, Oct. 17, 1905. Said contempt consisted in her not appearing to answer certain citation and charges presented against her.

That three members of the Lodge appeal from this action and as grounds for said appeal allege in substance that the Lodge failed to give her legal notice and that the Lodge records are vague and incomplete. Sec. 7, Art. VIII, Constitution of Rebekah Lodges is as follows: 'Sec. 7,—Notice, service of, etc.,—If the Secretary is unable to personally serve a copy of the charges and citation on an accused member, by reason of permanent absence, concealment, or incarceration, a copy of the citation and charges left at the accused's usual or last known place of abode, or deposited in the mail so directed, shall be deemed a legal notice or citation; and the Lodge may proceed with the trial as if the accused were present. The Noble Grand shall appoint counsel to defend accused if none appear.'

In our judgment, it must first affirmatively appear from the Lodge records that the Secretary was unable to personally serve upon the sister a copy of the charges and citation. When it does so appear, then in our judgement the Lodge records should show that a copy of the citation and charges were either left at the sister's usual or last known place of abode or deposited in the mail so directed, also that the copy of such citation or charges should be incorporated in the minutes of the Lodge and the record on appeal. The record here is barren in either of these essentials, and we therefore, sustain the appeal and set aside and hold for naught the action of the Lodge, and it is ordered that Sister Daisy Smith be reinstated by the Lodge, without prejudice, however, in case the Lodge can legally prosecute such charges and citation upon a legal notice, etc.

Case No. 354.

Prairie State Lodge No. 104,	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
J. L. Howell.		February Session, 1906.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

Charges were preferred against Bro. Howell, a member of Prairie State Lodge, with having circulated scandalous reports regarding the character of Bro. Bratcher, a member of same Lodge, the reports were that Bro. Bratcher was seen playing cards.

Charges, specifications, and all preliminary proceedings are agreed to be regular. At the time of trial Bro. Bratcher not being present, counsel was appointed to represent his interest, and a plea of "not guilty" was entered. Evidence was read, and the attorney appointed to defend Bro. Bratcher and who represented the defendant at the taking of the testimony being absent, an assistant attorney represented the defendant at the hearing. The Lodge refused to sustain the charges, and this appeal is taken from such action of the Lodge.

It is claimed that the attorney for the defendant repudiated certain facts admitted in the testimony to be true. We hold that facts admitted by agreement upon the taking of testimony in a case to be true, cannot afterward be repudiated or denied. This committee holds that charging that a brother had played cards is not circulating a scandalous report. No charge is made in this case that the brother played cards for gain, or that he was gambling. The Lodge passed upon the case upon the evidence before them, and we see no reason for saying its decision was wrong. The appeal is dismissed and action of the Lodge sustained.

HENRY A. STONE.
W. E. P. ANDERSON,

Case No. 355.

J. J. Pennington,	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
Olive Lodge No. 98.		February Session, 1906.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

Olive Lodge appointed certain brothers as a building committee, to build a Lodge room, who were not Trustees, and because of this, appeal is taken. We know of no law, custom or usage, which compels trustees of a Lodge to be the only persons entitled to be appointed members of a building committee to build a Lodge room.

Appeal dismissed, and action of Lodge sustained.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND SESSION

Case No. 356.

Charles A. Mosely, Appellant,

vs.

Stonefort Lodge No. 731, I. O. O. F.

} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals,
May Session, 1906.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

Two charges were preferred against Bro. C. A. Mosely. The first one being abandoned, apparently, we do not care here to repeat it. The second charge is, that Bro. Mosely made false statements to a brother Odd Fellow and admitted afterwards, in the trial of a case before a Court that he had made such false statements. In other words, that he made statements, which he afterwards, under oath admitted were untrue. To this charge Bro. Mosely plead guilty, and upon this plea was expelled from the Lodge. He brings the case here on appeal and assigns for error, 1st. That the charge was uncertain and no specification was filed. The record does not show that any objection was made by Bro. Mosely to the charge in any respect. Had such objection been made, no doubt the charge would have been dismissed as not sufficient, as it should have been. Bro. Mosely accepted the issue as presented, and made his plea of guilty. We think it is now too late for him to raise the question of the sufficiency of the charge to give jurisdiction to the Lodge. The other error assigned is, that admitting the charge to be true, is it an offense for which the Lodge can punish. In our opinion, it is not. If the doors are opened to such charges, the principles of our Order would have but little attention in our Lodge rooms, our time and attention being absorbed in the trial of members upon charges too often brought from other motives than for the best interests of our Order. The appeal of Bro. Mosely is sustained. The action of the Lodge is set aside and for nothing held, and the Lodge directed to reinstate Bro. Mosely subject to all his duties, obligations, and responsibilities as a member of the Lodge.

Chester Lodge No. 57, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
T. W. Tackenberg.		May Session, 1906.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

This is an appeal taken by three members of Chester Lodge No. 57, I. O. O. F., from the decision of the Lodge on the following charges, preferred by the investigating committee thereof, namely:

Charge 1: We charge Bro. T. W. Tackenberg of this Lodge of being intoxicated, the same being his second offense.

Specification 1: That he was intoxicated in the city of Chester on Pine and Taylor Sts., on Saturday, October 21, 1905, between the hours of three o'clock and four o'clock, p.m.

In the beginning, we desire to express our commendation as to the completeness of the record herein, and after careful consideration, we hold that it was error in the Noble Grand to admit the written statement of E. D. Meredith, as it was merely an ex parte statement of one who had refused to obligate himself in accordance with the laws of the Order; that it was also error to admit the statement of Bro. Tackenberg regarding the animus of Bro. Eggberry toward him; in other words, we hold that no ex parte statements or affidavits should be accepted or read in the evidence unless the same are by the consent of all parties interested to be considered as evidence in the case.

So that in eliminating from the case, the two statements leaves it to be determined solely by the evidence taken and reported by the commissioner and after duly considering the same, we find that the preponderance and weight of the evidence sustains the action of the Lodge and the Lodge having heard the testimony of the witnesses and being familiar with all of the facts and circumstances, we are not inclined to hold that it erred and therefore direct that the appeal be dismissed.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD SESSION

Case No. 348.

J. J. Pennington, et al,	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1906.
vs.
Olive Lodge No. 98, I. O. O. F.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

The substantial facts of this case are as follows:

Olive Lodge, for the purpose of creating interest in the Order, held a series of public meetings or entertainments and as a result found that certain expenses were made which had to be paid. Under the law no Lodge has a right to draw from its general fund any money with which to pay expenses, incurred for such character of entertainments, but the law has provided that a Lodge may set aside 5% of the dues received by the Lodge as a special fund with which to provide entertainments. At the time these expenses were made the Lodge had no such special fund, or if so, the fund was so small that it would not meet the expenditure, and in order that the expenses might be paid, the money was drawn from the general fund of the Lodge. In this clearly the Lodge made a mistake and it did what the law refused permission to do and to this action of the Lodge objection was made. It appears that the Lodge overruled the objection and from the action of the Lodge in so overruling, this appeal results.

We admire the spirit of a Lodge which takes such action in the way of entertainments as will bring the Lodge prominently before the community in which it is located, but in so doing this committee must be understood as in no way sanctioning in any manner the use of funds which cannot properly be used for such purposes. Here was clearly a violation of the law, but it must be said that the Lodge itself when it found that it had used its funds in an improper manner, did all within its power to correct the error made, and directed its Trustees to borrow sufficient money to repay the amount so irregularly and perhaps unlawfully expended. Here perhaps another mistake or error, as it might be called was made, for the Trustees borrowed the money from the general fund of the Lodge. Without determining in what manner a Lodge may loan its funds, this was doing perhaps indirectly what it could not directly do in the way of providing funds for entertainments.

Be that as it may, the Lodge immediately commenced to lay aside 5% of its dues and created a Special Entertainment Fund and as rapidly as this special fund was created or obtained, it was immediately applied to the payment of the amount withdrawn from the general fund of the Lodge, so that at the present hearing all the money so improperly used has been repaid to the general fund of the Lodge. What was done by the Lodge was in good faith, but technically it was an error. The objections were well taken and should have been sustained, and we must sustain the appeal.

Case No. 358.

Traveler's Rest Lodge No. 220, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on
vs.		Judiciary and Appeals,
J. B. Caudry.		August Session, 1906.

Opinion by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

In February, 1906, a complaint was filed with the Noble Grand of Traveler's Rest Lodge, against the defendant, Brother J. B. Caudry. The Noble Grand, as required by the laws of our Order, appointed an investigating committee. This committee reported to the Lodge and filed with the Lodge charges and specifications against Brother Caudry, and he was in due time cited to appear before the Lodge and answer to the charges preferred. At the proper time, the defendant, Brother Caudry, appeared in open Lodge and filed what he calls a protest against the Lodge proceeding against him. This protest was filed on the evening of March 5, 1906. The defendant found no fault with the charges and made no objection to their form or substance, but relied upon his protest, as making out a defense. The Lodge it seems did not consider his protest a sufficient defense and so informed the defendant. The defendant then left the Lodge room and did not return again. The Lodge continued the case until the next Lodge meeting on March 12th, when the matter was again taken up, and the defendant was expelled from the Lodge for contempt, and from this action of the Lodge the defendant appeals to this committee assigning several reasons in support of his appeal. The committee gave this case considerable attention for the reason that some vital questions of law and practice are involved. We examined carefully the protest of the defendant and were of the unanimous opinion that there is no merit in it whatever, and the Lodge was right in refusing to consider it, but we are of the opinion that the Lodge erred in trying the defendant at the next regular meeting for contempt. We do not believe Brother Caudry was in contempt of the Lodge for the reason that he did plead. His protest is in the shape of a plea, that in our judgment would purge him of contempt, at least until after he had been told that his protest was not good and that he must plead guilty or not guilty, and go to trial. Had he been notified to that effect and then refused to attend or further answer, then he would have been in contempt. In our judgment the Lodge should have done this, or it should have taken some evidence in the case and tried him on the charges, which it could have done. We have therefore decided to remand the case to the Lodge in order that the Lodge may serve notice on the defendant that his protest has been overruled and that he must appear at a time to be stated, and plead guilty or not guilty to the charges now on file against him. Then if the defendant refuses to appear and plead, he can be punished for contempt. If he does appear and plead not guilty, the Lodge can proceed to take the evidence and try him according to the rules and laws of the Order.

The case is remanded for the purpose above stated.

Case No. 364.

South Chicago Lodge, No. 696, I. O. O. F.	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, November Session, 1906.
vs.
J. D. Sawyer.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

The record in this case is quite voluminous and we will not attempt to consider any more of it than applies to the charges appealed from.

It appears that the report of the investigating committee contained six charges, upon which Brother Sawyer was tried and found not guilty as to the first four, and guilty of the last two, viz.:

"That he took the benefit of the Bankruptcy law, which we believe he did in order to keep from paying his creditors what justly belonged to them," etc.

"That he owes $85.00 house rent to a Miss Clark for several months, and various other debts too numerous to mention; in fact, he is considered as a man who does not pay his honest debts."

The law of the land permits persons to take the benefit of the Bankruptcy law.

Pecuniary affairs cannot be made basis of charges except in cases of fraud, Merrills' Code, 1906, Sections 1457, 1477, 1478, 1489, 1503, 1532, 1533. No fraud is shown by the testimony in this case.

The record in the case also disclosed the fact that the member of the Lodge who made the complaint in this case was appointed a member of the investigating committee, which is in violation of the Code, Sec. 1559, Merrills' 1906.

The appeal is hereby sustained, and the action of the Lodge in expelling Brother Sawyer set aside and held for naught.

Montrose Lodge, No. 764, I. O. O. F.	} November Session, 1906. Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, vs.
G. B. Willan.

Opinion by Bro. Henry Phillips, of No. 16.

The record in this case shows that charges in proper form were made against the defendant, charging him with insulting a woman supposed to be a member of the Order, which, if the charge were true, deserved expulsion. From the record we find that service of charges and citation were not had or made in accordance with Sections 5 and 6, Article II, of the Subordinate Constitution. The law demands personal service if possible, and in the absence of such personal service, then a copy of the charge and citation must be deposited in the post office, post paid, directed to him (defendant) at his last known post office address, and a like copy of the charge and citation left at his last known place of residence, if the same be within the jurisdiction of the Lodge. Unless such service be had, the Lodge can acquire no jurisdiction. Carefulness must be used in such proceeding, and as the record in this case does not show a compliance with the law, the appeal taken must be sustained, and the action of the Lodge in expelling the defendant is set aside, with the privilege to the Lodge to serve defendant with proper notice, and to proceed with the trial anew.

APPROVAL OF AMENDMENTS BY THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

The following amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois were adopted at the session of 1905, certified to the Sovereign Grand Lodge for approval and received favorable action by that body.

GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION.

Journal 1905, Page 273.

Art. 4, Sec. 16. Every member of this Grand Lodge shall be eligible to any Grand Office, excepting to that of Grand Representative, to which he shall also be eligible if he have the Royal Purple Degree, is a member in good standing of an Encampment in good standing, a member in good standing of a Subordinate Lodge, a member of a Rebekah Lodge in good standing, and a resident of the State of Illinois.

Journal 1905, Page 274.

Art. 8, Sec. 4. No Subordinate Lodge shall initiate any person not twenty-one years of age.

Journal 1905, Page 274.

Art. 10, Sec. 2. Hereafter, all assets of all Subordinate Lodges whose charters have been surrendered shall be placed to the credit of a Fund to be called and known as "Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund." Such fund may also be increased and maintained by voluntary contributions, and by such other means as are not inconsistent with the laws of the Order.

Art. 11, Sec. 1. Any two or more neighboring Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges working under the jurisdiction of this Grand Body may, by permission of the Grand Lodge, or of the Grand Master in vacation, consolidate their membership into one Lodge, under the following regulations.

Sec. 2. The provisions of such consolidation shall be submitted to each Lodge interested, in writing, signed by not less than ten per cent of the membership of each Lodge, giving the name and number of the charter under which the proposed consolidated Lodge shall work, which may be the charter name and number of either Lodge, or charter name of one and number of another, or an entirely new name and such number as the Grand Master or the Grand Lodge may award them, together with any other agreements desired between such Lodges.

Sec. 3. A written or printed copy of the proposed provisions for such consolidation shall be mailed within three days to the last known address, as shown on the books of the Lodge, to all members of each Lodge by the Secretary thereof, stating that a vote will be taken on such provisions at the second regular meeting after their presentation, unless at such second regular meeting a later regular meeting, not exceeding four weeks, shall be fixed as the time for voting on such provisions.

Sec. 4. At such second regular meeting, or such other time as may be then and there fixed, a vote by yeas and nays shall be taken and the result duly recorded, and a certified transcript of the entire action taken shall, under seal, be sent immediately to the Grand Master.

Sec. 5. The Grand Master, at his discretion, or the Grand Lodge, at its discretion, shall grant and issue the necessary dispensation, provided that no Lodge has reported more than four members voting against the written proposition providing for the consolidation, but not otherwise.

Sec. 6. The consolidation, if authorized, shall be effected by the Grand Master or his duly authorized Deputy, whose duty it shall be to receive from each Lodge its charter, rituals, books, and property of whatsoever kind, together with full and complete separate lists of members of each Lodge, including dropped, suspended, expelled and deceased members, all of whom shall sustain to the consolidated Lodge the same relations, in every respect, as they did to their former Lodge.

On receiving such property and lists of membership, the Grand Master or his Deputy shall proclaim the Lodges duly consolidated, and proceed forthwith to the election and installation of duly qualified members to the various offices, as in the case of other Lodges. After such installation, he shall turn over to the consolidated Lodge everything, that came into his possession, except that he shall not turn over more than four Rituals, one Charter, and one Seal, the excess number being sent to the Grand Secretary, and a full report of all his actions to the Grand Master. The Deputy shall not require any one to sign or re-sign any Constitution.

Sec. 7. All officers of the consolidated Lodges who shall have served a majority of the regular meetings of the current term prior to such consolidation, if more than one-half of such term shall have expired, shall be entitled to the honors of the offices in which they have so served; but if they shall not have served a majority of all such meetings, or if not more than one-half of the current term shall have expired at the time of such consolidation, then, and in that case, they shall not be entitled to such honors.

Certificate of Approval.

BALTIMORE, MD., U. S. A., Oct. 5, 1906.

To the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.

At the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, held at Toronto, Ontario, Canada, September 17th to 22d, 1906, the report hereto attached from the Committee on Constitutions was considered and adopted.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN B. GOODWIN, Grand Secretary.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Your Committee on Constitutions, to whom was referred amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, report that they have carefully examined the same, and find that they do not conflict with the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. We therefore recommend that the same be approved. Signed by the Committee.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION.

Original Section.

Art. 4, Sec. 2. The Grand Master shall preside at all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and preserve order and enforce the rules. He shall appoint all Grand Officers pro tempore, and all the Grand Officers who are not elective. He shall name the members of all committees, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge. He shall give the casting vote whenever the Grand Lodge is equally divided. He may call special sessions of the Grand Lodge whenever, in his judgment, the good of the Order requires him so to do, and he shall call a special session whenever requested so to do in writing by the representatives of fifty Lodges. He shall order the payment by the Grand Treasurer of all moneys voted by the Grand Lodge. In person or by Deputy, he shall confer all official degrees, and he shall communicate the necessary passwords to be used in this jurisdiction. During the recess of the Grand Lodge he shall have a general superintendence of the interest of the Order in this State; shall hear and decide any grievance or complaints that may be made to him; pass upon all questions of law and usage which shall have been first submitted on appeal under seal of the Subordinate Lodge to the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, and he shall not be compelled to answer questions submitted by individual members of the Order; grant dispensations to open Lodges, and do such other acts as this Grand Lodge might do, except that he may not, by virtue of any powers conferred upon him by this section, exercise any of the legislative functions of this Grand Lodge. At each Annual Session the Grand Master shall report the dispensations to open Lodges granted by him, and such other acts as he may have done in accordance with the authority herein upon him conferred; and when an appeal is taken from any of his decisions, he shall report the decision with the appeal therefrom. All decisions made by the Grand Master shall be binding until reversed, upon appeal, by the Grand Lodge.

Amendment Journal 1905, Page 276.

Art. 4, Sec. 2. The Grand Master shall preside at all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and preserve order and enforce the rules. He shall appoint all Grand Officers pro tempore, and all the Grand Officers who are not elective. He shall name the members of all committees, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge. At each Annual Session, the Grand Master shall report the dispensations to open Lodges granted by him, and such other acts as he may have done in accordance with the authority herein upon him conferred; and when an appeal is taken from any of his decisions, he shall report the decision with the appeal therefrom. All decisions made by the Grand Master shall be binding until reversed, upon appeal, by this Grand Lodge.

Provided, This Grand Lodge may, by its Rebekah Assembly Constitution, transfer to the President of the Rebekah Assembly any of the functions or powers with which the Grand Master is herein invested, so far as the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge may permit, and with such restrictions and limitations as the Grand Lodge may provide in said Rebekah Assembly Constitution.

Original Section.

Art. 5, Sec. 1. The Grand Master shall appoint a duly qualified Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Subordinate Lodge, who shall serve as such until his successor shall have been appointed, or until removed by the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall obey the commands of the Grand Master, decide all questions of law and usage, when submitted to him in writing under the seal of the Subordinate Lodge, giving his answer thereto also in writing. Said decision of the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall be binding upon the Lodge unless an appeal is taken to the Grand Master, in which case the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall transmit the original papers (being the question and answer) to the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Masters shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for them by the laws of the Order.

Amendment Journal 1905, Page 277.

Art. 5, Sec. 1. The Grand Master shall appoint a duly qualified Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Subordinate Lodge, and a duly qualified Past Noble Grand or Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Rebekah Lodge, who shall serve as such until a successor shall have been appointed, or until removed by the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall obey the commands of the Grand Master, decide all questions of law and usage, when submitted in writing under the seal of the Lodge, giving the answer thereto also in writing. Said decision of the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall be binding upon the Lodge unless an appeal is taken to the Grand Master, in which case the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall transmit the original papers (being the question and answer) to the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Masters shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for them by the laws of the Order.

Original Section.

Art. 6, Sec. 9. The Committee on Railroads shall, if possible, procure reduced rates of fare over the several railroads of the State for members of the Grand Lodge attending the sessions thereof; and shall report to the Grand Secretary at least three weeks before any session the names of railroad companies giving reductions of fare, and all the details of the arrangements made therewith.

Amendment Journal 1905, Page 278.

Art. 6, Sec. 9. The Committee on Railroads shall, if possible, procure reduced rates of fare over the several railroads of the State for members of the Grand Lodge and the Rebekah Assembly attending the sessions thereof; and shall report to the Grand Secretary, at least three weeks before any session, the names of railroad companies giving reductions of fare, and all the details of the arrangements made therewith.

Original Section.

Art. 8, Sec. 1. Charters may be granted as follows, namely: (1) On the written application of five or more brothers in good standing, to open a Lodge where there is no Lodge, or where there is no Lodge working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (2) on the written application of ten or more brothers in good standing, to open a Lodge where not more than nine Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (3) on the written application of twenty or more brothers, in good standing, to open a Lodge where ten or more Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge; provided, the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Lodges working in the language of the proposed Lodge at such place.

All applications for charters must be accompanied by the withdrawal cards and the charter fee, to-wit, thirty dollars.

Amendment Journal 1905, Page 341.

Art. 8, Sec. 1. Charters may be granted as follows, viz.: (1) On the written application of five or more brothers in good standing to open a Lodge where there is no Lodge, or where there is no Lodge working in the language of the proposed Lodge. (2) On the written application of ten or more brothers in good standing to open a Lodge where not more than nine Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge. (3) On the written application of twenty or more brothers in good standing, and applications for initiation from thirty qualified and approved candidates, to open a Lodge where ten or more Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge, provided the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Lodges working in the language of the proposed Lodge at such place. Each of said two-thirds Lodges shall vote on the request for consent after a period of not less than four weeks after the date of receiving such request, and upon the report of a special committee of the Lodge appointed to investigate the qualifications of both charter members and petitioners for initiation whose names are signed to the petition for the dispensation to open the proposed new Lodge. All applications for dispensations to open Lodges shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, and must be accompanied by the cards of the petitioning brothers and the charter fee, to-wit: Thirty dollars.

Original Section.

Art. 9, Sec. 1. In all cases where charges have been preferred against a Subordinate Lodge, which may involve the surrender or revocation of the Charter, Warrant or Dispensation under which such a Lodge exists, it shall become the duty of the Grand Secretary to issue a summons to such Subordinate Lodge, and to the Trustees of such Lodge, commanding them to appear before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of this Grand Lodge on a day to be therein named, at the Lodge room of such Lodge, or such other place as shall be directed by the Grand Master in his order for the issuance of such summons, which summons shall be made returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days from and after the date thereof, and shall be served upon the said Lodge by delivering to the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, or Recording Secretary of such Lodge a copy of such summons; and the same shall be served upon the Trustees by delivering to some three or more of them a copy thereof, which service shall be evidenced by their return endorsed thereon by the officer or brother making such service, which service may be made by the Grand Marshal or any Odd-Fellow by him so authorized to do, in writing. Such summons, when so served, shall be returned to the Grand Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, whenever he shall suspend a Lodge to, within ten days next thereafter, formulate and file with the Grand Secretary charges and specifications against such Lodge, and in such case, and in all other cases where such charges and specifications shall have been preferred by another, the Grand Master shall fix a time and place for the hearing, by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, of such charges, and to direct the Grand Secretary to notify the members of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of such time and place, and that he prepare and furnish to the Lodge so charged one copy and to the Trustees of said Lodge one copy of such charges and specifications. And thereupon, on notice by the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master shall appoint one competent member of the Order to be a special commissioner, to take the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence, all of which, in so far as it may be done, shall be reduced to writing, and all parts of books, papers, or other written matters offered in evidence as exhibits, or otherwise, shall be by copy or copies duly examined and attested by the special commissioner; except in cases where the originals shall be so filed, but no testimony of witnesses, or other evidence, shall be so taken, until notice of the time and place of the taking of such evidence shall have been given to the Noble Grand or Secretary, and at least three of the Trustees of the Lodge, at least three days prior to such taking; nor until the special commissioner shall have subscribed in duplicate a pledge or obligation in substantially the following form:

I, Special Commissioner appointed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. of the State of Illinois, to take the evidence under charges and specifications against Lodge, No., I. O. O. F., of the State of Illinois, do pledge my honor as an Odd Fellow, that I will discharge the duties of such commissioner fully, fairly and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability.

(Signed)

One copy of which shall be filed with the Grand Secretary as evidence of the acceptance of such appointment, and one copy shall be filed by such commissioner with his report of the evidence by him taken; and such commissioner shall require each witness who is an Odd Fellow to subscribe to a like pledge or obligation to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matter in controversy, before such witness shall be examined; and if such witness is not an Odd Fellow, shall require him or her to be sworn before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy, and all the competent and proper testimony of such witnesses shall be taken by interrogatories and answers; at which taking of testimony all parties interested shall have the right to appear and examine or cross-examine such witnesses, either in person or by agent, or other counsel.

Provided, That no agent or counsel who is not an Odd Fellow shall be permitted to appear for either or any party, and such commissioner, by the consent of the parties appearing before him, or for good cause shown, or of his own motion, may continue from day to day to take such testimony, or may adjourn the taking thereof to a time and place named by him; which shall be by him publicly announced, and also entered upon his official report of such testimony. When the commissioner shall have completed the taking of the testimony, he shall so certify upon the same and shall immediately transmit the whole of such testimony, evidence and exhibits, properly marked and attested, to the Grand Secretary, who shall immediately notify the Grand Master and each member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, whose duty it shall be to appear at the time and place named for the trial of said cause, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine said cause.

Provided, That for good cause shown they may postpone such hearing, or continue the hearing to a time and place to be determined by them, and may make and enforce any order not inconsistent with the principles of the Order nor in violation of any law of this Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which they may deem proper and consistent with the principles of justice, and in all their proceedings and rulings they, as nearly as may be, shall be governed by the rules and usages of Courts of Equity Jurisdiction in this State. And when they shall have heard and determined the issues presented by such charges and specifications, they shall publicly (that is, to members of the Order) announce their judgment, and shall reduce their opinion and judgment to writing, subscribe the same, and thereupon transmit the same, together with all the papers, evidence, etc., in their possession and relating to such cause, to the Grand Secretary, and the finding and judgment so made shall stand and be held to be the judgment of this Grand Lodge.

Provided, That any member of the Order, or such Lodge, by any three of its officers or Trustees, shall be permitted to prosecute an appeal to the Grand Lodge, or to the Grand Master, if the Grand Lodge is not in session, by giving notice in writing of such appeal within thirty days next after the filing of such judgment, which notice shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

Provided, That such judgment shall be read to this Grand Lodge at its next session, and shall be subject to review thereby.

Provided, further, That any member of this (the) Lodge so charged may personally or by agent (being an Odd Fellow) appear before said Committee at the time of said trial and enter his personal plea of not guilty of all such charges and specifications, and said Committee at such time and place (after they shall have determined the issues as to said Lodge) as they shall select, shall hear such evidence as such brother or brothers may present tending to prove his or their innocence of the offense charged, and if said Committee shall determine that any such brother is in fact innocent of any such offense, they shall enter final judgment acquitting such brother thereof, and shall make such order as will, in so far as may be under the circumstances, restore the brother or brothers to all rights and privileges in the Order, such as issuing to him from the office of the Grand Secretary a card, as in the case of a defunct Lodge, etc., and it shall become the duty of the Grand Master to carry into effect and enforce such judgment.

Art. 9, Sec. 1. In all cases where charges have been preferred against a Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge which may involve the surrender or revocation of the Charter, Warrant or Dispensation under which such Lodge exists, it shall become the duty of the Grand Secretary to issue a summons to such Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge and to the Trustees of such Lodge, commanding them to appear before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of this Grand Lodge on a day to be therein named, at the Lodge-room of such Lodge, or such other place as shall be directed by the Grand Master in his order for the issuance of such summons; which summons shall be made returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days, from and after the date thereof, and shall be served upon the said Lodge by delivering to the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, or Recording Secretary of such Lodge a copy of such summons; and the same shall be served upon the Trustees by delivering to some three or more of them a copy thereof, which service shall be evidenced by the return indorsed thereon by the officer or brother making such service, which service may be made by the Grand Marshal or any Odd Fellow by him so authorized to do, in writing. Such summons, when so served, shall be returned to the Grand Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, whenever he shall suspend a Lodge, within ten days next thereafter, to formulate and file with the Grand Secretary charges and specifications against such Lodge; and in such case, and in all other cases where such charges and specifications shall have been preferred by another, the Grand Master shall fix a time and place for the hearing, by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, of such charges, and direct the Grand Secretary to notify the members of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of such time and place, and that he prepare and furnish to the Lodge so charged one copy, and to the Trustees of said Lodge one copy, of such charges and specifications. And thereupon, on notice by the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master shall appoint one competent member of the Order to be a special commissioner to take the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence, all of which, in so far as it may be done, shall be reduced to writing; and all parts of books, papers or other written matters offered in evidence as exhibits, or otherwise, shall be by copy or copies duly examined and attested by the special commissioner, except in cases where the originals shall be so filed; but no testimony of witnesses, or other evidence, shall be so taken, until notice of the time and place of the taking of such evidence shall have been given to the Noble Grand or Secretary, and at least three of the Trustees of the Lodge, at least three days prior to such taking; nor until the special commissioner shall have subscribed in duplicate a pledge or obligation in substantially the following form:

I,, Special Commissioner appointed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., to take the evidence under charges and specifications againstLodge, No., I. O. O. F., in the State of Illinois, do pledge my honor as an Odd Fellow, that I will discharge the duties of such commissioner fully, fairly, and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability.

(Signed)

One copy of which shall be filed with the Grand Secretary as evidence of the acceptance of such appointment, and one copy shall be filed by such commissioner with his report of the evidence by him taken; and such commissioner shall require each witness who is an Odd Fellow to subscribe to a like pledge or obligation to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy, before such witness shall be examined; and if such witness is not an Odd Fellow, shall require him or her to be sworn before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy; and all the competent and proper testimony of such witnesses shall be taken by interrogatories and answers, at which taking of testimony all parties interested shall have the right to appear and examine or cross-examine such witnesses, either in person, or by agent or other counsel.

Provided, That no agent or counsel who is not an Odd Fellow shall be permitted to appear for either or any party, and such commissioner, by the consent of the parties appearing before him, or for good cause shown, or of his own motion, may continue from day to day to take such testimony, or may adjourn the taking thereof to a time and place named by him, which shall be by him publicly announced, and also entered upon his official report of such testimony. When the commissioner shall have completed the taking of the testimony, he shall so certify upon the same, and shall immediately transmit the whole of such testimony, evidence and exhibits, properly marked and attested, to the Grand Secretary, who shall immediately notify the Grand Master and each member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, whose duty it shall be to appear at the time and place named for the trial of said cause, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine said cause.

Provided, That for good cause shown, they may postpone such hearing, or continue the hearing to a time and place to be determined by them, and may make and enforce any order not inconsistent with the principles of the Order nor in violation of any law of this Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which they may deem proper and consistent with the principles of justice; and in all their proceedings and rulings they, as nearly as may be, shall be governed by the rules and usages of Courts of Equity Jurisdiction in this State. And when they shall have heard and determined the issues presented by such charges and specifications, they shall publicly (that is to members of the Order) announce their judgment, and shall reduce their opinion and judgment to writing, subscribe the same, and thereupon transmit the same, together with all the papers, evidence, etc., in their possession and relating to such cause, to the Grand Secretary; and the finding and judgment so made shall stand and be held to be the judgment of this Grand Lodge.

Provided, That any member of the Order, or such Lodge by any three of its officers or Trustees, shall be permitted to prosecute an appeal to the Grand Lodge, or to the Grand Master if the Grand Lodge is not in session, by giving notice in writing of such appeal within thirty days next after the filing of such judgment, which notice shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

Provided, That such judgment shall be read to this Grand Lodge at its next session, and shall be subject to review thereby.

Provided, further, That any member of the Lodge so charged may, personally or by agent (being an Odd Fellow), appear before said committee at the time of said trial and enter his personal plea of not guilty of all such charges and specifications; and said committee, at such time and place (after they shall have determined the issues as to said Lodge) as they shall select, shall hear such evidence as such brother or brothers may present tending to prove his or their innocence of the offense charged; and if said committee shall determine that any such brother is in fact innocent of any such offense, they shall enter final judgment acquitting such brother thereof, and shall make such order as will, in so far as may be under the circumstances, restore the brother or brothers to all rights and privileges in the Order, such as issuing to him from the office of the Grand Secretary a card as in the case of a defunct Lodge, etc., and it shall become the duty of the Grand Master to carry into effect and enforce such judgment.

PROPOSED GENERAL LAWS.

Grand Representative.

WHEREAS, The Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution, Article IX, Section 1, provided how Grand Representatives shall be chosen, which reads as follows: (See Thornton's Code, Section 683.)

"Sec. 1. Grand Representatives.—Grand Representatives shall be chosen by the several State, District and Territorial Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments for the term of two years, and shall, as near as may, be divided into two classes, whose seats shall be vacated annually by rotation; and if vacancies occur by death, resignation or otherwise during the recess of the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment of any State, District or Territory, such vacancies shall be filled in the manner pointed out by the Constitution of such State, District or Territorial Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment"; and

WHEREAS, At the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, held in 1905, the following amendment was made to-wit:

"Section 1. Grand Representatives.—Grand Representatives shall be chosen by the several State, District and Territorial Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments for the term of two years, and shall, as near as may, be divided into two classes, whose seats shall be vacated annually by rotation; and if vacancies occur by death, resignation or otherwise during the recess of the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment

Advertising in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Order.

Past Grand Master Stone spoke of the practice which prevails to some extent of printing business advertisements in the pamphlets containing the Constitution and By-Laws of Subordinate Lodges, and moved that the Grand Lodge forbid the continuance of such practice.

Brother McDougall, of 41, moved to amend—"that it is the sense of this Grand Lodge that such practice should be discontinued."

A motion by Brother Needles to postpone action on the subject until the next annual session prevailed on call for a division and count.—Yeas, 105; Nays, 104.

Annual Session of 1907.

Resolved, That the session of the Grand Lodge for the year 1907 shall be held in the city of Peoria.

(Signed) A. GREENSTONE, Rep. 21, Peoria.
H. C. HERMANN, Rep. 109, Peoria.
EMIL UNZICKER, Rep. 295, Peoria.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the resolution presented by Brother A. Greenstone, of No. 21, and others (Document No. 4), asking that the Grand Lodge hold its meeting at Peoria in 1907.

We have duly considered the same, and, as the place of meeting is fixed by the Constitution, we would recommend that the resolution be laid on the table for one year.

Fraternally submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

ORPHANS' HOME I. O. O. F.

To the Subordinate Lodges I. O. O. F. of Illinois.—Greeting:

DEAR BROTHERS: The following statement is issued by the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home of Lincoln, Illinois, pursuant to Sections 2843 and 2846 of the Illinois I. O. O. F. Code of 1906.

Section 2843. "The Orphans' Home Board and the Old Folks' Home Board are instructed to make no contracts pledging the credit of the Grand Lodge, except for maintenance and ordinary repairs, until directed to do so by the Grand Lodge."

Section 2846. "If at any time the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home or the Directors of the Orphans' Home shall deem it necessary to raise an amount in excess of five thousand dollars for permanent improvements, notice thereof shall be given to the Grand Secretary, and notice shall also be given to the Subordinate Lodges by the Grand Secretary, thirty days prior to the session of the Grand Lodge following."

Statement by Board of Directors.

Your Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home of Illinois, realizing that a portion of the heating equipment of the Home is in such physical condition that it must be replaced with new boilers, etc., in the very near future, respectfully submit to your honorable body the following:

WHEREAS, The present arrangement for heating the Orphans' Home buildings and operating its laundry makes necessary the operation of five separate boiler plants, with all the consequent losses from inefficient combustion and inferior economy, increase in radiation losses, and difficulty and inconvenience in attendance; and

WHEREAS, The buildings are lighted partially by electric light and partially by gas, both current and gas being purchased, and the premises are supplied with water purchased from the City of Lincoln, except the small quantity obtained by hand pumps from two ordinary dug wells; and

WHEREAS, The cost of lighting and furnishing water for the Home during the years 1903, 1904 and 1905 and nine months of 1906, has been $2915.91, an annual cost of $777.48, being 10½% of the estimated cost of equipment for furnishing electric light and irrigation for the Home; and

WHEREAS, During each dry summer, such as the one just passed, the gardens and pastures become parched and burnt, and it becomes necessary to purchase in the market large quantities of vegetables for table use, and feed for the stock; therefore, we most respectfully recommend:

That your Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home of Illinois be authorized and instructed to have erected and installed buildings and equipment as follows:

FIRST: An adequate building to contain the Home laundry and bakery, and a central steam plant from which will be supplied all the steam for laundry and heating, and all hot water used on the premises, for all purposes and at all times.

SECOND: An electric dynamo with engine attached, of sufficient capacity to supply all lights needed on the grounds and throughout the buildings.

THIRD: A well, bored or driven to the necessary depth, and a large wind mill, supplemented by an electric motor, and a tank, to furnish all the water required in the buildings, and to supply water for irrigating the garden and pastures, and watering the lawn and walks.

The estimated cost of this work completed, taking into consideration the probable continued increase in cost of materials and labor, the comfort and convenience of our charges and employees, and above all the inevitable, continued growth of the Home, and the importance of providing that future additions may be made at the minimum of expense and interference with existing conditions, is $18705.00, divided as follows:

FOR HEATING: Building and chimney complete, all excavating, two steam boilers, 66"x16" with breeching and brick-work, steam and return pipes, valves, traps, etc., hot water tank, pipes and pumps.....	$ 11,300.00
ELECTRIC LIGHTING: Electric generator and engine with foundation, switchboard and instruments, pole lines, new wiring and rewiring old buildings, switches, etc.....	4,305.00
IRRIGATION: Well, mill, tank and tower and piping.....	3,100.00
	<hr/> $ 18,705.00

Resolved, That the sum of $20000.00, or such part thereof as may be necessary, be appropriated from the funds of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Illinois for the purpose of making the improvements herein described to the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home, said sum to be available as follows:

A sum not exceeding $12000.00, or such part thereof as may be necessary to erect the building and install the machinery necessary for heating and furnishing hot water for the Home buildings, as set forth in the first item in the above recommendations, during the year 1907.

A sum not exceeding $4500.00, or such part thereof as may be necessary, to install the machinery and appliances necessary to supply electric light for the Home buildings and grounds, as set forth in the second item of above recommendations, during the year 1908.

A sum not exceeding $3500.00, or such part thereof as may be necessary, to dig or drive a well, erect a wind mill, tank and tower, and place in position pipes necessary for irrigating the Home grounds, as set forth in the third item of above recommendations, during the year 1909.

The information needed to enable your Board to compile the data and estimates herein submitted, was furnished by Brothers Chas. F. Foster and James Henry Harris, consulting Engineers, and P. Carlin, Contractor and Builder, who gave of their time and expert knowledge free of charge, and we take this opportunity to thank them for their valuable assistance.

CONCLUSION.

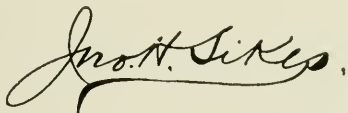

Odd Fellowship everywhere is taking higher ground morally and socially. Its influence is world-wide; its stamp of disapproval is placed upon vice in all its forms; its restraining influence cannot be overestimated; and while it acts as a deterrent upon the lives of many, its far greater usefulness comes from the wholesome lessons taught in our Lodge rooms, and the inspiration derived by our members to do better and nobler things.

Our Order has made wonderful strides in Illinois, not only numerically and financially, of which record we are proud, but in the larger field of usefulness. Our greatest virtue and the sign by which we have a right to live, is service to our fellow man. The practical work of Odd Fellowship in the relief of distress and the elevation of human character has gained for us the plaudits of the world.

We are proud of Illinois Odd Fellowship. Proud of Grand Sire, E. S. Conway, who hails from this Grand Jurisdiction and whose ability will tell for Odd Fellowship during the next two years. We are proud of the work and success which Grand Master, W. R. Humphrey has accomplished, and prouder still of the loyalty of our membership.

The kindest feeling exists in all branches of the Order, and I extend most sincere thanks to my associates and co-workers in all departments, and particularly to Major General, James Henry Harris, Department Commander, Patriarchs Militant; Grand Patriarch, Chester M. Turner; Grand Scribe, Henry C. Feltman; President of the Rebekah Assembly, Sister Lina D. Carlin; and to Sister Mary P. Miller, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly.

With a firm belief in Odd Fellowship as an efficient agency for the betterment of men and its usefulness in the field of distress, I fraternally submit this report.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

With extreme pleasure, we, your Grand Representatives, present you a report of the proceedings of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, held in Parliament building, in the City of Toronto, Province of Ontario, Canada, September 17 to 22, 1906.

The following officers were present:

Robert E. Wright.....	Grand Sire
E. S. Conway.....	Deputy Grand Sire
John B. Goodwin.....	Grand Secretary
M. Richards Muckle.....	Grand Treasurer
Joseph Hall.....	Grand Marshal
Edwin L. Pillsbury.....	Grand Guardian
C. H. Lyman.....	Grand Messenger

The following Past Grand Sires were present:

Milton J. Durham.....	Kentucky
John C. Underwood.....	Kentucky
Cl. T. Campbell.....	Ontario
Fred Carleton.....	Texas
Alfred S. Pinkerton.....	Massachusetts
A. C. Cable.....	Ohio

Dr. J. A. Lucas, of Illinois was appointed Grand Chaplain, pro-tempore.

The following appointments were also made:

Official Reporter, E. W. Bradford, Grand Master of the District of Columbia.

Assistant Grand Messenger, J. A. Craig, P. G. R., of Maratime, Provinces.

Assistant Grand Guardian, August Grassman, P. G. R., of New Jersey.

Journal Clerk, W. H. Leedy, P. G. R., Grand Secretary, of Indiana.

Reading Clerk, Louis F. Hart, Grand Secretary, P. G. R., of Washington.

P. G. R. Yantis was continued on the special committee on Patriarchs Militant.

G. R. Brown was placed on the Committee of Legislation, and G. R. Lucas was appointed on the Degree of Rebekah.

Grand Sire's Report.

Extracts from the Grand Sire's Report.

To The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

OFFICERS AND REPRESENTATIVES: I congratulate you upon the favorable conditions and auspices under which we meet in the eighty-second annual convocation of this Body. Excepting the terrible catastrophe which fell upon California and upon our membership there the year has been one of unexampled prosperity to Odd Fellowship. Our membership is larger, the field of our operations broader, our financial strength greater, and the organization for our benevolent work more efficient than ever before in our history. While for some years Odd Fellowship has been well in the lead of all secular benevolent and fraternal associations, each succeeding year, including the last, has placed it still farther in advance of all others. Statistics are generally most uninteresting reading, and I shall therefore give but a few of the more important items to show the magnificent strength and growth of our Order. Our last reports cover the year 1905, and, as compared with the previous year, make the following exhibit:

Lodge members.....	1,217,145	1,278,065	60,920
Encampment members.....	177,839	185,370	7,531
Rebekah members, brothers.....	170,583	178,636	8,053
Rebekah members, sisters.....	303,476	322,647	19,171

The total number of persons belonging to the Order is 1,600,712.

As the brothers of Rebekah lodges and of encampments are also members of subordinate lodges, they are not counted again in the above total. The total amount expended for relief in the several branches of the Order for 1905 was $1,680,387.74, being an increase over 1904 of $49,643.69. This, of course, does not include the amounts sent by the Order to California for the relief of Odd Fellow sufferers from the earthquake. That matter will be treated separately herein.

I regret that I am not able to report that the Patriarchs Militant branch has shared in this general prosperity and progress. The membership shows a decrease of 72. The unfortunate condition of this branch of the Order is not due to any lack of interest or enthusiasm in its membership nor to a want of efficiency and ability in its officials. They have been working energetically against conditions for which they are not responsible and which make the growth of that branch almost impossible. I discuss this subject more fully in another part of this report and consider it one of the most important problems before us.

I am glad to be able to report that the finances of The Sovereign Grand Lodge are in excellent condition. I desire again, as in my last report, to congratulate the Order upon the fact that the prosperity of Odd Fellowship is not confined to localities, but is uniform and unbroken throughout the world, and that it is spreading in all directions. Wherever civilization penetrates, Odd Fellowship follows as one of its evangelizing forces. In the islands of the Pacific, in the Philippines, in Japan and Hawaii, in Alaska and the far north British provinces, in the West Indies, Mexico, and Central America, the flag of Odd Fellowship has been raised and the Order is becoming one of the established institutions of those communities. If time and space permitted, it might be interesting to show the growth of our Order since it was last the good fortune of this Body to meet on British soil, although our association with our English brothers has been so close and cordial that we have long since forgotten geographical and political lines of separation. While in our conclaves we endeavor to forget and always disregard these lines of division, yet the entire membership has grown to admire and to honor the loyalty to country and to government so strongly evinced by our Canadian brethren at our meetings. We are glad to be with you on this occasion and trust that our meeting will be fraught with good to the Order in your provinces.

NECROLOGY.

The memorial proclamation issued last May and attached as an exhibit shows the deaths of many distinguished members of the Order and Past Grand Representatives, among them Grand Representative F. A. Stier of the District of Columbia, who had long been an able and useful member of the Body.

Proceeding now to the business features of my report, I respectfully present to you for your consideration the decisions rendered by me since the last session.

DECISIONS.

In rendering decisions I have confined myself closely to such cases as were presented to me under the provisions of the constitution, namely, by Grand Lodges, Grand Encampments, Grand Masters, Grand Patriarchs, and Grand Representatives. I have refrained from passing upon all other questions presented as being beyond my jurisdiction and powers.

Subordinate Lodge Decisions.

DECISION 1. Statement.—The By-Laws of a subordinate lodge contain the following provisions:

"Dues and Funds—Sec. 1. Every member of this lodge, excepting as hereinafter provided, shall pay into the general fund of the lodge One Dollar in advance each quarter, beginning with the quarter commencing January 1st, 1905. * * * *

"Penalties and Conditions—Sec. 1. No member, whose dues are not paid in advance as required by Sec. 1, Art. III of these By-Laws, nor who is more than thirteen weeks in arrears for assessments shall be entitled to receive the pecuniary benefits of this lodge, nor shall he be entitled to speak or vote upon any question until his indebtedness is paid."

Question.—When a member's dues under these By-Laws are paid in advance to July 1, but no payment is made for the period subsequent to July 1, is a brother who is taken sick between July 1 and October 1 entitled to benefits?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 41 and 43.

Dec. 2. Statement.—A brother applied to his Lodge for a withdrawal card on August 8, and the Lodge deferred action on his application until such times as his books were audited, he being an officer of the Lodge. On September 5 following, the Lodge, by ball ballot, granted the withdrawal card to be delivered when his accounts were audited and approved by the Lodge. The books of the brother had not been audited or approved by the Lodge on September 5, nor were they audited or approved for a period of four weeks thereafter and until October 2. During the interim from September 5 to October 2, the brother deposited his official receipt in another Lodge in accordance with 1903 Journal 15,285,314 as found in Busbee's Digest, Section 2657. He was elected to membership in the Lodge in which he had deposited his official receipt. At the time of the depositing of the official receipt in the new Lodge the brother had not yet received his withdrawal card.

The uniform Constitution for Subordinate Lodges in New Jersey reads as follows:

"Article 2, Section 4.—A brother of the Order desiring to become a member of this Lodge shall present his withdrawal card or dismissal certificate from the Lodge in which he last held membership, which with his application shall be referred to a committee on investigation, and be in all other respects disposed of as provided by Section 2 of this article and other applicants."

Section 2 provides for initiation of persons who have not been previously members of the Order, and lays down the procedure for election to membership of such a person in a Subordinate Lodge.

On or about October 4, 1905, the Lodge that had withheld the withdrawal card pending an investigation of the books, issued and delivered the same to the brother.

Query 1.—Can a withdrawal card be considered as granted when the Lodge withholds it as above mentioned?

Query 2.—Can the brother avail himself of the privileges granted under Section 2657 in Busbee's Digest?

Query 3.—Is the action of the brother as above set forth legal, and will he become a member of the new Lodge upon his depositing his withdrawal card, when received by him, and signing the Constitution and By-Laws of such Lodge?

Query 4.—Under Section 2657 of Busbee's Digest is it not mandatory for the Grand Master to compel the Lodge to deliver the withdrawal card applied for, it having been granted under the circumstances above stated?

Query 5.—Is it not true that Article 2, Section 4, above referred to, applies only to members to whom the withdrawal card or dismissal certificate has been actually delivered and not to the brother whose case is presented in the foregoing facts?

Answer.—I answer the above Queries as follows:

Query 1.—I answer, No, not until delivered.

Query 2.—I answer, That this query is somewhat indefinite, but I answer, Yes.

Query 3.—I answer, Yes, provided he receives and deposits the withdrawal card before signing the Constitution and By-Laws of the new Lodge.

Query 4.—This question requires no answer, because the statement shows that the Lodge has granted and delivered the withdrawal card.

Query 5.—It appears in the statement that this is a case in which the Lodge has granted the withdrawal card and has delivered it, and it has been deposited with the new Lodge to which the member has been elected. There is no room, therefore, for the application of this question to the case stated.

See Busbee's Digest, Sections 971 and 2657.

DEC. 3. 1st. Statement and Question.—A Lodge in Alabama has a brother who is about to be prosecuted in the Lodge for violating the laws of the Order; the son of this brother is the Noble Grand of the Lodge. Will it be lawful for him to preside, appoint the committees, and conduct the proceedings during the trial, he being the son of the defendant in the case?

Answer.—It will not be lawful for the son to preside, appoint the committee and conduct the proceedings during the trial.

2d. Statement and Question.—In the case above stated, it appears that all the Past Grands of the Lodge are either related or directly interested in the trial and ask if it is competent to ask a Past Grand of some sister Lodge who is not interested to preside at this trial.

Answer.—It would be competent to ask a Past Grand of some sister Lodge, not interested, to preside at the trial, unless the local law makes provision for the change of venue in such case.

DEC. 4. 1st Statement.—A brother away from his home Grand Jurisdiction dies without an estate and is buried by a Lodge where he is. The amount allowed by his home Lodge for burial expenses is insufficient to reimburse the Lodge conducting the burial for the expenses incurred, the same being as low as possible consistent with decent burial.

Question.—Can the Grand Lodge, to which the Subordinate conducting the burial is subordinate, reimburse said Subordinate out of its general fund the amount expended by it in excess of the amount received from the deceased brother's home Lodge? Or would such a use of the general fund be a misuse of trust funds?

If the Grand Lodge can make such use of its general fund, would it be legal for it to provide in its Constitution to reimburse all Subordinates similarly situated upon the recommendation of its Finance Committee and the approval of its Grand Master?

Answer.—A Grand Lodge cannot expend its funds for the payment of funeral or other benefits, either by re-imbursing Subordinate Lodges the difference between the amount authorized to be paid under the law applicable and the amount actually expended in a given case, in behalf of their own or sojourning members, or otherwise, and a Grand Lodge cannot by constitutional provision authorize such expenditure of its funds.

2d Statement.—A member of the Order plays base ball on Sunday and in the game is severely injured and for a time totally disabled.

Question.—Would the fact that he brought on the disability while playing on Sunday relieve the Lodge from paying sick benefits on the ground that the injury was caused by his own immorality?

Answer.—Yes, if the laws of the State prohibit; otherwise, No.

DEC. 5. Statement.—A brother, whom we will call Bro. A., makes application to his Lodge on August 8, 1905, for a withdrawal card. We will call this Lodge B. On September 5, 1905, B. Lodge, on motion, granted the withdrawal card to Bro. A. Bro. A. apparently did not call for his withdrawal card and sign the same in the presence of the proper officer of the Lodge, so at a regular meeting of B. Lodge, held October 3, the Secretary was instructed to forward Bro. A. his withdrawal card by mail. Bro. A. lives in Jersey City, and has not changed his residence for a number of years. B. Lodge is quite near Bro. A.'s residence, and he has been a member of this Lodge for a number of years.

On September 15, Bro. A. applied for admission in a Lodge which we will call C. Lodge, in Jersey City, also.

Bro. A. made his application to C. Lodge by depositing his official receipt. On September 22, at a regular meeting of C. Lodge, the committee reported favorably on Bro. A.'s application, and the Lodge elected him to membership. On September 29, C. Lodge instructed their Secretary to communicate with Lodge B., requesting the withdrawal card of Bro. A., and in that letter quoted the law as passed by The Sovereign Grand Lodge of 1904, on page 761, in the Journal of the Session of 1904—the said resolution applying to members wishing to join another Lodge by depositing their official certificates.

At a regular meeting of C. Lodge, held October 6, Bro. A. deposited his withdrawal card and signed the Constitution of C. Lodge.

Query 1.—Is Bro. A. a legal member of Lodge C., he not having changed his address?

Query 2.—Had Bro. A. a right to join Lodge C. under the circumstances, he not having changed his address, except in the manner as provided for in our Constitution, Article 2, Section 4 (see copy enclosed)?

Query 3.—Is the said Bro. A., under the circumstances, a member of any Lodge?

Query 4.—Under the circumstances has Bro. A. any right to run for office of Grand Representative, which is being voted for in this Jurisdiction from October 16 to the end of October.

Answer.—I answer:

Query 1.—Yes, but the legislation of 1904 above referred to has no application to this case and the validity of his separation is not dependent on that legislation.

Query 2.—Yes.

Query 3.—Yes, he is a member of the new Lodge he has joined as above stated.

Query 4.—I see nothing in the facts above recited to prevent being a candidate.

DEC. 6. Question A.—A Lodge has admitted members since 1895 who were and are still engaged in the saloon business. How am I to proceed to get them out?

Answer.—By notifying the Lodge through its proper officers (in case some member does not do the same) to prefer charges against the brother, based on the fact that he continues in the saloon business. I assume, of course, that the brothers you speak of were admitted to the Order after the legislation which made saloon-keepers and bartenders ineligible.

Question B.—If the members thus admitted were ignorant of their ineligibility and made no concealment of their business, or it was at least known to the Lodge, and now they persist in continuing in the business, what are their rights, and what course should the Lodge pursue?

Answer.—Charges should be preferred against them under which they would be liable to expulsion from the Order. See decision of Grand Sire No. 61 at the session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, 1905, and the report of the Judiciary Committee thereon by Rep. Goudy, being Report No. 10, approved.

DEC. 7. Question 1.—Is the law of 1887 (Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal 1887, pp. 10,990 and 11,028), as to the duties of Odd Fellows away from home, and also to be found in Busbee's Digest, Section 172, now a law, or has it been superseded by the law of 1899 (Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, pp. 321, 322, 353, 354)?

Answer.—The resolutions of 1899 supersede and replace the resolutions of 1887.

Question 2.—Is the proposed law of 1898 (Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, pp. 16,056, 16,112, 16,115, and also to be found in Busbee's Digest, Section 172) now a law, or did it ever become a law or was the consideration of this proposed law indefinitely postponed (Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal 1893, p. 16,115)?

Answer.—The resolution never became a law, its consideration was indefinitely postponed. (See Journal, 1898, page 16,115).

Question 3.—Is the law of 1899 (Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, 1899, pp. 344, 374, and also to be found in Busbee's Digest, Section 325) providing that a visiting card and an official certificate paid to a date later than when presented, limited to the Continent of North America, both as to visiting card and the official certificate?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 8. Statement.—The Grand Master (John F. Whear) of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, at the session of 1904, rendered the following decision:

"3. A brother, who was regularly admitted to and retained membership in the Order for at least five years and who has been suspended for non-payment of dues and is now over 50 years of age can only be received into membership as a non-beneficial member."

This decision, after reference to the Judiciary Committee of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, was approved by it. Not satisfied with the correctness of this decision, Grand Representative Bro. J. L. Stewart from the Maritime Provinces of Canada submitted to Grand Sire Goodwin a question supposed to cover this decision and which was disposed of at the session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge at San Francisco in 1904. The question submitted to Grand Sire Goodwin is embodied in his supplemental report (see Journal, 1904, p. 585) and reads as follows:

"Question.—Is a brother who is under suspension for non-payment of dues, and who is over 50 years of age, eligible for re-instatement to beneficial membership, the Grand Lodge of his Jurisdiction not having legislated to the contrary?

"Will the Grand Sire kindly answer the above question in his supplementary report?

J. L. STEWART, G. R."

"I may say for your information, that the above question was decided in the negative in our Grand Lodge, the law being deduced by implication from the section of White's Digest providing for the admission of suspended members over 50 years of age as non-beneficial members.

J. L. S."

"The answer is 'yes.'—John B. Goodwin, Grand Sire."

This decision of Grand Sire Goodwin was referred to the Judiciary Committee and on their report was approved. See Journal, 1904, pages 585, 752, and 820.

At the session of the Grand Lodge of Maritime Provinces of Canada there still existing some doubt on the question, a resolution was adopted appointing Past Grand Masters Whear, MacDonald, and Chesley to report the facts fully to The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the session of 1905 for re-consideration and reply. It is this statement by the committee of three which was presented to The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the 1905 session and referred to me, and which I am now considering. In this statement appear the following facts which it is assumed bear upon the question decided by P. G. S. Goodwin.

Sections 22 and 23 in the Constitution for the government of Subordinate Lodges under the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Provinces of Canada read as follows:

"Section 22.—Any Lodge may receive, as non-beneficial members, members of defunct Lodges who were in good standing in their respective Lodges at the time of surrender of their respective charters, and who, by reason of their advanced age, may be considered ineligible for beneficial membership, at such fee as may be fixed upon by the By-Laws of the Lodge."

"Section 23.—Non-affiliated Odd Fellows, who have been regularly admitted to, and retained membership in, the Order for at least five years, and who, at the time of making application for re-instatement or membership, shall be over 50 years of age, and who have not been expelled or suspended for cause, other than non-payment of dues, may be admitted to any Lodge as non-beneficial members upon such terms as the By-Laws may prescribe."

It is stated that the decision made by Grand Sire Goodwin was based on the statement in the question to the effect that the "Grand Lodge of his Jurisdiction (Maritime Provinces) not having legislated to the contrary." It is now claimed that Section 23 of the Constitution of the Subordinate Lodges of the Maritime Provinces, constitutes a fact that would have modified the conclusion reached by Grand Sire Goodwin and The Sovereign Grand Lodge, if it had been presented in the question propounded and disposed of in 1904.

Question.—Is the decision of Past Grand Sire Goodwin as approved by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, as above quoted, a correct statement of the law in view of the additional facts now developed and presented?

Answer.—Section 22 of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution of the Maritime Provinces has no bearing on the matter, because it relates entirely to non-beneficial membership from defunct Lodges. It does not appear in the question now propounded that the inquiry relates to a member of a defunct Lodge. Section 23 of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges of the Maritime Provinces gives to Subordinate Lodges the right to admit to non-beneficial membership in such Lodge, non-affiliated Odd Fellows who had regularly been admitted to and retained membership in the Order for at least five years, etc. I cannot construe this provision to mean that Subordinate Lodges shall not have the right to admit such persons to beneficial membership, if they so desire. My answer, therefore, is that the decision of Grand Sire Goodwin approved in 1904, was correct, and that the sections of the Constitution of the Maritime Provinces above quoted do not affect it.

Dec. 9. Statement.—A brother of a Lodge, being dissatisfied by its action on a matter in which he was interested and while on his way home from Lodge meeting privately told the Noble Grand of his Lodge to call for his withdrawal card at the next meeting. As soon as the dissatisfied brother reached home he recovered from his anger and determined to recall his request for the granting of a withdrawal card. He resides in the country, but has telephone connection with the town in which the Lodge is located. He made two efforts on the telephone to reach the Noble Grand to ask him not to ask for the withdrawal card, but failed to reach him. He came to town to see the Noble Grand, but he was out of town. He thereupon told five of the brothers of his Lodge, living in the town, to withdraw the application for his card, but all of these brothers failed to attend the meeting. The Noble Grand verbally presented the absent brother's request for withdrawal card, and it was granted by vote. It has never been issued or delivered. At the next meeting of the Lodge the brother in question appeared and explained the matter and asked that the Lodge rescind its action granting the withdrawal card; thereupon a motion was made to that effect.

Question.—Can the Lodge adopt such rescinding resolution under the circumstances?

Answer.—Yes.

Dec. 10. Question 1.—Can a non-beneficial member, who makes application for membership accompanied by his official certificate, on being elected, become a non-beneficial member in his new Lodge? Or must he join as a beneficial member, he not being at the time a non-affiliate?

Answer.—Whether he can join as a non-beneficial member depends entirely upon the local legislation of the Jurisdiction on the subject of the admission of members of that kind. Of course this answer is predicated on the assumption that he has complied with all of the provisions of the resolution of 1904 (Journal, p. 761), and that the conditions prescribed in that resolution all exist.

Question 2.—If the brother takes withdrawal card and makes application for membership thereon, while same is in date, can he become a non-beneficial member? (He being a non-beneficial member of his old Lodge at the time the withdrawal card was granted.)

Answer.—Whether he can join as a non-beneficial member depends entirely upon the local legislation of the Jurisdiction on the subject of the admission of members of that kind. Of course this answer is predicated on the assumption that he has complied with all of the provisions of the resolution of 1904 (Journal, p. 761), and that the conditions prescribed in that resolution all exist.

DEC. 11. Statement.—The Grand Lodge of South Carolina by proper legislation has provided for an assessment of 50 cents per member semi-annually for the support of orphans' homes.

1st Question.—If a member fails to pay the Orphans' Home tax, but does pay the usual Lodge dues, does he thereby become in arrears and lose rights and finally be liable to suspension?

Answer.—The answer to this question must depend on the local legislation of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina to be found either in its Constitution or By-Laws or the Constitution prescribed by it for Subordinate Lodges, or in some other form of legislation. The question of what taxes, fines and assessments may be included in charges against members so as to make them non-beneficial or to affect their standing in the Lodge is one to be settled by the legislation of each Grand Lodge. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 410, 414, 415, 416, 417 and 418.

2d Question.—Under the conditions stated in the first question, if a Lodge fail for two successive semi-annual terms to pay or to require its members to pay its tax may such Lodge be denied right of representation in the Grand Lodge, pursuant to the general law.

Answer.—Yes, but this answer may be affected by the local legislation of your Grand Lodge, which has not been presented to me.

DEC. 12. Statement.—The Constitution of a Subordinate Lodge provides that "Nominations for elective offices must be made at the two meetings immediately preceding that of the election." It also provides that "All elections of officers shall be by ballot and a majority vote of all the ballots cast shall be necessary to elect." The Secretary of the lodge was renominated for the position to succeed himself and on the nights prescribed by the Constitution. We will designate this candidate as Bro. A. No other candidates were nominated as prescribed by law. On the night of election 17 ballots were cast. Of these six were cast for Bro. A., and eleven were blank ballots. The N. G. ruled that there was no election, as no candidate had received a majority of all the votes cast. On appeal to the lodge from this decision, the N. G. was sustained, whereupon notice was given that an appeal to the Grand Lodge would be taken. After this notice the N. G. entertained another nomination for the office of Secretary. The nominations were declared closed and a ballot ordered. The new nominee I shall designate as Bro. B. The ballot was taken, resulting in seven votes being cast for Bro. A. and thirteen votes for Bro. B. The N. G. declared Bro. B. duly elected Secretary.

Question.—Which of the two brothers, if either, is the lawfully elected Secretary of the Lodge?

Answer.—Neither of them. A. failed to receive the majority of the votes cast. Blank ballots are to be considered as votes cast in determining the question of whether or not a candidate had received a majority of all votes cast. B. was not elected because he had not been nominated as provided by the Constitution, and therefore was not eligible to be voted for or elected. See Busbee's Digest, Sec. 1129, 1380.

DEC. 13. Statement.—Section 2 of Article 2 of the Constitution for the government of Subordinate Lodges, under the immediate jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, contains the following provision in respect to balloting for applications for membership, to-wit:

• "The candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots, and if not more than two black balls appear against him, he shall be elected, but if three or more appear he shall be rejected and so declared."

Question.—In a lodge working under the immediate jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, can balls and cubes of the same color be used in taking such ballot, the cubes being of the same color as the balls to take the place of and to be considered as black balls.

Answer.—My answer is "No." While it has been held that the use of a black cube satisfies the requirement for the use of a black ball, yet I am of opinion that under this provision of the Constitution the distinction and difference in color between the negative and affirmative votes cannot be disregarded. White balls and black cubes would answer the requirements of the Constitution. See Busbee's Digest, Section 1899.

DEC. 14. Statement.—The Constitution of subordinate lodges in the Jurisdiction of Connecticut provides for a change of venue to be granted at the discretion of the Grand Master upon petition of the accused. The petition for a change of venue acts as a stay. When the Grand Master orders a change of venue, the Secretary of the Lodge to which the accused belongs forwards all records and papers to the Secretary of the Lodge designated by the Grand Master to try the case. When the committee is named the trial proceeds in regular order. The Constitution then goes on to say: "The Trial Committee shall take all the evidence in writing and shall report all its findings in the matter, together with all the evidence in the case, to the Secretary of the Lodge to which the accused belongs and shall recommend such punishment as, in its judgment, the offense requires. If the committee finds the accused guilty, the Lodge shall, within two weeks after the filing of said report, proceed to inflict the proper penalty provided by the laws of the Order."

Question 1.—Suppose the accused to be found not guilty, can the Lodge to which he belongs refuse to accept the report of the committee and find the brother guilty?

Answer.—No; the law does not contemplate that the lodge of the accused shall have power to revise or reverse the committee's finding on the question of guilt.

Question 2.—Can the Lodge to which the accused belongs under the law, as stated above, do anything else with the report of the committee from the other Lodge than carry out its findings? If the accused is guilty to inflict the penalty imposed within two weeks; if not guilty, to accept the report.

Answer.—The Lodge is bound to accept the finding of the committee as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. It is not bound, however, to accept the recommendation of the committee as to the punishment to be inflicted. It can decline to accept such recommendation and “proceed to inflict the proper penalty provided by the laws of the Order,” for the offense of which he stands convicted.

DEC. 15. Question.—Can a trial committee from a Subordinate Lodge admit as evidence the ground and cause upon which certain decisions of the Superior Court are given, and present evidence from the defendant or any other witnesses as to the testimony before said Court to show why a certain decision was given, objections being made to such evidence?

Answer.—I assume from your question that by way of analogy a decision of your Superior Court is being cited before a trial committee as bearing upon the questions involved. So understanding, my answer is that it would not be competent to go into evidence to show the grounds on which the Superior Court reached its conclusions. Such a procedure would encumber the record of the trial committee with a multiplicity of irrelevant issues.

Question.—Can the same committee admit as evidence an attested copy of Superior Court record and a decree of said court, also all papers filed in court bearing on the case, objections being made to such evidence?

Answer.—Yes, if the evidence thus offered is relevant to the issue tried. No, if it is not relevant.

DEC. 16. Question 1.—In the absence of local legislation can a Subordinate Lodge or Encampment provide for payment of a fixed sum in full of all dues during life; in other words, can a Lodge sell life membership relieving the member from all future payment of dues?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Can a Subordinate Grand Body (I presume you mean Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment) authorize its Subordinates to provide in their By-Laws for life membership of beneficiary members?

Answer.—I do not know exactly what is meant by “life membership.” I assume you mean entitling a member to benefits for life upon the payment of a fixed round sum instead of periodical dues. Thus understanding your question, I answer “No.”

DEC. 17. Statement.—A person joined a Lodge one and one-half miles from his residence. Twenty-five or more years ago he moved to another location in the same town about six miles from his Lodge-room.

He now applies to a Lodge in another town between a quarter and a half mile nearer his residence, passing the door of a Lodge in his own town, about two and one-quarter miles from his residence.

Question.—Does such an application come under the transfer law of 1904?

Answer.—No. I understand that the Lodge to which he belongs now is located about six miles from his residence, while the Lodge he proposes to join is in another town and about five and one-quarter or five and one-half miles from his present residence. I also understand that there is another Lodge in the town of his residence, and but two and one-quarter miles therefrom. I do not think that this brother has moved from the vicinity of his own Lodge to the vicinity of the one he desires to join, within the meaning of the Resolution of 1904.

DEC. 18. Statement.—The Constitution of Subordinate Lodges of the Jurisdiction of Ohio contains the following Section 131. "A member who shall commit any act made criminal by the laws of the State of Ohio shall be guilty of an offense against the laws of the Order."

"Section 132.—A member of the Order who is convicted of a crime and is sentenced and is serving a term in a State prison or penitentiary shall be deemed guilty of an offense against the laws of the Order and upon conviction shall be expelled."

The provisions of the Ohio law respecting the presentation of charges, trial, conviction and punishment are detailed in sections of Constitution of that Jurisdiction numbered from 147 to 165, inclusive. The only provisions in said sections pertinent to the questions now under consideration are the following: "Section 154. To sustain charges or impose penalties of suspension or expulsion shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of all members present and entitled to vote."

A member of an Ohio Lodge was tried in a Court of Common Pleas in Ohio, on a charge of subornation of perjury. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. Counsel for defendant moved the court for a new trial, which motion was overruled and the defendant sentenced to four years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary of Ohio. A few months thereafter complaint was filed in the brother's Lodge, charges presented founded on the facts above stated, and trial proceeded with in full compliance with the provisions of the Constitution. The evidence submitted to the Lodge and its committee in support of the charge consisted of a certified copy of the record of the trial, conviction and sentence of the defendant in the Court of Common Pleas and a certificate from the officer in charge of the penitentiary, showing that the defendant was at that time imprisoned therein. The prosecution offered no further testimony. The defendant submitted no testimony and the question of guilt was then submitted to a vote of the Lodge, which resulted in thirteen members voting guilty and twelve members voting not guilty, the votes for conviction thus being less than the two-thirds required by law.

Question.—What will be the proper method of procedure to secure punishment of the brother? Has the Grand Master the right or the power to order a re-hearing of the case or should he proceed to discipline the Lodge for contempt?

Answer.—The prosecutor or any member of the Lodge conducting the trial could appeal from the decision of the Lodge. See Busbee's Digest, 2082.

DEC. 18½. Statement.—Section 72 of the Constitution of Ohio provides that "Each beneficial member in good standing who shall be disabled by sickness or injury to his person from following some legitimate business, provided said sickness or injury shall not have been occasioned by his own improper conduct, and who shall have been a member of the Lodge for six months, shall be entitled to receive as benefits," etc. Section 77 provides "That at the decease of a member there may be appropriated toward defraying the expense of his funeral an amount not to exceed $100."

Question.—Can a Lodge by By-Law limit the payment of sick benefits to Third degree members in good standing? Can it also limit the payment of funeral expenses to members of the Third degree in good standing, or must funeral expenses be paid for all members, regardless of the degrees they have taken?

Answer.—A Lodge has the right to limit the payment of sick benefits to Third degree members unless there is something in the law of the Jurisdiction (of Ohio) to prevent it.

Under Section 77 of the Ohio Constitution the payment of funeral expenses seems to be optional with the Lodge and not a right of the member. A Lodge may confine the right to funeral benefits to Third degree members, if there is nothing in the local law (Ohio) to prevent it. See Busbee's Digest, Sec 23, and Sections 72-77 Ohio Subordinate Lodge Constitution.

DEC. 19. Question 1.—Can a Subordinate Lodge legally adopt and enforce a By-Law authorizing an assessment on the members in case there is a deficiency in the fund from whence payments are made for nurse-hire (the By-Laws providing for nurse-hire), funeral benefits, sick benefits, and for the general expenses, without the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction passing an enabling law.

Answer.—Yes. Unless there is something in the Constitution of the Subordinate Lodge or in the local legislation of the Jurisdiction to prevent. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 16, 1827, 1840, 1846, 1847.

Question 2.—Can a Grand Lodge pass such an enabling law as is contemplated in the preceding question (No. 1)?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 3.—Can a Subordinate Lodge legally adopt and enforce a

By-Law providing for the payment of an annuity to the widow and orphan children, or either of them, of a brother who died in good standing, the annuity to run for life or a period of years, as the case may be, without the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction passing an enabling law?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 488, 489, 492, 493.

Question 4.—Can a Grand Lodge legally pass such an enabling law as is contemplated in preceding question (No. 3)?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 488, 489, 492, 493.

Question 5.—Can a Subordinate Lodge legally adopt and enforce a By-Law authorizing an assessment on its members to pay such annuity (see Question 3) in case the fund from which such payments are made is depleted without the Grand Lodge of the Jurisdiction passing an enabling law?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 488, 489, 492, 493.

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 488, 489, 492, 493.

DEC. 20. Statement.—In June, 1905, a brother was elected Noble Grand of a Lodge to serve for the term of six months. He served at every meeting of the Lodge, until November 1, when, intending to leave home on business, he resigned his office of Noble Grand, and a successor was elected who served out the balance of the term.

Question.—Is the resigning Noble Grand entitled to the honors of the office?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest (1903), Sections 1463, 1464, 1469.

DEC. 21. Statement.—Some members of a Lodge, dissatisfied with some of the officers, went to others, and on various pretexts, prevailed upon some fifty to unite with them in applying for withdrawal cards for the purpose of forming a new Lodge. They attend the Lodge in a body, apply for the cards and vote that they be granted, they being in the majority at the meeting.

Question.—Have Lodge members, dissatisfied with the officers, a right to band themselves together, go into the Lodge, each apply for a withdrawal card, unitedly vote to grant them for the purpose of applying for a charter for a new Lodge in the same place?

Answer.—I know of no law to prevent it.

DEC. 22. Statement.—Charges were brought against a brother in his Lodge for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow. After due trial according to code of procedure, he was found guilty and immediately declared suspended by his Lodge for twelve months. The defendant immediately gave notice of appeal to the Grand Lodge. Notwithstanding the notice of appeal, his Lodge notified the Grand Secretary of his suspension and his name was forwarded by that officer to all Lodges in the Jurisdiction advising them of his suspension, thereby carrying into effect the sentence pending an appeal.

Question.—Has the brother the right to have his name withheld from the suspension list by the Grand Secretary pending an appeal?

Answer.—The question whether an appeal by a brother from action of a Subordinate Lodge to the Grand Lodge shall operate as a supersedeas and suspend all action until the appeal is determined is one to be settled by local law entirely.

DEC. 23. Question.—Is it necessary in transferring membership under the new law of 1904, for a member to accompany his application with a visiting card, official certificate or other evidence of membership and standing—if he has not a withdrawal card? If not, what proof may the Lodge require to show that the applicant is a member of the Order?

Answer.—The application need not be accompanied by a visiting card or official certificate, nor by any other evidence of membership and standing, except that the application itself must set forth all the facts necessary to bring the applicant within the provisions of the Resolution of 1904.

Paragraph E of Grand Sire's decision No. 77, found on page 39, Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal of 1905, gives specifically all the requirements in this connection.

DEC. 24. Question.—Does the law passed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session at San Francisco in 1904, relative to transfer of membership by card or certificate, contemplate an age limit, or is a Lodge compelled to admit members of any age, without charge, who bring themselves within the purview of that law, or blackball such as are not desirable on account of advanced age?

Answer.—The law referred to does not contemplate any age limit. Under the resolution the Lodge, of course, has the right to determine whether it will admit the candidate to membership. When it does decide to admit to membership by election, then the Resolution of 1904 applies, provided, of course, all the conditions contemplated in the Resolution of 1904 exist and have been complied with.

DEC. 25. Statement.—A brother's dues are paid to January 1, 1906: he dies on January 19, 1906, having been for six weeks previous thereto unable by reason of sickness to follow his usual occupation or any other occupation by which he could earn his livelihood. He was never reported in open Lodge as being ill. Being a railroad employe, he was placed on the company's sick list, and on the same day went to a member of his Lodge (a Past Grand Master holding a minor office in the Lodge, and a frequent attendant at Lodge meetings) and informed him of his having been placed on such railroad sick list, and that his physical condition seemed such that he would not resume work for some weeks.

Further, according to the statement of the Past Grand Master referred to, the brother told him that it might be necessary to go to Florida in an endeavor to overcome the ailment. The Constitution of the Lodge contains the following pertinent provisions:

Article 2, Section 2, Clause 2.—“Every Scarlet member qualified as required by the By-Laws, not being more than three months in arrears shall, in case of sickness or disability, be entitled to and receive such weekly benefits as may be fixed by law from the funds of his Lodge after his case has been reported to the Lodge * * * to commence not later than two weeks after being placed on the sick list as the By-Laws may provide,” etc., etc.

Clause 4.—“In case of the death of a brother qualified as provided in clause 1st, there shall be allowed to his widow or dependent relatives as a funeral benefit such sum as the Lodge may determine, not less than $30 for a Scarlet member.”

The By-Laws of the Lodge provide, inter alia, as follows: Article 3, Section 5.—“Widows and orphans of members who died in good standing shall be entitled to receive from the Widows’ and Orphans’ Fund “such sums as the Lodge may see fit to grant them.”

Article 4, Section 1.—“Every member of the Scarlet degree in good standing * * * and not disqualified by these By-Laws, shall, if sick or disabled, receive weekly the sum of $2 per week during such sickness or disability,” etc., etc. * * * No brother shall be entitled to benefits for more than one week previous to his case being reported to the Lodge, and the Lodge shall possess unquestionable evidence that the member is entitled to benefits.”

Question 1.—Was the brother in good standing at the time of his death?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—Was the notice given (to the Past Grand Master) sufficient under the law of the Lodge, even although he failed to convey the same to the Lodge?

Answer.—No.

Question 3.—Is the brother’s widow entitled to the six weeks’ sick benefits?

Answer.—No.

Question 4.—Is the brother’s widow entitled to the usual death or funeral benefit?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 5.—Is she (the widow) entitled to donations from the Widows’ and Orphans’ Fund, when deemed by the Lodge as being in need thereof?

Answer.—Yes.

See Bushee’s Digest, Sections 35, 71, 75.

Dec. 26. Question.—A Syrian born in Damascus, Asia, is proposed for membership in an Odd Fellows Lodge. Is he a "white man," within the meaning of our Constitutional provision on this subject?

Answer.—Yes. The words, "white man," in our Constitution are synonymous with Caucasian. Syrians belong to the Caucasian, or white race.

DEC. 27. Statement.—Some members of a Lodge were nominated for office, but were not elected. Election was regular and legal beyond any question by any one. Some members were not satisfied with the officers appointed by the Noble Grand. Those who were not pleased induced many others to join with them in an agreement to get withdrawal cards for the purpose of organizing a new Lodge, and got them to sign a paper to that effect.

They then went to the Lodge, applied for cards, and voted on the applications, and at that meeting, being in the majority, the majority of the ballots cast were in favor of granting the withdrawal cards.

Question 1.—Should the Lodge issue the cards voted as stated in the above statement.

Answer.—Yes. I assume that the cards were applied for and granted in due form. The purpose for which they were applied for, namely, the organizing of a new Lodge, was not unlawful.

It is not within the province of any one to inquire into the motives that actuated these members, in doing what they had a legal right to do.

Question 2.—Were the withdrawal cards voted in accordance with the above statement legal cards for any purpose.

Answer.—Yes.

Question 3.—If the action was illegal, what ought the Lodge to do in regard to those applying for the cards?

Answer.—The action was not illegal, therefore the Lodge should do nothing.

DEC. 28. Question A.—Is it legal or permissible for a Lodge of the I. O. O. F., when the anniversary of the Order (April 26) falls on a week day, to defer the celebration to the following Sunday, and hold a meeting private or public for such celebration on such Sunday?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Section 1.

Question B.—Is it legal or permissible for the Lodge to hold a meeting on Sunday for the purpose of presenting the Order in its true light to the public and to advance interest therein and to instruct in its tenets and work?

Answer.—There is no positive law against it, but the Order does not favor it, except on occasions of religious or semi-religious character, such as funerals, memorial services, etc. Busbee, Section 1854.

Question C.—If such anniversary meeting as is referred to in Question A is held on Sunday, the 29th of April, in the present year, may the expense of such Sunday celebration be legally paid from the funds

(general or contingent) of the Lodges participating in such Sunday meeting and celebration?

Answer.—If held on Sunday, April 29, No. If held on April 26, Yes. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 1, 509.

DEC. 29. Statement.—A Subordinate Lodge in the Jurisdiction of New Jersey adopts the following resolution, to-wit:

"Resolved, That the Union label be placed on all local printing of this Lodge."

Under this resolution the Lodge has printed letter heads containing the name and number of the Lodge, its location and nights of meeting, the date of its institution and certain emblems of the Order, namely, the three links and the All-seeing Eye at the head of the sheet. At a prominent place near the head of the sheet is the so-called Union label, on which occur the words Allied Printing Trades Council, Newark, N. J., Union Label. This label advertises the fact that these letter heads are printed in establishments in which Union labor only is employed.

Question.—Is this action of the Lodge, to-wit, the resolution and action, legal?

Answer.—No. See Busbee's Digest, Section 471.

DEC. 30. Question A.—A member of a Lodge belonging to the United States Army is taken sick and is paid his salary while sick by the Government. Is he entitled to benefits?

Answer.—If otherwise entitled under your local law, the fact that he receives his salary does not disentitle him to benefits.

Question B.—A member of a Lodge, clerking in a store, is taken sick, and while sick, his employer pays him his salary. Is he entitled to benefits?

Answer.—If otherwise entitled under your local law, the fact that he receives his salary does not disentitle him to benefits. Busbee's Digest, Section 95.

DEC. 31. Statement.—The Constitution of a Subordinate Lodge contains the following provision:

"At the decease of a brother of a Lodge, who was, while living, entitled to benefits, not less than thirty dollars shall be appropriated from the funds thereof as a funeral benefit, which shall immediately be paid over to the widow, orphans (under the age of twenty-one years), the dependent relatives of the deceased, or relatives upon whom the deceased was dependent at the time of death. In the event of the death of a member, in good standing, not possessing any of the above named beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, and leaving no estate, or insufficient assets, to pay the expenses of funeral, the Lodge shall pay the bill of the undertaker and other necessary expenses to an amount not exceeding the funeral benefit, the Noble Grand taking charge of said funeral, and paying therefor out of said appropriation, and making report to the Lodge. A Lodge may vote to pay funeral expenses directly to the undertaker, but a funeral benefit shall not be paid to an executor or an administrator."

The By-Laws of the same Lodge contain the following provision on the subject:

"On the death of a member, when agreeable to the relatives of the deceased, the Recording Secretary shall notify the brothers of the Lodge, if practicable, in order that they may attend the funeral; and if the deceased member was qualified therefor, a funeral benefit of fifty dollars shall be appropriated and paid to the beneficiaries. If there are no such beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, the Lodge shall pay the funeral expenses, to an amount not exceeding fifty dollars, the Noble Grand taking charge of the funeral, when necessary, and paying the expenses thereof out of said allowance, and report to the Lodge."

Question.—Is the provision of this By-Law valid in all its parts under the Constitution?

Answer.—The provisions of the Constitution and of the By-Laws must be read together, so as not to conflict and if there is any conflict the provision of the Constitution governs. Under the Constitution the duty of the Lodge to pay funeral expenses is confined to cases where the deceased (being entitled to benefits) leaves no beneficiaries under the law and also dies without leaving an estate. Under these conditions, the provision of the By-Laws would be valid, but this provision must be confined to cases where the deceased brother leaves no estate sufficient to provide for his burial.

DEC. 32. Question.—Is there any general law to prevent a band, some of the members of which are members of an Odd Fellows' Lodge, from taking the name of such Lodge?

Answer.—No, provided the consent of the Lodge be first had and obtained.

DEC. 33. Statement.—A. was admitted as a charter member into a Lodge in Tennessee, February 24, 1888, and continued a member until November 18, 1893, when he took a withdrawal card.

On May 10, 1904, he presented his petition for membership in another Lodge as an Ancient Odd Fellow, and filed with his petition his withdrawal card from the first Lodge. His petition gave his age as 54 years. Said petition was referred to a committee, which made a favorable report, and on June 7, 1904, he was duly elected to membership, and has continued as a member and been at all times in good standing since said time.

At the time of making application he paid the fee provided by the By-Laws for Ancient Odd Fellows, which was $2.00.

Since his admission he has paid the dues provided for all members of said Lodge.

The By-Laws make no distinction as to dues as to beneficial and non-beneficial members.

A. took sick and made application for sick benefits. His application was referred to the Sick Committee, which reported that he was not entitled to same, because he was at time of his admission a non-affiliated Odd Fellow, over 50 years of age, under Section 13, Article 2, of the Constitution of Subordinate Lodges of Tennessee, a copy of which is here filed as a part of this statement of facts.

The By-Laws of the Lodge do not specially provide that non-beneficial members, admitted under Section 13, Article 2, Constitution of Subordinate Lodges, shall be entitled to benefits. Said By-Laws are silent on that matter. The By-Laws of the Lodge do not provide what fees non-beneficial members shall pay, under Section 1, Article 7, Constitution of Subordinate Lodges, nor what dues they shall pay, under Section 3, Article 7, Constitution of Subordinate Lodges. There is not a word in them about non-beneficial membership.

The record at date of application for membership and date of election does not state whether he was admitted as a non-beneficial member or otherwise. It is silent on that question.

Contention.—A. contends that because he did not make application for non-beneficial membership, and because the Lodge did not specifically elect him as a non-beneficial member; that, therefore, he was received as a beneficial member, and entitled to benefits because he has paid the same dues as other members.

The Lodge contends that because he was, at the time of making application, a non-affiliated Odd Fellow, and had retained membership in the Order over five consecutive years, and was over fifty years of age, that he, under Section 13, Article 2, Constitution of Subordinate Lodges of Tennessee, came in as a non-beneficial member whether he applied for such membership or whether the Lodge elected him to such membership or not; and under said Section he was not entitled to benefits unless specially provided for in the By-Laws.

Question.—Is Bro. A. a beneficial or non-beneficial member of the Lodge?

Answer.—He is a non-beneficial member. The only provision to be found in the Constitution of Subordinate Lodges of Tennessee in relation to the admission of persons above the age of 45 years, is that contained in Section 13 of Article 2 of such Constitution and that section provides only for the admission to non-beneficial membership.

Section 13 of Article 2 of the Constitution reads as follows:

"Non-affiliated Odd Fellows, who have been regularly initiated into the Order, and have retained membership for at least five consecutive years, and who, at the time of making application for reinstatement or membership, shall be over fifty years of age, may be admitted to membership as non-beneficial members upon the payment of such admission fee as its By-Laws may prescribe. Where the application is not for reinstatement, it shall be accompanied with the withdrawal card or dismissal certificate of the applicant. All applications under this section shall be referred to an investigating committee, and in all respects disposed of as other applicants for membership. Such non-beneficial members, when so admitted, shall have no claim upon the Lodges for weekly benefits in case of sickness or disability, nor shall their families be entitled to funeral or educational benefits from said Lodge unless specially provided for in the By-Laws, but in all other respects shall enjoy the same privileges as other members.

DEC. 34. Statement.—Section 1 of Article 2 of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges of Idaho sets forth the conditions of eligibility to Lodge members, and inter alia declares that the applicant "must have been a resident of the Jurisdiction of the Lodge to which he applies at least six months immediately previous to his application."

Section 7 of the same article of the Constitution provides that "No petition for membership either by initiation or upon card shall be received or acted upon by the Lodge if the residence of the applicant be within a less distance to any other Lodge, unless the consent of the Lodge nearest the residence of the applicant be first obtained."

Question.—Does the expression "jurisdiction of the Lodge" in Section 1 of Article 2 mean the Jurisdiction of the Lodge or the Grand Jurisdiction in which the Lodge exists?

Answer.—It means the Jurisdiction of the Lodge as set forth and defined in Section 7 of Article 2 of the Constitution, as above quoted. See Busbee's Digest, 906, 907, 909.

DEC. 35. Statement.—The By-Laws of a Lodge provide as follows: "Every member of this Lodge, excepting as hereinafter provided, shall pay into the general fund of the Lodge $1.50 each quarter in advance, beginning with the quarter commencing January 1, 1906." They further provide in another section that "Every member of the Scarlet degree in good standing and not disqualified by these By-Laws shall, if sick or disabled, receive weekly the sum of $2 during such sickness," etc.

The By-Laws contain no other provision bearing on this matter.

A brother on January 1, 1906, pays his full dues for the quarter ending April 1, 1906. Between January 5 and 10, 1906, he is taken sick.

Question.—Is he in good standing, and entitled to benefits under these By-Laws?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 36. Statement.—A new Lodge is instituted in a locality surrounded by Lodges that have been in existence, perhaps, some of them for years, but, owing to the increase of population, there is room for another Lodge. Some of the members of the older Lodges desire cards in order to become charter members of the new Lodge, or perhaps to unite with the new Lodge after its organization, as the new Lodge is nearer and more convenient to them.

Question.—Shall the older Lodges charge the old fee of $1 for cards to said members asking for same, or shall the older Lodges grant said cards under the new law for the minimum fee of 25 cents?

Answer.—I presume by the expression "new law" you refer to the resolution adopted by The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the session of 1904, providing for the change of membership on the change of residence. My answer to your question is that the Resolution of 1904, has no application to the case stated in your question and that the charge should be such as is provided by law without regard to the Resolution of 1904.

DEC. 37. Statement.—A member of a Lodge, being entitled to benefits which are being regularly paid him at the time, enters a Soldiers' Home and the hospital connected therewith provided under the laws of the State for sick, disabled, aged, or indigent soldiers.

Question A.—Is the brother entitled to a continuance of weekly benefits after his admission to said home, he being in receipt of benefits at the time of his admission thereto?

Answer.—Yes. See Busbee's Digest, 61.

Question B.—If the brother was not on the sick list at the time of his admission to the home, would he be entitled to weekly benefits for a sickness or disability occurring at any future time, while he remains an inmate thereof?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 38. Question.—Can a member of the Order in Australasia, who has recently removed to Boston, transfer his membership without fee, as provided in the new law (1904), relative to the transfer of membership without fee? In other words, does the new law apply to quasi-independent Grand Lodges?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 39. Question.—In conferring the Second degree, is it necessary that the person filling the position of inn keeper should be a Past Grand?

Answer.—No. Any Third degree member is competent to fill the position.

Encampment Decisions.

DEC. 40. Under existing legislation, as settled in 1904, encampments may be instituted under the Jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge on the petition of five Scarlet degree members of the Order. There need not be twenty petitioners. See Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal of 1904, pp. 739, 790, 791, 847.

DEC. 41. Question.—Does the law, as stated in Section 351 of Busbee's Digest, require that before a properly qualified brother can be elected Noble Grand or Chief Patriarch from the floor, every Past Grand or Past Chief Patriarch must be first elected to the office and decline, or will such declination without being preceded by the formality of an election permit the election of a brother from the floor?

Answer.—If all the Past Grands and Past Chief Patriarchs present decline, or being present, assent to the selection from the floor, a mere formal election followed by a declination is not necessary.

DEC. 42. Statement.—The Constitution of a Grand Encampment contains this provision: "The necessary expenses incurred by the Elective Officers of the Grand Encampment, and one representative from each encampment to the Grand Encampment, in coming to, attending on, and returning from its session, shall be paid by the Grand Encampment; provided, that no mileage or per diem shall be paid any representative from an encampment which has among its members an officer of this Grand Body (Grand Encampment) in attendance at the session." A Patriarch of a Subordinate Encampment in the Jurisdiction is an appointed officer (Grand Marshal) of the Grand Encampment.

Question.—Under these circumstances is the Subordinate Encampment entitled to a mileage and per diem paid to its representative?

Answer.—No, not if the Grand Marshal (being a member of such encampment) is in attendance at the session.

DEC. 43. Statement.—A member in good standing of an encampment, holding an official receipt in date, changes his residence from the home of his encampment in Detroit to Jackson in the same state—Michigan. He presents his official receipt to Wildey encampment at Jackson, making formal application for membership there. He is regularly elected to membership and the Scribe so informs his former encampment, and asks for a withdrawal card for the brother. The encampment at Detroit in regular form grants the withdrawal card, and forwards the same to the Scribe of the encampment at Jackson. The brother has not yet signed the Constitution of the encampment at Jackson, but is ready and willing to do so. During the time the card is in transit, the brother becomes ill. The encampment at Jackson thereupon declines to permit the brother to complete his membership by signing the Constitution.

1st Question.—Is the brother still a member of the Detroit Encampment?

Answer.—No. The granting of the withdrawal card under the circumstances stated terminated his membership in that encampment.

2d Question.—Is he entitled to sign the Constitution of the encampment at Jackson?

Answer.—Yes. The encampment, having regularly elected him to membership, cannot prevent his signing the Constitution, simply because he became sick after his election.

3d Question.—Is the brother entitled to benefits during his present sickness from either of the encampments?

Answer.—Not from the Detroit encampment, because he is not a member of it. Whether he is entitled to benefits from the Jackson encampment depends upon the local law to be found (presumably) in the Constitution and By-Laws of the encampment at Jackson and in the laws of the Jurisdiction of Michigan. In the absence of any local provision on the subject, the mere fact that he became sick between his election and the signing of the Constitution would not deprive him of the right to benefits from Jackson encampment if he is otherwise entitled under the local law.

Rebekah Decisions.

DEC. 44. Statement.—The State Assembly of Iowa, approved by the Grand Lodge of Iowa, adopted the following resolutions, to-wit:

"Resolution 1, Adopted at the 1903 session. Inasmuch as it requires much help among sisters during the sessions to teach the secret work to delegates wishing commissions to instruct in the same, be it Resolved, That the Grand Master appoint one sister who is capable as a member of his Board of Instruction."

Question.—Is this resolution legal and proper?

Answer.—No. The effect of the resolution is to place on the Grand Master's Board of Instruction (which has relation to other work as well as Rebekah) a sister who is not and cannot be a member of a Subordinate Lodge or of the Grand Lodge, but whose membership is necessarily restricted to the Rebekah Lodge. I do not consider this either a legal or proper resolution.

DEC. 45. Statement.—At the session of 1904 the State Assembly passed the following resolution:

"Resolution 2. Adopted 1904 session. Resolved that we petition the Grand Lodge to grant the President of the Rebekah Assembly the power of appointing upon the recommendation of the Grand Lodge Board of Instruction, three sisters to be known as the Rebekah Board of Instruction who shall bear the same relationship to the Rebekah Assembly as the said Board to the Grand Lodge."

Question.—Is this resolution and request legal and proper?

Answer.—Yes.

DEC. 46. Question.—Where charges have been preferred against both the Noble Grand and Vice Grand of a Rebekah Lodge, what is the proper mode of procedure?

Answer.—The mode of procedure for the trial charges is governed and controlled entirely by local law. Without knowing the local law of your jurisdiction on this subject, I cannot decide this question.

DEC. 47. 1st Statement.—A brother, a Past Grand in good standing in his Subordinate Lodge, also a member of the Grand Lodge, and in possession of the Past Grand and Grand Lodge degrees and a member of the Rebekah Assembly, having received the Assembly degree, and served a term as Noble Grand in a Rebekah Lodge, claims the right by virtue of being a Past Noble Grand of a Rebekah Lodge to vote at election of officers and hold office in a Rebekah Assembly.

Question.—Has he a legal right to vote for officers in a Rebekah Assembly and can he hold or be elected to or appointed to an office?

Answer.—His right to vote and to hold office depends on the legislation of the Assembly of his Jurisdiction as approved and permitted by the Grand Lodge of that Jurisdiction. This legislation may be found either in the Constitution or the By-Laws of the Assembly, or in other legal forms of legislation. Without knowing the provisions of the law of the Jurisdiction of the State of Washington (from which State this question comes) I cannot answer the question intelligently. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 2473 and 2474.

2d Statement.—At the session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, 1901, a resolution was presented by Rep. Colaw (see Resolution No. 24, Journal, page 294), providing for the retention of members over 60 years of age, their protection against suspension for the non-payment of dues and the relief of the lodge against the payment of per capita tax. By report No. 114, Journal 1901, page 392, the resolution was reported favorably, practically without change, but consideration of it was postponed until next annual session, Journal 1901, page 414. At the session of 1902, Journal, page 1012, the report was taken up, considered and adopted.

Question.—Does this law apply to the Rebekah branch of the Order?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 48. Statement.—The Constitution of a Rebekah lodge provided that to elect to the office of Vice Grand requires a majority of all votes cast. At an election there were cast 22 votes. Of these 12 were cast for A., who was not eligible, and 10 for B., who was eligible.

Question.—Who, if either, was elected?

Answer.—Neither. A., because she was not eligible; B., because she did not receive a majority of the votes cast. Votes cast for an ineligible candidate are as much to be counted in measuring the total vote as blank ballots would be. See Busbee's Digest, Sections 1129, 3380.

DEC. 49. Statement.—In the general instructions issued for insertion in Rebekah rituals, the following appears:

"Honors of the Degree.—The honors are to be given to all elective and past Grand Officers of a Grand Lodge or Rebekah Assembly when visiting Rebekah Lodges officially or when their titles are announced at a visitation."

Question.—Are District Deputy Grand Masters of Rebekah Lodges entitled to the honors of the degree when visiting Rebekah Lodges officially?

Answer.—No. They are neither "elective" nor "Past Grand officers." The legislation entitling D. D. G. M.'s to honors in Subordinate and Encampment branches does not include them. Busbee's Digest, Sections 1306, 2203, 2530.

DEC. 50. Question.—Is a solid gold jewel in the form of a five-pointed star in a circle with the emblem of the Rebekah degree on it, attached to a pink and green ribbon, sufficient regalia for a Past Noble Grand to wear in a Rebekah Lodge, and to take part in its deliberations?

Answer.—No. See New Rebekah Code, Section 25 and page 11.

DEC. 51. Statement.—A Rebekah Lodge, desiring to raise funds to furnish a room in the Widows' and Orphans' Home, and to help defray the expense of their team to the session of the Grand Lodge, where it will compete for prizes offered for the best work, proposes to arrange to serve meals at the State Fair Grounds, displaying a sign about as follows: "Rebekah Lodge No. —, I. O. O. F. Lunch Stand."

Answer.—No, not unless the Lodge funds are used or jeopardized in the matter.

Patriarchs Militant Decisions.

DEC. 52. Statement.—Canton Seattle No. 3, of Seattle, Washington, has become dormant. There remains in the hands of C. F. Williams, Grand Treasurer of the Grand Encampment of Washington, a small sum of money representing the balance of the assets of the dormant canton.

Question.—To whom should Treasurer Williams pay this money as its lawful custodian?

Answer.—To the Department Commander, in this instance Major W. T. Horr, North Main street, Spokane, Washington. See Section 46, page 13, P. M. Code, found in Section 46, page 622, of Busbee's Digest.

Miscellaneous Decisions.

DEC. 53. Question.—When does an amendment to the Constitution of a Grand Encampment become effective? From and after its passage and adoption by the Grand Encampment or not until approved by The Sovereign Grand Lodge or the Grand Sire?

Answer.—Not until approved by The Sovereign Grand Lodge or by the Grand Sire.

DEC. 54. Question.—Is it permissible for a Grand Lodge to accord the honors of the Order to a Grand Master of a sister Jurisdiction when introduced, as such, when visiting?

Answer.—There is no law providing for the giving of the Grand Honors under the circumstances stated.

DEC. 55. Question.—When does amendment to the Constitution of a Grand Lodge become effective? From and after its adoption or must it wait until the Grand Sire of The Sovereign Grand Lodge has approved it?

Answer.—It does not become operative until approved by The Sovereign Grand Lodge or by the Grand Sire, in vacation.

DEC. 56. Statement.—A Grand Representative to The Sovereign Grand Lodge is duly admitted to a Subordinate Lodge by being elected to membership by depositing his official receipt and signing the Constitution after his withdrawal card has been deposited in the new Lodge. Prior to the signing of the Constitution and the delivery of his withdrawal card by his former Lodge, the Grand Secretary of the Jurisdiction issues the official ballot for the election of Grand Lodge officers, such Grand Representative being one of the candidates named thereon, and being designated as a member of his former Lodge. Subsequent to the issuing of such official ballot he becomes a member of his new Lodge. The election for such Grand Lodge officers occurs two weeks after the time when he actually signed the Constitution and became a member of the new Lodge, and within too short a time to correct the ballots. The Constitution of the Grand Lodge of such Jurisdiction contains no provision respecting what shall be printed on the official ballot. There is, however, a resolution of the Grand Lodge which appears on such official ballot and reads as follows:

“Resolved, That the Grand Secretary forward to the Lodges in the State a sufficient number of tickets containing the names of all candidates who have accepted nomination for offices of this Grand Lodge, and also recommend that no ticket presented or sent by any other source be acknowledged or voted by any Lodge or Past Grand in this Jurisdiction.”

Your attention is called to the fact that this resolution does not require a designation of the Lodge to which the candidates respectively belong.

Query.—Upon the facts above set forth is a Grand Representative disqualified as a candidate by reason of the ballot designating him as a member of the Lodge with which he was formerly affiliated, and not setting forth the number of the Lodge of which he was actually a member at the time when the voting for Grand Lodge officers occurs?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 57. Statement.—Formerly the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia contained the following provision as to its sessions:

“The Grand Lodge shall hold regular sessions semi-annually on the third Wednesday in January and July of each year, the meeting in January is to be designated as the semi-annual session and the meeting in July the annual session. Officers shall be elected at the annual session.”

This section was amended at the July session of 1905 to read as follows:

The Grand Lodge shall hold a regular session annually on the third Wednesday in January of each year."

The present officers of the Grand Lodge were elected on July 19, 1905, and installed into office on July 20, 1905. The next session of the Grand Lodge will be Wednesday, January 17, 1906, and will be the first regular session under the Constitution, as above amended.

Question.—When does the term of the present Grand Officers end and when should their successors be elected? At the session January 17, 1906, or at the session in January, 1907.

Answer.—At the session of January, 1907, Busbee's Digest, Sections 1242 and 1243.

DEC. 58. Statement.—The Constitution of the Grand Lodge provides for the election of Grand Representatives to The Sovereign Grand Lodge by the Past Grands in Subordinate Lodges on the last meeting in May same as other Grand Lodge officers. The same Constitution provides for the filling of vacancies, as follows:

"Vacancies How Filled.—In case of vacancy in an elective Grand Lodge office by death, resignation, or otherwise, the Grand Master shall fill such vacancy by appointment, which appointment shall hold good until a successor is elected and installed, etc."

There is no other provision in the Constitution for the filling of vacancies in the office of Grand Representative, except as this provision might apply. In May, 1905, A. was elected representative to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, before the meeting of The Sovereign Grand Lodge in September, 1905, he resigned and the Grand Master of the State appointed B. to fill the vacancy thus created, making the appointment for the full unexpired term of A., B. served at the session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge in September, 1905. Early in October, 1905, and before the meeting of the State Grand Lodge, B. resigned, and the Grand Master of the State Jurisdiction appointed C. as Grand Representative to fill the vacancy, making the appointment for the full unexpired term for which A. was elected.

Question.—Had the Grand Master of the State the right to make such appointment and does the appointment continue for the full, unexpired term of A?

Answer.—I answer "Yes" to both branches of the question.

DEC. 59. Statement.—Eugene R. Bowler, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment, Maine, died on June 4, 1906. The Constitution of the Grand Encampment of Maine contains the following sections which constitute all the local legislation on the subject:

"Grand High Priest.—The Grand High Priest," etc. * * * "in case that office (the Grand Patriarch) shall become vacant from any cause, the High Priest shall have the full powers of the Grand Patriarch until the next regular session and the vacancy is filled."

There is a further provision that where both of the offices of Grand Patriarch and Grand High Priest shall become vacant, the Grand Senior Warden shall, during the recess ex officio become Grand Patriarch.

Question A.—Must the present Grand High Priest continue to act as Grand Patriarch until the next session, and then be elected Grand Patriarch for the next term, thus giving the honors to the deceased Grand Patriarch.

Answer.—The Grand High Priest shall have and exercise the full powers of the Grand Patriarch until the next regular session and until the vacancy is filled. Whether he shall then be elected Grand Patriarch must be determined by the Grand Encampment. The deceased Grand Patriarch is entitled to the honors of the term.

Question B.—Can the Grand Encampment at its next session announce the death of the Grand Patriarch and immediately elect the Grand High Priest to the vacancy, allow him to serve the day and elect his successor, thus giving to the present Grand High Priest the honors of Grand Patriarch.

Answer.—No. The Grand High Priest continues to exercise the powers of the Grand Patriarch until the vacancy is filled, and during that time he is simply filling out the term of the deceased Grand Patriarch. Should the Grand High Priest then be elected Grand Patriarch it would not be for a single day nor for any other fraction of the unexpired term of the deceased Grand Patriarch, but for the full new term.

Question C.—Can we call a special session of the Grand Encampment, and elect a Grand Patriarch?

Answer.—No.

DEC. 60. Question.—Since the adoption of a Past President's Jewel by The Sovereign Grand Lodge, are the Jurisdictions compelled to use that jewel, or may they continue the use of the jewel hertofore adopted by the Jurisdiction?

Answer.—No other jewel can be furnished than the one authorized by The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the session of 1905, though there can be no objection to using those heretofore authorized by parties having them and entitled to use them. See Journal, 1904, page 743; Journal, 1905, pages 348, 360.

DEC. 61. In order to be eligible to the office of Grand Representative, a brother must be a resident of the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge, or Grand Encampment he is to represent. See Busbee's Digest, Section 761. (That is, he must reside in the State, District or Territory in which the Grand Lodge, or Grand Encampment, which he represents, is located.)

DEC. 62. Statement.—The Constitution of the Grand Encampment of North Carolina provides as follows: Article III, Section 1. "The elective officers of the Grand Encampment shall be Grand Patriarch.

Grand High Priest, Grand Senior Warden, Grand Scribe, Grand Treasurer, Grand Junior Warden and Grand Representative, who shall be elected annually, with the exception of the Grand Representative who shall be elected biennially, and shall hold office until the election of their successors." From a canvass made by its Subordinates on June 30, 1906, the Grand Encampment found that it was entitled to two Grand Representatives, and a resolution was introduced to proceed to the election of a second Grand Representative to serve for one year. The Grand Patriarch ruled the resolution out of order on the ground that, although Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Grand Encampment provided for only one Grand Representative, a second one should be elected under the same regulations until said Article and Section had been amended under the provisions of the Amendment of Article IX, Section 1, of The Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution adopted in 1905. See Journal, page 328.

Question.—Was the ruling of the Grand Patriarch correct?

Answer.—No. In order to conform with the provisions of Section 1 of Article IX of the Constitution of The Sovereign Grand Lodge providing that Grand Representatives "shall be divided into two classes, whose seats shall be vacated annually by rotation," when the Grand Encampment of North Carolina had made a canvass at its 1906 session and ascertained that it was entitled to an additional Grand Representative, and proceeded with an election of such new Grand Representative, the brother elected should have been declared elected for one year, thereby establishing two classes. Therefore, notwithstanding the ruling of the Grand Patriarch the certificate issued in this case to the new Grand Representative must be held to be for one year.

Militant Branch.

The Militant branch alone in our organization fails to show substantial progress. There has been a loss in membership during the year of a little over 300, while but few cantons have been instituted. I do not doubt that the branch is in better condition than a year ago, owing to the weeding process that has been steadily going on, but the department still remains weak as compared to all the other branches of the Order. This condition of affairs in my judgment demands immediate attention and perhaps radical measures.

"That it is a most valuable and advantageous addition to our Order all will admit. It was organized to meet a pressing need; namely, that the Order might have some means of presenting to the public outward evidence of its strength and importance, which might thus attract public attention to our institution and a study of our work, which would inevitably result in its growth and spread. It was also needed to meet the military spirit and a desire for public display, which influences so many of the young and without which they were being led into other institutions less meritorious than ours. Its growth and development have been a disappointment, and the difficulty arises in my judgment from two reasons: First. The constituency from which the Patriarchs Militant could be recruited was entirely too small; and second, that constituency was comprised of older members of the Order, and those who would be least inclined to go into a military organization.

"Our encampment membership is about 170,000; our Subordinate Lodge membership about 1,200,000. The average age of members of the Encampment branch is necessarily higher than in the Lodges. The great body of Odd Fellows are excluded from membership in the Militant branch, except on condition that they also join the Encampment branch. Experience has demonstrated that on this basis the Patriarchs Militant branch will not grow, and will never become the important branch of the Order that it ought to be.

"I think it is safe to say that it is the almost universal opinion that the militants should be recruited from the Subordinate branch (Scarlet degree members) rather than from the Encampment branch, but for the fear that such a change would do the encampments an injury. It seems to me statistics clearly indicate that it is a mistaken view that the encampments are helped by the Militant branch, or that they will be injured by permitting Scarlet degree members to become Patriarchs Militant.

"I have gone to the trouble of collecting statistics on this subject so as to determine whether in point of fact the organization of the Militant branch has resulted in a substantial benefit to the Encampment branch. My recollection is that the Militant branch became active in 1886. Of course, it is safe to assume that as the subordinate branch grows, the encampment will also grow in reasonable proportions. In other words, that the encampments might be safely assumed always to include about the same percentage of Subordinate Lodge membership. If it were true that the Militant branch helps the encampment, the statistics ought to show that after the organization of that branch, the encampments included a larger percentage of the Subordinate Lodge membership than before. Yet this is not the case.

"The following statement shows the percentage of Subordinate Lodge members who were also encampment members at various periods from 1865 down to this date. It shows that at this time the encampment includes but 14 per cent of the Lodge membership, which is exactly the same percentage it included in 1865.

Year.	Subordinate.	Encampment.	Per Cent.
1865	153,598	21,632	14
1874	414,092	78,820	19
1875	434,719	83,061	21
1884	503,807	90,082	17
1885	515,295	93,180	18
1894	778,445	135,430	17
1895	738,968	133,551	16
1904	1,111,643	165,270	14

"These figures are a complete answer to the statement that the Militant branch has helped the Encampment branch, or that its present plan of organization is essential to the growth of the Encampment branch. Thus, while the Militant branch is not helping the Encampment branch, its growth is retarded by the small field from which it can draw its membership. The membership of the Militant branch is now about 18,000, or approximately 12.21 per cent of the encampment membership. In 1886 the percentage was 12.94 per cent. It never exceeded 19 per cent, and that was for but two years, and at one time it dropped as low as 5 per cent.

Assuming that if the Scarlet degree were made the basis of membership in the Militants, the same proportion of that membership would join as are now joining from the encampment, it will be seen that the Militants today ought to number 144,000 instead of 18,000. Is it not safe to assume that the percentage would be greater, because of the younger average age of the subordinate lodge constituency?

"This matter was very carefully and fully considered in the report of then Grand Sire Cable in 1901, and I beg to make the following extracts from his report to this Body of that year:

" 'A canton should never be mustered into service or instituted except in such sections as are densely populated with Odd Fellows.

" 'In this connection permit me to express as my belief, based upon close observations covering a period of several years, that all branches of Odd Fellowship would be greatly strengthened, a new and lasting interest awakened all along the line, if the qualification for membership in the canton was, as is now the case in the subordinate encampments, based upon the Third, or Scarlet degree.

" 'Many members of the Encampment branch fear that such a change of qualification would work an injury to that division of the Order. I do not believe, however, that such fears are well founded. On the contrary, for many reasons, I believe such a change would not only strengthen the Militants, but would prove to be the greatest blessing or help this body has ever given to the encampments and Subordinate Lodges. The feeling of opposition to fixing the qualification for membership upon the basis of the Scarlet degree was a few years since quite strong, based largely upon grounds that were untenable, possibly of a personal character.

"Today I venture the opinion, without having carefully investigated, that the Jurisdictions, at least a majority of them, having the largest Subordinate, Encampment, Rebekah and Militant membership are heartily in favor of such a change.' (See Journal 1901, pages 22 and 23.)

"This branch of the report was referred to the Committee on Patriarchs Militant, who made a report, from which I beg to submit the following extract (see Journal 1901, pages 397 and 398):

"We have fully considered his (Grand Sire's) recommendation to change the qualification for membership in a canton so that it shall be based upon the Third, or Scarlet degree, but do not believe that it would be expedient to approve the same, for the reason that the adoption of such a radical measure would require a complete reorganization of this branch of the Order. It would require a new name, a new degree, and many other equally imperative changes. Your committee, however, do not hesitate to say that the present field from which the Patriarchs Militant must recruit its membership is altogether too limited, and until it is enlarged they cannot hope to make material progress. When you take into consideration that less than 16 per cent of all who join Subordinate Lodges become encampment members, this statement cannot be successfully denied.'"

"It is obvious that the sentiment in favor of making the Subordinate Lodge the basis of the Militant branch has grown toward unanimity, and the only hesitation existing arises from the fear of injury to the Encampment branch.

"The statistics quoted above seem to indicate that this fear is groundless. I have given the matter much thought, and in view of the opposition that developed to the suggestion of Past Grand Sire Cable, it has occurred to me that a compromise course might meet with favor.

"My suggestion is this: First, That canton membership be based on Subordinate Lodge membership in the Scarlet degree. Second. That the possession of the Encampment degrees shall be essential to eligibility to all elected or commissioned offices in the Militant branch. This would give to the Militant membership the benefit of the large Subordinate Lodge constituency for the rank and file of its membership; and on the other hand would confine the eligibility to the offices in the cantons to encampment membership. I believe that this plan would help the encampments very much more than any possible aid that comes to them from the Militant branch, as at present organized. The effect would be that the more active, intelligent, ambitious element in the cantons aspiring for the offices would take the Encampment degrees so as to make them eligible to these positions.

"I have presented this thought to a number of those who have been active in the Militant degree, and the suggestions seem to meet with favor. I submit it now to The Sovereign Grand Lodge as the basis of some plan for the reorganization of the Militant branch. I feel that the Order can ill afford to have that branch in its present unsatisfactory and numerically weak position.

J. A. Lucas.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE.

"If the effect of this change should be that the same percentage of Lodge members join the Militant branch as now join it from the encampment, our Order could present a larger body of uniformed members than any other similar organization in the world.

"I beg to refer to the report of General Commanding Raney attached hereto and marked Exhibit A."

This portion of my report was referred to the Committee on the Patriarchal branch of the Order, which committee made a divided report. Both majority and minority reports are now in the hands of the Special Committee of Seven appointed at the last session.

The majority report of the Committee on Patriarchal Branch was adverse to the recommendations of the Grand Sire. It is found on page 350 of the Journal of 1905. The reason given for reporting adversely is embodied in this language. "We are most decidedly of the opinion that such a procedure would be but the beginning of the end of the Encampment branch and detrimental to the best interests of our beloved Order." Presumably, this report was well considered; doubtless it expresses the convictions of those members of the committee who signed it, but it is to be regretted that it did not present some reasons or statistics to support the "decided" opinion expressed. If it be true that the growth of the encampment is enhanced by the existence of the Militant branch, and that the continued life of the encampments depends upon the maintenance of the present status of the Militant branch, this fact should appear in the history of the growth of the two branches. In truth, the statistics show just the contrary and demonstrate that under the present arrangements the Militant branch is dying, while the encampments are not growing as they should.

I append below the latest statements we have on this subject. The first schedule marked "A" covers eleven Jurisdictions and includes the ten Jurisdictions in which the Encampment and Militant branches, respectively, are strongest. The second schedule marked "B" includes the ten Jurisdictions in which the Militant branch is weakest. Each schedule gives the membership of each branch with their gain or loss between 1903 and 1904. In six Jurisdictions the Militant branch loses or remains stationary, while the Encampment branch increases, namely, the Jurisdictions of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania and New Hampshire. In two Jurisdictions, both Encampment and Militant branches lost membership, namely, in Maine, Massachusetts. The other three Jurisdictions show the following results: In California the encampments gained 707, or about 11 per cent, while the Militants gain 157, or nearly 20 per cent. The 157 Odd Fellows who joined the Militants could hardly account for the 707 who joined the encampment. It might be interesting to know how many of the 707 who joined the encampment did so for the purpose of joining cantons. Iowa shows an encampment gain of 433, or nearly 5 per cent, while the Militant branch shows a gain of 21, or about 2 per cent. In Ohio the encampments gain 209, or less than 1½ per cent, while the cantons gained 77, or about 4 per cent. I do not doubt that figures from the other Jurisdictions would show the same conclusions, namely, that the prosperity of the encampment is in no wise dependent on the continuance of the present membership qualification in the Militant branch. A study of these schedules shows the following remarkable fact, namely, that in the eleven Jurisdictions where the Militants are strongest, the net gain of encampment members was a little less than 4 per cent, while in the ten districts where the Militants are weakest the gain in encampment membership was over 14 per cent.

EXHIBIT A.

ARMY HEADQUARTERS, BALTIMORE, Md., August, 1906.

Sir and Sire: As General Commanding the Patriarchs Militant it is with exceeding great pleasure that the honor is had to report to you, and through you to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, that the Military Department was never in a more exceedingly prosperous condition. In nearly every Department has the result of activity and fraternal energy so impressed themselves on existing conditions as to make apparent the solidity and permanent character of the Uniform degree as one of the desirable adjuncts of Odd Fellowship. Not alone in the newer and smaller Departments is the improved organization apparent, but also in the larger and older Departments, where the mustering in of recruits is constantly increasing, and the formation made more perfect throughout the lines. While, as will be observed, there is a very small net loss, yet even the number given is one for congratulation, particularly so when the elimination process necessary to arrive at a substantial basis is considered. Of itself the number of admissions during the year is quite complimentary, and but indicates that wherever an interest is taken under direction of competent and energetic officers, enrollment for the Patriarchs Militant may and can be had in numbers satisfactory to Militant enthusiasts and gratifying to all the Order. With the total number reported, assurance is had in the statement that such report correctly indicates the available active Militant strength, and confidence is felt that a satisfactory annual increase will be a feature of future annual reports. In fact, confidence is had that within the near future the present total enrollment will have been doubled. The experimental or "on trial" stage of the Patriarchs Militant in its onward progress has as a marker passed to the rear. Its desirability is now an attested fact. The general endorsement of approval by the public and the Order is to be seen wherever it has been established. As a factor of revenue for The Sovereign Grand Lodge there is none better. With these established facts in mind such attention should be given its needs as its merits from every standpoint demand.

As to the detailed report of Departments and Cantons, with other general information, orders, invested funds, etc., attention is directed to the more specific report of Adjutant General John B. Goodwin, to whom not only the General Commanding, but also every Officer and Chevalier, is greatly indebted for his great interest in and constantly alert activity for and on behalf of the Militant. Much of the better results of the year have come about because of his hearty and most agreeable co-operation, an acknowledgment it is a pleasure to make and a compliment but justly due. In establishing army headquarters at Baltimore our convenience and needs were but his wish, and most agreeable hereafter will be the hours devoted to office work at headquarters in company with the Order's able representative, thoroughly competent official, companionable gentleman and ever-to-be-desired friend. May his efforts for the good of all the Order continue with his service, for years without end.

Attention is directed to the fact that the stand of colors, comprising a Patriarchs Militant flag, United States flag, Canadian flag, Hawaiian flag and flag of Denmark, as carried by the General Staff, whenever the General Commanding is present on official duty, and particularly at the head of all general parades with that officer present; also the costumes worn by the lady assistants in the Grand Decoration of Chivalry ceremonies, as used each year, is the property of the Department of Iowa, for which compliment and courtsey due acknowledgement is herewith made. Such equipment should, however, be had in connection with general Militant headquarters, particularly at sessions of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, and would be in use many times each year, whenever the Grand Decoration is conferred, and to that end is action in such direction suggested.

Ofttimes is heard the criticism of constantly changing uniform regulations and that such legislation is a crying evil to the detriment of the Militant. Such assertions are reiterated with sufficient frequency as to become an apparent fact or, at least, an accepted condition of affairs by the uninformed, but the fact is that there has been less of legislated changes in the Patriarchs Militant uniform than in any other civil military organization during the same period. In 1898 the baldric was changed from one shoulder to the other and the dispatch box omitted. For the Chevalier no change has since been made. A Chevalier's uniform that was regulation in 1898 is still regulation. In 1900 a shoulder strap was adopted and rank markings omitted from coat collars. The demand for the shoulder strap is attested by its popularity and the fact that they were soon had by all officers. In 1903, a letter "R" on the collar was substituted for an elaborate and expensive device to indicate a retired officer. In 1904 a new cap was adopted for certain officers, all of whom and many others, were soon in possession of same. Hence the assertion of constantly changing uniform regulations is not warranted by the record or facts. The possible annual promotions of officers of the canton does require considerable change, all of which may be obviated by canton ownership of certain official equipment. The changes in commanding officers, by election, followed by new staff appointments, also brings about many changes in equipment, and generally speaking, it is from this latter class that criticism is forthcoming, when as a matter of fact the requirements of a change in equipment are all based on the acceptance of a new commission. The real fact being that any officer or Chevalier who retains the same position, and does not grow larger, has not been required to change equipment for many years. If ambition leads to the acceptance of a new commission, procure the necessary equipment therefor, but do not have it inferred from your efforts to dispose of the discarded outfit, that re-occurring changes in Militant legislation have made same necessary, because it is untrue and unwarranted.

Last year a suggestion for recruiting was made to Department Commanders as follows: "To each Oepartment Commander the suggestion is made that he at once assign some active, well-informed officer to do duty as a mustering officer, who can and will devote his time, or a portion thereof, to the work of mustering in new cantons, he to receive as compensation therefor $25.00 for each canton mustered. He to visit a town and, having a local active man to accompany him, proceed in obtaining signers to a canton petition, collecting $5.00 from each signer. When fifteen names are had, the petition may be sent in and with it $68.50. Of this $20.00 is for charter, rituals, books, etc., $4.75 for five officers' commissions, $18.75 for fifteen gold Patriarchs Militant badges, and $25.00 for muster and instituting officer. Leaving $6.50 for the local treasury out of the fees of the first fifteen. If more names are had, additional badges at $1.25 each should be ordered, and although stopping with fifteen applicants for a charter, yet they should be directed to go on, and all additional applicants would be admitted on the night of muster, which should be set about two weeks ahead, that supplies may reach the place and additional applications be secured. In the meantime the muster officer could visit several other points. Some active effort is needed in the muster field and to that end is your attention directed." That the practicability of same might be tested, correspondence was had with a young officer in a Department having but one canton, organized in 1904, with the result that operating on above basis, four new cantons have been mustered in, all fully equipped, with application near at hand for Canton No. 6, and a Department Council probable during the year. Thus with a little effort and but just remuneration for time given, is a Department of one isolated canton converted into a good battalion, with a Department Council to hereafter manage and direct the affairs of the Militant in that particular State.

* * * * *

A number of visitations have been made during the year, in all eighteen different Departments, some officially conferring the Grand Decoration of Chivalry, in others attending Department Council sessions, inspecting individual cantons, and at other places attending various functions given by the Order. In no Department was the status of affairs primarily found to be in a more disconnected and rudderless condition than in Ontario, nor was there to be found a better or more capable Department after the two weeks of visitations, that included Belleville, Kingston, Hamilton, St. Thomas, London and Toronto, nor is it with any feeling of hesitation that assurance is given that under direction of present officers, the Department will make a showing, alike creditable and complimentary to itself and all connected therewith. This was followed by a three months' stay at Baltimore, establishing headquarters and being the recipient of many courtesies and complimentary events, particularly the reception and review of the Department of Maryland, extended by Major Godman and his Department. Numerous visits to Washington and other points in that vicinity. Then westward, with an over Sunday stay at Ithaca, the guest of Colonel Gould, and a visit to their handsome temple. The Department Council of Iowa claimed attention for three days, where in company with General Hughes, of Ohio, an enjoyable Militant reunion and social occasion was had. At Wichita, Kans., to confer the Decoration of Chivalry, then to Guthrie, Oklahoma, attending the Department Council sessions, a most enjoyable and enthusiastic meeting. A grand meeting at Kansas City, followed by a great banquet, that of themselves were sufficient to awaken much activity and energy for the Militant in that Department. The Grand Decoration at Indianapolis, grandly and superbly given under the direction of Colonel Hall. While there in company with General Leedy, a pleasant occasion was enjoyed in assisting at the dedication of a temple to the Order at one of the nearby towns, where the spirit of fraternalism prevails and Odd Fellowship overshadows.

With great appreciation of the many honors extended and wishing a return of much happiness, prosperity and a bountiful blessing, I have the honor to remain,

Chivalrously,

M. A. RANEY, General Commanding.

SUPPLIES TO GRAND LODGE OF CALIFORNIA.

Through the earthquake and fire at San Francisco all the stock of supplies of the Grand Lodge of California, including their bound Journals of the proceedings of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, were lost.

Upon consultation with the Grand Secretary, we concluded to forward to them, free of expense of any kind, a full bound set of the Journals, which was done.

THE CALIFORNIA DISASTER.

April 26, 1906.

W. W. Phelps, Grand Master, Riverside, California.

Dear Sir and Brother: Your telegram of the 24th received. Immediately on receiving your former telegram, I sent directions to all Grand Bodies to call on Subordinates for aid and to partially anticipate collections by advance remittances. This work is going on rapidly everywhere. Today I send additional communications to all Grand Masters, embodying your last telegram. Of course you understand that these contributions are intended for your whole State and not for San Francisco only. I think all remittances are going directly to Hon. F.

B. Ogden at Oakland. Shall this continue? I should be glad to have weekly statements of the aggregate amounts received by your representative.

Fraternally yours,

R. E. WRIGHT, Grand Sire.

EXHIBIT D.

ALLENTOWN, PA., April 27, 1906.

*To the Officers and Representatives of The Sovereign Grand Lodge.
I. O. O. F.*

Dear Sirs and Brothers: Acting on the call of W. W. Phelps, Grand Master of California, I, on the 21st inst. issued a telegram to all Grand Masters and a letter to all Grand Patriarchs urging prompt and liberal contributions by all Grand and Subordinate Bodies, and have also with the concurrence of the Deputy Grand Sire, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, in anticipation of an appropriation by The Sovereign Grand Lodge at the next session, caused two remittances of one thousand dollars each to be forwarded for the relief of our California brethren from The Sovereign Grand Lodge Treasury.

I am, however, in receipt of the following telegram from Grand Master Phelps, of California, indicating the magnitude of the loss and suffering, and that assistance is greatly needed:

"OAKLAND, CALIF., April 24, 1906.

"R. E. Wright, Grand Sire:

"Calls for aid being made from many towns. Situation is beyond description, our Order is in dire need in Monterey, Santa Clara, Sonoma, Marin, Mendocino and San Francisco counties. I appeal to you again to do your best for us in this great calamity for we have twenty-five thousand homeless people dependent on us for help.

"W. W. PHELPS."

I am, under this date, issuing another urgent appeal to Grand Masters and Grand Patriarchs and through them to the entire Order. I also submit to you, first, do you approve the remittances aggregating two thousand dollars which I have caused to be made from the Treasury of The Sovereign Grand Lodge; second, would you favor the sending of additional sums from The Sovereign Grand Lodge Treasury up to not exceeding, with that already sent, five thousand dollars, if deemed necessary in the discretion of the Grand Sire?

Please answer at once, and a brief reply by telegram to John B. Goodwin, Grand Secretary, Baltimore, is desirable. What is to be done should be done quickly.

Fraternally yours,

R. E. WRIGHT, Grand Sire.

Attest: JOHN B. GOODWIN, Grand Secretary.

It would be exceedingly interesting to go into detail about this terrible and indescribable calamity, such as is portrayed in the accounts given by the Grand Master in his reports to the Grand Sire, but this is already familiar to all. We are interested more in the fact that our brothers and sisters throughout the world of Odd Fellowship contributed so generously of their means to lighten the afflictions of the sorrowing and the distressed.

It was recently said by a leading business man of California, and he was not a member of the Order, that the Odd Fellows more equitably dispensed their funds and at less expense than any other organization sending money to California for relief.

To be brief, I will append simply the recapitulation of the compiled report:

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois approved by the Grand Sire in vacation, were acted upon favorably by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

ODD FELLOWS' HOMES.

In the documents accompanying the Reports of the Grand Officers will be found all the statistics that have been collected in respect to the homes for widows, orphans and aged members of the Order. It is gratifying to see the progress which is being made in the establishment and the spread of these institutions. They are becoming the most important part of the work of the Order, and I believe that the day is not far distant when these institutions will care for every one of the members of these classes needing assistance. The splendid growth of the Rebekah branch of Odd Fellowship is providing a solution for this problem. These sisters will soon become the mainstay of those institutions. Under their special care and supervision these Homes cannot fail to meet every demand upon them.

FRATERNAL PRESS.

I desire to repeat what I said in my last report in commendation of the Fraternal Press of the Order. While here and there occasionally a mushroom publication will appear, without merit, to eke out an existence as short as it deserves, yet these cases are rare, and the membership soon learns to know and appreciate meritorious periodicals. Our fraternal newspapers and magazines are improving in every direction and are rapidly becoming an almost invaluable adjunct to our Order. The circulation of the deserving ones should be encouraged and aided in every legitimate way.

TO DEPUTY GRAND SIRE CONWAY.

To Deputy Grand Sire Conway I also desire to give expression of my appreciation of his unvarying helpfulness. He has been most constant in his proffers of assistance, and I have frequently availed myself of his aid.

I owe him a debt of thanks that it will be hard to repay.

CONCLUSION.

The foregoing comprises a substantial history of the work of the Order in the past year, so far as it came under the Jurisdiction of this office.

The details going to make up the magnificent general results achieved must be looked for in the reports from the various Jurisdictions, compiled by the Grand Secrétaries.

Whatever of good work Odd Fellowship is doing is accomplished in the Subordinate Bodies, and we can but report the aggregate of their achievements.

One can hardly fix the limit of the growth of our Order. Its membership and strength may be doubled in the next decade, but this growth will come, if at all, chiefly as the result of what is done by the Subordinate Bodies in each home community.

Upon the Grand Masters and Grand Patriarchs of the various Jurisdictions, and their District Deputies, this work must principally fall, and the results depend.

I consider the office of District Deputy Grand Master as possibly the most important of any in our system. An active, intelligent, upright District Deputy Grand Master, fairly representing the business and social elements of his district, is in position to do much to build up the Order.

He should keep in close touch with the intelligent and well connected young men, business and professional, in all the towns and villages, and encourage the formation of Lodges and Encampments by them, which will include those who are to become the future representative men of their communities. They should carefully regard quality more important than numbers in the composition of this new membership.

Our Order has already far outstripped all others in the fraternal field in numbers and influence, and it must soon face the responsibility of practically supplanting all others in the field of fraternal beneficence.

In my judgment, our great work in the next decade will be, to fit the Order to meet the great responsibilities that will be thus forced upon it.

The best thought of this Grand Body should be devoted to properly directing and controlling the Order to this end.

In closing this report, and before vacating the high and honorable position to which I have been elevated by your generosity, I beg to thank you, not only for the honor and confidence implied in my selection as Grand Sire, but also for the unvarying loyalty, courtesy, and affectionate kindness, I have received from every member of this Body.

As a representative and officer of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, for nearly a quarter of a century, I have taken a somewhat active part in its deliberations and activities; and, although often, in the heat of discussion, much earnestness of conviction and tenacity of opinion were necessarily evoked, I find myself today, without a single recollection of personal acrimony from, or toward, any member of this Body. When I leave its active work, it will be with strongest sentiments of friendship and regard for every one of you, and in the hope that each of you in some measure entertains the same feeling towards me.

May the recollection of our friendships be graven upon rock and the memory of injuries written as upon sand.

R. E. WRIGHT, Grand Sire.

ABSTRACTS FROM THE GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The net gain in all branches of the Order has been for the past year, 95,675. Total number in the Order, 1,600,712, at the close of 1905.

While the larger part of the membership reported is in the United States and Canada, the Order is well represented in many lands as in Australasia, where under the Supervisory Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Australasia there are the Subordinate Grand Lodges of New South Wales, New Zealand, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria, Western Australia, and Queensland, and there being also Grand Encampments in New South Wales and in South Australia.

In Germany, where under the Supervisory Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the German Empire there are the Subordinate Grand Lodges of Brandenburg, Hanover, Saxony, Silesia Posen, and Wurttemberg.

In Denmark, Netherlands, Sweden, and Switzerland, in each of which a Grand Lodge exists.

The order is still further represented by Subordinate Bodies as follows:

In Alaska, Argentine Republic, Cuba, France, Hawaii, Japan, Mexico, Newfoundland, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, South Africa, and Yukon.

While some of the countries here named are now possessions of the United States, they are separately mentioned for distinction and because of situation. In the matter of relief expenditures, that for 1905 aggregates $4,680,387.74, being an increase over the previous year of $49,643.69. On this subject the relief expended for the Order in San Francisco and other surrounding sections of California on account of loss and suffering from earthquake and fire will be found in another part of this report, where on account of the magnitude of the disaster and the work, it is separately mentioned.

As further illustrating the activity and steady growth of the Order along all lines of work, it will be seen that the receipts of this office, which come chiefly from the sale of supplies, amounted at the end of the fiscal year, July 31, 1906, to $110,949.05, being an increase over the previous year of $4,301.14. The cash balance on hand at the end of July, 1906, is $109,262.70, against $70,174.43 at the end of July, 1905, resulting chiefly from the difference in the cost of holding the sessions at San Francisco and Philadelphia, respectively. It will thus be seen that the business growth and profits keep pace with and run on parallel lines with the great numerical growth; and in the latter, within the last seven years the increase has been over half a million Subordinate members and sisters of Rebekah Lodges together.

Grand Representatives.

The splendid growth of the Order in Alberta, Canada, resulted in the institution of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, on the 16th day of November, 1905, with a Subordinate membership under its Jurisdiction entitling said Grand Body to two Grand Representatives, and the Grand Encampment of North Carolina has by the growth in patriarchal membership gained an additional Grand Representative, making the total number of Grand Representatives accredited to this session 200.

Grateful Acknowledgement.

The report of the Special Committee of the Grand Lodge of California, appointed for the purpose of putting on record the appreciation of the Jurisdiction for the assistance afforded in their hour of trouble, was presented by Bro. W. H. Barnes, Past Grand Master. It was carried unanimously by a rising vote. It reads as follows:

"To the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of the State of California: Your Special Committee, to whom has been assigned the difficult, responsible, yet pleasing duty of endeavoring to in some degree express the appreciation of this Jurisdiction toward their brethren and sisters of American Odd Fellowship who, faithful to obligation and true to every principle, responded instantly and practically to the signal of distress when made by the fire-blackened hand of California, find themselves confronted, at the beginning, with the utter impossibility of doing more than feeble justice to the grandeur of the subject entrusted to them.

"For the reason, that before the earth had ceased to tremble, and while the heavens were illuminated by the fiery flames of destruction, our noble chief, Grand Sire R. E. Wright, aided and seconded by the loved Grand Secretary, John B. Goodwin, had sent the electric message to every Jurisdiction, 'California has been stricken. Come to her relief.'

"And grand and mighty has been the response. From the forests of Maine to the shores of the Pacific, from the everglades of Florida and the British possessions, from Honolulu and from Cuba, from every point and every Jurisdiction came messages of love and sympathy, by scores and hundreds, and as these words of true fraternity were spoken, like the Oriental fable, each utterance was a pearl of great price; each sentence a heap of glittering gold, which by its magic power blest ten-fold because of the sacred spirit in which it was given; gave food to the hungry, clothes to the needy, aid to the sick, wounded and suffering, burial to the dead and homes to the homeless.

"He who spake as never man spake before, said: 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these ye have done it unto Me,' and no nobler or purer record can ever be inscribed upon the pages of history than the deeds of the sons and daughters of our Order in these days of our trial and adversity.

"They have proven that our Order is indeed a rock upon which we can lean with trusting confidence, ready to open, as did the one of old at touch of Moses' rod, and afford comfort and sustenance, when the earth is parched and the water fountains have perished away.

"They have proven that though the future may seem clouded in impenetrable gloom, and drear and dismal seem to be our lot, Odd Fellowship comes like an Angel of Peace to shed across the gloomy prospect bright rays of light and happiness.

"They have proven that our foundation stones of Friendship, Love, and Truth are enduring and eternal, forever to remain until the heavens shall be gathered together like a scroll.

"Brothers and sisters of our national Jurisdiction—from Grand Sire to youngest member—from oldest Patriarch to last initiate—while we know that this practical illustration of the teachings of our association has been willingly and liberally performed by you as a sacred duty, and an exemplification of the Golden Rule, yet, nevertheless, from the innermost depths of our hearts we sincerely thank you one and all.

"Not only have you given us material aid of great intrinsic worth and value, but you have given us what is greater and beyond all monetary value—you have given us sympathy, energy, hope, and a fixed determination to go on and do greater work than ever before in the cause that we love.

"As gold is refined in the thrice-heated crucible; as the Damascus steel is perfected by its ordeals of fire and pressure, we humbly hope that from our present trials may come a nobler manhood, a brighter and higher ideal, a greater love for humanity, an earnest desire to be more worthy members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

"And now, as we look to the north, south, east and west, we utter our prayers for blessings upon you all. May the Heavenly Father visit you with His love, peace reign within your walls and prosperity within your palaces, and may it ever be a sweet thought to you, your children's children, that you and yours answered the call when California made its signal of distress."

Rehabilitation and Reorganization.

The loyal and indomitable courage of all branches of the Order in California are well demonstrated in the determination to reorganize the work of the Subordinates which was interrupted by the visitation of earthquake and fire in San Francisco and vicinity; and in the renewed energy and zeal of the membership in other parts of that great State who were not directly sufferers, but who contributed so much of substance and of time, attention and fraternal sympathy to their stricken neighbors, brothers and sisters, and their families. It would seem from this that while the loss and suffering were great beyond description there came along following close upon it a prompt, but silent and effective lesson of the capacity and willingness of the Order universal to respond to the call of distress given by their stricken members. This great lesson was more directly visible to the members of the Order there, but throughout the world of Odd Fellowship, the beneficent work will add strength and honor, and from it all may know that drafts on its benevolence are never dishonored. Many have been the extraordinary calls and occasions for them on the Order and notably so in connection with the Chicago fire already mentioned; yellow fever in portions of the country a generation since; the flood at Johnstown, Pa., and the flood at Galveston; the fire at Jacksonville, Florida, and other occasions, but none of these separately approached in magnitude the loss and suffering in San Francisco and vicinity above referred to. Here a bright chapter has been written in the work of Odd Fellowship, and it is gratifying to see the deserved recognition given the sisters of the Rebekah branch in relief work in which they were ministering angels and nobly aided and co-operated with the brothers in rendering some great service to which woman only is well adapted."

CORRESPONDENCE.

Very full and satisfactory response has been made by the various branches of the Order for contribution to this part of the report giving the general condition in each Jurisdiction. These responses give more recent information than the annual reports which closed with the end of 1905, whereas the letters here given show the conditions existing from the beginning of the present year 1906 up to the preparation of this report, about August, 1906. These, in a sense, photograph the Order as it now is, and indicate the great work being done toward making this one of the most successful years the Order ever had. These letters come from experienced and active workers and contain valuable information and suggestions, and are commended to the thoughtful consideration of all who feel an interest in the welfare of our fraternity.

GRAND LODGES.

ALABAMA.—H. C. Weaver, Grand Secretary, writes: "The tidal wave of prosperity still prevails and it is very gratifying to report that the Order in this Jurisdiction has enjoyed a very prosperous year, and is in a very flourishing and growing condition, having made very substantial gains during the past year.

"The reports of the Subordinate Lodges show the Order grows stronger financially and numerically each year, with increased revenue, larger lodge investments and cash in treasuries.

"During the year 1905 forty-six Subordinate Lodges were instituted in this Jurisdiction, and we have to December 31, 1905, 345 Subordinate Lodges with a membership of 17,979, a net gain of 1529 members. During the Grand Lodge year from May, 1905, to May, 1906, 62 Lodges were instituted, and since the close of the last session, in May, 13 Lodges have been instituted. The outlook is very bright for a prosperous year for the Order in Alabama."

ALBERTA.—O. E. Tisdale, Grand Secretary, writes: "I hand you herewith Grand Lodge returns up to December 31 last, duplicates of certificates for representatives to Sovereign Grand Lodge.

"I may add that we have instituted eight new lodges in this Jurisdiction this year, and there is one more to follow on the 15th inst., making a total addition to our ranks of approximately 300 members from that source."

ARKANSAS.—John P. Paul, Grand Secretary, writes: "It affords me much pleasure at the end of each year to compile the reports of this Jurisdiction. For the last five years each report has outstripped the previous one, and so this year we record the banner year.

"We have made a gain of 62 Lodges with a net gain of membership of 3090.

"The increase in new Lodges and in membership, as well as in the disbursements for benefits, all combine to make us feel that Arkansas is doing its part in the great mission of Odd Fellowship.

"Our Order is strong in the confidence and respect of the people throughout the State. No fraternal society has a higher place in the confidence of the public generally, and no other Order is attracting more attention to its true merits than Odd Fellowship in Arkansas.

"We are proud of our Widows' and Orphans' Home at Batesville. We have just completed an additional building at a cost of $11,000."

BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Fred S. Davey, Grand Secretary, writes: "I beg to hand you herewith the annual reports of this Grand Lodge to December 31 last for subordinate and Rebekah lodges, report on Homes, and draft in your favor for $150, in payment of representative tax.

"I regret that our hopes of a larger increase in our membership last year were not fully realized; still we are gaining ground slowly, and our faith in the bright prospects of our Province and a corresponding measure of prosperity to our Order here is as sanguine as ever."

CALIFORNIA.—H. D. Richardson, Grand Secretary, writes: "Referring to your letter of the 12th inst., asking as to the condition of this branch of the Order, I am pleased to report the general condition of the Order in California is good; in fact, prior to the great calamity of April 18, 1906, was in an excellent condition. Through the efforts of Grand Master W. W. Phelps, the membership had increased to upward of 40,000, the lodges were prospering, and the membership looking forward to still greater strides in American Odd Fellowship.

"On the 18th of April, this section of the Golden State, as the entire world of Odd Fellowship is aware, was filled with gloom, ruin and desolation; homes were made desolate, halls and property were destroyed, but out of it all comes the great thought that the spirit of Odd Fellowship was in the land. From almost every state and clime messages of love and consolation, with streams of gold, were soon pouring in and laid at the feet of the suffering Odd Fellow and his family. Words fail to express the gratitude felt by our membership toward Grand Sire Wright, Grand Secretary Goodwin and the entire Jurisdiction under the protection of The Sovereign Grand Lodge for the part each and every one, from far-away Switzerland to the Islands in the sea, have taken to help the wants of our stricken membership and their families.

"Owing to the earthquake and great fire in San Francisco, in which nearly every hall large enough to hold even one of our smallest Lodge meetings was destroyed, the session of the Grand Lodge which should have been held in May was postponed until the 5th of June, and place of meeting transferred to Santa Cruz. Here a most interesting session was held. At its close, while returning from the beautiful little city by the waters of the Pacific, our beloved Grand Secretary, George T. Shaw, who had greatly overtaxed himself in his efforts to save property belonging to Grand Lodge during the disaster, contracted pneumonia. from which effects he peacefully passed away on the 13th of June, 1906. His funeral was largely attended; Grand Master Theo. A. Bell presided, assisted by other Grand Lodge officers, and the beautiful ritual of our Order was read. Bro. William H. Barnes, P. G. M., a long-time friend and associate of our deceased Grand Secretary, pronounced the eulogy, in which art of the mind and tongue he is without a peer.

"Odd Fellowship in California will continue on in its good and great work until misfortune has no want to relieve or tear to dry."

COLORADO.—J. M. Norman, Grand Secretary, writes: "It is with much pleasure and satisfaction that I am able to report to you a state of prosperity in this Jurisdiction. Such a condition is quite gratifying. A gain of 232 members in the last year under existing circumstances is more than I had hoped for. Indeed, I would have been satisfied with simply holding our own. But Colorado is taking on a new era of prosperity, and Odd Fellowship, ever progressive, is keeping pace with the rapid strides of our great State. I confidently believe the growth of this year will equal that of any year in the history of the Order in Colorado."

CONNECTICUT.—Frederick Botsford, until recently Grand Secretary, writes: "I send you herewith my report of the Grand Lodge of Connecticut for the year 1905. We are content with the report, especially as there are 78 members less suspended than in 1904, but the death rate is increased; that is natural, for our average age is increasing, and we have a great many old members. Our fund is increased; we now have a very respectable sum, $574,648.43, for a small state like Connecticut. The expenses are several thousand dollars larger and I know of no reason for it, except it is so everywhere, that this is an extravagant age, and the finances are not looked after as carefully as they should be.

"There has been a great change in the Order in this state since I took the position of Grand Secretary. It would be well for all to look into this subject and curtail expenses. They ought not to be quite as much as our relief, but they are more. I do not know why it should be so, but possibly it is owing somewhat to the Home to which we have just finished a new addition. Some contributions may have been charged up to expenses which, in my mind, I think should be for relief, for that is what the Home is meant for—relief of brothers. We will be thankful for what we have done under the circumstances, the very extensive introduction of mutual aid societies."

DELAWARE.—Isaac W. Hallam, Grand Secretary, writes: "In submitting the report for this Jurisdiction for the year ending 1905, the reminder is forcibly impressed that it is one of mixed results.

"The heroics and platitudes presented to the mind at the commencement of the year, descriptive of brave battles and grand progress, are, perforce, laid aside in cold storage, as it were, for future use.

"Summed up briefly, a gain of 21 in membership is shown by the record, and a very weak Lodge has found its way out of existence.

"While expectations have not been realized, imagination would be at fault if it should lead to the conclusion that the situation is without encouragement. The ministrations to the sick and afflicted, which have been the cause of an increased expense account, have been comforting to many brothers and those dependent upon them. If nothing more than this were accomplished, it would be sufficient to bless the labor of the year, for after all, the alleviation of distress is the paramount work allotted to our organization. It is the work of the 'Good Samaritan.'"

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—Joseph I. Porter, Grand Secretary, writes: "I enclose herewith the annual reports of the Grand Lodge. Our Order in this Jurisdiction has suffered an irreparable loss in the death of our beloved brother, F. A. Stier, Grand Representative. His life, however, will be a constant reminder of the best qualities of mankind and of Odd Fellows, and his memory will make those of us who are left endeavor to follow in his footsteps.

"As you know, we are endeavoring to start in this Jurisdiction a club or association, the primary object of which is to have unaffiliated Odd Fellows keep up their interest in the Order, and I am pleased to advise you that this movement is being pushed by the members located in Washington with a commendable zeal and energy, and I have no doubt will be a success.

"I have to report that Bro. Wm. P. Allan, formerly a Grand Representative to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, died since the last session, and I shall, as soon as I can obtain them, send you the necessary particulars for your report."

FLORIDA.—A. M. Cushman, Grand Secretary, writes: "It is with pleasure that I am able to report a gain in membership in the Subordinate Lodges. While it is small, we trust it is a good solid growth. On December 31, 1904, we had a membership of 3210, and on December 31, 1905, the annual reports show a membership of 3438, a net gain of 228. Taking into consideration that only a few years ago we had less than 1100 members, I think we have cause to be proud, and hope the time is not far distant when we will reach the 5000 mark.

"The Rebekah branch is even in better condition; with only 13 Lodges we have made a gain of 226, only two less than the Subordinates.

"The Lodges are at the present time agitating the instituting of a Rebekah Assembly, and think one will be instituted at the next session of the Grand Lodge."

GEORGIA.—J. S. Tyson, Grand Secretary, writes: "The report of the Grand Lodge of Georgia for the year 1905 is herewith submitted. We think that the work of the year makes a fair showing and know that you will rejoice with us in everything connected with it, except the large number of suspensions for non-payment of dues; we would stop it if we could, but it is a matter beyond our control.

"The outlook for the present year is good, and we entertain the hope that the increase in membership will equal, if not excel, that of last year.

"It will be seen that the increase in Lodges for 1905 was 49. Since January we have instituted 13 Lodges and dispensations are now out for four more, and under our club plan 95 dispensations have been issued, with 1249 names of applicants."

IDAHO.—D. L. Badley, Grand Secretary, writes: "Our inclosed report will show you that we are still on the gain, but not at the rate heretofore reported. We have an element among our membership that does not want 'Campmeeting methods' used in building up our membership, and they have been somewhat in evidence during the past year. But this is but a temporary lull in our growth and advancement, and the next year you will see that we have begun on a far greater growth than has yet been reported from this Jurisdiction. Our young State has but fairly begun to grow, and its developement means the addition of thousands of as good men as now compose our membership to our army, and the great principles of our Order will be spread until all men are brought under their influence."

ILLINOIS.—John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary, writes: "The Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois was never in better condition than at the present time. Odd Fellowship is making rapid strides in this State and a degree of enthusiasm and loyalty prevails at the present time such as has not been equaled in the history of Odd Fellowship in this Jurisdiction.

"We now have 918 Subordinate and 644 Rebekah Lodges, representing a Subordinate membership of 74,556 and a Rebekah membership of 35,274, the net gain, respectively, being 4674 and 1626.

"All expenses of our Grand Lodge, including the maintenance of an Orphans' Home at Lincoln, Ill., and an Old Folks' Home at Mattoon, Ill., are met by a per capita tax of 90 cents, payable one-half in April and the remainder in October of each year.

"The annual session of our Grand Lodge is a heavy expense by reason of our system of Lodge representation, the mileage and per diem incurred by each representative being paid from the general fund. We pay 5 cents per mile one way and $2.00 per day for three days and the total expense of a recent session was $11,717.85. While this is a large amount of money, our lodges believe it to be a wise expenditure by reason of the enthusiasm and inspiration which goes to all parts of the State from this immense gathering. In addition to the representatives, a large number of visitors attend our annual meeting, and it has been said that it is worth the total expense of the session to hear the opening and closing odes sung by 1200 men. It is a fact that few men have any conception of the magnitude of the Order until they have attended one of our Grand Lodge sessions.

"Our two Homes are maintained by appropriations made at each session of the Grand Lodge, which for the present year are $20,039.50 for the Orphans' Home and $19,350.00 for the Old Folks' Home, or computing it on our membership $.52 per member. Not only is our Order making great progress in the matter of membership, influence, and finance, but Odd Fellowship is taking advanced ground as a moral factor. A great silent influence goes out from the life of every good man and woman, and it is such an influence as this which is given out to the world through our organization and the daily life of our members.

"Odd Fellowship is silently guiding the lives of a million and a half members throughout the world, which influence is making toward a higher plane of thinking and acting, and a nobler conception of citizenship.

"Odd Fellowship is today, and will be more and more as the years go by, a great social, educational, and philanthropic factor in the world's economy."

INDIANA.—W. H. Leedy, Grand Secretary, writes: "I have the pleasure of transmitting herewith the report of the Grand Lodge of Indiana for the term ending December 31, 1905.

"The conditions here are very satisfactory. We are endeavoring to keep the work moving along and hope this will be one of our best years."

INDIAN TERRITORY.—G. H. Alexander, Grand Secretary, writes: "The year ending December 31, 1905, was a prosperous one for this Jurisdiction. We had a gain in membership of 1385, more than in any previous year.

"We are now caring for 35 orphans and two aged ladies at our home in Checotah. The last Grand Lodge voted an appropriation of $20,000.00 to build an addition to the Home, and the contract has already been let. It will be ready for occupancy by the first of December and when completed it will be the finest and best equipped home in the southwest. The Rebekah branch of the Order is also in a prosperous condition and growing quite rapidly. We are striving to make this the 'banner year for the Order in this Jurisdiction.'"

KANSAS.—W. H. Kemper, Grand Secretary, writes: "I herewith enclose to you the annual reports of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah State Assembly of Kansas.

"We increased in membership during the year 1905 from 33,210 to 34,749. We relieved 1492 brothers and paid 8864 weeks' sick benefits. Our Subordinate Lodges have in cash $255,663.74. Real estate, net of encumbrance, $636,663.68. Our net assets December 31, 1905, were $1,109,424.30. Our prospects for 1906 are very bright."

KENTUCKY.—R. G. Elliott, Grand Secretary, writes: "Enclosed you will find the report of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky for 1905. It is with pleasure that we can report the continued growth of the Order in this State, there being an increase of over fifteen hundred for that year. The Order in Kentucky since 1898 has more than doubled its membership and the report for 1906, I think, will be a good one."

LOUISIANA.—M. M. Dickinson, Grand Secretary, writes: "Enclosed please find annual report of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana."

"Everything in our Jurisdiction is flourishing, with two new Lodges instituted since March, and two more will be instituted in the next few days."

MAINE.—Russell G. Dyer, Grand Secretary writes: "With this I send you the annual reports of the Grand Lodge of Maine, for the Subordinate and Rebekah branches, and trust you may find them correct."

"Maine, during the year 1905, made a material advance along all lines of Odd Fellowship. Five Subordinate and six Rebekah Lodges were instituted during the year, a record of new Lodges that has not been surpassed for the past decade. The admissions were 1330, something more than the average, while the losses were rather more than usual. The net gain, however, was 464, which is the average for the past five years. The death rate was something over fifteen per one thousand, while the suspensions for non-payment of dues were not quite one and one-half per cent, not a large figure, but larger than last year. A feature that is being worked to advantage in this Jurisdiction is the 'Roll Call Day.' Every member of a Lodge is notified that on a given evening there will be a roll call of members, a banquet, speeches, and a good time generally. In addition, each member is furnished with a blank application and asked to obtain at least one candidate who is to be presented to the lodge on the roll call night. Wildey Lodge No. 103, of Brewer, had such a meeting last year at which time thirty applications were presented. Wildey Lodge returned fifty candidates for the year's work, making it the banner Lodge among the older Lodges in this Jurisdiction. Abou Ben Adhem Lodge, No. 23, of Auburn, was second, with forty-six. One of the new lodges for the year was named Joshua Davis Lodge, No. 145, in honor of our late Grand Secretary, a brother who faithfully served this Jurisdiction in that office for twenty-six years. The Lodges made a substantial gain in finances, placing our invested funds well towards the one million mark. Upon the whole, our Order in Maine closed the year in much better condition than it was at the beginning. This pleasing rate of affairs is largely due to the untiring exertions of Grand Master Leon S. Merrill, who spent time and money to advance the interest of Odd Fellowship and to make his administration a success."

MANITOBA.—B. D. Deering, Grand Secretary, writes: "Enclosed find reports for Grand and Rebekah Lodges to December 31, 1905, and the representative tax. The past year has been the most successful since the organization of our Grand Lodge in 1883; we had a membership at that time of 1340. You will see by the report that the additions during the past year exceeded our membership at that time, even with the withdrawal of 953 members to form the Grand Jurisdiction of Alberta. We are ahead of last year. Since January 1 some seven Lodges have been added with a membership of about 300. I feel certain that this year will be a more prosperous one than the past from reports just to hand. I find that all the Lodges are doing well; some have added as many as 50 since the first of the year. The Rebekah Lodge is doing well and hope to be able to report a number of Lodges instituted this year."

MARITIME PROVINCE.—D. G. Whidden, Grand Secretary, writes: "While our report for the year ending December 31, 1905, does not show a very great gain—an increase of one Subordinate Lodge and a net gain in membership of 269,—I am pleased to be able to report that considerable activity is being exhibited in our Jurisdiction at the present time; one lodge has recently been instituted with a membership of fifty-four, and reports from the lodges are of a very encouraging nature."

MARYLAND.—Wm. A. Jones, Grand Secretary, writes: "As was foreshadowed last year by the Grand Secretary (though he has passed away before beholding the fulfillment of his prophecy), the Mother Jurisdiction has again, in the twelve months passed, renewed her youth, and her condition is not only satisfactory at present, but extremely hopeful for the future. Lodges that have been for years dormant—indeed, even apparently extinct—have been resuscitated and saved to Odd Fellowship, and are now in excellent condition; and we have every reason to believe that our gain in membership this fiscal year will aggregate at least 1000. The present Board of Grand Officers, with their associates, have outlined and are now executing plans to visit, instruct, and encourage every Lodge in the Jurisdiction.

"The Rebekah Lodges, too, no less than the Subordinate Lodges, have felt the influence of the general forward movement; their membership has increased, their activities have broadened, and we hope to have them represented at Toronto by a Degree Staff Team which shall bring away a first prize.

"We are constrained to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks for, and keen appreciation of, the valuable assistance rendered us in divers ways during the past year by the Sovereign Grand Secretary, Bro. John B. Goodwin; and we here again give voice to the feeling evidenced by the Grand Lodge of Maryland in its resolution of April 16, 1906, wherein it felicitated itself upon the fact 'that the Sovereign Grand Secretary, Bro. John B. Goodwin, has taken up his residence in Baltimore,' and when it 'wished him a long and happy life in our Jurisdiction.'"

MASSACHUSETTS.—John U. Perkins, Grand Secretary, writes: "We enclose herewith the annual report of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts.

"We are proud of this report. It makes manifest the result of hard and earnest work all along the line. Without the institution of a single new Lodge to help swell the numbers, it shows a net gain of 736 members during the year 1905. It shows the effect of constant work by an energetic Board of Grand Officers and a hearty response from an interested brotherhood.

"We now number 241 Lodges (having consolidated Nos. 6 and 49 last June), and have a membership of 55,643 of the best men of the Commonwealth. The average membership of our Lodges is 230; the largest has 845 members (Hampden, No. 27, Springfield), and the smallest 40 (Suffolk, No. 8, Boston). The Lodge having the largest fund is Bethesda, No. 30, Boston, with assets of over seventy-six thousand dollars; while the smallest Lodge, Suffolk, No. 8, is the wealthiest, pro rata, having a fund averaging three hundred and nineteen dollars per member.

"Our Order is progressing, notably in improved apartments; twelve beautiful halls have been dedicated within the last eighteen months, and one of the finest buildings of them all is a monument to the thrift and enterprise of our Swedish brethren in the city of Worcester.

"The condition of the Order in Massachusetts since January 1, of the present year justifies the hope that our next report may be equally as good as the present.

"In the April number of the 'Odd Fellow Review,' published in St. Paul, Minn., some good brothers have compiled a table showing losses by suspensions for non-payment of dues. In this interesting tabulation the best showing of any of the Jurisdictions on this continent is credited to Maine and New Hampshire with 1 3-10 per cent losses. Massachusetts comes next with 1 4-10. We are certainly proud of this rating, but we think that possibly during the year 1905 we established a record which eclipses them all. The total number of suspensions in our Subordinate Lodges during the year 1905 was 684. At the commencement of the year our membership was 54,907. On December 31 the membership was 55,643. These figures would place Massachusetts at the head of the list with a percentage of 1 2-10."

MICHIGAN.—H. N. Wilder, Grand Secretary, writes: "Enclosed find our annual report; also that of the I. O. O. F. Home. We are sorry to be so late with these reports, but it seemed impossible to complete them sooner.

"The Order in Michigan was never in a more prosperous condition than now. All letters reaching this office are filled with glowing reports of what the Lodges are doing, which is very gratifying to me. So far this year we have organized four Subordinate Lodges and six Rebekah Lodges and this morning's mail brings to me orders for supplies for two more Subordinates. While the net gain for this year is not so large as we had hoped, yet it is very gratifying and we feel that it is a permanent one.

"Anniversary of the Order was never more generally observed than this year, having arranged for sixteen of these meetings myself and furnishing speakers.

"Our Home is in a flourishing condition. At the last session of the Grand Lodge an order was drawn on the Treasurer for $5,000.00 to pay the last mortgage indebtedness. We are raising by assessment $50,000.00 for permanent improvements there, such as new buildings, sewers, light, etc. Our little family there seems contented and happy, under the directions of our new matron, Sister Minnie Hopkins.

"With a happy and united brotherhood we aim to be all that we stand for—the protection of the widow, the aged and indigent, and the protector and educator of the orphan—and to assist one another in the time of need, which has been so clearly shown since the great calamity that has just befallen our brothers at the Golden Gate, and how proud ought we to be to be in a position to do all this.

"The matter of checking so far as possible the suspension for N. P. D. is engaging our earnest attention and our work is beginning to show results. We are urging the formation of what we call 'Wanderers' Clubs' into which we invite all members living in a city and holding membership outside, keeping them thoroughly interested in the work of the Order. It is found that the idea is taking root in many states, and great good has resulted therefrom. We find in the city of Lansing alone over 100 non-resident Odd Fellows, who are organized into a club, and who have visited the Lodges here over forty strong at a regular meeting with nothing special going on more than the ordinary work of the Lodge—something which not often happens, and never so unless members are interested in the Order. These organizations should be encouraged, as I find by correspondence that from among the non-resident members is where the great bulk of suspension comes."

MINNESOTA.—A. L. Bolton, Grand Secretary, writes: "Find annual report of the Grand Lodge of Minnesota for the year 1905; also Grand Lodge warrant for $150.00, G. Rep. Tax.

"All I can say is that we have made progress. Our net increase in membership in all branches for 1905 is slightly in advance of that of 1904; there has been a healthy increase, numerically and financially, and nearly all Lodges are in good working condition. We have had, in this Jurisdiction, a surfeit of quick-growth organizations, with their cheap fees and assessments and large profits, and for a few years they have had full sway. But the people have 'put on their thinking caps,' and they are beginning to learn that the cheapest is not the best. They are gradually discovering that Fraternity is a greater blessing, and more enduring than an uncertain quantity of mere insurance. And yet, the fact that more than one hundred of our Subordinate Lodges are the owners of substantial buildings, some of them the best in the town, and that we have a Home and Hospital for the needy and afflicted, is slowly but surely convincing the public that Odd Fellowship is the best safeguard against the ills of life. Peace and harmony prevail to a greater extent than ever before; there is here and there a faint ripple on the calm surface, but so slight as to be hardly observed, and no more than might be expected so long as men have the courage of their convictions and a desire to express them."

MISSISSIPPI.—Walter S. P. Doty, Grand Secretary, writes: "I hand you herewith the report of the Grand Lodge of Mississippi.

"We are doing fairly well in Mississippi; our growth is slow; our numbers are small, but I believe and trust that the brethren are devoted to the principles of the Order."

MISSOURI.—E. Wilkerson, recently Grand Secretary of Missouri, writes: "The Order in Missouri continues to grow in strength and usefulness. Report shows an increase of 2387 in membership. Perfect harmony exists and the great brotherhood are living up to expectations in the discharge of fraternal duties. The most serious drawback to our progress is in the matter of suspension for non-payment of dues.

"It is difficult to understand why so many men seek membership in such an institution as ours, and so soon become indifferent, neglect attendance on Lodge meetings, and then permit their membership to lapse for failure to pay their dues.

"It is often remarked that we take in a large number of men, who become active workers, apparently zealous in the good work until they secure the honors, then become practically useless.

"Why is it that so many are active and efficient until they can wear a Past Grand Collar and then become useless?

"This large list of suspensions is not made up of brethren who change their places of residence, and which it is supposed the law of 1904 regarding transfer of membership, was to remedy. The greater number do not change locations. We can meet them on the street every day. It may be that quite a number have allowed themselves to become suspended because of inability to pay dues and remain out of the Order for the reason they are unwilling to pay the fee for reinstatement. When we are legislating to prevent suspensions, why not lessen the cost of reinstatement, and thus secure the return of many to active membership?"

MONTANA.—A. J. White, Grand Secretary, writes: "I herewith submit my annual report of the Subordinate branch of the Order in the Jurisdiction of Montana. There has been but a very small gain in membership in the past year. There has been a large list of suspensions for non-payment of dues. The principal cause has been that brothers have gone off in hopes of finding their fortunes in the gold fields of Alaska and later to Tonapah and Goldfield, in Nevada, and not realize on what they expected to do, and become unable to keep up their dues in their respective Lodges.

"In regard to the Rebekah branch of the Order, there has been a gain in membership, but it is nearly all confined to the female sex. The brothers do not seem to take much interest in it of late years, since it has been turned over to the control of the sisters.

"There have been two new Subordinate Lodges instituted since the first of the year, with a membership of nearly 100."

NEBRASKA.—I. P. Gage, Grand Secretary, writes: "You have, I think, been advised of the serious illness of a son, which has greatly added to the office anxieties this year. Add to this the fact that the Grand Master has been inaccessible in the Yellowstone National Park, so his signature could not be obtained, and you have the reason for the four weeks' delay in transmitting our Rebekah report.

"The year shows about our usual growth; nothing very strenuous, but a very satisfactory condition.

"The girls stay by the Order so contentedly, never faltering in any good work, that it reassures us who sometimes feel despondent. This branch of Odd Fellowship in the Jurisdiction never has been in better condition nor with quite so bright a promise for the future."

NEVADA.—Wm. Sutherland, Grand Secretary, writes: "The returns for the year ending December 31, 1905, show a loss of membership in this Jurisdiction of one, and the institution of one new Lodge. While the returns show a loss of one member, it should not be so considered, as the loss was caused by the withdrawal of ten members from two of the older Lodges to assist in organizing a new Lodge, which has been instituted since January 1, 1906, and on April 25, 1906, had a membership of 81, and still increasing. It has also been the cause of renewed activity in the old sister Lodge in the same city, as they have taken in several new members since the institution of the new Lodge. The outlook for the advancement of the Order in this Jurisdiction is brighter than it has been in years."

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Frank L. Way, Grand Secretary, writes: "I submit the following in connection with the enclosed reports:

"New Hampshire, with her hills rock-ribbed and ancient as the sun, continues to make a slow but steady progress in the field of Odd Fellowship. The net gain in our membership in the year 1905 was 284 and one new Lodge was instituted, which gives us an unbroken chain of 104. This is indeed an encouraging result, when we take into consideration the character of the membership of the Order, because of the fact that the increase in the population of the State, in general, is not of the class to which Odd Fellowship appeals.

"Our loss the past year, by suspension for non-payment of dues, was only a trifle over 1 per cent, which fact we have reason to feel proud of."

NEW JERSEY.—Lewis Parker, Grand Secretary, writes: "I am delighted to report that we have made an increase of 666 in our Lodge membership, while our benevolent expenditures are larger than ever before.

"We thus show year by year a steady advance in the departments that give especial strength to our great brotherhood. A kindly feeling also prevails, which must not be overlooked in our report, since I consider this, after all, one of the principal objects of our operations."

NEW MEXICO.—J. C. Spears, Grand Secretary, writes: "In reply to yours of the 9th inst. will say that Odd Fellowship in New Mexico shows substantial gains and fairly prosperous circumstances. Prospects for the year 1906 look bright. At the last session of the Grand Lodge our Jurisdiction decided to take up the work of building an Odd Fellows Home, and levied a per capita tax of 25 cents per member for the maintenance of the Home, and decided to raise funds to build the Home by subscription and donations from the Subordinate Lodges and the individual members. Our Grand Master, W. W. Ogle, has just returned from a tour of official visitations, throughout the Jurisdiction, and reports the members are enthusiastic in the work of Odd Fellowship."

NEW YORK.—Harry Walker, Grand Secretary, writes: "It gives me great pleasure to be able to call your attention to the splendid increase in membership made in this Jurisdiction during the year just past. The indications are that at the end of the present term we shall be able to report still larger gains as a result of the earnest work and well-directed efforts being put forth."

NORTH CAROLINA.—B. H. Woodell, Grand Secretary, writes: "I enclose the returns for both branches of the Order from this Jurisdiction for the year 1905, which I trust you may find correct.

"We are very thankful that we are again able to show a healthy growth in the Order in this State. More new Lodges have been instituted during the past year than in any year in our history, and more members have been initiated than in any one year. The prospects are good for this year, although it is generally conceded that when there is a State election pending we never make the gains we do in off years. The dedication of our new Home for the Aged at the coming session of our Grand Lodge in May, we hope, will stimulate us to greater deeds. We are now prepared to care for our infirm members, their widows, and the orphans of our deceased brethren in a creditable manner, and we rejoice in this more than we would in phenomenal gains in membership. You sent me some blanks for the report from our Home, but so far I have not been able to get the report of the officers and trustees, in fact they are holding their final meeting today."

NORTH DAKOTA.—Don. McDonald, Grand Secretary, writes: "I enclose reports from this Grand Lodge for Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges for the year 1905.

"This is the best showing that our Jurisdiction has ever made, our net increase being over 11 per cent in Subordinate and 10 per cent in Rebekah memberships. Since January 1, 1906, we have instituted 10 new Subordinate Lodges, with an aggregate membership of 300, and special reports from about 60 per cent of old Lodges show increase of 562, so that we feel confident that we will on June 30, show a total of 4,500. The country is settling up rapidly, and we are getting some good workers from the western middle states."

OHIO.—C. H. Lyman, Grand Secretary, writes: "My annual report to the Grand Lodge for the year ending January 1, 1906, presents a very flattering condition of affairs of the Order in Ohio. Our net gain in membership during the year was 1761, a slight increase over last year, and our financial exhibit also shows a very satisfactory increase. During the past year 11 Subordinate and 21 Rebekah Lodges were instituted. At the session of the Grand Lodge held in 1905, our laws were so changed that the Grand Master was authorized to issue dispensations for the institution of new Subordinate Lodges. Under this plan, eight brand new Subordinate Lodges were instituted, and the prospects are bright along this line for the future. The week of March 19-24, 1906, was known as 'Rally Week' among the Subordinate Lodges in this Jurisdiction. The Grand Master urged that each Lodge during that time should initiate one or more candidates. We are glad to report that during the week over 1,700 new candidates. This was the most memorable week for Odd Fellowship in the 75 years' history of the Order in Ohio. While this great increase of membership is indeed gratifying, this is not the best result of the effort. Out of it has grown a spirit of enthusiasm and activity that will be far-reaching in its effect for good. Odd Fellowship is alive in Ohio, and I predict that my report for 1906 will show it to be the 'Banner Year' in the history of the Order in Ohio. It is gratifying to report that on December 27-28, 1905, Ohio Lodge No. 1, of Cincinnati, celebrated its Diamond Anniversary. This Lodge was instituted December 23, 1830, and was the first Subordinate Lodge instituted west of the Allegheny Mountains. This jubilee was appropriately celebrated. During the last session of our Grand Lodge, in Cleveland (May, 1906), we were honored with a visit from Hon. John B. Goodwin, Grand Secretary of The Sovereign Grand Lodge. This honor was highly appreciated, not only by the officers and representatives of the Grand Lodge, but the entire Order in Ohio. He not only addressed the Grand Lodge, but also a large public meeting held in Gray's Armory in that city."

OKLAHOMA.—H. L. Strough, Grand Secretary, writes: "The Subordinate branch of the Order in Oklahoma is in a most prosperous condition, with an increase of 12 Lodges since December 31, 1905, and a good prospect for as many more before the Grand Lodge meets in October. I think that we have cause to feel proud of Oklahoma.

"Norman No. 1 was chartered upon the 24th day of October, 1889, and in a little over 16 years we have built up a membership of over 12,000, with 224 Lodges, which will compare favorably as to proficiency and quantity of membership with any of the older Jurisdictions.

"Upon May 17 of this year our committee appointed to locate an I. O. O. F. Orphans' Home met and decided to locate the same at Carmen in Woods County, that town having in the opinion of the committee offered the best inducements. The plans and specifications for the building are already being made and the contract will be let at once for the construction of one wing of the building which we expect to have ready for occupancy by the time our Grand Lodge meets, and will not owe a dollar upon our Home when built nor have made any extra assessments upon the members for the same.

"Much of the present prosperity of this Jurisdiction I attribute to the untiring and effective labors of our Grand Master, J. B. A. Robertson, who is one of the most energetic workers that has ever occupied the chair of Grand Master in any Jurisdiction. He has made the office of D. D. G. M. in this Jurisdiction no sinecure, and requires his Deputies to enforce the laws in their districts strictly. Brother Robertson has set a pace that will make his successors show their blood and be hard to follow, but we have faith in our present Deputy Grand Master that he will come under the wire neck and neck with Bro. Robertson, for he has got the staying qualities and the ability, and will do his best."

ONTARIO.—J. B. King, Grand Secretary, writes: "I have much pleasure in enclosing you the report of Ontario for the year ending 1905, and also a copy of my statement which will go out to the several Lodges, as follows:

"To the members of the Order in Ontario:

"Greeting: It is with feelings of more than ordinary satisfaction that the report of the transactions of the several Lodges for the year 1905 and of the present status of the Order in Ontario is herewith presented. This satisfaction is enhanced by the fact that it will afford equal pleasure to the entire membership of our beloved Order, each brother taking to himself his share of credit for the part he has taken in achieving these grand results. The best aggregate success is but the natural outcome of individual effort well directed.

"The increase in Lodges is an evidence of the wisdom of recent legislation by the Grand Lodge, nine Lodges having been instituted during 1905. The increase in membership of 1779 is also most gratifying.

"The deaths of the year, 224, are 26 less than in 1904, an average of less than 7 to the 1000. This is an index to the careful selection of members by the several Lodges.

"The distribution of $106,718.16 in benefits and relief proves that Odd Fellowship is nobly fulfilling its mission. We, the Odd Fellows of today, have a heritage from the past, a trust which must be conserved with a care equal to the responsibility we have assumed, if we would reap the reward that Odd Fellowship deserves.

"It is confidently expected that the year 1906 will be the banner year of the Order in our fair Canada, as we have a right to expect that the session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge to be held in Toronto next September will have a quickening influence on the entire membership, and stimulate all to greater zeal.

"It is to be hoped that every Lodge in Ontario will take part in the celebration and share in the grand results that should accrue from the visit to this Jurisdiction of the Supreme Parliament of the Order.

"These most satisfactory results will surely justify the Lodges throughout our Dominion in celebrating this year with more than usual heartiness the 87th anniversary of our Order's birthday. May the delinquent Lodges wake up and join the procession of progress that the active Lodges are enjoying and make "35,000 members on 30th June" the general watchword."

OREGON.—E. E. Sharon, Grand Secretary, writes: "Enclosed find report of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, showing a net gain of 882 and total membership of 12,151 at close of 1905. Contrary to expectations, our gain exceeds that of the previous year. It was believed that interest would be concentrated in the Lewis & Clark Exposition to the detriment of all Lodge business, but we have been agreeably disappointed. Prospects seem excellent for another good year."

PENNSYLVANIA.—Joseph H. Mackey, Grand Secretary, writes: "In making my annual report to the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania it was my exceptional privilege to be able to call attention to an enlarged and growing interest in the work of the Order throughout the State. More attention seems to be absorbing the minds of our brethren regarding the higher development of its benign teachings. This appears in evidence through the deep and absorbing interest taken in the subject of our Homes, as well as in every other feature of fraternal work. To the beneficent examples our Homes present, may we turn our eyes hopefully to higher exemplification of all that is noble and grand in the work of Odd Fellowship, besides furnishing for the Order a destiny higher and more far-reaching than our early history even comprehended. The future possibilities for good underlying these magnificent institutions will inevitably invite the attention of the world at large to the beneficence and grandeur of Odd Fellowship everywhere, and must ultimately redound to its glory and esteem. Other projects of moment have engaged the attention of our Jurisdiction during the current year, notably among which was the gathering of The Sovereign Body in Philadelphia during the week of September 18 to 23, an occasion of more than passing interest to our brethren, and one which undoubtedly will live long in their remembrance. A movement looking to the redemption of our magnificent Temple is now under way, which gives hopeful promise of reaching a satisfactory settlement that will bring to the Order in the State a great measure of credit and popular esteem. While we have not increased numerically as greatly this year as in the few years lately passed, nevertheless we feel deeply grateful that we are still going forward, as the following report will show: Present membership, 131,588; increase in membership, 3,412; number of working Lodges, 1,136; increase in number of Lodges, 11; assets of working Lodges, $4,630,471.13."

QUEBEC.—T. J. Potter, Grand Secretary, writes: "I am pleased to report 43 Lodges with a total membership of 3,580, a net increase of 196 during the past year. The assets of our Subordinate Lodges amount to $114,001.04. Our present Grand Master has been most enthusiastic and energetic in his endeavors to place our Subordinate Lodges on a strong financial basis, and through his efforts new life is being infused into many of the rural Lodges, with the result that the older members are taking more interest in Lodge work and the younger ones are showing greater activity in the field of Odd Fellowship, which will, I trust, enable us to show a greater increase in our next report."

RHODE ISLAND.—W. H. T. Mosley, Grand Secretary, writes: "A careful analysis of the returns of the past year discloses the gratifying intelligence that the Lodges, as a whole, were no less successful in adding new members than they were in the year 1904, when for the first time in several years it was our privilege to report a gain in membership. As an offset to this commendable feature, we find that in a number of instances much activity has been manifested in getting rid of delinquent members; consequently, we have made no strides forward, but have about held our own. It is not enough that we should merely hold our own; we should do more. Lodges, like men, must either grow or decay, advance or decline; they cannot stand still. Individual efforts, life and activity, are the essentials to certain growth in the future, ever remembering, however, that while it is important to get new members, it is not less so to strive to keep those we already have. Although our progress has been somewhat checked, the indications are full of promise and apparently all we need to turn the tide in our favor and insure success is the sagacity to grasp the opportunities offered, coupled with a greater earnestness of purpose born of activity and enthusiasm."

SOUTH CAROLINA.—S. F. Killingsworth, Grand Secretary, writes: "We can brag of nothing we have done this year except the building of and dedicating an Orphans' Home."

SOUTH DAKOTA.—Harvey J. Rice, Grand Secretary, writes: "I am pleased to report that our Subordinate Lodges are generally in a prosperous condition.

"On January 1, 1906, we had 6,450 members, having made a net gain during the year 1905, of 492, and the prospects for a larger increase during 1906 are quite flattering.

"We paid out last year for relief the sum of $10,107.00 which we think is doing very well for a small Jurisdiction.

"Our Lodges are in good financial condition, many of them getting homes of their own. There is no boom but a steady increase.

"We are creating a fund for the establishment of an Odd Fellows' Home which has now reached the sum of $15,000.00, which has been raised without being felt by anyone. Our Lodges have taken a great deal of interest in this fund and it is one of the things we are proud of.

"The Odd Fellows of South Dakota believe in Odd Fellowship and endeavor to practice the principles which have made this Order the greatest on earth."

TENNESSEE.—J. R. Harwell, Grand Secretary, writes: "I herewith enclose report of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee for the year ending December 31, 1905, and also the report of our Odd Fellows' Home for last year. Allow me to say that while our net increase has not been as large as it was either of the two previous years it is still very gratifying. The Order is being established in this Jurisdiction on a firm basis and I believe will continue to grow rapidly. It looks now as if we would have a membership of 50,000 in five years. I enclose a check to cover the amount of our annual tax."

TEXAS.—G. C. Fahm, Grand Secretary, writes: "The Order is doing fairly well in Texas, as you will observe from the reports."

VERMONT.—H. E. Parker, Grand Secretary, writes: "I am sending annual report for the Jurisdiction of Vermont, to which I will add that Odd Fellowship in the Green Mountain Jurisdiction is on a solid basis, although the gain for the past year was the smallest in several years; yet it is substantial.

"The Grand Lodge made an advance this year in giving to Rebekah Assembly the right to handle its own supplies. The Rebekah gain of nearly three hundred is a splendid testimonial to the activity shown in this important branch of the Order.

"The Gill Odd Fellows' Home is run economically and is a grand beneficence to our aged and indigent brothers.

"We expect to show a large gain in membership in the Subordinate branch the coming year.

"I have delivered the Rebekah supplies to Sister L. L. Boyce, Assembly Secretary, as the Grand Lodge has authorized the Rebekah branch to handle their own supplies, and this is your authority for furnishing their supplies direct.

"At the last session of the Grand Lodge I received my 20th consecutive election as Grand Secretary. Although I was not a candidate for the position this year, the brothers refused to allow me what I considered deserved rest, so I have decided to serve them longer."

VIRGINIA.—T. Wiley Davis, Grand Secretary, writes: "It is with feelings of pride and pleasure that I forward to you today the annual report of the Old Dominion for the year 1905. This is the 31st similar report that it has been my happy privilege to submit. By very constant work I am enabled to present the report much earlier than heretofore; indeed, it would not surprise me if this proves to be the first report received by you for 1905.

"The Order in Virginia is still on the increase in both the Subordinate and Rebekah branches in all the departments of their work.

"Please note the following as net gains: Members in Sub. Lodges 2,219. Receipts of Lodges $24,385. Amount paid in relief $4,364.

"The number dropped for non-payment of dues is only 197 in excess of the preceding year, which we consider a very gratifying exhibit.

"You will notice from the report that the amounts expended by the Lodges for the care of Orphans is quite small. The explanation is that we have an Orphans' Home that is well equipped for that special work, and right nobly is its duty performed, and what is expended by the Lodges goes for school books or small articles of clothing for some of the poorer children, though our excellent system of free public schools with its provision for free books to the indigent children leaves but little for the Lodges to do in that line.

"The reports from the Rebekah Lodges are not received in sufficient numbers yet to make up the annual report from that branch, but sufficient is known to justify the assertion that good work has been done and substantial progress made.

"I enclose also the annual report of the Odd Fellows' Home which is highly encouraging, but I will not attempt to particularize in reference to it, as I suppose you will hear from its President (Bro. Hill Montague) in reference to it.

WASHINGTON.—Louis F. Hart, Grand Secretary, writes: "Our net gain of 1,146 in membership for the year 1905 does not show the prosperous condition of our Order in the Evergreen Jurisdiction.

"Since January 1, 1906, we have added eleven new Lodges, and our gain in membership for the first half of the year is in excess of twelve hundred.

"Each of our 214 Lodges is in a healthy condition; not one but has initiated a candidate in the last twelve months.

"In the last five years we have added 63 new Lodges, and the average membership, per Lodge, has grown from 55 to 78. The future is very bright."

WEST VIRGINIA.—E. A. Billingslea, Grand Secretary, writes: "West Virginia, the Switzerland of America, is proud of the advancement that Odd Fellowship has made within her borders since I last reported to you. During the year we organized eighteen new Lodges and had a net gain in membership of one thousand four hundred and thirty-five members, and we are still working for greater gains."

WISCONSIN.—Richard Hoe, Grand Secretary, writes: "I send you herewith the reports showing the condition of the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges in this Jurisdiction for the year ending December 31, 1905. I am disappointed in not being able to make a better report. We are only slightly removed from the dead line in the Subordinate branch, there being a gain of only forty-one in membership. Perhaps we ought to be thankful for this; we can only hope for better returns in the future."

WYOMING.—Louis Miller, Grand Secretary, writes: "I herewith hand you our annual report. I regret very much to report to you such a small gain in membership in this Jurisdiction. Owing to the hard times in the west our loss by members being dropped for non-payment of dues is very heavy, as our report shows 182 being dropped. We hope our increase for 1906 will be large, as many new towns are springing up, and the railroads are building extensively in the western part of our State.

"In the Rebekah branch, I am able to report the institution of one new Lodge and a small increase in membership, but hope to be able to make a better report for the year ending December 31, 1906."

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

AUSTRALASIA.—J. C. Smith, Grand Secretary, under date of January 12, 1906, writes as follows: "I have today received the two Journals of Proceedings of last session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

"The enormous amount of business which your Grand Lodge gets through in a week strikes us here with wonder and admiration. I join with you in the hope that some day there will be a Representative from here. There is evidence that the Order has made fair progress in Australasia during the past year, and I trust that when my annual report goes forward it will be satisfactory."

On June 11, 1906, Bro. Smith writes: "By today's mail I am sending you my annual returns, which I trust will reach you safely and be in time for inclusion in your statistics for presentation to The Sovereign Grand Lodge. You will see that we have made fair progress, although it has not been quite as much as we had hoped to accomplish. We are frequently planting the banner in new towns and districts, thus extending our sphere of action and usefulness, and as our financial position is undeniably a sound one, we have good reason to hope that we may be recognized one day as the soundest benefit organization in Australasia. We are pleased at the evident interest you take in our administration and your desire to conform to our wishes, even in small matters. Your description of the method in which The Sovereign Grand Lodge transacts its business at annual sessions was very interesting and gives us an idea of how such an immense volume of business is got through. I note your remark concerning the time when a Representative to your sessions will be sent by Australasia. It may come about. To the Grand Sire, Officers, and Representatives at the coming session I desire to convey the loyal greetings of the Australasian Jurisdiction, and to yourself I send my kindest wishes."

NEW ZEALAND, AUSTRALASIA.—The following is presented in full:
DUNEDIN, September 23, 1905.

Dear Sir and Brother: We regret much to learn the sad and to us the unexpected death of our late esteemed Grand Secretary, Bro. J. Frank Grant.

Kindly convey to the Order in America our most sincere sympathy as expressed in the following resolution passed at our last executive meeting:

"That the executive of the Grand Lodge of New Zealand, Independent Order of Odd Fellows convey to The Sovereign Grand Lodge their deep regret of the unexpected death of our much esteemed Grand Secretary, Bro. J. Frank Grant and their profound sympathy with his colleagues and those connected with him by the ties of relationship in the sad loss they have sustained. Also their appreciation of his great ability as Grand Secretary and his fraternal warmth of heart as displayed in correspondence with our Jurisdiction, in which his temperate counsel and advice has been of the utmost value in matters relating to the welfare of our Order in this Jurisdiction."

We are, dear sir and brother,

Yours fraternally, Signed: WM. MILLER, Grand Master.

Signed: WM. REED, Grand Secretary.

SWEDEN.—Frederick Geijer, Grand Secretary, writes: "Enclosed I beg to hand you our reports from Lodges and encampments for last year ending March 31.

"As you will find, the result is satisfactory; the growth in membership is greater than ever and everything is going on well here."

SWITZERLAND.—Ed. Kunchel, Grand Secretary, writes: "In addition to the annual report of the Grand Lodge of Switzerland, I submit to you the following:

"The Order in Switzerland is in good condition. Only one of our Lodges, which has suffered the last years in consequence of some untrustworthy members, is not yet in flourishing position, but true members of the same take pains to bring the Lodge to its early good standing. The financial standing of all of our Lodges is excellent. The same have $30,050.63 invested funds. The two Lodges at Zurich and Basel have their own Lodge buildings, which do credit to our beloved Order. For relief were paid by our six Lodges the last year $3,068.52. The increase of membership is not large; we have lost by death 10 members and 8 members are withdrawn, but the rest of the members are all in esteemed position of life.

"The Grand Lodge of Switzerland assembles in bi-ennial session 26th and 27th at Zurich. The fund of the Grand Lodge for 'Relief of brothers in convalescence,' organized 1896 as Odd Fellows' Home fund and reorganized 1902, has now reached the sum of $3,587.85. When we have $4,000 the institution will begin its activity.

"Statistics of the Order in Switzerland from 1871 to December 31, 1905:

Members relieved	873
Families relieved	305
Members deceased	142

Amount paid for—

Relief of brothers	$ 15,555.54
Relief of families	16,140.59
Relief of Orphans	1,363.42
Burying the dead	2,599.76
Special relief	8,956.81

Total relief$ 44,616.12

AUSTRALASIA, NEW SOUTH WALES.—Geo. T. Clarke, Grand Secretary, writes: "In the second paragraph of your letter I note that you expect from me an extended statement concerning the condition of the Order in New South Wales for insertion in your report to The Sovereign Grand Lodge. I have very great pleasure in forwarding you the information to the 31st December, 1904, viz.:

"Number of Lodges on January 1, 1904, 111, viz.: 99 Subordinate, 11 Rebekah, and 1 Juvenile. During the year 1904, 10 Lodges were instituted, viz.: 2 Subordinate and 8 Rebekah, and during the same period 2 Subordinate Lodges were closed, leaving the present number as on the 1st January, 1905, as follows: 119 Lodges, viz.: 99 Subordinate, 19 Rebekah, and 1 Juvenile.

Membership.—On January 1, 1904, the membership stood at 8,839, viz.: 7,876 brothers, 127 widows, and 836 sisters (Rebekahs). During the same year there were initiated 1,299 brothers, 601 sisters, against which the withdrawals were 1,088 brothers and 242 sisters, leaving a net gain of 570. The membership on January 1, 1905, stood as follows: 9,409, viz.: 8,070 brothers, 144 widows, and 1,195 sisters.

Finance.—The income of the Jurisdiction amounted to £34,307 10s. 6¾d., and the expenditure, £28,236 16s. 4d., leaving a net gain of £6,070 14s. 2¾d.

Funds.—The total funds of the Jurisdiction amount to £72,449 15s. 2¾d., made up as follows: Grand Lodge £31,069 3s. 5d., Subordinate £40,753 5s. 9¼d., Rebekah Lodges £606 11s. 9½d., and other branches £16 4s. 3d.

Statistical.—The per cent increases in membership for the year 1904 was equal to 6.56 per cent, and in the funds for the same year 9.57 per cent. The number of sick was 1752, the duration of sickness 5 days, 20 hours and 2 minutes, averaging sick pay per member 15 9¾ per cent. The number of members who died was 82, viz.: 46 brothers, 33 wives, and 3 widows. The amount paid for medical attendance and medicine was £9,041 5s 11d. The net expenses of the Grand Lodge equalled 13.37 per cent of the income and the earning power of the funds was equal to 3.67 per cent upon the funds of the Jurisdiction.

The principal subject for discussion at the session was the question of benefits to married women, and I may inform you that the Grand Lodge decided that married women as well as single women shall be entitled to sick pay and mortuary benefits.

There is a possibility in the very near future of centralizing the sick fund as well as the funeral fund of the Jurisdiction, which in my opinion is the proper course, especially for a fraternal society, to take, for while we have many strong Lodges financially, we have also strong Lodges numerically, but unfortunately their finances are weak, due to misfortunes which the members individually are not responsible for.

Now, in conclusion, permit me to briefly refer to the death of Bro. Grant. The information came to hand immediately after the Triennial Session of the Grand Lodge of Australasia, and needless to say we in Australasia, and especially those brothers who had the good fortune of corresponding with him, were very pained to hear of his demise. We had no idea in Australasia that he was not enjoying otherwise than the best of good health; consequently, the news came as a very sudden shock. I communicated as Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of Australasia the sad intelligence to the Grand Masters of the several Jurisdictions of Australasia, and have no doubt that they will in turn communicate with the Grand Sire of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, expressing their profound sympathy with you.

TRANSFER OF MEMBERSHIP.

This question which has been discussed for so long, since 1904, has been made to apply to all branches of the Order instead of the Subordinate branch alone. The word vicinity has been changed to "territorial jurisdiction."

HOMES.

For the first time did the Grand Lodge appoint a committee on this important work of the Order. Representative Finn of Illinois was honored with a place on this important committee.

THE GRAND SIRE.

On of the happiest events of a life time came when the name of E. S. Conway was presented to the Sovereign Grand Lodge for election as the Grand Sire. Of course there was no opposition and the Secretary was authorized to cast the entire vote of the members present for Bro. Conway for the highest office in the Odd Fellow world. All Illinois was jubilant, joyous and jolly. While each member felt that he had made no mistake in the wise selection made for this high honor, it was for Illinois to go into pardonable ecstasies. He was our Conway. He was from Illinois. He was one of us. At last this great Jurisdiction had been worthily honored, an honor that should have come this way many years ago, if numbers and ability had been properly recognized. But we have the office and the man in our own beloved Jurisdiction and we are happy.

It would be easy to write a page, yea, a volume about this man of the times. He is able, honest, worthy, an Odd Fellow. Is that not enough? Yea, he is still more, he is a Christian gentleman and has the confidence of the entire Odd Fellow World.

This was the best time in the history of the Order to be a Representative to this body as it gave us the privilege to help to elect our Conway to the most honorable position within the gift of the Order.

Inasmuch as it may not be well to write too much about this modest brother, for he would rather we should say little, if anything, about him, we will close this word which is written out of full hearts and with the purest motive. This being true, we are sure Brother Conway will pardon us. Long live Grand Sire, E. S. Conway.

GRAND SIRE.

PLACE OF MEETING.

To the Odd Fellows of the world the beautiful city of Toronto threw wide her doors. Not only was this an honor to us but it was a like honor to Canada to have the Grand Body meet there. It was Toronto's honor, since she is the only city outside the United States that has ever been accorded such preferment. But what a city Toronto is? It seemed that the entire population of 300,000 rose up as one person to personally care for the thousands of Odd Fellows that were the guests of the city.

At the session of 1880 the old work of five degrees was reduced to the initiatory and three degrees and the Encampment ritual was revised. At this session a committee of three was appointed to rewrite the work of the Subordinate Lodge for submission to the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

A special honor was accorded the Odd Fellows not granted any other body, namely, the use of the Parliament buildings for holding our sessions. This was done at the session 26 years ago as well as this time.

The entertainment was all that could be desired. The freedom of the city and the Province were given us. Entertainments of every description for the benefit and happiness of the brothers and sisters were in all parts of the city.

The government, by its representative, Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Clark, honored us with a reception and garden party. This was special recognition of a great Order. Likewise the Mayor and the city gave a reception. No better treatment or greater honor could be bestowed on any than that we received.

More than 10000 Odd Fellows were in the great line of march that passed along the principal thoroughfares lined with a living mass of interested spectators. For miles this line of march passed the interested populace. It is estimated that there were 300,000 persons that witnessed the parade that required hours to pass the review stand. It was our privilege to be permitted to have a place on this privileged spot. Here the Grand Sire and his officers reviewed the splendid line of march. No one could have felt happier than Grand Sire Conway as he looked upon that splendid spectacle that represented the 1,600,712 Odd Fellows of the world. While he rejoiced at the success of the Order there was perceptible on his face the thought of a great responsibility.

One of the most potent factors that is so apparent as this time is the great growth of the Rebekah branch of the Order. In 1880 there were only 21,549 members in the Rebekah degree, whereas there are now 322,647 sisters who are active members of the Lodges. Then the amount reported in the year 1878, the year before the meeting, was $1,714,805.00. and for the year 1905, just prior to this session, the amount is $4,680,387.74. This speaks volumes. At this time it makes a more profound impression since it offers such a favorable opportunity for comparisons.

The meeting at Toronto will, undoubtedly, do incalculable good. It brings our sister provinces in closer touch with the United States. And it is a beautiful sentiment that pervades these parts of great America, so one in spirit under the loyal banner of the three links. So inseparably has this union been welded that in the largest possible sense we are Americans together. Their interests are our interests in government as well as in the Order. The Canadians realize this as much as we do. And it was very touching to see the beautiful folds of our flag wreathed about the staff of the Union Jack in such loving embrace. Canada is our fair lover. The same angel of peace has winged the swift gold arrow of Cupid to the heart's very center. In war, and in peace, we are, and will be, forever, one. We are one people, one race, one in motive, one in Friendship, Love and Truth. This session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge has played a great part in keeping of abiding peace among nations.

FOREIGN RELATIONS.

Your Committee on Foreign Relations, to whom was referred the foreign correspondence contained in the report of the Grand Secretary, respectfully report that we have carefully examined the correspondence between the officers of this Grand Body and our quasi independent jurisdictions, and we are pleased to report that a gratifying condition of harmony and fraternal feeling prevails all along the line. Our foreign brethren report progress in numbers, wealth, and beneficial works. The splendid increase in membership and advanced activity in the practical work of Odd Fellowship in the several jurisdictions of Australasia, Sweden, Switzerland, New South Wales and New Zealand, excite our admiration and approval, and we hereby congratulate our brethren there, and bid them God speed in their efforts to assist us in bringing to humanity the joyful period when the law of a universal Brotherhood shall bind all nations, tongues and kindreds of the earth.

Signed by the Committee.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

We would be recreant to the trust imposed in us if we did not most graciously thank the members of this Grand Body for the honor thrust upon us as Grand Representatives. The Sovereign Grand Lodge is composed of a very conservative body of men, men who have the Order at heart, men of large experience in affairs and men with broad views. It is certainly a representative body. To be permitted to mingle with such brothers and take part in such a deliberative body is a great honor. But a greater honor is in representing the Great Jurisdiction of Illinois, the fourth in point of numbers in the world.

CONCLUSION.

The year's work has been a noble incentive to greater things. What a splendid record! Words fail to express the exact situation. The work done has been of the permanent sort in every branch of the Order and everywhere. With a pardonable pride do we look upon this great fraternity as the largest, wealthiest and best organized of any of the kind in the world. But all this has come, not by mere chance, but by well tried and systematic measures.

The object of the Order is so well understood that nothing need be said about that except to extol the motive and encourage the brotherhood to continue along the well beaten paths of our fathers. Why should there be a mere theoretical Order when the test has been so successfully applied in relieving the distressed, educating the orphan, caring for the widow and burying the dead? Others may theorize, but Odd Fellowship has passed out of the experimental stage to the realization of a tried method that assures the brotherhood of its future permanency and the care of its orphans and indigent old people. Never did reports show a more satisfactory growth or greater harmony of sentiment. Fidelity and loyalty have been the key stones of our triumphal arch. Prosperity has shown to excellent advantage over the entire field,—the globe. So long as the Lodge is the center of enthusiasm and unselfishness the continued good work will march proudly to greater conquests and more glorious victories. So long as brotherly love is the watchword—the banner of our hope will never trail in the dust of dishonor or go from us with the blush of shame. What has been done the past year will be done with accelerated devotion in the future.

With the eye of the world upon Illinois, because of having the Grand Sire in this Jurisdiction, it is of special interest to the Grand Representatives to be thus signally honored at this time.

The work of your Representatives has been done conscientiously and as well as we could. As there are but three other Jurisdictions larger than ours it goes without saying that many eyes were turned toward the State of Illinois. In the very forefront do we stand in point of Homes, Subordinate Lodges, Rebekah Lodges, Encampment and Militant branches of the Order. To the entire membership of the Grand Lodge we owe a debt of gratitude and with a feeling of thankfulness for the honor conferred, we very gratefully submit this, our report.

Good Luck Rebekah Lodge, No. 312, I. O. O. F., located at Berwick, in Warren county, was closed November 6th, 1906, by Brother J. H. Jones, a Past Grand of Berwick Subordinate Lodge, No. 765, I. O. O. F., located at Berwick, Ill. The Deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary draft for $6.23.

Octavia Rebekah Lodge, No. 286, I. O. O. F., located at Nokomis, in Montgomery county, was closed November 14th, 1906, by Bro. R. C. Whittlesey, a Past Grand of Sherman Lodge, No. 332, I. O. O. F., located at Nokomis, Ill. The Deputy remitted to the Grand Secretary the effects of the defunct lodge, together with a draft for $11.69.

Subordinate Lodges Consolidated.

Oil City Lodge, No. 724, I. O. O. F., of Litchfield, and Auguste Lodge, No. 507, I. O. O. F., Litchfield, were consolidated under the name and number of Oil City Lodge, No. 724, on November 6th, 1906, by Brother W. E. P. Anderson, of Carlinville.

Rebekah Lodges Consolidated.

Ruby Rebekah Lodge, No. 263, I. O. O. F., of Jerseyville, Ill., and Otterville Rebekah Lodge, No. 237, I. O. O. F., of Otterville, were consolidated under the name and number of Ruby Rebekah Lodge, No. 263, on November 13, 1906, by Sister Nellie L. Halbert, of Whitehall.

Removal.

During the year permission was given Pride of Egypt Lodge, No. 931, I. O. O. F., of Craig, Ill., to move to Coulterville, Ill.

Expelled Member Reinstated.

Mr. John Gigl, Cabery Lodge, No. 296, Cabery, Ill., expelled. Reinstated November 17, 1906.

Rep. Winkelmann, of 40, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 4th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 2.

Resolved, That no officer or representative receive mileage or per diem, unless he attend the full session of the Grand Lodge.

Rep. Galloway, of 22, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 3d report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 3.

WHEREAS, "In sickness, in sorrow, in the most doleful days of dejection, or in the most gloomy seasons of the calendar, the reading of a good book is the sweetest solace and the surest refuge. . . . A book produces a delightful abstraction from the cares and sorrows of this world. By the magic illusion of a fascinating author we are transported from the couch of anguish, or the gripe of melancholy, to Milton's Paradise or the Elysium of Virgil"; and

WHEREAS, This Grand Lodge should consider it an imperative duty to provide good literature for our brothers and sisters at the Old Folks' Home, and also to instill and foster a love for good, healthy reading in the hearts of our boys and girls at the Orphans' Home; and

WHEREAS, This Grand Lodge should formulate a well-defined plan for the purpose of establishing a library in each of our homes; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sentiment and earnest desire of this Grand Lodge that each representative visiting the convention of 1907 bring with him two books—one for the Old Folks' Home and one for the Orphans' Home; and be it further

Resolved, That a library committee of three members be appointed to co-operate with the Grand Master and the Superintendents of our two homes for the purpose of arranging details, such as to prevent duplication of volumes, and for the further purpose of impressing upon the Lodges in our Grand Jurisdiction the importance and attractiveness of this proposition, and for the further purpose of creating a publicity and enthusiasm which will make the book offering one of the attractive features of future sessions of this Grand Lodge.

Reps. Gross, of 831, Call, of 55, and Debus, of 540, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 2d report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 4.

WHEREAS, At the present time no provision exists for the care and maintenance at the Old Folks' Home, at Mattoon, of such worthy and acceptable brothers as may be afflicted (through no fault of their own) with a contagious or incurable disease, causing their acceptance at the Home to be denied and frequently resulting in the necessity for their being placed in the hands of a state, county or other charitable institution: therefore, it is hereby

Resolved. That suitable arrangements be made by this Grand Lodge at once for the erection of a separate building on the grounds of the site of the Old Folks' Home, located sufficiently distant from the main buildings of the Home as to prevent all danger of contagion; said proposed building to cost not more than $5,000 for complete construction.

Rep. Barnes, of 200, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. [See 2d report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 5.

WHEREAS, Certain subordinate lodges do set aside a certain per cent of the dues for festivals (viz., eating, drinking and carousing), diverting a part of the lodge funds from their legitimate purposes; therefore, be it

Resolved. That it is, the sense of this Grand Body that the practice is illegal and is strictly forbidden.

Bro. Geo. W. Young, of 392, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. [No report from that committee: but see 9th and 24th reports of the Committee on Finance.]

DOCUMENT NO. 6.

It appears from the report of the Grand Secretary, on page 143, that the following sums have been paid by the Grand Treasurer, the bills therefor having been allowed by order of the Grand Master, viz:

E. A. Armstrong & Co., one set of Grand Lodge regalia, per Grand Master.....	$200 00
Donation to Orphans' Home graduating class, ordered by Grand Master.....	110 00
Orphans' Home excursion to Mattoon, by order of Grand Master.....	300 00
John P. Foss, allowed by Grand Master.....	200 00
Total.....	$810 00

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, and for the satisfaction of myself and other members of this Grand Lodge, and for the benefit and information of the membership of the Order throughout the State of Illinois, I ask that this subject be referred to the Committee on the State of the Order, or some other committee, and that such committee report to this Grand Lodge, with all convenient speed, stating under and by virtue of what provision of the Constitution or By-Laws of this Grand Lodge, or what standing resolution, or unwritten law, custom or usage of this Grand Body, the Grand Master is authorized and empowered to appropriate any of the funds belonging to this Grand Lodge, in the manner above specified.

Said report of said committee to refer to and note particularly the article and section of the Constitution, if any; the article and section of the By-Laws, if any; or the volume and page where such law can be found, if any such law exists.

Rep. James R. Keel, of 441, offered the following, which was entered on the Journal for consideration at the next annual session.

DOCUMENT NO. 7.

Resolved, That Article VII of the Grand Lodge Constitution shall be amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:

"Article VII. Sessions. Section 1. The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the second Tuesday in October."

Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., Chairman of the Committee on Revision of the Code, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. [See 4th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 8.

WHEREAS, in the printing of the Illinois Code of 1906, on page 119, a mistake was made whereby section six (6) of Article two (II) of the Subordinate Constitution is erroneously printed; now, for the purpose of correcting such error, it is hereby ordered, that said section six (6) of said Article two (II) be correctly printed on a sheet of paper of the same size and character as the page of said Code and in as large type as same can be done on one page, and that one such sheet so printed shall be sent to each of the Subordinate Lodges in this jurisdiction, and that a like sheet shall be furnished, upon application to the Grand Secretary, to each person who may have purchased a copy of said Code, and a like sheet shall be inserted in each copy of said Code now in the possession of the Grand Secretary.

It is further ordered that the Grand Secretary of this Lodge be and is hereby directed to carry into effect the objects of this resolution, and that the expenses for the same shall be audited by the Finance Committee of this Lodge and paid out of the general fund of this Lodge.

Bro. Geo. W. Young, of 392, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. [See 11th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 9.

It appears from the report of the Grand Master, on page 57, that the Trustees of the Orphans' Home at Lincoln have purchased a team of mares to be used on the farm and about the premises, for hauling and such other work as may be necessary; that said mares weigh 1800 pounds each; that the consideration paid for said mares was $700.00, being the magnificent sum of $350.00 each: and inasmuch as this strikes the ordinary mind, at first blush, as being unreasonable and an exorbitantly high price to pay for horse-flesh to do ordinary work about said home and farm: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, or some member of said Board who is familiar with the facts, furnish the committee to which this resolution is referred a statement in writing, giving a description of said mares: giving their respective ages, height and color, noting particularly if there are any patent or latent defects upon any parts of their bodies, heads or limbs, also if they are imported stock, and if so, from what country and stables, together with a short sketch of their pedigree, if the same can be obtained, and that the same be reported to this Grand Lodge.

The following was offered by Rep. T. N. Sloan, of 679, seconded by the Reps. of 519, 721, and 929, and was entered on the Journal for consideration at the next annual session.

DOCUMENT NO. 10.

Resolved, That no member of the Grand Lodge be allowed to vote except the Officers and Representatives; and be it further

Resolved, That if the Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge are such that it will require an amendment to prohibit Past Grands who are not Representatives from voting, that our Representatives from this Grand Body be instructed to work and vote to that end.

Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M., offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Legislation. [See 6th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 11.

Resolved, That the Committee on Legislation be and hereby is instructed to present an amendment to Section 5, Article X, providing that where a Lodge exempts a resident of the Old Folks' Home from the payment of dues, the Lodge shall be released from the payment of sick benefits to such resident member.

Also the following, which was referred to the same committee. [See 3d report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 12.

Resolved, That the Committee on Legislation be and hereby is instructed to report amendments to Sections 5 and 6, Article III, Subordinate Lodge Constitution, striking out the clauses exempting Secretaries from the payment of dues.

Rep. W. F. Douglas, of 141, offered the following, signed by himself and by Bros. Harris, of 190; Gousior, of 461; Davidson, of 11; Reid, of 801; Bitner, of 875; Golden, of 822; Abercrombie, of 347; Luxton, of 230; Hodge, of 419; Lackey, of 911; Forster, of 157; Steffey, of 20; Thompson, of 124; Daniels, of 69; and DeWitt, of 751. The resolution was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 5th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 13.

WHEREAS, It has been the custom in the past for the installing officers of this Grand Body to read the charges when installing the officers of this Grand Body, thus lessening the effect thereof and setting a bad example before the representatives of the Subordinate Lodges of this jurisdiction:

Resolved, That the Grand Master direct the installing officer to commit the charges to memory, so that they may be given in the impressive manner that should characterize an installation of the officers of this Grand Body.

The Chief and Assistant Chief of Examiners and Instructors presented the following report, to be entered on the Journal for the information of all interested.

DOCUMENT NO. 14.

GRAND CHAPLAIN.

beginning with 1856, was introduced by Bro. C. J. Lindly, P.G.R., and made a few remarks.

On motion of Bro. E. R. Sayler, Chairman of the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem, it was ordered that the per diem for this session be computed at three days' attendance.

The Grand Master called Past Grand Master Orendorff to the chair.

Presentation of donations to the Endowment Funds of the two Homes then proceeded, the result of which is shown in detail in the appended statement.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The Closing Ode was sung, the Grand Chaplain offered prayer, and the Grand Lodge was declared regularly closed.

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 21.

9 O'CLOCK.

The Grand Lodge met, pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Humphrey in the chair.

Present—All the Grand Officers, with a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal, with his assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Daily Journal of yesterday's proceedings was received and distributed.

The Opening Ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Grand Master announced appointments as follows:

Assistants to the Grand Master—Bros. W. S. Adams, of 868; J. W. Beyer, of 696; H. E. Makutchan, of 428; Chas. W. Keiser, of 240.

To fill vacancy in Committee on the State of the Order—Bro. J. W. Birney, of 77.

Chairman of Committee on Rebekah Degree—Bro. W. S. Adams, of 868, in place of former chairman, absent.

Committee to escort Grand Sire Conway to the Hall—Past Grand Representatives J. W. Yantis, Alfred Orendorff, Cicero J. Lindly, and Grand Representatives John J. Brown and J. A. Lucas.

The committee retired, and returned with Grand Sire Conway, who was introduced, received with the Grand Honors of the Order, and addressed the Grand Lodge.

In response to persistent calls, Past Grand Master John J. Brown also spoke briefly.

Upon announcement that the Orphans' Home Band was in waiting, the Grand Lodge was declared at ease.

The Band was admitted, and entertained the Grand Lodge for a half-hour with a few selections, which evoked much applause.

Master Hans Heyl and Miss Dorothy Heyl, inmates of the Orphans' Home, were then introduced by the Superintendent. Bro. J. A. Lucas, G. R., and sang a song in German and a song in English, accompanied on the piano by Miss Rose Kanak, also of the Home. Their contribution to the entertainment was received with applause no less hearty than was that of the Band.

The guests then retired, and the Grand Lodge resumed its regular order of business.

Rep. Lighthall, of 662, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. [See 15th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 17.

Resolved. That ten per cent. of the capitation tax be turned into the Endowment Funds—five per cent. to the Orphans' Home Endowment Fund, and five per cent. to the Old Folks' Home Endowment Fund—the per capita tax to be increased ten cents a member per year.

Rep. Dellenbach, of 362, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. [See 15th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 18.

Resolved. That the Grand Lodge appropriate a per capita tax of five cents per member against the Subordinate Lodges for the Endowment Funds of the Old Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home, to be divided equally between said funds.

Rep. Dellenbach, of 362, offered the following, which was entered on the Journal for consideration at the next annual session.

DOCUMENT NO. 19.

WHEREAS, the Past Grand Masters of this body are allowed mileage and per diem only when serving on committees for this body; and

WHEREAS, this practice results in placing Past Grand Masters on the various committees to the exclusion of the regularly elected representatives of this body, so that they may be reimbursed in a measure for their attendance on the sessions of this body; and

WHEREAS, The Sovereign Grand Lodge has set the example of allowing mileage and per diem to all Past Grand Sires who may attend the sessions of that body:

Therefore, be it resolved, That, as a compliment for the faithful services given to the Grand Lodge by the Past Grand Masters, they be allowed mileage and per diem when in attendance upon sessions of the Grand Lodge.

Reps. Watson, of 331, Chadwick, of 214, and Douglas, of 441, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. [See 6th report of that committee.]

DOCUMENT NO. 20.

WHEREAS, The greater number of our children, upon leaving the shelter of our Home, at Lincoln, Illinois, must depend upon their own effort for their maintenance and support; and

WHEREAS, By reason of their insufficient training, due to the fact that at the present time there is no opportunity given the children in the Home to fit themselves for the struggles in the industrial field; and

WHEREAS, Many of the members of this great Order believe it would be of great value to our children to be better enabled to fill their place in the world; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home at Lincoln be instructed to inquire into the feasibility of establishing a Manual Training and Domestic Science Department in connection with the Home at Lincoln, and to report to the Grand Master as soon as practicable before the next session of the Grand Lodge; and be it further

Resolved, That the Grand Master have said report printed and a copy be sent to all Lodges in this jurisdiction, before the next session of the Grand Lodge as aforesaid, for consideration.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following report, which was laid on the table, under the rule: [Adopted Thursday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 21.

Second report, by Bro. ————.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to which was referred the resolution of Bro. Barnes, of Lodge No. 200, bearing upon the five per cent entertainment fund and its improper use, beg leave to report that the Sovereign Grand Lodge gives each Grand Lodge the right to provide that its Subordinate Lodges may, if they so desire, set aside not to exceed five per cent of their dues, to be kept as a separate entertainment fund, and each Lodge has the legal right to do this if it so desires; but this fund should not be illegally or improperly used any more than the general fund. Each Lodge should see to it that this entertainment fund is properly used, and for the sole purpose for which this fund is created; and a Lodge failing to do this would be derelict in its duty and subject to charges the same as for any other illegal act.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Printing presented the following reports, which were laid on the table under the rule. [Both adopted Thursday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 22.

First report, by Bro. John R. Camp, of No. 322.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Printing would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of printing and binding the Illinois I. O. O. F. Code:

We received bids on this work from the following firms:

Phillips Bros., Springfield, Ill.:

Shalleross Printing and Stationery Co., St. Louis, Mo.:

Hack & Anderson, Chicago, Ill.:

H. W. Rokker Co., Springfield, Ill.:

Perrin & Smith, St. Louis, Mo.:

State Register Co., Springfield, Ill.:

Pantagraph Printing and Stationery Co., Bloomington, Ill.

Bids were made in detail on composition, press work, paper, and binding. Tabulation and comparison showed the proposal of Phillips Bros., of Springfield, to be by far the lowest, and the work was awarded to that firm.

When the work was finished and settlement made, it was found that the book had been printed for but little more than half the estimated cost of $2,000. But for the expense of interleaving ten copies, and wrapping and labeling the whole edition, the cost would have been only $1,044.48, and, with these items added, the total was $1,114.48.

Faternally submitted.

JOHN R. CAMP,

HENRY DINKELMAN,

JNO. LEVERETT,

Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 23.

Second report, by Bro. H. Dinkelman, of No. 488.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Printing would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of printing for the Grand Lodge:

For printing the Grand Lodge Journal, the Officers' Reports, the Daily Journal, and the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, we received bids from the Illinois State Journal Co. and the Illinois State Register Co., both of Springfield; and for printing stationery and supplies bids were received from the above-named firms and also from the Edw. F. Hartmann Co. of Springfield.

Estimating the Officers' Reports and the Grand Lodge Journal to be of the same size as in 1905, the bids were as follows:

For the Grand Lodge Journal—

State Journal..... $ 955 00

State Register..... 1,075 00

For the Officers' Reports—

State Journal..... $337 50

State Register..... 350 00

For Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals—per page—

State Journal..... $1 35

State Register..... 1 75

For the Daily Journal, per page—

State Journal..... $2 35

State Register..... 2 10

Inasmuch as the four jobs listed above, on account of the amount of the same matter used in more than one of them, must be printed at the same place, and the aggregate of bids of the State Journal Co. being the lowest, the work was awarded to that firm.

The bid of the State Journal Co. for printing stationery and supplies was also the best, and this work also was awarded to that firm.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the Nomination and Election of Grand Officers for the ensuing year.

The Grand Master appointed as Tellers—Bros. James M. Taylor, of 240; Charles E. Seymour, of 243; Joseph Swift, of 314; Frank Wolaver, of 47; H. M. Blood, of 330; J. Johansen, of 412; George H. Hubbard, of 454; D. O. Root, of 469; F. O. Nelson, of 583; Arnold C. Wild, of 716.

The Grand Master called for nominations

FOR GRAND MASTER.

Bro. J. P. Ellacott, of 416, nominated Fred B. Merrills, of 650.

There being no other nomination,—

On motion of Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., the Grand Secretary was instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Merrills. It was so done, and Bro. Fred B. Merrills, of No. 650, was declared duly elected Grand Master for the ensuing year.

FOR DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

Bro. J. E. Taylor, of 118, nominated Duncan McDougall, of 41.

Bro. Fred Call, of 55, nominated Chas. E. Boyer, of 55.

Bro. T. B. Needles, Grand Treas., nominated J. J. Lyell, of 558.

Bro. Yantis, P.G.R., was called to the chair.

A ballot for Grand Warden was ordered.

While the Tellers were collecting the votes, Bro. Merrills, Grand Master-elect, was called for, and addressed the Grand Lodge.

Bro. Scott, Deputy Grand Master-elect, was called upon, and occupied the few remaining minutes with a brief address.

Having collected the ballots for Grand Warden, the Tellers retired to an adjoining room to canvass the vote.

*On motion, the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th reports of the Committee on Finance, appearing in the Grand Master's Report, (see pages 53 to 61, both inclusive), were severally considered and all adopted.

FOR GRAND SECRETARY.

Bro. C. W. Keiser, of 240, nominated John H. Sikes, of 465.

There being no other nomination,—

On motion of Bro. Scott, D.G.Master-elect, Bro. John J. Brown, G.Rep., was instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Sikes. It was so done, and Bro. John H. Sikes, of No. 465, was declared duly elected Grand Secretary for the ensuing year.

In response to calls, Bro. Sikes made a short talk.

FOR GRAND TREASURER.

Rep. Fred Campbell of 25, nominated Thomas B. Needles, of 37.

There being no other nomination,—

On motion of Bro. J. P. Ellacott, of 416, the Grand Secretary was instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro Needles. It was so done, and Bro. Thomas B. Needles, of No. 37, was declared duly elected Grand Treasurer for the ensuing year.

Bro. Needles returned thanks for this renewed manifestation of confidence and regard.

FOR GRAND REPRESENTATIVE.

Bro. John J. Brown, P.G.M., nominated Wm. R. Humphrey, of 240.

There being no other nomination,—

On motion of Bro. Alfred Orendorff, P.G.M., the Grand Secretary was instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Humphrey. It was so done, and Bro. William R. Humphrey, of No. 240, was declared duly elected Grand Representative for the ensuing term of two years.

The Tellers having completed their count of votes, presented the following report, giving the result of the ballot for Grand Warden.

DOCUMENT NO. 24.

FIRST REPORT OF TELLERS.

Total number of votes cast.....	1,061
Necessary for choice.....	531
Bro. Harris received.....	119
Bro. Groves received.....	413
Bro. Davis received.....	260
Bro. McDougall received	193
Bro. Boyer received.....	45
Bro. Lyell received.....	31
Total.....	1,061

There being no choice, another ballot was ordered.

Bro. Lyell was declared dropped from the nomination.

Bro. Boyer withdrew his name from the list of candidates.

Bro Harris also withdrew his name.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 2 o'clock p. m.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Grand Lodge met at 2 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Humphrey in the chair.

Present—Grand Officers as at the morning session and a quorum of Representatives.

After Examination by the Grand Marshal and his assistants, the Grand Lodge was declared open for business.

The Grand Master announced appointments as follows:

Assistant to the Grand Marshal—Rep. M. L. Herron, of 117.

To fill vacancies in Committee on Rebekah Degree—Bros. R. W. S. Wheatley, P.G.M., and James M. Taylor, of 240.

The votes were collected on the second ballot for Grand Warden, and the Tellers retired to make the count.

On motion of Rep. Jennings, of 158, Bro. Fred B. Merrills, of 650, was requested to furnish a copy of his address on the occasion of his election to the office of Grand Master, for publication in the Journal of Proceedings.

ADDRESS BY BRO. MERRILLS.

It is with feelings of the most profound gratitude that I stand before you to express my thanks for the expression of confidence which you have shown by electing me to be your Grand Master for the coming year. I appreciate the honor and the responsibilities of the station and I can assure you that there will be nothing left undone which it is possible for me to do to advance the interests of our fraternity.

A change of administration in a civil state often brings a crisis in national affairs which materially affects a large number of people. When it was found that Alexander the Great was rapidly nearing his end, his generals gathered around him and listened and watched with the utmost attention to catch a word or observe a sign from which they might in some measure be forewarned as to the policy of his successor. And why? Because Alexander had founded his empire upon those outward and perishable things which so often excite men's passionate ambition. In our own country no crisis was ever approached with a more perfect consciousness of impending doubt and gloom than the inauguration of our own beloved Abraham Lincoln.

As he stood beneath the unfinished dome of the new capitol building and pronounced his first inaugural address he had in his audience not only the citizens of this country but the representatives of all the nations of the earth. The world was interested in learning the attitude of the new administration on the two then all important questions, slavery and secession. How different it is in our beloved Order, for it is founded upon Truth which is unchangeable and Love which is everlasting. It ministers unto us in the trials and adversities which are inseparable in human life; it teaches us to cultivate the social graces and to practice the christian virtues. It seeks to improve and to elevate the character of men. Wherefore it is impossible for a change of administration to bring about a change of policy, except as to the manner and measure of inculcating the tenets of our fraternity.

Standing at the threshold of a new year it may not be amiss to pause in the transaction of business to take a short retrospect of the past and obtain a hopeful prospect of the future.

Taking a short retrospect of the past it will be remembered that the present Grand Master at the beginning of his administration announced it as his desire for a large increase in membership and a substantial addition to the endowment funds. This ambition has been fully gratified. If we were to expect the same degree of prosperity and growth along the same lines during the coming year we might be disappointed, but one thing is certain, that is, that by devotion to duty, by educating the material we have, by work and by sacrifice we can raise the banner of Odd Fellowship higher than it has ever yet been raised. And I ask you Representatives to carry to your lodges the word "Ready" and say to them that it is the desire of the new Grand Master that this word shall be the watch-word and the key-note throughout this jurisdiction for the coming year.

In the hopeful prospect which I have taken of the future, I see every officer and member always ready, both for work and for sacrifice. Ready to commend the Order to a friend. Ready to propose his name for membership. Ready to make a sacrifice of time and convenience for the good of the Order. Ready to defend a brother's character. Ready to protect his property. Ready to assist his family. Ready to warn him of approaching danger. Ready to whisper words of good counsel in the ear of an erring brother and in the most friendly manner remind him of his error. Ready to go any distance through any kind of weather and under the most unfavorable circumstances to relieve the distress of a brother should his necessities require. Ready to sit by the bedside of a sick brother and give him words of cheer and consolation as he passes through the dark valley of the shadow of death. Ready to wipe the death damp from his forehead and ready to close his eyes in their last sleep. Ready to give his remains sepulture. Ready to cherish a lively recollection of his many virtues and ready to bury all his imperfections beneath the clod which rests upon his bosom. Ready to assist his widow and ready to educate his orphan.

When in the future this high ideal of Odd Fellowship has been attained, then dropping for non-payment of dues will be a thing of the past. Then will we enjoy our membership as we have never enjoyed it before, and when our dissolution draws nigh, and we pass through the ante-room into the Grand Lodge above, we will be ready to receive the approbation of our Supreme Grand Master: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." "Inasmuch as ye have done it to the least of mine, ye have done it also unto me."

A committee from the Rebekah Assembly was announced, and the Grand Lodge was declared at ease.

Bros. T. B. Needles, G.T., and Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., were appointed a committee to introduce the sisters.

Sister Stewart, Vice-President of the Assembly, and Sister Harris, Past President, were introduced, and each made a brief address.

The sisters retired, and the Grand Lodge resumed its regular business.

The Grand Master appointed Bros. Fred B. Merrills, G.Master-elect, and John J. Brown, P.G.Master, a committee to convey to the Rebekah Assembly the greetings of the Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master presented for the consideration of the Grand Lodge a letter he had just received from Pellonia Lodge, No. 621, stating the case of Bro. Van Morefield, of that Lodge, and what had been done for him by the Lodge and its members, and asking permission to solicit small contributions from the Lodges of the jurisdiction for his further relief.

On motion of Bro. T. J. Elderkin, of 871, $200 was appropriated from the Special Relief Fund for the relief of Bro. Van Morefield.

The Tellers, having completed the count of votes in the second ballot for Grand Warden, presented the following:

DOCUMENT NO. 25.

SECOND REPORT OF THE TELLERS.

Bro. Wm. M. Groves, of No. 117, having received a majority of the votes cast, the Grand Master declared him elected Grand Warden for the ensuing year.

Bro. J. A. Lucas, P.G.M., announced that Bro. Theodore R. Cook, of Chicago, had turned over to him his will, bequeathing all his property to the Orphans' Home at Lincoln.

The document was received with a vote of thanks to Bro. Cook, and was placed in the hands of the Grand Secretary.

Bro. J. W. Yantis, P.G.M., was called to the chair.

The Committee on Printing presented the following report, which was referred to the Committee on Finance. [See 22d report of that committee.]

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals would respectfully report as follows:

That Mr. Clarence M Parker, of Chicago, was a second degree member of Kossuth Lodge at the time its charter was recalled by the Grand Master, and he now desires to join Loyal Lodge, No 601, at Chicago, receive the third degree, and become an active member in the Order.

Bros. R. P. Hagan, Rep. of No. 601, Geo. F. Koester and F. D. P. Snelling, both Past Grands of No. 601, have stated to this committee that they know Mr. Parker, that he is in every way worthy to be restored to membership, and your committee respectfully recommends that a dismissal certificate be granted to Clarence M. Parker.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem presented the following report, which, under suspension of the rule, was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 36.

First report by Bro. E. R. Saylor, of No. 6.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Mileage and Per Diem respectfully report as follows: We have computed the mileage and per diem of each Grand Officer, Committeeman and Subordinate Lodge Representative who were present and entitled to mileage and per diem, and have issued warrants on the Grand Treasurer for the respective amounts due each.

E. R. SAYLER	ANDREW N. ENGLE.
R. I. JESSOP,	W. F. ROMOSER,
B. F. BENSON,	DAVID WIENER,
R. K. DEWEY,	JOHN R. WATSON,
J. L. BARNUM,	JOHN KLEINSCHMIDT,
CHAS. D. MERRITT,	J. C. F. MEYER,
WILLIAM ROSEMAN,	L. L. MCKINLEY.

Rep. B. F. Foster, of 909, presented the following amendment to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, to be entered on the Journal of Proceedings for consideration at the next annual session.

DOCUMENT NO. 37.

Amend Section ten (10) of Article VI of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge by striking out the words "two dollars" in the last line, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "three dollars," so that the section, when so amended, shall read as follows:

Section 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge Committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The Committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way, and three dollars per diem.

On motion of Bro. T. B. Needles, Grand Treasurer, Unfinished Business appearing on the Journal of the last annual session was taken up.

[The references are to the pages of this Journal.]

The proposed amendment to Article IV, Section 2, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (pages 183-184) was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

The proposed amendment to Article V, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (pages 184-185) was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

The proposed amendment to Article VI, Section 9, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (page 185) was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

The proposed amendment to Article VIII, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (page 186) was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

The proposed amendment to Article IX, Section 1, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (pages 189-191) was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

The proposed amendment to Article X, Section 11, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (pages 192-193) was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

The proposed amendment to Article XI, Section 5, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge (page 192) was laid on the table.

The proposed change in the law relating to length of term of Grand Representatives (page 193) was adopted—yeas, 461; nays, 94.

The proposed law in relation to business advertisements in pamphlets containing the Constitution and By-Laws of Subordinate Lodges (page 193) was considered and non-adopted.

The resolution providing that the Annual Session of the Grand Lodge in 1907 be held in Peoria (page 194) was considered and non-adopted.

The committee to visit the Rebekah Assembly—Bro. Merrill, G.Master-elect, and Bro. Brown, P.G.Master—having returned, reported donations to the Endowment Funds of the two Homes, which will appear in the list appended to this day's proceedings. A vote of thanks was returned to the donors.

The Grand Master referred that portion of his report relating to the Illinois Odd Fellows' League (page 38) to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. (See 3d report of the Committee on the State of the Order, Document 29.)

The Committee on Finance presented its 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [These reports were considered Thursday morning and all adopted.]

DOCUMENT NO. 38.

Seventh report, by Bro. E. H. Kinney, of No. 726.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, on that part of the Grand Master's Report found on pages 23 to 26 in regard to California Disaster:

Your committee have checked up the receipts, and find the total amount to be $9,574.47. Of this amount $9,549.07 has been remitted to Hon. F. B. Ogden, Oakland, Cal. The $25.40 remaining in this fund has come in since the last remittance.

We recommend that this balance of $25.40 be turned into the Special Relief Fund.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 39.

Eighth report, by Brother James Ewing Davis.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in regard to the matter of appropriations to the Old Folks' Home:

Balance on hand.....	$6,256 40
Amount collected by the Finance Committee and now in hands of Grand Treasurer to the Maintenance Fund.....	1,980 98

Total on hand.....	$8,237 38
--------------------	------------

We recommend appropriations as follows:

Maintenance.....	$14,000 00
Repairs	750 00
Cemetery	100 00
Central Heating Plant.....	5,000 00
Additional for Barn Building Fund.....	1,500 00

Total.....	$21,350 00
------------	-------------

We further recommend that these amounts appropriated be added to the several balances, for the purposes specified.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 40.

Ninth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, on Special Relief Fund in Grand Master's Report, pages 30 and 31:

That the action of the Grand Master in immediately forwarding $2,000 to California earthquake sufferers be commended; also, that his action in presenting to the eleven high-school graduates, who were about to leave the Home, $10 each is a praiseworthy and laudable precedent, which will tend to encourage the children of our Home.

Regarding the $200 presented to Bro. John P. Foss, we are satisfied, from what we have learned of the case, that same was a worthy cause, which needed immediate attention, and which was fully investigated by the Grand Master, and this donation must have been like a ray of sunshine in the lives of these two old people, who were so destitute, with winter coming on.

Regarding the interest on funds in the Special Relief Fund, we are of the opinion that such interest properly belongs to the credit of the Relief Fund.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

COPY OF LETTER.

THE ILLINOIS NATIONAL BANK,

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Nov. 21, 1906.

Mr. James Ewing Davis, Chairman Finance Committee, Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., Springfield, Ill.:

DEAR SIR—This certifies that Mr. Thomas B. Needles, Grand Treasurer Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of Illinois, has on deposit in this bank at this date, the sum of Forty-five Thousand Dollars ($45,000).

Yours truly,

[Seal.]

W. M. MERRIAM, Cashier.

We now have in the hands of our Grand Treasurer $12,224.56 more than we had at the last session of the Grand Lodge. This should be very gratifying to our members. We recommend that the cancelled vouchers be filed with the Grand Secretary for future reference.

We would recommend that all papers, bonds, and securities of this Grand Lodge be stamped by the Treasurer with a rubber stamp as follows:

"Property of
Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.,
State of Illinois."

We find the books and accounts of the Treasurer kept in his usual efficient manner.

Fraternally submitted,

JAMES EWING DAVIS,
GEORGE F. KOESTER,
E. H. KINNEY,
Committee on Finance.

DOCUMENT NO. 42.

Eleventh report by Bro. E. H. Kinney, P.G.R., of No. 726.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in reference to Document No. 9, introduced by Bro. Young, of No. 392, in reference to mares purchased by the Orphans' Home Directors.

Your committee has given the subject such consideration as our time would permit, and they have not been able to find any person who is familiar with the pedigree of the mares mentioned in said resolution: but we understand that they are both sound and well bred. This committee has made a former report, which is found on page 57, and this committee is still of the same opinion as therein expressed.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 43.

Twelfth report, by Bro. George F. Koester, of No. 601.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance beg to make the following supplemental report:

They find that there have been remitted direct to J. H. Sikes, Grand Secretary, the following amounts:

For Orphans' Home maintenance.....	$ 119 00
For Old Folks' Home maintenance.....	63 17
Which amounts, added to the balances of the respective Homes, as shown by their report on page 56, Old
Folks' Home balance.....	6,247 00
Paid direct to Grand Secretary.....	63 17
<hr/>
Old Folks' Home total balance.....	$6,310 17

Deducting therefrom balance in Ebert Fund, which is kept separate by Grand Treasurer.....	53 77
Balance as shown by Grand Treasurer.....	$6,256 40
And on page 57, Orphans' Home balance	$5,219 30
Paid direct to Grand Secretary.....	119 00
Orphans' Home total balance.....	$5,338 30

In order to avoid this mistake in the future, we would recommend that whenever any amount is sent direct to the Grand Secretary for either of the Homes, that the Grand Secretary immediately notify the Trustees of such Homes of the receipt of such moneys.

We would also recommend that the Directors of the Orphans' Home remit all moneys received by them to the Grand Secretary, instead of to the Grand Treasurer as heretofore, and by him be remitted to the Grand Treasurer, the same as is done by the Old Folks' Home Board.

Also, that the Grand Treasurer should make to the Grand Secretary a report of all interest collected by him on the bonds in the various accounts, so that the Grand Secretary may at all times have a full and complete account of all funds in the hands of the Grand Treasurer.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on the State of the Order presented the following report, which was laid on the table, under the rule.
[Adopted Thursday morning in the manner suggested.]

DOCUMENT NO. 44.

Seventh report, by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F:

Your Committee on the State of the Order would respectfully report as follows: That the Committee has carefully considered that portion of the Grand Master's Report, entitled "The Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home" and "Special Offering to the Endowment Funds," and hereby commends and approves of the action of the Grand Master in his zealous and successful work in securing an increase of said funds to the amount of over Seventeen Thousand Dollars, making the entire Endowment Funds about Forty Thousand Dollars.

We recommend the adoption of such portion of the Grand Master's Report as calls for the appointment of three Trustees to invest the Endowment Funds.

The thanks of this Grand Lodge are due to the Grand Master, and we hereby tender him the sincere thanks of this Grand Body, and suggest that this report be adopted by a rising vote, as a signal tribute to the Grand Master for his grand work in the interest of our Order in this behalf.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following report, which was laid on the table, under the rule. [Adopted Thursday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 45.

Fourth report, by Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M., of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The undersigned, your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to which was referred the resolution of Henry A. Stone, pertaining to the error in the Code of 1906, on page 119, beg leave to report that, upon examination of the Code, we find an error in Section 6 of Article II of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution as printed in the Code. The error consists in leaving out a part of said Section 6 as it was adopted. Said section is properly printed in the new Subordinate Constitution, and your committee recommend that, in lieu of using the paster in each of said books, to correct the error, that, instead of reading said Section 6 as printed in the said Code, said Section 6 as printed in the New Subordinate Constitution in the Journal of this Grand Lodge for the year 1905 be, and the same is hereby declared to be, correct and the law of this Order.

M. P. BERRY,
HENRY PHILLIPS,
W. E. P. ANDERSON,
HENRY A. STONE,
Committee.

The Committee on Finance presented its 13th and 14th reports, which were laid on the table, under the rule. [Both adopted Thursday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 46.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows: That the bill for $33.20 for bringing Band to Springfield and their expenses while here, which bears the approval of Grand Representative Lucas, Superintendent of the Home, be paid.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO 47.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows, in the matter of the appropriation to the Orphans' Home: We find that the Board has on hand cash balances as follows:

Maintenance account.....	$2,892.69
Repair account.....	2,445.61

Total cash.....	$5,338.30
-----------------	------------

We recommend appropriations as follows:

Maintenance	$17,000.00
Repairs	4,000.00

Total appropriation.....	$21,000.00
--------------------------	-------------

We further recommend that these amounts appropriated be added to the several balances above enumerated, for the purposes specified.

We further recommend that all donations and cash sales be added to the maintenance account.

Fraternally submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Legislation presented the following report, which was laid on the table, under the rule. [Considered Thursday morning, and action postponed: again considered Thursday afternoon, and adopted.]

DOCUMENT NO. 48.

Third report, by Bro. Geo. W. Lemmers, of No. 60.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows, in the matter of the amendment to Sections 5 and 6 of Article III., Subordinate Lodge Constitution:

We have duly considered the same, and recommend as follows: That Section 5 of Article III of Subordinate Lodge Constitution be amended by striking out the words "and be exempt from all dues" in the fifth sentence of said section, and by striking out the word "further" in the sixth sentence of said section, so that said section when so amended shall read as follows:

Section 5. The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Lodge. He shall write all communications, fill up all certificates and cards granted by the Lodge, issue all summonses or notices required, attest to all moneys ordered paid at regular meetings, and none other. He shall make out at the end of his term the semi-annual report required by Article XI of this Constitution. He shall also, at the close of his term, make out a report for the lodge, showing fully its work and condition during the term. He shall perform the duties of Financial Secretary, if none be chosen. He may receive such compensation as the lodge may have fixed prior to his election. He shall also keep a list of all warrants drawn on the Treasurer, recording the date, amount, and the name of the person in whose favor drawn; and if the warrant be payable from any special fund, that fact shall appear both on the warrant and on the list. He shall also keep a register of membership, enrolling the names of members of the Lodge, with date of proposal, election, initiation (or signing the Constitution upon admission by card or dismissal certificate), resignation, withdrawal by card, death, suspension, reinstatement, or expulsion; also recording the conferring of degrees and attainment of official rank. He shall be known as Recording Secretary, if a Financial Secretary shall be elected.

That Section 5 of Article III of Subordinate Lodge Constitution be amended by striking out the words "be exempt from all dues" and the word "and" and the word "further" in the next to the last sentence of said Section 6, so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows:

Section 6. The Financial Secretary (if any be had) shall be chosen at the election in March. He shall keep the accounts between the Lodge and its members. He shall pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received by him, and shall inform the Treasurer from time to time, or at the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid to him belongs to any special fund of the Lodge. He shall notify all members who are at any time in arrears for eleven months' dues, delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address, and at the expiration of the next succeeding month, if said member's account is not settled, in whole or in part, sufficient to reduce his arrears to less than one full year's dues, he shall present the name of such member to the Lodge. Prior to the last meeting in March, June, September and December, respectively, he shall notify all members who are in arrears for one quarter's dues. He shall, at the close of each term, make to the Lodge a detailed report of the business of his office, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books and papers and to aid them in the examination thereof, and at the first regular meeting of the new term he shall present his report to the Lodge, with a statement of the balance of account of each unsuspended member. He shall make out the Annual Report to the Grand Lodge, as required by Article XI, and shall deliver it to the Recording Secretary for record and for forwarding to the Grand Lodge. He shall receive such compensation as the Lodge may have fixed prior to his election. He shall give bond as is provided for the Treasurer in the following section.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The same committee presented its fifth report, but later withdrew it for the purpose of making some verbal corrections. The report was again presented, in its amended form, Thursday morning. The fourth report of the committee was withheld from presentation at this time, and that also appears in the record of Thursday's proceedings.

The same committee presented its sixth report, which was laid on the table, under the rule. [Adopted Thursday morning.]

DOCUMENT NO. 49.

Sixth report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M., of No. 664.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows upon the amendment to Section 5, Article X, of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, presented by Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M., have duly considered the same and recommend that Section 5, Article X, of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, being Section 1.945 of the Illinois I. O. O. F. Code, be amended by adding to said section, after the word "therein" in the last line of said section, the following: "And, provided further, said members, while residents of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, shall not receive sick benefits from their Lodge, if exempt from the payment of weekly dues"; so that said Section 1.945 of the Illinois I. O. O. F. Code, when amended, will read as follows:

"1.945. Minimum Dues. Section 5—The regular contributions to the Lodge fund shall not be at a less rate than seven cents a week, to be determined by the By-Laws; but the Lodge shall, by its By-Laws, prescribe some less rate, not exceeding five cents a week, for the dues of non-beneficial members: Provided, members resident of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home may be, by By-Law, exempt from the payment of weekly dues so long as resident therein: And, provided further, said members, while residents of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, shall not receive sick benefits from their Lodge if exempt from the payment of weekly dues."

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The same committee presented its seventh report, which was withdrawn for amendment before consideration, and appears in its amended form in the record of Thursday's proceedings.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and was closed in regular form.

Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M., moved that the rule requiring that reports of committees be not considered until a later meeting than that at which they are presented be suspended for the remainder of this session. The motion prevailed, and it was so ordered.

The Committee on Legislation presented the following report, which was entered upon the Journal for consideration at the next annual session.

DOCUMENT NO. 52.

Fourth report, by Bro. S. L. McCrory, of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

Your Committee have considered the recommendation of the Grand Master concerning Bonds of certain Grand Lodge Officers, appearing on pages 36 and 37 of the Grand Master's Report; and we recommend that Section 14 of Article IV of the Grand Lodge Constitution be amended by striking out, in the third line of said section, the following words: "with two or more sufficient sureties," and inserting the following words, "signed by some Surety or Guaranty Company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is in the business of furnishing Indemnity Bonds, the expense of such bond to be defrayed by the Grand Lodge," so that when so amended said section will read as follows:

"Sec. 14. The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond in such sum as the Grand Lodge may determine, signed by some Surety or Guaranty Company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is in the business of furnishing Indemnity Bonds, the expense of such bonds to be defrayed by the Grand Lodge; which bonds, when so executed, shall be approved by the Grand Lodge, and shall be conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and for the delivery of all moneys, papers, books, records and other property appertaining to his office, whole, safe and undefaced, to his successor in office."

Fraternally submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

The fifth report of the same committee, which had been withdrawn by the committee for amendment, was presented in its amended form, as follows:

DOCUMENT NO. 53.

Fifth report, by Bro. John L. Bolen, of No. 812.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation, with reference to the recommendations of the Grand Master as to the appointment of Trustees to supervise and invest the Endowment Funds of the Old Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home, beg to report that we have duly considered the subject, and recommend the adoption of the following, to be known as Section 2780A of the Code:

"Be it enacted by the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in annual meeting assembled:

First—That all funds now in hand or that may hereafter be received by this Grand Lodge, to the credit of or intended for Endowment purposes of the Old Folks' Home or the Orphans' Home, respectively, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, be and the same are hereby designated "Endowment Funds" of said respective Homes, and the income only from said funds shall be available for the support and maintenance of said respective Homes.

Second—The administration of said funds shall be and is hereby vested in a Board of three (3) Trustees, which said Trustees shall be appointed, in the manner hereinafter provided, by the Grand Master immediately after his installation, by and with the advice and consent of the Finance Committee, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home, and the Grand Treasurer.

Third—The first Board of Trustees of said Funds shall be appointed—one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years; and thereafter one Trustee shall be appointed in like manner each year to serve for a period of three years, or until his successor is duly appointed and shall have accepted such appointment.

Fourth—It shall be the duty of said Trustees to keep the endowment funds of said Homes separate and distinct from one another, and to keep said funds invested in Bonds of the United States, the State of Illinois; Bonds of Municipalities of the State of Illinois; and First Mortgages on real estate in the State of Illinois.

In case of loans on first mortgage real estate security as aforesaid, no greater sum shall be loaned in any case than 40 per cent of a conservative valuation of the property, land and buildings, and in no event shall a sum greater than a conservative valuation of the land, exclusive of buildings, be loaned. In all cases of loans on real estate, insurance to the full insurable value of the buildings thereon shall be procured, and made loss, if any, payable to the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows as its interest may appear.

Fifth—In all cases of investment it shall be the duty of said Trustees to personally investigate the value of the securities offered, and in cases of loans made by them on real estate security, to require the borrowers to furnish proper abstracts of title by responsible abstract makers, showing clear merchantable title in the borrowers, subject only to the loans made by said Trustees, and shall cause said titles to be examined by competent attorneys, for which the borrowers shall be required to pay. Said Trustees shall not authorize the payment of any money on any loan or for the purchase of any securities until such payment will complete the securities purchased as First Liens in all cases.

Sixth—When the Trustees have determined upon any investment, whether in bonds, or mortgages as aforesaid, they shall report the same in writing to the Grand Master, stating the amount, the nature of the security, rate of interest, and the time the loan shall run; and upon receipt of such report the Grand Master, in conjunction with the Grand Secretary, shall execute a warrant for the payment of the amount to be invested, payable to the mortgageor or the owner of the Bonds, which said warrant shall be turned over to said Trustees, or to such one of them as may be designated by the Trustees to receive it, for the purpose of completing said loan or said investment.

Seventh—The Trustees shall not receive any compensation for their services, but shall report to the Grand Master the amount of any actual expenses incurred while performing their duties as such Trustees, which sums shall be paid to them."

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

On motion of Bro. T. B. Needles, Grand Treasurer, the report was considered seriatim.

Section One was adopted as read.

Section Two was adopted as read.

Section Three was adopted as read.

Section Four was adopted as read.

Section Five was adopted as read.

Section Six was amended by inserting the words "on the Grand Treasurer" after the word "warrant" in the sixth line of said section, and was adopted as amended.

Section Seven was adopted as read.

The report of the committee as amended was then adopted as a whole.

The sixth report of same committee (Doc. 49, page 350) was considered and adopted.

The seventh report of same committee, which had been withdrawn for amendment (see page 351), was returned in its amended form, as follows:

DOCUMENT NO. 54.

Seventh report, by Bro. Geo. F. Howard, P.G.M.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation recommend the adoption of the following amendment to Section 2, Article X, of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, to make the same conform to the Sovereign Grand Lodge law, by striking out the word "vicinity" wherever it occurs, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "territorial jurisdiction."

Minimum Fees for Membership—Section 2. No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz: By initiation, five dollars; by deposit of card, two dollars; as an Ancient Odd Fellow, five dollars; and as a non-beneficial member, five dollars.

Provided, That no admission fee shall be charged a brother who has moved from the territorial jurisdiction of his own Lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of this Lodge, and is entitled to a withdrawal card, or holds an unexpired withdrawal card, from his old Lodge, except he shall pay for a medical certificate regarding his health, should one be required by the By-Laws of this Lodge; and

Provided further, That no admission fee shall be charged an applicant for membership under Article X, Section 6, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, regarding the "Aged Odd Fellows' Register";

Provided further. That no fee except the cost of the card shall be charged a member of this Lodge for a withdrawal card, if he has removed to the territorial jurisdiction of another Lodge and petitions for membership therein.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The report as above amended was considered and adopted.

The same committee presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 55.

Eighth report, by Bro. S. L. McCrery, of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows:

Your Committee have considered the recommendation of the Grand Master that the Secretary of the Orphans' Home Board be required to give bond in the sum of $2,000.00, said recommendation appearing on page 37 of the Grand Master's Report. We concur in the Grand Master's recommendation, and have drafted and submit herewith and recommend the adoption of the following resolution.

Be it Resolved. By the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., that the Secretary of the Orphans' Home Board be and he is hereby required to give bond in the sum of $2,000.00, signed by some Surety or Guaranty Company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is in the business of furnishing indemnity bonds, the expense of such bond to be defrayed by the Grand Lodge; which bond, when so executed as aforesaid, shall be approved by the Grand Master, and shall be conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and for the delivery of all moneys, papers, books, records and other property appertaining to his office, whole and undefaced, to his successor in office.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Finance presented its 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th reports, which were severally considered and all adopted, as follows.

DOCUMENT NO. 56.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. E. H. Kinney, P.G.R., of No. 726.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to resolutions offered by Bro. Lighthall, Rep. 662, and Bro. W. H. Dellenbach, Rep. 362, to the effect that five per cent and ten per cent, respectively, of the capitation tax be turned into the Endowment Funds.

We do not think that the capitation tax at this time should be raised, as the membership at large has just contributed handsomely to both these funds; and we feel that this interest of the membership at large in the Homes should be kept up, by keeping these Homes prominently before the members by an occasional donation from the funds of the Lodge to such Endowment Funds.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 57.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to Treasurer's Bond.

The Grand Treasurer has presented his bond, in the penal sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), conditioned as is required by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Grand Lodge, signed by himself, and by Louis Krughoff, Hugh C. Adams, James A. Watts, Paul Krughoff and A. G. Hartnagel, as sureties. The responsibility of these sureties is certified to by the Circuit Clerk of Washington County, under the seal of his court; from which, and from personal investigation, we conclude that the surety is sufficient, and recommend that it be accepted. We further recommend that this bond, if accepted by the Grand Lodge, be placed in the hands of the Grand Master for safe keeping.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 58.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. E. H. Kinney, P.G.R., of No. 726.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of the Grand Secretary's Bond:

That the Grand Secretary-elect has presented his bond in the penal sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000), conditioned as is required by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Grand Lodge, signed by himself, and by Edgar S. Scott, B. R. Hieronymus, H. M. Merriam, and Chas. G. Brown, as sureties.

We have made due examination as to the sufficiency of these sureties, and recommend that said bond be accepted.

We further recommend that this bond, if accepted by the Grand Lodge, be placed in the hands of the Grand Master for safe keeping.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 59.

Eighteenth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of bill of Grand Treasurer T. B. Needles, for the sum of one hundred dollars ($100), for clerk hire in writing up his reports and keeping his books.

As the Grand Treasurer receives no compensation, and as it requires considerable additional clerk hire to keep his books in such eminently satisfactory manner, we recommend that the bill be allowed and voucher ordered drawn.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 60.

Bro. Henry Dinkelman, of 488, offered the following, which was considered and adopted.

WHEREAS, Several changes have been made in the Laws of the Order as printed in the Code just published by the Grand Lodge; and

WHEREAS, It is of the utmost importance that the said Code be kept corrected to date; be it

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be instructed to prepare a separate leaf, printed only on one side of the paper, giving all corrections made in the Laws, and add same to the Annual Journal, so that every purchaser of the Code may be enabled to insert these corrections in the proper place in the Code.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

The Grand Lodge was called to order at 2 o'clock by Grand Master Humphrey.

Grand Officers present as at the morning session, with a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal and his assistants, having made due examination, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung, and prayer was offered by the Grand Chaplain.

The Grand Lodge was then declared open for the transaction of business.

On motion of Grand Representative Lucas, the Memorial Committee was directed to draft a resolution of condolence with Bro. Chas. R. Coon, because of the death of his mother.

REPORTS OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS.

CLARK BATES SAMSON

was born in Herkimer County, New York, but early removed to this state and grew to young manhood upon a Northern Illinois farm, enjoying in his boyhood years only such educational advantages as the "winter term of the district school" afforded, and the balance of the year performed such labor as farm life in his early years exacted.

A little later he became the teacher of the district school in winter, saving his earnings to be used later in preparing for college. Such have been the opening years of many lives destined as the years roll by to attain distinction in the busy marts of trade, in commerce and in the professions. This pathway to the mature years puts one into closer touch with nature, teaches industry and frugality, gives a broader outlook than the environment of walls of brick and stone and iron, and above all, when it is lived with an eye single to future achievement, it makes optimism a controlling impulse of life.

In 1875 Mr. Samson graduated from the college of law in the University of Michigan, having previously graduated from the college of literature and arts. Thus equipped and standing at the threshold of life's great opportunities, he selected as the place to pursue his life work the greatest city of the West, a city where competition is keenest and where the greatest things are done. He entered at once upon the practice of the law and gave to this chosen line of labor for thirty years his best effort, attaining such measure of success as comes to many: only the few attain the lofty heights where men stand in solitude.

Early in his professional life he realized that while organizations attain no higher levels than the units of which they are composed, yet in organizations are larger opportunities for good. His thoughts naturally turned to the world's greatest fraternal order, Odd Fellowship. He was initiated into Templar Lodge No. 440, I. O. O. F., in 1880, and retained his membership therein throughout life, passing through its various offices, and representing it in the Grand Lodge, in which body he served upon the most important committees, filled responsible positions, attained a wide acquaintance and exerted a helpful influence in shaping its policies and accomplishing its enterprises. He became identified with other fraternal bodies, but his prompt and regular attendance at Lodge meetings and his cheerful performance of every duty attest that his loyalty to Odd Fellowship never flagged. By his Lodge he was presented with a handsome "Veteran Jewel" at the close of twenty-five years of unbroken service for human good. Into every fiber of his life, into every impulse of his being were woven as controlling forces, the two central thoughts of our Order—the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. A man ought to be measured not by his thoughts of himself but by his thoughts for others. Measured by this standard our brother will be found among the taller men.

Brother Samson was married in 1902 to Mrs. Ida Haskins, who survives him. In this hour of her great sorrow we extend to her the most tender sympathy.

Brother Samson met life's last fight with unflinching courage, while life's shadows fell only slightly to the eastward, at his late residence, 804 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, Sunday morning, August 26, 1906. After appropriate services at the house, interment was had at Rosehill Cemetery, Tuesday afternoon, August 28, 1906.

Our brother will be remembered as a man of gentle and poetic nature, as a citizen ever mindful of the public weal, as a friend ever true, as a lawyer upright, as a member of our Order ever watchful to see and prompt to relieve human want.

"Friendship above all ties doth bind the heart,

And faith in friendship is the noblest part."

DUNCAN McDOUGALL,

HENRY PHILLIPS,

HENRY A. BRINKMAN,

Committee.

MRS. SARAH LEWIS COON, mother of our Bro. Charles R. Coon, a member of Sangamon Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., passed away at her home, 904 N. Ninth street, Springfield, Ill., at an early hour Thursday morning, November 22, 1906.

In the hour of his great sorrow, this Grand Lodge extends to Bro. Coon and the members of his family assurance of sincere and abiding sympathy.

DUNCAN McDUGALL,
HENRY PHILLIPS,
HENRY A. BRINKMAN,
Committee.

Past Grand Master John J. Brown was called to the chair.

On motion of Bro. McDougall, of 41, the third report of the Committee on Legislation (Doc. 48, page 348) was amended by inserting the words "in writing" after the word "notify," in the seventh line of Section 6 of Article III of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 61.

Twentieth report, by Bro. E. H. Kinney, P.G.R., of No. 726.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of expenses and bills:

The Grand Master having made the following appointments, your committee recommends payment for their services as follows:

J. D. Roper, No. 465, Asst. Grand Secretary	$30 00
Chas. R. Coon, No. 6, G. L. Janitor and Messenger	15 00
M. Blumle, No. 196, Asst. Janitor and Messenger	10 00
Wm. Duggans, No. 6, Asst. Grand Guardian	10 00
Ervin Withey, No. 6, Asst. Grand Guardian	10 00
Geo. Whittle, No. 6, Asst. Grand Guardian	10 00
John R. Camp, No. 322, Minute Clerk	25 00
Capt. R. J. Beck, Chief Janitor State House	40 00

Fraternally submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

Bro. W. H. Bean, of 825, offered the following.

DOCUMENT NO. 62.

WHEREAS, There exists in Cook County, an organization known as The Cook County Odd Fellows' Picnic and Anniversary Organization, which has each year, for several years past, conducted picnics and celebrated the Anniversary of our Order, turning over to this Grand Lodge the proceeds of such entertainments to be devoted to the maintenance or endowment funds of our two Homes, which have annually amounted to sums ranging from $500 to $1,000; and

WHEREAS, There seems to be no law of this Grand Lodge giving power to the Grand Master to grant dispensations to said organization to conduct such entertainments in the name of the Order; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Master be directed to grant, at his discretion, dispensations to the said Cook County Odd Fellows' Picnic and Anniversary Organization, upon proper application being made therefor, upon any and all occasions which may seem to him to be proper and for the best interests of the fraternity.

On motion of Bro. Merrills, Grand Master-elect, the resolution was amended by changing the word "directed" to "authorized"—seventh word of third paragraph.

The resolution as amended was then adopted.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following.

DOCUMENT NO. 63.

Fifth report of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to which were referred for answer the following two questions—

Question One: Is the Secretary liable for the payment of such funeral assessments under Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution?

Question Two: What is the meaning of the words "shall be exempt from all dues" with reference to the Recording and Financial Secretaries of Subordinate Lodges, as used in Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, and is this provision of exemption legal and binding?"—

Beg leave to report as follows:

Section 5, above referred to, provides that the Secretary shall be exempt from all dues—and in view of that section, we answer Question No. 1—No.

As to Question No. 2, your Committee is of the opinion the words “shall be exempt from all dues” means that such Secretary shall be exempt from the payment of his regular Lodge dues, and that funeral assessments are included in the word “dues.”

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY A. STONE,
M. P. BERRY,
W. E. P. ANDERSON.

The above report is based on the appended

STATEMENT.

A Lodge, by its By-Laws, provides for the payment of funeral benefits and expenses from its General Fund, and on the death of a beneficiary member levies a funeral assessment of fifty cents against each of its beneficial members. It has but one Secretary, who performs the dual duties of Recording and Financial Secretary.

Question One—Is the Secretary liable for the payment of such funeral assessments under Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution?

Question Two—What is the meaning of the words “shall be exempt from all dues,” with reference to the Recording and Financial Secretaries of Subordinate Lodges, as used in Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, and is this provision of exemption legal and binding?

The report being under consideration,—

Bro. Kewley, P.G.M., moved to amend by substituting the word “yes” for the word “no” as answer to the first question.

When the motion to amend had been discussed at considerable length,—

On motion of Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of 107, further consideration of the matter was postponed until the next session of the Grand Lodge by a rising vote—yeas, 158; nays, 81.

On motion of Bro. Needles, G.T., the action of the Grand Lodge adopting the first report of the Committee on the State of the Order (Doc. 29, page 338) was reconsidered.

On motion of Bro. Fred B. Merrills, D.G.M., the question of appropriating money for permanent improvements at the Orphans' Home was separated from the rest of the Grand Secretary's Report, as approved by the Committee on the State of the Order in the report under consideration.

The resolution of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home (page 196) was taken up seriatim.

The first paragraph of the detailed appropriations recommended was read.

On motion of Bro. Kewley, P.G.M., further consideration of the proposed appropriation of $12,000 asked for was postponed until the next annual session of the Grand Lodge.

On motion of Bro. Scott, G.W., consideration of the remaining items of proposed appropriations was postponed until the next annual session of the Grand Lodge.

The first report of the Committee on the State of the Order (Doc. 29, page 338) was then adopted, excepting approval of the circular letter of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home, appearing on pages 194-196, in the Grand Secretary's Report.

The Committee on Finance presented the following.

DOCUMENT NO. 64.

Nineteenth report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois. I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows on Salaries, in Grand Master's Report, pages 34 and 35. That the Grand Master receive a salary of $100 per month, also $600 per year as office and traveling expenses, and also $50 per month for salary of clerk or stenographer. That the Grand Secretary receive a salary of $2,000 per year, and also receive $1,380 per year for clerk-hire and stenographer's salary. That the Grand Treasurer should receive a salary of $100 per year (same to include clerk-hire). As the salary recommended by this committee is nominal, we feel that the question of interest on funds on hand should not be gone into, on account of legal complications which might arise. Regarding the question of depositories for the funds of the Grand Lodge we feel that no action should be taken, as such action might affect the validity of the Treasurer's bond.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The report (Document No. 64, above) was, on motion, considered seriatim.

The first item (Grand Master's salary, help and expenses) was adopted.

David Wiener.

GRAND GUARDIAN.

The second item (Grand Secretary's salary, help and expenses) was adopted.

The third item (Grand Treasurer's salary) was adopted.

The report was then adopted as a whole.

On motion of Grand Warden Scott, it was ordered that for the remainder of this session speeches be limited to five minutes each.

On motion of Bro. McDougall, of 41, the third report of the Committee on Legislation, consideration of which had been postponed (Doc. 48, pages 348-350), as amended on page 365, was adopted.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 65.

Twenty-second report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows regarding expense connected with the publication of the Daily Journal:

Mrs. Grace E. Birkett, stenographer	$17 50
N. C. Nason, proof reading	20 00
John R. Camp, printing specifications and postage.....	7 22

$44 72

We recommend that the above amounts be allowed.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals presented the following, which was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 66.

Sixth report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of 107.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to whom was referred Document No. 29, in Wednesday's Proceedings, on page 338, most respectfully report that the Illinois Odd Fellows' League is an organization composed of elected Representatives of the various Lodges of the City of Chicago and throughout the State, having for its purpose the relief of the members of the Order exclusively.

In our opinion, it is an organization which does a great deal of good work that cannot be performed by the several Lodges, and whose work should receive the encouragement and commendation of this Grand Lodge, in all respects where the same does not conflict with the laws of the Order.

As to the legal right of this League to do this work in the name of our Order, and its right to use the words "Odd Fellows' League," we express no opinion, for the reason that your committee believes it has no authority to pass upon that question, but refers its legal standing to the decision of the Sovereign Lodge or to the Grand Sire.

Signed by the Committee.

The Special Committee (see page 318), to witness the work by Degree Staffs at Arion Hall, on Wednesday evening, presented the following report, which was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 67.

Report by Bro. W. H. Pease, of No. 80.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois. I. O. O. F.:

Your committee appointed by the Grand Master to witness the work of conferring the different degrees at Arion Hall on Wednesday evening, November 21, 1906, beg leave to make the following report.

We were present and witnessed the work of the Initiatory Degree by the John Ericsson Staff of Lodge No. 361, Chicago, comprising the following brothers:

A. E. Anderson, Captain; O. D. Olson, O. V. Olson, G. Larson, A. Neuquist, P. Johnson, A. E. Thompson, C. A. Colgren, J. A. Magnuson, A. R. Lindgren, Wm. Berglund, H. Nelson, P. Earlson, G. Lothgren, A. W. Hall, G. A. Johnson, A. Palm, G. Hultquist, C. Holmquist, G. Brodin, A. Johnson, C. W. Knutsen, H. Rosen, G. Holman, C. O. Anderson, J. P. Severin.

The First Degree, by Sangamon Lodge, No. 6, Staff, of Springfield—C. R. Coon, Captain; E. J. McClanahan, G. W. Edwards, F. H. Peryman, J. W. Steward, E. Priestman, B. J. Roberts, C. F. Cantrall, A. C. Lowe, A. Franks, T. J. Kinnear, E. Fest, W. Munson, A. J. Fox, F. F. Thompson, W. M. Willis, J. R. Fox, M. E. Gore.

Second Degree, by I Will Lodge, No. 141, Staff, Chicago—Joseph C. Larson, Captain; Walter B. Creighton, Claude D. Jordan, Wm. M. Hill, R. E. Hamilton, Wm. J. Hack, H. F. W. Spilver, W. F. Douglas, Axel Anderson, George Warne, James C. Woods, C. M. Saxon, Charles Zeh, Arthur Jacobus, Amos D. Cox, John P. McDonald, Edward L. Dunstan, Edward O'Neil, E. D. Harris.

Third Degree, by Cook County Lodge, No. 240, Staff, of Chicago—
H. Gilby, Captain: E. E. Sibbet, J. M. Taylor, G. W. Porter, E. B. Nicholson, E. A. Rysdon, J. H. Gilby, W. A. Stoner, H. E. Miller, W. T. North, J. Luff, J. L. Clayton, G. H. Howard, J. McKinlay, W. C. White, A. J. Behrens, E. W. Sproul, H. B. Metzler, D. A. Howard, J. C. Allen, C. D. Bryson, G. W. Blish, W. P. Butt, W. A. Bourell, E. Blish, R. Rysdon, A. Walls, F. F. Parsons.

After giving the work done by each Degree Staff our most careful consideration, it is our opinion the highest words of praise and commendation should be given to each staff for the most perfect illustration of the ritualistic and unwritten work. We feel called upon to give special mention of the floor-work done by John Ericsson and Cook County Staffs; also, the beautiful exemplification of the First and Second Degrees by Sangamon and I Will Staffs.

We believe a vast amount of good will be the outcome of the Grand Master's effort in giving the Representatives to this Grand Lodge an opportunity to see this work during this session, and would suggest that each Subordinate Lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction that has no Degree Staff proceed to organize such staff, if possible, believing that much greater interest will be taken and a better attendance at Lodge meetings will be the result, and that all candidates be required to learn the unwritten work before being advanced in the Degrees.

We would further suggest the Degrees be exemplified at each Grand Lodge Session, when the same can be done without expense to the Grand Lodge.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

W. H. PEASE,
M. P. BERRY,
C. M. LYTLE.

On motion of Bro. T. B. Needles, G. Treas., it was ordered that the Grand Master be instructed and directed in future to secure a hall large enough to accommodate all the brethren attending the Grand Lodge sessions who wish to see the degree work done.

Bro. Teuber, of 717, Scrivner, of 562, Watson, of 331, and Pease, of 80, offered the following, which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 68.

WHEREAS. It is the practice of Representatives, after receiving their pay, to depart for their homes instead of attending to business that the different Lodges expect them to perform; therefore, be it

Resolved. That this Grand Lodge instruct the Mileage and Per Diem Committee to withhold payment until adjournment of all sessions hereafter.

The Committee on Finance presented their 23d, 24th and 21st reports, which were severally considered and all adopted, as follows:

DOCUMENT NO. 69.

Twenty-third report, by Bro. E. H. Kinney, P.G.R., of 726.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows: That the Report of the Committee on Code, pages 33 and 34, Grand Officers' Reports, be approved.

Respectfully submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 70.

Twenty-fourth report, by Bro. G. F. Koester, of No. 601.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows regarding New Regalia for Grand Officers, on page 36, Grand Officers' Reports. We recommend that two hundred dollars ($200.00) be appropriated to pay for the expense of this regalia.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed by the Committee.

DOCUMENT NO. 71.

Twenty-first report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis, of No. 450.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows in regard to the matter of Estimated Receipts and Disbursements of the Grand Lodge for the next fiscal year:

We therefore recommend that the sum of $76,230.00, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be appropriated to provide for the purposes above named, and that the Grand Master and Grand Secretary be authorized to draw Grand Lodge warrants on the Grand Treasurer therefor, at such times and in such amounts as may be necessary to pay the legitimate bills of the Grand Lodge as itemized accounts therefor may be presented.

We further recommend that a per capita tax of ninety (90) cents per member be levied against the Subordinate Lodges—forty-five (45) cents to be payable April 1, 1907, and forty-five (45) cents to be payable October 1, 1907.

Fraternally submitted.

Signed by the Committee.

Bro. J. R. Kewley, P.G.M., moved that the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals be instructed to report at the next annual session on Document No. 6 (page 314). The motion did not prevail.

The Grand Secretary announced that there was no further business upon his desk.

On motion of Bro. Phillips, P.G.M., the Grand Lodge proceeded to the

J. SMITH CRUTTENDEN,
E. E. SKILLIN,

WM. J. PORTER.
Committee.

The brothers in waiting who had been found qualified were then introduced, assumed the required obligation, and were instructed in the Grand Lodge Degree; after which instruction in the Past Grand's Degree was given.

Grand Representative Lucas announced that the Orphans' Home Band would visit the Grand Lodge Wednesday forenoon.

The business for which the Grand Lodge was convened being completed, the special session was declared adjourned sine die, and was closed in due form.

Jno. H. Sikes.

Grand Secretary.

ADDENDUM TO APPOINTMENTS BY GRAND MASTER MERRILLS, PAGE 375.

Committee.

The brothers in waiting were introduced, assumed the required obligation, and were instructed in the Grand Lodge Degree and the Past Grand's Degree.

Brief addresses were made by Grand Master Humphrey and Grand Representatives Brown and Lucas.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned until 7:30 o'clock, this evening.

HALL OF UNION LODGE, No. 9,

THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1906—8 O'CLOCK P. M.

The Grand Lodge met, pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Humphrey in the chair, and other officers present as at the afternoon meeting.

The Grand Marshal examined the brothers present and reported all correct.

The Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Deputy Grand Master, by direction of the Grand Master, then proclaimed the Grand Lodge duly opened for the transaction of the business for which the session was called.

OFFICIAL EXAMINERS AND INSTRUCTORS

FOR SUBORDINATE LODGES.

The following-named brothers are appointed Official Examiners and Instructors for Subordinate Lodges for the ensuing year.

Any Past Grand who passes an examination before either of them and makes a grade of 100, will be recommended to the Chief or Assistant Chief of Examiners and Instructors, upon whose recommendation he will be appointed by the Grand Master an Official Instructor.

All Official Examiners or Instructors are required to make full, written reports to the Chief or Assistant Chief of Examiners and Instructors, on or before Oct. 15th, 1907.

In order to be recommended for subsequent appointment, each Official Examiner or Instructor must pass an examination, and make a grade of 100, at the session of the Grand Lodge in 1907, or during the month of November in that year.

FRED B. MERRILLS,
Grand Master.

Chief of Examiners and Instructors.
W. E. CARLIN, P.G.Rep., Jerseyville, Illinois.

CONSTITUTION OF THE GRAND LODGE OF ILLINOIS.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Lodge shall be known by the name and style of the "Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows."

ARTICLE II.—POWERS.

This Grand Lodge, under the limitations imposed upon it by its Charter and the Constitution and Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, possesses, within the State of Illinois, supreme legislative, executive and judicial authority. It has the right and power (1) to grant dispensations to establish Lodges; (2) to charter Lodges; (3) to suspend or discontinue for cause any Lodge subordinate to it; (4) to hear and determine all appeals from the actions and decisions of its Subordinate Lodges and from the decisions of the Grand Master; (5) to redress grievances of members and Lodges under its jurisdiction; and (6) to do whatever is proper according to the usages of Odd Fellowship and not in contravention of this Constitution or of the Constitution and Laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. No Lodge of the Order can exist in this State without its permission.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall be composed of the following members, viz.: One Representative (who must be a Past Grand in good standing) from each of the Lodges of the State, and all other Past Grands in good standing of Lodges of this jurisdiction. A Past Grand from another jurisdiction, becoming a member of a Lodge in this State, may become a member of this Grand Lodge upon presenting a certificate of his official standing from the Grand Lodge of the jurisdiction from which his membership was transferred; Provided, however, that neither a Representative nor other Past Grand shall be a member of this Grand Lodge until he shall have received the Grand Lodge Degree.

Sec. 2. This Grand Lodge shall have power to punish by reprimand, fine or expulsion, any of its members who shall refuse to obey its laws, or who shall be guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow.

ARTICLE IV.—OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of the Grand Lodge shall be as follows, viz.: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, and two Grand Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; all of whom shall be elected by ballot. Also, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, and Grand Herald, all of whom shall be appointed.

Sec. 2. The Grand Master shall preside at all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and preserve order and enforce the rules. He shall appoint all Grand Officers pro tempore, and all the Grand Officers who are not elective. He shall name the members of all committees, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge. He shall give the casting vote whenever the Grand Lodge is equally divided. He may call special sessions of the Grand Lodge whenever, in his judgment, the good of the Order requires him so to do, and he shall call a special session whenever requested so to do in writing by the representatives of fifty Lodges. He shall order the payment by the Grand Treasurer of all moneys voted by the Grand Lodge. In person or by Deputy, he shall confer all official degrees, and he shall communicate the necessary passwords to be used in this jurisdiction. During the recess of the Grand Lodge he shall have a general superintendence of the interests of the Order in this State; shall hear and decide any grievance or complaint that may be made to him; pass upon all questions of law and usage which shall have been first submitted on appeal under seal of the Subordinate Lodge to the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, and he shall not be compelled to answer questions submitted by individual members of the Order; grant dispensations to open Lodges, and do such other acts as this Grand Lodge might do, except that he may not, by virtue of any powers conferred upon him by this section, exercise any of the legislative functions of this Grand Lodge. At each Annual Session the Grand Master shall report the dispensations to open Lodges granted by him, and such other acts as he may have done in accordance with the authority herein upon him conferred; and when an appeal is taken from any of his decisions, he shall report the decision with the appeal therefrom. All decisions made by the Grand Master shall be binding until reversed, upon appeal, by the Grand Lodge.

Provided, This Grand Lodge may, by its Rebekah Assembly Constitution, transfer to the President of the Rebekah Assembly any of the functions or powers with which the Grand Master is herein invested, so far as the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge may permit, and with such restrictions and limitations as the Grand Lodge may provide in said Rebekah Assembly Constitution.

Sec. 3. The Deputy Grand Master shall support the Grand Master in the Grand Lodge. His powers shall be the same as those of the Grand Master, when, during the absence of that officer from this jurisdiction, or because of his inability to act, or in the event of his death or resignation, the duties of the Grand Master shall devolve upon the Deputy Grand Master; and perform such other duties as are required of him by this Constitution, the laws and usages of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. The Grand Warden shall, under the Grand Master, have special charge of the door, and shall assist the Grand Master in conducting the business of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 5. The Grand Secretary shall record the proceedings of the Grand Lodge, and send to the Subordinate printed copies thereof; he shall keep the accounts between the Grand Lodge and its Subordinates; shall receive all moneys coming to the Grand Lodge from its Subordinates, and pay the same immediately to the Grand Treasurer; shall notify each of the Subordinates of any special session that may be called, and shall procure all stationery for the use of the Grand Lodge and its officers.

Sec. 6. The Grand Treasurer shall receive all moneys paid to him by the Grand Secretary, and receipt for same. He shall keep books containing an account of all moneys received and paid by him, to whom paid, and for what purpose; and he shall have his accounts posted at every Annual Session, and submit them at that time to the examination of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 7. The Grand Chaplain shall perform the duties peculiar to his office.

Sec. 8. The Grand Marshall shall assist the Deputy Grand Master in supporting the Grand Master in the Grand Lodge. He shall, when requested, attend the Grand Master in his official visits to the Subordinates; shall make proclamation for the Grand Master when required so to do; shall obey his commands, and perform such other duties as are required of him by the Constitution, laws and usages of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 9. The Grand Conductor shall examine and conduct new members into the Grand Lodge; shall attend to the comfort and convenience of the Grand Lodge, and during its session shall execute the commands of the Grand Master.

Sec. 10. The Grand Guardian shall attend at the inner door of the Grand Lodge, and permit none to enter or depart without the consent of the Grand Warden.

Sec. 11. The Grand Herald shall attend at the outer door of the Grand Lodge. He shall have charge of the personal property of the Grand Lodge, and keep the same in good order.

Sec. 12. The Grand Representatives shall attend the meetings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, and represent this Grand Lodge therein.

Sec. 13. Compensation of Grand Officers. The Grand Officers, excepting the Grand Representatives, shall receive for their services such compensation as the Grand Lodge may determine.

Sec. 14. Bonds of Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, in such sum as the Grand Lodge may determine, to be executed and approved by the Grand Lodge, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and for the delivery of all moneys, papers, books, records and other property appertaining to his office, whole, safe and undefaced, to his successor in office.

Sec. 15. The Grand Officers shall, in addition to the duties herein specified, perform such other duties as may be imposed upon them by law.

Sec. 16. Every member of this Grand Lodge shall be eligible to any Grand Office, excepting to that of Grand Representative, to which he shall also be eligible if he have the Royal Purple Degree, is a member in good standing of an Encampment in good standing, a member in good standing of a Subordinate Lodge, a member of a Rebekah Lodge in good standing, and a resident of the State of Illinois.

Sec. 17. A member of the Grand Lodge shall not hold two offices at the same time.

Sec. 18. Candidates for office may be nominated at any time previous to the election.

Sec. 19. Ballots for persons not properly in nomination shall be considered blanks and blanks shall be counted as votes.

Sec. 20. All elective Grand Officers shall be chosen separately by a majority of the valid votes cast. When there are but two candidates for the same office, in the event of a tie for two successive ballotings, the election shall be decided by lot. When there are more than two candidates in nomination, and neither receives a majority of votes at a balloting, the one receiving the fewest number of votes shall, after the result of the ballot has been announced, be, by the Chair, declared dropped from the nomination, and the balloting shall proceed.

Sec. 21. After the election, the Grand Officers may be, at any time before adjournment, installed into their respective offices. The Grand Master, or any Past Grand Master, shall install the Grand Master-elect, who may install the other Grand Officers-elect. All Grand Officers shall be installed to serve until after the election and installation of their successors.

Sec. 22. Any Grand Officer may be removed from his office for conduct unworthy of his standing in the Order, or for inattention to the duties of his office. He shall be entitled to a fair trial, and two-thirds of the votes of the members present shall be necessary to remove him; but any officer against whom charges are preferred shall not have the right to preside during the trial, or to appoint any committee or part of a committee to examine or try the case, or to do any official act that can affect the trial or its result.

Sec. 23. Vacancies in any of the Grand Offices, occurring during the recess, shall be filled by the Grand Master ad interim, and at the first Annual Session of the Grand Lodge thereafter the vacancies shall be regularly filled.

ARTICLE V.—LODGE DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS.

Sec. 1. The Grand Master shall appoint a duly qualified Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Subordinate Lodge, and a duly qualified Past Noble Grand or Past Grand as the Lodge Deputy Grand Master for each Rebekah Lodge, who shall serve as such until a successor shall have been appointed, or until removed by the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall obey the commands of the Grand Master, decide all questions of law and usage, when submitted in writing under the seal of the Lodge, giving the answer thereto also in writing. Said decision of the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall be binding upon the Lodge unless an appeal is taken to the Grand Master, in which case the Lodge Deputy Grand Master shall transmit the original papers (being the question and answer) to the Grand Master. The Lodge Deputy Grand Masters shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed for them by the laws of the Order.

ARTICLE VI.—STANDING COMMITTEES.

Sec. 1. The Grand Master, at each Annual Session, shall, within twenty days after his installation as such, appoint the following committees to serve one year, viz.: (1) On Credentials, three members, of whom two shall be Representatives; (2) On State of the Order, fifteen members, of whom at least twelve shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment; (3) On Legislation, fifteen members, of whom at least twelve shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment; (4) On Finance, three members; (5) On Rebekah Degree, ten members, of whom at least eight shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment; (6) On Mileage and Per Diem, fifteen members, of whom a majority shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment (said committee may appoint a clerk, who shall receive the compensation to which a Representative is entitled); (7) On Railroads, three members; (8) On Printing, three members, of whom at least two shall be Representatives at the time of their appointment. Vacancies shall be so filled as not to diminish the number of Representatives on a Committee. In the Order of Business, the reports of these Committees shall be called and have precedence in the order, in which they are herein named. And within twenty days after the adoption of this amendment, the Grand Master shall appoint a Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to consist of five members, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, one for the term of three years, one for the term of four years, and one for the term of five years; and thereafter at each Annual Session the Grand Master, immediately after the installation of the Grand Officers, shall appoint one member of said Committee for the full term of five years; and shall, whenever a vacancy exists in the membership of said Committee, occasioned by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, fill such vacancy by appointment, and such appointee shall fill out the unexpired term of his predecessor.

The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions arising by appeal from the action or judgment of any Subordinate Lodge, or otherwise, which may be referred to them by the Grand Master or Grand Lodge, or which may be presented to said Committee by virtue of any legislation of this Grand Lodge, now or hereafter in force; and shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine all other cases which may arise under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted for that purpose; and shall examine and approve or reject the By-Laws of all Subordinate Lodges in this jurisdiction, and may so approve or so reject the same in whole or in part, but shall have no power to change any part thereof in any other manner. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the Grand Master from hearing and determining any question that may arise by petition or complaint of any grievance, by the wrongful act of any Lodge, officer or member, or otherwise interfere with the Grand Master in the exercise of his authority as the executive officer of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. The Committee on Credentials shall report, without delay, on the credentials of Representatives and Past Grands.

Sec. 3. The Committee on the State of the Order shall report upon the reports of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, in so far as such reports relate to the State of the Order. The Committee shall also report upon the condition and progress of the Order in this jurisdiction, upon applications for charters, and upon such other matters as may be referred to it.

Sec. 4. The Committee on Legislation shall report upon all resolutions referred to it proposing the enactment, amendment or repeal of any law, and upon such other matters as may be referred to it.

Sec. 5. The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals shall hold four sessions annually, to-wit: Three at the office of the Grand Secretary, unless the Committee is notified by the Grand Secretary that there is not any business to come before them; one beginning on the third Tuesday of February, one beginning on the third Tuesday of May, and one beginning on the third Tuesday of August; and the fourth session shall be held at the time and place of holding the Grand Lodge. The Grand Secretary shall be the clerk of said Committee, and shall keep an accurate record of all their transactions, and shall have the care, custody and control of all its records, papers, etc.

At each session of said Committee, the member having the shortest term to serve shall act as Chairman, and each of said Committee shall be paid mileage at the rate of six cents per mile, by the nearest route from his place of residence to the office of the Grand Secretary, or to the place of holding the session of the Committee, as the case may be, for each of such sessions, and a per diem of three dollars for each day actually occupied, to be paid upon the certificate of the Chairman of the Committee.

The said Committee shall reduce all their judgments and decisions to writing, and file the same with the Grand Secretary.

All processes, whether in the nature of summons, subpoenas, or otherwise, shall be under the seal of the Grand Lodge and the signature of the Grand Secretary. All appeals hereafter taken from the final judgment or action of any Subordinate Lodge shall be taken and referred to the said Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. And the decisions and judgments of said Committee shall, unless appealed from within thirty days, be final, and stand as the judgment and decision of this Grand Lodge.

An appeal from the decision or judgment of said Committee to this Grand Lodge shall be allowed, and such appeal shall be considered and determined at the session next after such appeal is taken, except in case such appeal is taken during a session of the Grand Lodge, in which case such appeal may be considered and determined at such time as the Grand Lodge may direct. A notice in writing directed to the Grand Secretary and signed by the member appealing, or the Noble Grand or Secretary of the Lodge, under the seal of the Lodge in all cases where a Lodge appeals, briefly stating the fact of such appeal and the reasons assigned therefor, shall be the only requirements of such appeal.

Sec. 6. The Committee on Finance shall report upon all accounts and claims against the Grand Lodge, previous to such accounts and claims being allowed. It shall audit annually the accounts of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, and the accounts of all officers and committees intrusted with the receipt and disbursement of funds of the Grand Lodge. It shall, from time to time, suggest such measures of finance as it may deem expedient.

Sec. 7. The Committee on Rebekah Degree shall report upon all matters relating to the Rebekah Degree and Rebekah Lodges referred to it.

Sec. 8. The Committee on Printing shall superintend all printing, and shall purchase all stationery and blanks not supplied by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. They shall advertise for bids for printing the reports of the Grand Officers, the proceedings of the Annual Sessions of this Grand Lodge in the English language, and such other printing as may be required by the Grand Officers, awarding the contract for such work to the lowest responsible bidder, and reporting the original list of said bidders, with the prices that they have offered to perform the work for, to the next session of the Grand Lodge. They shall sign all bills for which they may have awarded contracts as being correct.

Sec. 9. The Committee on Railroads shall, if possible, procure reduced rates of fare over the several railroads of the State for members of the Grand Lodge and the Rebekah Assembly attending the sessions thereof; and shall report to the Grand Secretary, at least three weeks before any session, the names of railroad companies giving reductions of fare, and all the details of the arrangements made therewith.

Sec. 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge Committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The Committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way, and two dollars per diem.

ARTICLE VII.—SESSIONS.

Sec. 1. The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the third Tuesday in November. This meeting shall be styled the Annual Session. Special Sessions shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in Annual or Special Session, fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the session shall have been disposed of. The Annual Session shall be held at the City of Springfield, except when otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote, by the Grand Lodge convened in Annual Session. A Special Session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call.

Sec. 2. At the Annual Sessions the elective Grand Officers shall be elected, and all business requiring the attention of the Grand Lodge transacted. At a Special Session no business shall be transacted excepting that for which the session was called, which business must be distinctly stated in the call.

Sec. 3. The Grand Lodge shall be opened in the Grand Lodge Degree at all times when engaged in transacting business of the Order.

Sec. 4. All questions in the Grand Lodge shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting, excepting upon a call of Lodges, when Representatives only shall vote, and each shall cast the number of votes to which his Lodge may be entitled. A call of Lodges may be required by any ten Representatives, and whenever the vote is taken this way, the yeas and nays shall be recorded.

Sec. 5. Each Lodge shall be entitled, upon a call of Lodges, to one vote for every ten members in good standing at the close of the last preceding semi-annual term; provided, that any Lodge with less than ten members shall have one vote.

ARTICLE VIII.—SUBORDINATES.

Sec. 1. Charters may be granted as follows, viz.: (1) On the written application of five or more brothers in good standing, to open a Lodge where there is no Lodge, or where there is no Lodge working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (2) on the written application of ten or more brothers in good standing to open a Lodge where not more than nine Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge; (3) on the written application of twenty or more brothers in good standing, and applications for initiation from thirty qualified and approved candidates, to open a Lodge where ten or more Lodges are working in the language of the proposed Lodge, provided the application shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the Lodges working in the language of the proposed Lodge at such place. Each of said two-thirds Lodges shall vote on the request for consent after a period of not less than four weeks after the date of receiving such request, and upon the report of a special committee of the Lodge appointed to investigate the qualifications of both charter members and petitioners for initiation whose names are signed to the petition for the dispensation to open the proposed new Lodge. All applications for dispensations to open Lodges shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, and must be accompanied by the cards of the petitioning brothers and the charter fee, to-wit: Thirty dollars.

Sec. 2. Every Lodge opened in this jurisdiction shall be instituted by the Grand Master or a Past Grand specially deputed to do the duty, who shall give to the Lodge, with the charter or warrant, the necessary instructions and charges. The expenses of the instituting officer shall be paid by the Lodge instituted.

Sec. 3. Subordinate Lodges shall make such annual, semi-annual and other reports as may from time to time be required by law, blank forms for which shall be furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary.

Sec. 4. No Subordinate Lodge shall initiate any person not twenty-one years of age.

Sec. 5. Every Subordinate Lodge shall pay to the Grand Lodge such capitation tax as may from year to year, or by the By-Laws of this Grand Lodge, be determined upon. Provided, however, that there shall never be appropriated from such capitation tax for any one fiscal year a sum to exceed sixty (60) cents per capita tax for the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home and the Odd-Fellows' Old Folks' Home, for maintenance and all expenses of such homes.

ARTICLE IX.—CHARGES.

Sec. 1. In all cases where charges have been preferred against a Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge which may involve the surrender or revocation of the Charter, Warrant or Dispensation under which such Lodge exists, it shall become the duty of the Grand Secretary to issue a summons to such Subordinate Lodge or Rebekah Lodge, and to the Trustees of such Lodge, commanding them to appear before the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of this Grand Lodge on a day to be therein named, at the Lodge room of such Lodge, or such other place as shall be directed by the Grand Master in his order for the issuance of such summons; which summons shall be made returnable not less than twenty days, nor more than ninety days, from and after the date thereof, and shall be served upon the said Lodge by delivering to the Noble Grand, Vice Grand, or Recording Secretary of such Lodge a copy of such summons; and the same shall be served upon the Trustees by delivering to some three or more of them a copy thereof, which service shall be evidenced by the return indorsed thereon by the officer or brother making such service, which service may be made by the Grand Marshal or any Odd-Fellow by him so authorized to do, in writing. Such summons, when so served, shall be returned to the Grand Secretary.

It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, whenever he shall suspend a Lodge, within ten days next thereafter to formulate and file with the Grand Secretary charges and specifications against such Lodge; and in such case, and in all other cases where such charges and specifications shall have been preferred by another, the Grand Master shall fix a time and place for the hearing, by the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, of such charges, and direct the Grand Secretary to notify the members of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals of such time and place, and that he prepare and furnish to the Lodge so charged one copy, and to the Trustees of said Lodge one copy, of such charges and specifications. And thereupon, on notice by the Grand Secretary, the Deputy Grand Master shall appoint one competent member of the Order to be a special commissioner to take the testimony of witnesses, and other evidence, all of which, in so far as it may be done, shall be reduced to writing; and all parts of books, papers, or other written matters offered in evidence as exhibits, or otherwise, shall be by copy or copies duly examined and attested by the special commissioner, except in cases where the originals shall be so filed; but no testimony of witnesses, or other evidence, shall be so taken, until notice of the time and place of the taking of such evidence shall have been given to the Noble Grand or Secretary, and at least three of the Trustees of the Lodge, at least three days prior to such taking; nor until the special commissioner shall have subscribed in duplicate a pledge or obligation in substantially the following form:

I, Special Commissioner appointed by the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., to take the evidence under charges and specifications against Lodge, No. I. O. O. F., in the State of Illinois, do pledge my honor as an Odd Fellow that I will discharge the duties of such commissioner fully, fairly and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability.

(Signed)

One copy of which shall be filed with the Grand Secretary as evidence of the acceptance of such appointment, and one copy shall be filed by such commissioner with his report of the evidence by him taken; and such commissioner shall require each witness who is an Odd Fellow to subscribe to a like pledge or obligation to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matter in controversy, before such witness shall be examined; and if such witness is not an Odd-Fellow, shall require him or her to be sworn, before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, touching the matters in controversy: and all the competent and proper testimony of such witnesses shall be taken by interrogatories and answers, at which taking of testimony all parties interested shall have the right to appear and examine or cross-examine such witnesses, either in person, or by agent or other counsel.

Provided. That no agent or counsel who is not an Odd-Fellow shall be permitted to appear for either or any party, and such commissioner, by the consent of the parties appearing before him, or for good cause shown, or of his own motion, may continue from day to day to take such testimony, or may adjourn the taking thereof to a time and place named by him, which shall be by him publicly announced, and also entered upon his official report of such testimony. When the commissioner shall have completed the taking of the testimony, he shall so certify upon the same, and shall immediately transmit the whole of such testimony, evidence and exhibits, properly marked and attested, to the Grand Secretary, who shall immediately notify the Grand Master and each member of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, whose duty it shall be to appear at the time and place named for the trial of said cause, when and where they shall proceed to hear and determine said cause.

Provided, That, for good cause shown, they may postpone such hearing, or continue the hearing to a time and place to be determined by them, and may make and enforce any order not inconsistent with the principles of the Order nor in violation of any law of this Grand Lodge or the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which they may deem proper and consistent with the principles of justice; and in all their proceedings and rulings they, as nearly as may be, shall be governed by the rules and usages of Courts of Equity Jurisdiction in this State. And when they shall have heard and determined the issues presented by such charges and specifications, they shall publicly (that is, to members of the Order) announce their judgment, and shall reduce their opinion and judgment to writing, subscribe the same, and thereupon transmit the same, together with all the papers, evidence, etc., in their possession and relating to such cause, to the Grand Secretary; and the finding and judgment so made shall stand and be held to be the judgment of this Grand Lodge.

Provided, That any member of the Order, or such Lodge, by any three of its officers or Trustees, shall be permitted to prosecute an appeal to the Grand Lodge, or to the Grand Master if the Grand Lodge is not in session, by giving notice in writing of such appeal within thirty days next after the filing of such judgment, which notice shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

Provided, That such judgment shall be read to this Grand Lodge at its next session, and shall be subject to review thereby.

Provided, further, That any member of the Lodge so charged may, personally or by agent (being an Odd-Fellow), appear before said committee at the time of said trial and enter his personal plea of not guilty of all such charges and specifications; and said committee, at such time and place (after they shall have determined the issues as to said Lodge) as they shall select, shall hear such evidence as such brother or brothers may present tending to prove his or their innocence of the offense charged; and if said committee shall determine that any such brother is in fact innocent of any such offense, they shall enter final judgment acquitting such brother thereof, and shall make such order as will, in so far as may be under the circumstances, restore the brother or brothers to all rights and privileges in the Order, such as issuing to him from the office of the Grand Secretary a card, as in the case of a defunct Lodge, etc., and it shall become the duty of the Grand Master to carry into effect and enforce such judgment.

ARTICLE X.—AGED ODD-FELLOWS' FUND AND RELIEF.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall create, maintain and disburse an Aged Odd Fellows' Fund under the following provisions:

Sec. 2. Hereafter, all assets of all Subordinate Lodges whose charters have been surrendered shall be placed to the credit of a Fund to be called and known as "Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund." Such fund may also be increased and maintained by voluntary contributions, and by such other means as are not inconsistent with the laws of the Order.

Sec. 3. The Grand Secretary shall keep a register to be known as the "Aged Odd-Fellows' Register."

Sec. 4. Any Odd-Fellow over fifty years of age, who has been in continuous membership for twenty-five (25) years or more, and whose Subordinate Lodge shall surrender its charter, and who would under the laws of the Grand Lodge be entitled to receive a Grand Lodge card, may petition the Grand Lodge to place his name on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register. Said petition shall be accompanied with a certificate from the Grand Secretary, setting forth the actual standing of the applicant at the time his Lodge surrendered its charter. Upon such petition being granted by this Grand Lodge, the Grand Secretary shall place the name of such petitioner upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register.

Sec. 5. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled according to the above provisions may apply for admission to any Subordinate Lodge under the conditions hereinafter set forth.

Sec. 6. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled upon the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register may be admitted to membership in a Subordinate Lodge; he shall pay to the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which he has been admitted, an admission fee of five dollars ($5.00) and shall pay as dues the sum of five dollars and twenty cents ($5.20) per year. Said admission fee and dues shall be placed to the credit of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund.

Sec. 7. Any Odd-Fellow enrolled as above in a Subordinate Lodge as herein provided, who becomes sick or disabled, so as to be incapable of earning a livelihood, shall receive from the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which the brother has been admitted, the sum of two dollars ($2.00) weekly benefits so long as the money collected under the provisions of this Article shall permit the payment of the same.

Sec. 8. The Secretary of the Lodge shall immediately notify the Grand Secretary, in all cases of sickness or disability referred to in the preceding section, of their commencement and termination; and the Grand Secretary shall notify the Lodges having members on the Aged Odd-Fellows' Register when the said fund shall be depleted.

Sec. 9. A member of a Subordinate Lodge admitted under the above provisions shall not be entitled to vote or speak on any question involving a disposition of the funds or property of the Lodge, but shall be entitled to receive the attentive benefits of the Lodge. Also, he shall be liable to watch with the sick members of said Lodge.

Sec. 10. Upon the death of an aged Odd-Fellow enrolled as above, and who shall be entitled to the benefits of this fund, there shall be paid as a funeral expense the sum of $35.00 so long as the moneys collected under the provisions of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund shall permit the payment.

Sec. 11. No Lodge receiving such members as above provided shall be liable for the payment of any sick benefits or funeral expenses to or on account of such members, nor shall any such member be required to pay any dues or assessments to such Subordinate Lodge, except for the benefit of the Aged Odd-Fellows' Fund, and except for attentive benefits to the sick members of such Subordinate Lodge.

ARTICLE XI.—CONSOLIDATION OF LODGES.

Section 1. Any two or more neighboring Subordinate or Rebekah Lodges working under the jurisdiction of this Grand Body may, by permission of the Grand Lodge, or of the Grand Master in vacation, consolidate their membership into one Lodge, under the following regulations.

Sec. 2. The provisions of such consolidation shall be submitted to each Lodge interested, in writing, signed by not less than ten per cent of the membership of each Lodge, giving the name and number of the charter under which the proposed consolidated Lodge shall work, which may be the charter name and number of either Lodge, or charter name of one and number of another, or an entirely new name and such number as the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge may award them, together with any other agreements desired between such Lodges.

Sec. 3. A written or printed copy of the proposed provisions for such consolidation shall be mailed within three days to the last known address, as shown on the books of the Lodge, to all members of each Lodge by the Secretary thereof, stating that a vote will be taken on such provisions at the second regular meeting after their presentation, unless at such second regular meeting a later regular meeting, not exceeding four weeks, shall be fixed as the time for voting on such provisions.

Sec. 4. At such second regular meeting, or such other time as may be then and there fixed, a vote by yeas and nays shall be taken and the result duly recorded, and a certified transcript of the entire action taken shall, under seal, be sent immediately to the Grand Master.

Sec. 5. The Grand Master, at his discretion, or the Grand Lodge, at its discretion, shall grant and issue the necessary dispensation, provided that no Lodge has reported more than four members voting against the written proposition providing for the consolidation, but not otherwise.

Sec. 6. The consolidation, if authorized, shall be effected by the Grand Master or his duly authorized Deputy, whose duty it shall be to receive from each Lodge its charter, rituals, books, and property of whatsoever kind, together with full and complete separate lists of members of each Lodge, including dropped, suspended, expelled and deceased members, all of whom shall sustain to the consolidated Lodge the same relations, in every respect, as they did to their former Lodge.

On receiving such property and lists of membership, the Grand Master or his Deputy shall proclaim the Lodges duly consolidated, and proceed forthwith to the election and installation of duly qualified members to the various offices, as in the case of other Lodges. After such installation, he shall turn over to the consolidated Lodge everything that came into his possession, except that he shall not turn over more than four Rituals, one Charter, and one Seal, the excess number being sent to the Grand Secretary, and a full report of all his actions to the Grand Master. The Deputy shall not require any one to sign or re-sign any Constitution.

Sec. 7. All officers of the consolidated Lodges who shall have served a majority of the regular meetings of the current term prior to such consolidation, if more than one-half of such term shall have expired, shall be entitled to the honors of the offices in which they have so served; but if they shall not have served a majority of all such meetings, or if not more than one-half of the current term shall have expired at the time of such consolidation, then, and in that case, they shall not be entitled to such honors.

ARTICLE XII.—AMENDMENTS.

Section 1. This Constitution shall be altered or amended only by a proposition therefor in writing, submitted at an Annual Session, which proposition shall set forth the section to be altered or amended as it would read if amended or altered. The proposition shall be entered at length on the Journal, and shall not be acted upon until the next Annual Session, when it may be considered and adopted. But if, by changes in legislation or otherwise, any part of this Constitution shall be found to be contrary to the laws of the S. G. L., such part may, without previous notice, be stricken out or amended to conform to the laws of the S. G. L.

2. Two-thirds of all votes cast shall be necessary to adopt amendment to this Constitution, and the vote shall be taken of members present by division and count, unless the vote by Lodges be called, in which case the vote shall be according to Article VII, Section 4, of this Constitution.

TERM OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVES.

WHEREAS, Section 1 of Article IX of the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, as amended in September, 1905, reads as follows, to-wit:

"Section 1. Grand Representatives shall be chosen by the several State, District and Territorial Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments for the term of two years, and shall be divided into two classes, whose seats shall be vacated annually by rotation. (Provided, however, that State, District and Territorial Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments which are now or may hereafter be entitled to two Grand Representatives may provide by general law for the election of one of such Grand Representatives to serve for one year, his successor) to be elected annually by such Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise during the recess of the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term of the Grand Representative filling such office at the time such vacancy shall occur, in the manner set out in the Constitution of such State, District or Territorial Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment"; therefore, be it

Adopted November 21, 1906. Journal, page 341.

BY-LAWS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

ARTICLE I.—MEETINGS.

Section 1. This Grand Lodge shall, at each annual session, convene at 7 o'clock p. m., and adjourn from time to time until the business of the session is completed, unless otherwise ordered specially by a vote of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. In the absence of the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master, the chair may be taken, pro tempore, by any member of the Grand Lodge who may be called to it by a majority of the members present.

Sec. 3. The meetings of the Grand Lodge shall be opened with prayer.

ARTICLE II.—SUBORDINATES.

Section 1. Should any Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge fail to hold its meetings for six months, or make its returns as required by the Constitution for one year, it shall be deemed an extinct Lodge, and its charter forfeited. It shall be the duty of all Lodges to make out their returns previous to installation.

Sec. 2. In all cases where a Lodge shall have been suspended or expelled, or its charter shall have been forfeited, the charter, funds, books, properties, and effects of all kinds belonging to or owned by such Lodge, shall revert to this Grand Lodge; and it shall be the duty of the last installed officers of such Lodge to deliver them all immediately to the Grand Master, or his Deputy authorized by him to receive them.

Sec. 3. Members of a defunct Lodge who were in good standing at the time of its dissolution, as may appear by the records of such Lodge, or who may have paid to the Grand Lodge all arrearages then due by them, shall, upon application to the Grand Secretary, receive a certificate, under the seal of the Grand Lodge, which shall entitle them to the same privileges as a withdrawal card, and for the same time, to enable them to make application for admission to membership in another Lodge; Provided, that no such certificate shall be given to a member of a suspended or expelled Lodge, unless ordered by special vote of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. Any Lodge or member who shall be concerned in organizing, or who shall countenance or support, or who shall knowingly visit any Lodge in the State of Illinois, purporting to be Odd-Fellows, and not possessing a legal, unreclaimed and valid charter, duly granted and presented or confirmed by this Grand Lodge, shall be deemed unworthy of fellowship; and such member, upon satisfactory proof, shall be suspended or expelled at the option of the Lodge of which he or she is a member; and any member so suspended or expelled shall not be reinstated unless the Grand Lodge assent thereto; nor shall any person who has been in membership in any spurious or illegal Lodge be received into any regular Lodge without the consent of the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 5. Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges shall punish their members who may be guilty of immoral conduct; and after charges have been preferred for immoral conduct, and sustained, they shall award such punishment as is provided therefor in their Constitution and By-Laws, or as the rules, usages and laws of the Order demand; in default of which, the Lodge neglecting or refusing to award punishment shall be liable to forfeit its charter.

Sec. 6. Every Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge shall have a suitable seal (a proof-impression of which shall be deposited with the Grand Secretary); and all of its official communications shall be sealed therewith.

Sec. 7. No Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge shall appear in procession in regalia, except to attend the funeral of a member of the Order, or to celebrate the anniversary day of the Order, April 26th, without first having obtained permission so to do in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 8. The following shall be the form of certificate of a representative to the Grand Lodge:

.....Lodge, No., I.O.O.F.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F.:

This is to certify that, Past Grand, has been duly elected representative of this Lodge in your Grand Body for two years.

(L. S.) In testimony whereof, we hereunto affix our hands and the seal of our Lodge, this day of, 190...

....., N. G.
....., Secretary.

Attest:

Sec. 9. Clause 1. The Representatives to this Grand Lodge shall be elected and hold office for two years, one-half of them being chosen each year; Provided, that said representatives shall not be entitled to mileage and per diem if the semi-annual reports and tax of their Lodges have not been received by the Grand Secretary prior to the first day of November.

Clause 2. Each Subordinate Lodge shall, on the night of and immediately after the installation of officers, in April, biennially, from among the qualified Past Grands in membership in the Lodge, elect by ballot, and in the same manner as prescribed for the election of officers, one representative to this Grand Lodge; Provided, that when a public installation is had, the election may be at the next regular meeting thereafter.

Clause 3. Immediately after the election of representative, each Lodge, by its officers, shall execute the proper certificate as set forth in the preceding section, in duplicate; one copy of which shall be forwarded without delay, by mail, directed to the Grand Secretary; the other copy shall be delivered to the representative-elect.

Clause 4. When a vacancy arises in the representation of a Lodge, from any cause, the Lodge may, in its discretion, fill the same; but the election for filling such vacancy shall not take place until the next regular meeting after the decision to fill the vacancy has been made; Provided, however, that when, on account of such delay of one week, there will not be sufficient or reasonable time allowed to the representative-elect to prepare to attend the next ensuing session of the Grand Lodge and to travel thereto, the Lodge may fill the vacancy forthwith.

Clause 5. The representatives shall be divided into two classes—the first class being those that represent odd-numbered Lodges, and the second class those that represent even-numbered Lodges. The first class shall be elected biennially in odd-numbered years, and the second class biennially in even-numbered years.

Sec. 10. No Lodge-room of any Subordinate or Rebekah Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall be established, and no meetings of any Lodge shall be holden, in a tavern or hotel, under penalty of forfeiture of their charter, without express permission of this Grand Lodge or the Grand Master.

Sec. 11. No Subordinate Lodge in this State shall admit to membership, either by initiation or deposit of card, any person residing nearer another Lodge working in the same language, without the consent of such Lodge having been first obtained in writing, and the payment to such Lodge of the amount of fees for initiation and degrees charged by the Lodge receiving such member; Provided, however, the Lodge giving such consent in writing may, also in writing, if it so desires, waive the payment to it of the above-named fees for initiation and degrees; Provided, that in a city or village in which there are two or more Lodges, they shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE III.—AMENDMENTS.

These By-Laws shall not be amended unless the section proposed to be amended shall be submitted to the Grand Lodge in writing as it would read if amended as proposed. The proposed amendment shall be read twice at length, and on the second reading may be put upon its passage; when, if it shall receive a number of votes equal to a majority of all the representatives elected to the Grand Lodge, it shall be considered adopted. A proposition to repeal a section or other part of the By-Laws shall be made in writing and shall set forth in full the section or other part proposed to be repealed, which proposition shall be read twice at length, and on its second reading may be put upon its passage. If it shall receive a number of votes equal to a majority of all the representatives elected to the Grand Lodge, it shall be considered adopted.

ORDER OF BUSINESS AND RULES OF ORDER OF THE GRAND LODGE OF ILLINOIS.

ARTICLE I.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. The presiding officer taking the chair calls the Lodge to order, and at the sound of the gavel there shall be general silence.

2. The brethren being clothed in proper regalia, and officers and members being at their respective stations, the presence of a quorum is ascertained, when the Grand Master calls up the Lodge, and follows this Order of Business:

First.—Prayer by the Grand Chaplain.

Second.—Proclamation by the Deputy Grand Master of the opening of the Grand Lodge.

Third.—Minutes read and approved.

Fourth.—Report of Committee on Credentials.

Fifth.—New members admitted and instructed.

Sixth.—Petitions read and referred.

Seventh.—Communications read.

Eighth.—Financial accounts read and referred.

Ninth.—Appeals read and referred.

Tenth.—Reports of Standing Committees, in the following order:

1. Committee on the State of the Order.
2. Committee on Legislation.
3. Committee on Finance.
4. Committee on Rebekah Degree.
5. Committee on Mileage and Per Diem.
6. Committee on Railroads.
7. Committee on Printing.
8. Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.

Eleventh.—Reports of Special Committees, by seniority.

Twelfth.—Unfinished business, by priority.

Thirteenth.—New business.

3. The reports of the Committee on Credentials are privileged to take priority to all other business, until disposed of, but the reports of all other committees, after having been submitted, shall take their place in order among the unfinished business.

4. The Order of Business, as here arranged, may at any time, for an occasion, be changed or dispensed with by a two-thirds vote of the Lodge.

ARTICLE II.—DECORUM.

1. During the continuance of the meeting, the most decorous silence must be observed.
2. No member shall interrupt the business of the Grand Lodge, or refuse to obey the Chair.
3. Each officer and member shall be designated, in debate or otherwise, by his office or title in the Order.
4. No member shall be permitted to speak unless clothed in proper regalia.

ARTICLE III.—OF THE CHAIR.

The Grand Master, while presiding, shall state every question coming before the Grand Lodge, and immediately before putting it to vote he shall ask: "Is the Grand Lodge ready for the question?" Should no member rise to speak, the Grand Master shall rise to take the vote, and after he has risen no member shall be permitted to speak upon the question. The Grand Master shall pronounce the votes and decisions of the Grand Lodge on all subjects. His decisions on questions of order shall be without debate, unless, entertaining doubts on the point, he invite it; and he shall have the privilege of speaking only on such questions from the chair. When his decision has been appealed from, the question shall be put thus: "Will the Grand Lodge stand by the Chair in its decision?"

ARTICLE IV.—OF DEBATE.

1. Every member, when he speaks or offers a motion, shall be standing, and shall respectfully address the Chair. While speaking he shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personality and indecorous language.
2. Should two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the Chair shall decide which shall be entitled to the floor.
3. No member shall disturb another in his speech, unless to call him to order for words spoken.
4. If a member, while speaking, shall be called to order, at the request of the Chair he shall cease speaking and take his seat until the question of order is determined, when, if permitted, he may again proceed.
5. No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all the members wishing to speak shall have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without permission from the Chair; but no member shall have the privilege of speaking more than once on a question of order after appeal from the decision of the Chair.

ARTICLE V.—OF QUESTIONS AND VOTES.

1. When any communication, petition or memorial is presented, before it is read or any vote taken on it, a brief statement of its contents shall be made by the introducer or the Chair, and after it has been read, a brief notice of the purport shall be entered on the Journal.

2. A motion shall not be subject to action until stated by the Chair, and at the desire of any member it shall be reduced to writing.

3. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be taken first upon the highest sum or number and the longest or latest time proposed.

4. Any member may call for a division of a question when the sense will admit of it.

5. When a question is before the Grand Lodge no motion shall be received, unless (1) to fix the time to which to adjourn; (2) to adjourn; (3) for the orders of the day; (4) to lay on the table; (5) for the previous question; (6) to postpone to a certain time; (7) to commit; (8) to amend; (9) to postpone indefinitely; which motions shall have precedence in the order herein arranged, and the first five shall be decided without debate.

6. After any question, except one of indefinite postponement, has been decided, any two members who voted in the majority may, at the same or next succeeding meeting, move for a reconsideration thereof.

7. The previous question can be called for by two members, if seconded by a majority, and shall be put in this form:

"Shall the main question be now put?" If carried, the question shall first be taken upon pending amendments and then upon the main question.

ARTICLE VI.—OF COMMITTEES' REPORTS.

1. Every report of a committee shall be addressed to the Grand Lodge by its appropriate style and title (but the committee may omit the words "of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows"), and shall be signed by the committee.

2. A report of the minority of a committee shall not be received or entertained until after that of the majority shall have been presented and accepted.

3. No report of a committee shall be considered at the same meeting of the session at which it may have been presented, unless, by general consent or upon vote taken, two-thirds of the members voting agree to consider the report at the time of its presentation.

4. Every report of a committee shall be complete and intelligible in itself. If it refers to portions of the Reports of the Grand Officers, it shall clearly designate such portions; if it refers to any Code, Digest, Constitution or By-Laws, it shall refer by number of Section and Article; if it recommends the adoption of any resolution, it shall recite the resolution in full as recommended for adoption; if it recommends that a resolution be not adopted, it shall name the mover thereof, and give the purport thereof or all of it. The Grand Secretary shall aid in enforcing this rule, by returning to the committee which made it any report which does not conform to this rule; and he shall not read to the Grand Lodge any such irregular report.

ARTICLE VII.—AMENDMENTS.

1. These rules may be amended, altered or rescinded by a vote of two-thirds of the members voting.

2. In the absence of any special rule of this Grand Body, Robert's Rules of Order shall govern as to all questions of parliamentary practice.

CONSTITUTION FOR SUBORDINATE LODGES

ARTICLE I.—TITLE, MEETINGS.

Section 1. This Lodge shall be constituted by at least five members, including one qualified to preside at its meetings, and shall be hailed and entitledLodge, No., I.O.O.F., in the State of Illinois.

Sec. 2. This Lodge shall hold regular weekly meetings, except when specially otherwise allowed by the Grand Lodge of Illinois. Five members, including one qualified to preside, shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 3. Special meetings shall be called by the Noble Grand on the written request of five members, or by order of the Lodge at any regular meeting, and the Noble Grand may call a special meeting at his own discretion. A special meeting shall not transact any business other than that specified in the call.

ARTICLE II.—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. A candidate for membership by initiation shall be a believer in a Supreme Being, Creator and Preserver of the Universe. He shall not be a saloon-keeper, bar tender, or professional gambler, nor under twenty-one years of age at the time of initiation. He shall be a free white male person, shall have resided within the jurisdiction of this Lodge at least six months previous to his application for membership, or have been so long personally known to brothers of the Order, who recommend him.

Sec. 2. A candidate for membership by deposit of card shall be in possession of an unexpired Withdrawal Card, a Visiting Card or Official Certificate in force, and the A. T. P. W. He shall also be a resident within the jurisdiction of this Lodge, unless jurisdiction has been waived by proper authority.

Sec. 3. A candidate for membership as an Ancient Odd-Fellow shall have an expired Withdrawal Card, a Dismissal Certificate, or other satisfactory evidence of having legally terminated his membership; and he shall be a resident as provided in Section 2 of this Article. He shall not be a saloon-keeper, bartender or professional gambler.

Sec. 4. A candidate for non-beneficial membership shall have held membership in the Order for at least five consecutive years, be over fifty years of age, and be otherwise qualified as provided for in Section 2 or 3 of this Article.

Sec. 5. An application for membership shall be in the following form, to wit:

To the Officers and Members of Lodge, No., I.O.O.F., working under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows:

I respectfully request admission into this Lodge....., (here insert whether "by initiation," or "by deposit of card," or "as an Ancient Odd-Fellow," or "as a non-beneficial member"), and, in consideration of such admission, I promise and agree that, if elected, I will conform to the Constitution and By-Laws of your Lodge and those of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, and that I will seek my remedy for all rights on account of said membership or connection therewith in the tribunals of the Order only, without resorting for their enforcement, in any event or for any purpose, to the civil courts. I am not, in violation of the I. O. O. F. laws, a saloon-keeper, bar tender, or professional gambler. My age is..... years, my occupation is my residence is..... and I refer to and

Which shall be signed by the applicant and witnessed by two members of the Lodge to which the application is directed. The application shall be presented to the Lodge at a regular meeting thereof, by a member, and shall be entered in substance on the records and referred to a special committee for investigation, who may, if they all join therein, report at the first regular meeting thereafter, and not before, except by dispensation of the Lodge Deputy Grand Master; otherwise, unless further time is granted, they shall report at the second regular meeting thereafter.

Sec. 6. When the report of the investigating committee has been submitted to the Lodge, the ballot shall be held as required by law, after which the box shall be passed by the Warden to the Vice Grand, who shall examine the ballot and inform the Noble Grand whether the ballot is favorable or unfavorable; the Warden shall then pass the box to the Noble Grand, who shall inspect the ballot and announce the result, merely stating that the candidate is elected or rejected. If not more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be elected; but if three or more appear, he shall be rejected. A favorable ballot shall entitle the applicant to receive any degree or degrees of the Subordinate Lodge not previously attained, without further ballot, unless written objection, together with the reasons for such objection, signed by at least two members of the Lodge, shall be filed with the Noble Grand prior to the conferring of the same; in which case the Noble Grand shall announce the fact to the Lodge, together with the reasons so given; whereupon the brother against whom such objection shall have been made, after having received due notice of such objection and the reasons given, shall, if he so desires, have a hearing upon such objection and reasons, provided such brother shall, within sixty days after receiving such notice of said objection and reasons, notify his Lodge in writing of his wish to have such hearing; which hearing shall be had upon such objection and reasons in the same manner, and with like effect, as is by law provided for the trial of an accused brother; and if the majority of the members of said Lodge present at such hearing shall, by vote or ballot, determine that the brother is entitled to receive any degree or degrees of the Subordinate Lodge, then such degree or degrees shall be conferred upon the brother.

Sec. 7. A proposition for membership may be withdrawn, without the consent of the Lodge, at any time before the report of the Investigating Committee thereon is read to the Lodge, but not subsequently. With the consent of the Lodge, it may be withdrawn at any time before the balloting thereon. The admission fee shall be returned if the application is refused or withdrawn; but if the candidate shall be elected and fail to appear for admission within six weeks (except for cause adjudged sufficient), the election shall be void, and the deposit may be forfeited to the Lodge.

Sec. 8. When a candidate for membership by initiation has been rejected, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to all Lodges in the same place; and he cannot again be proposed in any Lodge until six months have elapsed. A proposition for membership otherwise than by initiation may be renewed at any time.

Sec. 9. Any member of a Subordinate Lodge holding a Visiting Card or an Official Certificate in force shall have the privilege of applying for membership in this Lodge without having obtained a Withdrawal Card from the Lodge in which membership is held, and may be elected to membership in this Lodge; but such candidate shall not be entitled to full membership, or have any of the privileges of a member of this Lodge, until a Withdrawal Card from the Lodge in which previous membership was held is deposited with this Lodge, nor until the payment of the admission fee required by the By-Laws of this Lodge, and signing the Constitution.

ARTICLE III.—OFFICERS.

Section 1. The elective officers of the Lodge shall be a Noble Grand, a Vice Grand, a Secretary (who shall be known as "Recording Secretary" if a Financial Secretary is chosen), and a Treasurer, and, when deemed necessary, a Financial Secretary.

Sec. 2. The appointed officers shall be a Warden, a Conductor, an Outside Guardian, an Inside Guardian, a Right and a Left Supporter to the Noble Grand, a Right and a Left Supporter to the Vice Grand, a Right and a Left Scene Supporter, and a Chaplain.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to preside in the Lodge, and enforce a due observance of the Constitution and laws; to see that all the officers of the Lodge and members of committees perform their respective duties; to appoint all (appointive) officers, except the Supporters of the Vice Grand; to appoint the majority of all committees not otherwise provided for; to give the casting vote, only, on all matters or questions before the Lodge, except that he shall be entitled to vote in all ballots. He shall inspect and announce the result of all votes by the Lodge, have charge of the charter, which he must always have in the Lodge while in session; draw upon the Treasurer for all sums that have been voted by the Lodge, and none other. He shall convene special meetings at his own discretion, or as directed in Article I, Section 3, of this Constitution, and perform such other duties as appertain to his office. He shall not make or second any motion, neither shall he take part in any debate while in the chair.

Sec. 4. The Vice Grand shall assist the Noble Grand in presiding in the Lodge. He shall appoint his own supporters, and the minority of all committees not otherwise provided for. He shall have special charge of the door, under the Noble Grand. In the absence of the Noble Grand he shall preside, discharging all the duties of Noble Grand, and perform all other duties required by the charges and usage of the Order.

Sec. 5. The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Lodge. He shall write all communications, fill up all certificates and cards granted by the Lodge, issue all summonses or notices required, attest to all moneys ordered paid at regular meetings, and none other. He shall make out at the end of his term the Semi-Annual Reports required by Article XI, of this Constitution. He shall also, at the close of his term, make out a report for the Lodge, showing fully its work and condition during the term. He shall perform the duties of Financial Secretary, if none be chosen. He may receive such compensation as the Lodge may have fixed prior to his election. He shall also keep a list of all warrants drawn on the Treasurer, recording the date, amount, and the name of the person in whose favor drawn; and if the warrant be payable from any special fund, that fact shall appear both on the warrant and on the list. He shall also keep a register of membership, enrolling the names of members of the Lodge, with date of proposal, election, initiation (or signing the Constitution upon admission by card or dismissal certificate), resignation, withdrawal by card, death, suspension, reinstatement, or expulsion; also recording the conferring of degrees and attainment of official rank. He shall be known as Recording Secretary if a Financial Secretary shall be elected.

Sec. 6. The Financial Secretary (if any be had) shall be chosen at the election in March. He shall keep the accounts between the Lodge and its members. He shall pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received by him, and shall inform the Treasurer from time to time, or at the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid to him belongs to any special fund of the Lodge. He shall notify in writing all members who are at any time in arrears for eleven months' dues, delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address, and at the expiration of the next succeeding month, if said member's account is not settled, in whole or in part, sufficient to reduce his arrears to less than one full year's dues, he shall present the name of such member to the Lodge. Prior to the last meeting in March, June, September and December, respectively, he shall notify all members who are in arrears for one quarter's dues. He shall, at the close of each term, make to the Lodge a detailed report of the business of his office, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books and papers, and to aid them in the examination thereof; and at the first regular meeting of the new term he shall present his report to the Lodge, with a statement of the balance of account of each unsuspended member. He shall make out the Annual Report to the Grand Lodge, as required by Article XI., and shall deliver it to the Recording Secretary for record and for forwarding to the Grand Lodge. He shall receive such compensation as the Lodge may have fixed prior to his election. He shall give bond as is provided for the Treasurer in the following section.

Sec. 7. The Treasurer shall be elected annually at the election in March, and prior to his installation in office he shall give a joint and several bond to the Trustees of the Lodge, with two sureties to be approved by the Lodge, with such penalties and conditions as from time to time may be prescribed by the Lodge.

Provided. That, in lieu of the bond above mentioned, the Treasurer, at the option of the Lodge, may furnish a bond signed by some surety or guaranty company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is engaged in the business of furnishing indemnity bonds, the expense of such bond to be defrayed by the Lodge.

Such bond, before being presented to the Lodge, must have been submitted to and approved by a majority of the Trustees. He shall keep the funds, notes and securities of the Lodge; pay all orders drawn on him by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary, and none other; keep a full account of all moneys expended, and give the Lodge, at the first meeting in each month, a statement of its funds. He shall keep a separate account of any special fund instituted by the Lodge, and report to the Financial Secretary, at or before the last meeting in each term, and money received by him as interest or dividends on any notes, securities or stocks held by him. He shall make for the Lodge, at the close of his term, a full report of his receipts and disbursements, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books, papers, securities, bonds, funds and other property in his possession; and at the first regular meeting of the next term he shall present his report to the Lodge. He shall pay over and deliver up, when legally called upon, all moneys, bonds, books, papers, and other property in his possession or under his control, belonging to the Lodge, to his successor in office, or to such person as the Lodge may appoint to receive the same.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the Junior Past Grand of this Lodge to act in the capacity of Past Grand, and to deliver the charge of that office to candidates. Any Past Grand may act as Noble Grand or Vice Grand when legally called thereto.

Sec. 9. All other officers (that is, all others than those enumerated in previous sections of the Constitution) shall perform such duties as are prescribed for them by the regulations and charges of their offices and the By-Laws of the Lodge.

ARTICLE IV.—STANDING COMMITTEES.

Section 1. The Standing Committees of this Lodge shall be a Committee of Trustees, a Visiting Committee, a Finance Committee, and such others as may be created by the By-Laws.

Sec. 2. Five Trustees shall annually be chosen by ballot at the regular election in March, and a plurality of votes shall elect. The term of office of Trustees shall begin on April first following their election, after having qualified as hereinbelow provided, and shall hold their office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified by filing certificate of election as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the Recording Secretary, within one week after said election, to file with the County Recorder of the County where such Lodge is located, a certificate of the election of said Trustees, such certificate setting forth also that the term of office of said Trustees begins on April the first following. It shall be the duty of the said newly elected Trustees, when qualified as above, to approve the bonds of the newly elected officers; also to act as an Executive Committee of the Lodge in carrying out all acts not otherwise provided for; to procure Lodge room, fuel, lights, regalia, and all things necessary for the comfort of the Lodge, under its direction. They shall have the guardianship of all widows and orphans of the Lodge, and carry out all provisions of the Lodge in relation to them; and shall from time to time recommend such action as they may deem necessary for the prosperity of the Lodge; they shall present to the Lodge at the close of their term of office a written report of their proceedings.

Sec. 3. The Visiting Committee shall consist of at least three members, one of whom shall be the Noble Grand. They shall keep themselves informed at all times as to the condition of a brother who has been reported sick; they shall report to the Lodge what benefits he is entitled to; and they shall provide for his care and watch, as his case may require and the laws of the Order permit. If a member of another Lodge be sick and apply to this Lodge for relief, his case shall be referred to the Visiting Committee as if he were a member of this Lodge; and if he be entitled to receive benefits from his own Lodge, this Lodge shall advance the sum thus due him, and forward an account of the same to his Lodge without delay. The Lodge may, by by-law, add to the number of this committee and prescribe more specific details of their duty; Provided that, in cities or towns having more than two lodges, the Visiting Committees of the different Lodges may, if they see fit, appoint one of their number to act with a like number from the other Lodges in the town or city as a special Visiting Committee, whose duty it shall be the care of traveling or sojourning brothers who may be sick or disabled in the town or city where such Lodges exist.

Sec. 4. The Finance Committee shall consist of three members, to be appointed by the Noble Grand on the night of his installation. They shall audit and inspect the accounts, books, securities, bonds, funds, and other property in the hands of the Treasurer, and the books and reports of the Secretaries, and other officers and committees charged with the receipt and expenditure of money. For this purpose they shall fix a time and place to meet the Secretaries and Treasurer, after the last regular meeting in each semi-annual term, and shall report in writing at the first regular meeting in the next term. They shall also examine all other financial matters referred to them, and report thereon to the Lodge as soon as practicable. Neither the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Financial Secretary, nor any member of the Board of Trustees, shall be a member of the Finance Committee.

ARTICLE V.—ELECTIONS, ETC.

Section 1. No brother shall be eligible to the chair of the Noble Grand unless he has served a regular term as Vice Grand; nor shall any brother be eligible as Vice Grand unless he has served one term in some inferior office. But if all qualified members present refuse to accept the office of Noble Grand or Vice Grand, a Third Degree member may, under dispensation from the Lodge Deputy, be elected to either of said offices without previous service.

Sec. 2. All elective and appointed officers must have the Scarlet Degree before they are installed.

Sec. 3. Nominations for elective officers may be made at the regular meeting next preceding the night of election, and on the night of election immediately previous to the election for each office.

Sec. 4. The elective officers, except the Treasurer and Financial Secretary, shall be chosen at the first regular meetings in March and September, and shall hold their respective offices for six months and until the next regular installation of officers. They shall be installed at the first meetings in April and October. The Treasurer and the Financial Secretary (if there be one) shall be elected in March, and shall be installed at the first meeting in April, and both shall serve for one year. If a public installation of officers be had, it may be at another time than that specified above, but not prior to the first meeting in April and October.

Sec. 5. The election of officers shall be by ballot, except in cases where there is but one candidate for an office, when the election may be by acclamation. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to an election. Ballots for persons not properly in nomination shall be considered blanks; and blanks shall be counted as votes. When there are several candidates, and there is no choice, at each successive balloting the name of the candidate having the smallest number of votes in the preceding ballot shall be dropped from the nomination.

Sec. 6. If any officer shall be absent for three consecutive meetings, except for personal sickness, his office may be declared vacant by vote of the Lodge, if he is an elective officer, but by the officer who appointed him, if he is an appointed officer. All vacancies shall be filled in the manner of the former selection, to serve the residue of the term; and the officer so serving shall be entitled to the full honors of the office.

ARTICLE VI.—DEGREES.

Section 1. No degree shall be conferred upon a candidate until, by examination in open Lodge, he shall have been found proficient in the highest degree he shall have attained, i. e., in possession of the unwritten work thereof, so as to give an intelligent explanation of its uses, and, as near as may be, in the language of said work: Provided, however, that when urgent necessity is shown, and a dispensation therefor shall have been granted by the Lodge Deputy Grand Master, such examination may be dispensed with. The dispensation may also permit the conferring of more than one degree at the same meeting.

Sec. 2. A member desiring to receive any degree or degrees shall pay to the Secretary of the Lodge the fee or fees therefor, who shall, under the proper order of business, make known his desire to the Lodge, at a regular meeting thereof, stating which degree or degrees are desired; whereupon (the candidate being in waiting), the Lodge shall be opened in the highest degree the candidate has attained, when he shall be admitted and examined by the Noble Grand, or other brother under his direction, as to his proficiency, as required in the preceding section; after which (the candidate having retired), the Noble Grand shall raise the Lodge to the Third Degree and put the question as to his proficiency to a vote of the Lodge; and if a majority declare him proficient, the degree shall be conferred upon him, but if declared not proficient, it shall not be conferred until, upon further examination, he shall be declared proficient. The conferring of degrees may be done at special meetings called for that purpose.

Sec. 3. A member of this Lodge who shall have paid the fee or fees for any of the degrees may, upon application, receive a certificate requesting any Lodge to which it may be presented to confer upon him the degree or degrees therein specified.

ARTICLE VII.—DROPPING, TRIALS AND PENALTIES.

Section 1. Any member who shall become in arrears for the dues and assessments accruing against him during the period of one full year shall, after twenty days' written notice from the Financial Secretary, delivered to him in person, if possible, otherwise mailed to his last known address, be declared by the Noble Grand dropped from membership, unless the Lodge shall otherwise direct, or unless, in the meantime, he shall have paid dues so as to reduce the time of arrearage to less than one full year; Provided, however, that a member sixty years or more of age, who has been a contributing member of the Order for twenty-five consecutive years, who shall become in arrears for dues and assessments during a full year, shall not be dropped by virtue of such arrearage, but he may be placed upon the list of "non-contributing members." If so placed, he shall thereafter be known as a "non-contributing member"; he shall be entitled to receive all passwords and fellowship of Subordinate Lodges; and, upon payment of the cost to the Lodge, he shall be entitled to receive the special visiting card provided by the Sovereign Grand Lodge for non-contributing members. This Lodge shall be exempt from the payment of per capita tax to the Grand Lodge upon all such non-contributing members.

Sec. 2. If any member of this Lodge shall be found guilty of conduct contrary to the laws of the Order, or in violation of its principles as set forth in its lectures, charges and obligations, or shall be found guilty of any dishonest or immoral act or practice, injurious to himself, his family, or to society, or by which the Order may be scandalized, he shall be subjected to such penalty as the laws of this jurisdiction or the discretion of the Lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 3. If any member of this Lodge shall have reason to believe that any other has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd-Fellow, as shown in the preceding section, it shall be his duty immediately to give notice of such violation or offense, in writing, to the Noble Grand. The Noble Grand shall forthwith refer a copy of such written communication, concealing the name of the informant, to a special committee of three members; which committee shall proceed, without delay, to investigate the matter therein stated; and if, in their opinion, there is just ground therefor, they shall, as early as practicable, prefer a charge, or charges, against the member so accused, specifying therein the particular matter of offense with which he is charged; and the committee shall have charge of the prosecution on the part of the Lodge.

Sec. 4. Any other Lodge in this jurisdiction, or a member of any other Lodge, if his own Lodge will forward his complaint attesting his good standing, or a member of this Lodge, may prefer an open complaint or information against any member of this Lodge; and such complaint shall be treated as complaints or informations mentioned in Section 3 of this Article; but the complaint shall be read in open Lodge and the committee thereon there appointed.

Sec. 5. Whenever a charge, or charges, are preferred against a member, they shall be read in open Lodge, at a regular meeting. The Secretary shall immediately furnish a copy thereof, under seal of the Lodge, to the member so accused, and at the same time cite said member to appear before the Lodge at the second regular meeting thereafter and plead guilty or not guilty to each charge and specification; and if he pleads not guilty, then the Noble Grand shall appoint a competent member of the Lodge as a commissioner or committee of one to take the evidence, both for the Lodge and the accused, in deposition form, by writing down both the questions and answers in full, and that the said commissioner to take evidence shall be first obligated by the Noble Grand to perform such duty, and he shall be authorized to obligate witnesses who may be members of the Order, and cause such witnesses who may not be members of the Order to be obligated by a proper officer authorized to administer oaths. Said commissioner shall have power to pass upon the competency of evidence, and if objections are made to his ruling, he shall note said objection, together with the question and answer, in the depositions. If the accused appears when cited and pleads not guilty, the case shall be continued two weeks from the night the citation is, returnable, to give each side an opportunity to have the Secretary cite their witnesses to appear before the commissioner. The commissioner shall have power to continue the taking of said evidence from day to day, and when the evidence is all taken, said commissioner shall report the same to the Noble Grand over his certificate. The Noble Grand shall rule as to whether said evidence objected to before the commissioner shall be read to the Lodge, and for the purpose of passing upon the same, he shall, not later than three days before the fourth regular meeting of the Lodge, at a time and place selected by him, after notifying the committee of the Lodge having the prosecution in charge, and the accused or his attorney, in writing, of such time and place, hear both the prosecution and defense before passing upon the objected evidence. The Noble Grand, after hearing both sides, shall mark upon the depositions, at the place where the objected evidence may appear, either the word overruled or sustained, as the case may be, and the evidence read to the Lodge shall be only that which the Noble Grand has overruled the objections thereto.

Sec. 6. If personal service of a copy of the charges and citation cannot be had on an accused member, by reason of his permanent absence, concealment, or because of his absconding, the Lodge may regularly proceed with the trial upon proof of the fact that such personal service is rendered impracticable, and that a copy of the charges and citation has been deposited in the post office, postpaid, directed to his last known postoffice address, and that a like copy of the charges and citation shall have been left at his last known place of residence, if the same be within the jurisdiction of the Lodge; Provided, such papers shall be deemed to have been served upon the accused only from the date when the constructive service above described is complete. The Noble Grand shall appoint counsel to defend him, if none appear for him.

Sec. 7. The Lodge, at said fourth regular meeting, or at such other time as may then be fixed, shall open in the highest degree which the accused has attained, if he be not of the Third Degree, and shall listen to the reading of the evidence taken by the commissioner, both for the Lodge and the accused. The accused shall be heard in his own behalf in person or by counsel, and the committee appointed to prosecute on behalf of the Lodge shall have the right to also address the Lodge. The Lodge shall then proceed to vote upon the charge or charges preferred; but no member shall be entitled to vote unless he were present during the whole of the reading of the testimony and of the arguments thereon. If the charges be sustained, in whole or in part, by a vote of two-thirds of the members entitled to vote on the question, the accused shall retire to the ante-room. The Secretary shall then read to the Lodge the charge or charges, or part or parts thereof, that have been sustained, when the Noble Grand, without motion, shall proceed to put to vote the highest order of punishment—expulsion; and if that be not agreed to, he shall put the next—suspension; and shall so proceed until some order of punishment is agreed to by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. One penalty only shall be inflicted as the result of one trial.

Sec. 8. Whenever the Lodge shall determine upon suspension, a motion may be made to fix the time, and two amendments may be offered thereto, which shall be decided without debate. The Noble Grand shall put them to vote, commencing with the longest period of time therein named; and if all of them be rejected, a second motion may be made, and two amendments permitted thereto, which shall be put to vote in a like manner; and the Lodge shall so proceed until some period of suspension is agreed to. But suspension of membership shall work no suspension of dues and arrearages, but they shall run on during the time of suspension. If the Lodge shall decide to punish by fine, the same course shall be adopted in determining the amount thereof as is above provided in fixing the time of suspension; and in either case, of fixing the time of suspension or amount of fine, the majority of the members present shall decide the period of time or amount. But no suspension shall be shorter than eight days, nor longer than one year.

Sec. 9. When the misconduct is confessed by the accused brother, the Lodge to which such case is referred may proceed to vote upon his punishment without the formula of a trial.

Sec. 10. The only legal penalties for misconduct are fine, reprimand, suspension, and expulsion. Fine is not allowed as penalty for violation of the principles of the Order.

Sec. 11. The penalty for intoxication is reprimand for the first offense, suspension for the second, and expulsion for the third; and no other penalties are legal. Provided, the penalty upon the conviction of a brother who has been expelled for intoxication, has been reinstated, and shall again be found guilty of intoxication, shall be suspension for not less than three months, and for the next conviction for a like offense he shall be again expelled; and provided further, that if a Representative attending a session of the Grand Lodge shall be found guilty of intoxication at such session, the penalty shall be expulsion.

Sec. 12.—When a definite penalty is fixed by law for any offense, a brother convicted thereof is sentenced without further vote; if alternatives are fixed, the Lodge chooses one of them by vote.

Sec. 13. If any accused member shall evade the receiving of a citation, or, after receiving the same, shall neglect or refuse to attend the Lodge at the time therein fixed, and there remain throughout the investigation or trial of his case, the Lodge may proceed in his absence to expel him for contempt.

Sec. 14. At all stages of the proceedings the accused shall have all opportunity to vindicate himself; and in case of suspension or expulsion following the constructive citation provided for in Section 6 of this Article, or in case of alleged contempt, the accused shall be entitled to a new trial at any time within six months, if he shall show that his absence was produced by unavoidable circumstances, or that injustice was done him.

Sec. 15. The accused or any three members feeling aggrieved by the decision of the Lodge in a trial shall be entitled to an appeal to the Grand Lodge, which appeal must be entered according to the laws and regulations of the Grand Lodge on the matter of appeals. On command of the Grand Lodge, the brother may be acquitted or tried anew for the same offense.

Sec. 16. Any brother having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and to all Lodges in the same place; and a brother who has been legally expelled shall not be admitted to membership again without consent of the Grand Lodge or the Grand Master.

Sec. 17. If any member of the Lodge shall make to the Noble Grand any accusation against a brother, under Section 3 of this Article, which shall be proved to be without reasonable grounds, or false and malicious, it shall be the duty of the Noble Grand to deliver up the name of the informant to the Lodge, on demand of a majority of the members thereof present, that he may be dealt with accordingly.

Sec. 18. This Lodge shall have a black book, in which shall be entered the names of all persons expelled by this Lodge, or any other Lodge of which they may have received due notice, with the date and cause of each expulsion.

Sec. 19. If, at any time before passing upon the objected evidence by the Noble Grand, the accused, or three members of a Lodge in which charges may be preferred against a member, are of the opinion that the accused will not receive an impartial trial at the hands of the Lodge, and present such opinion in writing, such paper, together with such evidence as may be desired bearing upon the question of prejudice in the Lodge, shall be forwarded to the Grand Master; and if he order the case changed to another Lodge, then, when the record of written evidence is reported by the commissioner, and the case is ready for the Noble Grand to pass upon the objected testimony, if any, the trial shall be removed to the Lodge so designated by the Grand Master; and the Noble Grand of such designated Lodge shall pass upon the objected evidence, as provided for in Section 5 of this Article.

Sec. 20. Upon such removal, the Prosecuting Committee, or some attorney appointed by them, or by the Noble Grand of the removing Lodge, may present the case, and the accused may appear by himself or attorney, as if no such removal had taken place.

Sec. 21. If either the prosecution or the defense shall desire the testimony of a witness whose attendance cannot be secured, they shall file with the Secretary of the Lodge the interrogatories they wish to be propounded to the witness, naming him and giving his address. The Secretary shall immediately deliver or cause to be delivered to the opposite party a copy of the interrogatories. The latter party, within one week of such service, may file counter interrogatories with the Secretary. At the expiration of the week, or sooner, if counter interrogatories be sooner filed, the Secretary shall forthwith forward them to the Noble Grand of a Lodge near the witness, with a communication under seal, requesting him to take the deposition of the witness named. Upon receipt of the same, the said Noble Grand shall, as soon as possible, take or cause the deposition to be taken by some competent member of the Order, first obligating him as an Odd-Fellow, if he be an Odd-Fellow, or swearing him or causing him to be sworn, if not an Odd-Fellow, causing every interrogatory to be propounded to the witness and the answer to each to be reduced to writing in the presence of the witness; and when the deposition is completed, shall cause the witness to sign the same under his obligation as an Odd-Fellow, if he be an Odd-Fellow, or be sworn to and sign the same before one authorized to administer oaths, if he be not an Odd-Fellow; and then the Noble Grand, or person taking the same, shall certify the same to have been duly taken, and such certificate shall be verified by the seal of the Lodge, and the deposition shall then be sealed and transmitted by mail to this Lodge. Depositions thus taken and certified may be read in evidence in the cause to which they relate.

Sec. 22. When the matter has been determined, a copy of the record of the proceedings had thereon, with the register of the evidence, shall be returned to the removing Lodge; and the same shall be filed in its archives, and the judgment entered upon its records. An appeal to the Grand Lodge may be had in case of a removed trial, as in other cases.

Sec. 23. All votes taken under the provisions of this Article shall be by ballot with balls.

Sec. 24. If any member of the Order who shall have been duly notified to appear and give evidence, shall fail to appear as notified, or appearing, shall refuse to answer questions as a witness, he shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and the Lodge may proceed to expel said member for contempt.

ARTICLE VIII.—REINSTATEMENT.

Section 1. A brother dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this Lodge may, within one year after being dropped, be reinstated upon application made in open Lodge by a member thereof, which shall be held over until the second meeting thereafter, the Secretary reading the same at each meeting, and be determined affirmatively on a ballot by a majority of the votes cast, and upon payment of such amount as the By-Laws of the Lodge may prescribe.

Sec. 2. If a brother dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this Lodge shall, after one year from being dropped, make application for reinstatement, his application shall be treated like a proposition for membership by initiation, except that the vote of a majority on ballot shall reinstate him.

Sec. 3. A brother dropped from membership in this Lodge who may have been in membership in the Order for five consecutive years, and who may be over fifty years of age, may be reinstated as a non-beneficial member by a majority on ballot. His application must state age, occupation and residence, and be disposed of as required in the preceding section.

Sec. 4. A member dropped from membership in this Lodge who shall, at any time within five years from being dropped, make written application for reinstatement and a withdrawal card for the purpose of joining another Lodge in Illinois, may be reinstated and granted a withdrawal card by a majority vote upon ballot; and the reinstating vote shall grant the card also without further ballot. But such application may, at the option of the Lodge, be referred to a committee for investigation, and shall be reported upon and acted on as soon thereafter as practicable.

Sec. 5. A member expelled by this Lodge may apply in writing for reinstatement. The application shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall ascertain whether the applicant has made such reformation, reparation or apology as is appropriate, and shall report to the Lodge. After the reception of the report, the Lodge shall ballot on the application. If two-thirds of the members present shall vote in favor of reinstatement, the Secretary shall write to the Grand Lodge, or in recess to the Grand Master, for permission to reinstate him; and if it be granted, he shall thereby be reinstated. No expelled member shall be reinstated without the payment of the fee provided by the By-Laws of this Lodge, not less than one year's dues. But members expelled for non-payment before such action was forbidden shall be reinstated as dropped members.

Sec. 6. When a suspended or expelled member shall have been reinstated, either by expiration of sentence or action of the Grand Lodge, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the Grand Secretary and to all the Lodges in the same place.

ARTICLE IX.—CARDS, DISMISSAL CERTIFICATES AND RESIGNATION.

Section 1. A member of this Lodge may end his membership therein by taking a withdrawal card or a dismissal certificate; and he may end his membership in this Lodge and in the Order also by presenting a written resignation of membership. No resignation of membership or application for withdrawal card shall be entertained from any one who is not clear on the books.

Sec. 2. A withdrawal card may be granted to any member by a vote of a majority upon ballot at a regular meeting. Application therefor must be made by the member in person or in writing, and shall lie over one week for final action, except that when the applicant has left the vicinity of the Lodge, or it is his known purpose to leave before the next meeting, or to join in a petition for a new Lodge, the card may be granted without delay.

Sec. 3. If the Lodge refuses to grant a withdrawal card applied for, the applicant may tender a written resignation of membership; he shall then be entitled to receive from the Secretary a certificate, under the seal of the Lodge, that he has resigned membership, as evidence of his good standing at that time.

Sec. 4. A visiting card may be granted to any member by vote of the Lodge at a regular or special meeting, or by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary at any other time, when application for the same is made to them in writing; but it shall not be made out until he shall have paid all charges on the books against him, his dues to the expiration of the card, and the price of the card; Provided, that a Lodge may provide by by-law that when a member pays one year's dues in advance, the card may be granted without fee for same.

Sec. 5. Dismissal certificates shall be granted by this Lodge, and issued by the Noble Grand and Recording Secretary without vote of the Lodge, upon proper application therefor and the payment of one dollar, to any member dropped for non-payment of dues for five years, or to any dropped member who has removed from the state, or is joining with other brothers in petitioning for a new Lodge, unless complaint is filed or charges are preferred against him. Provided, this Lodge may, by vote, grant a Dismissal Certificate before the expiration of the five years.

ARTICLE X.—FEES, DUES, BENEFITS AND FUNDS.

Section 1. No person shall be admitted to membership or be reinstated in this Lodge, or receive any degree, or a card, until he shall have paid the amount required therefor by this Constitution or the By-Laws. When dues and special assessments or fines stand charged upon account, the payments made shall apply to these in the order of their accruing.

Sec. 2.—No person shall be admitted to membership in this Lodge for a less sum than is herein provided, viz: By initiation, five dollars; by deposit of card, two dollars; as an Ancient Odd-Fellow, five dollars; and as a non-beneficial member, five dollars: Provided, that no admission fee shall be charged a brother who has moved from the territorial jurisdiction of his own Lodge to the territorial jurisdiction of this Lodge, and is entitled to a withdrawal card, or holds an unexpired withdrawal card, from his old Lodge, except he shall pay for a medical certificate regarding his health, should one be required by the By-

Laws of this Lodge; and provided further, that no admission fee shall be charged an applicant for membership under Article X, Section 6, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, regarding the "Aged Odd-Fellows' Register"; provided further, that no fee except the cost of the card shall be charged a member of this Lodge for a withdrawal card, if he has removed to the territorial jurisdiction of another Lodge and petitions for membership therein.

Sec. 3. The fee for each degree shall not be less than three dollars.

Sec. 4. No member shall be reinstated after having been dropped for non-payment of dues for less sums than are herein provided, viz.: Under Article VIII, Section 1, of this Constitution, the amount of one year's dues, neither more nor less; under Article VIII, Section 2, the same fee as is charged for an initiate of the same age, or such lesser sum (not less than one year's dues) as the By-Laws may prescribe; under Article VIII, Section 3, a sum not less than one year's dues; under Article VIII, Section 4, the amount of one year's dues and the price of the card.

Sec. 5. The regular contributions to the Lodge fund shall not be at a less rate than seven cents a week, to be determined by the By-Laws; but the Lodge shall, by its By-Laws, prescribe some less rate, not exceeding five cents a week, for the dues of non-beneficial members: Provided, members resident of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home may be, by by-law, exempt from the payment of weekly dues so long as resident therein; and provided further, said members, while residents of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, shall not receive sick benefits from their Lodge if exempt from the payment of weekly dues.

Sec. 6. The Lodge may by its By-Laws require such further contributions for a Widows' and Orphans' Fund, an Education Fund, a Funeral Assessment or Fund, or for any other fund suitable to the purposes of the Order, for either or all of them, as the Lodge shall determine.

Sec. 7. The Lodge may, by its By-Laws, set aside any amount not exceeding five per cent of the receipts for dues as a contingent fund, to be used for entertainments and in the payment of necessary and proper obligations which the Lodge must meet, and for which purpose the Lodge cannot expend its general funds.

Sec. 8. A beneficiary member shall be any one who has been for six months a member by initiation of this Lodge (or of the Order, if admitted to membership in this Lodge upon an unexpired withdrawal card), as an Ancient Odd-Fellow, or by reinstatement after dropping or expulsion, who is under no complaint or charges of misconduct, and who is not more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues. A member reinstated after suspension shall be beneficiary immediately upon reinstatement, subject to the provisions herein in relation to dues: provided, however, that this Lodge, by proper by-law, may enact that, if a member shall become non-beneficiary by reason of being more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, he shall, before he can become beneficiary, pay all arrears for dues, assessments, and fines; and such by-law may further provide that, as a penalty, such non-beneficiary member shall not become entitled to weekly benefits for a period subsequent to such payment not exceeding thirteen weeks.

Sec. 9. Every beneficiary member of this Lodge, in case of sickness or disability not caused by vice or immorality on his part, shall be entitled to and receive from the funds of the Lodge such weekly benefits as may be fixed by the By-Laws, not less than two dollars a week if of the Scarlet Degree; but no sick benefit shall be allowed for less than a week's sickness, or for the fractional part of a week. Provided, that this Lodge may provide in its By-Laws for a sick benefit of not less than one dollar to be paid to brothers who may have been sick, and received sick benefits continuously for the period of one year; Provided further, that this Lodge may provide by by-law that no benefit shall be paid for the first one week or two weeks of such sickness or disability; Provided further, that a brother who is ill outside of the jurisdiction of this Lodge, in order to receive benefits, shall furnish to this Lodge a certificate of a regular practicing physician, in the following form:

To the Officers and Members of Lodge No., I.O.O.F.,
....., Illinois.

I,, a practicing physician, residing at, hereby certify that I have professionally attended at; that he is suffering from; that such was caused by; that my first visit was on the day of, 190..., and my last on the day of, 190...; that, in my opinion, he has been unable to follow his avocation of or any other work, from the day of, 190..., to the day of, 190...; and that such was not caused on account of intemperance or any other immoral conduct.

....., N. G.
, Sec'y.

(SEAL.)

Sec. 10. In case of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge there shall be allowed not less than twenty dollars as a funeral benefit to the beneficiary or beneficiaries entitled thereto, and such further sum as may be actually incurred under the laws of the Order for funeral expenses, not less than sixty dollars, unless shared by another society; liabilities for funeral expenses shall be limited to sixty dollars unless the Lodge, by by-law, assume liabilities for a larger amount; provided, however, the Lodge may, with the written consent of the funeral beneficiaries, expend the funeral benefits toward the funeral expenses. The beneficiaries of the funeral benefit are the widow, orphans (under the age of twenty-one years, members of and residing with the family of the deceased), or the dependent relatives of the deceased, or relatives upon whom the deceased was dependent at the time of death. In the event of the death of a beneficiary member of this Lodge not leaving surviving him any of the above named beneficiaries of a funeral benefit, and leaving either no estate or insufficient estate to pay the expenses of the funeral, the Lodge shall pay the funeral expenses, not to exceed the combined funeral benefits and expenses provided by the By-Laws of this Lodge.

Sec. 11. A member so far in arrears for dues as not to be entitled to weekly benefits shall not be entitled to attentive benefits, but such member shall be visited by the Visiting Committee if within the jurisdiction of this Lodge; provided, however, that the Lodge may provide such brothers attentive benefits not involving the payment of money from the general fund or the nurse fund of this Lodge; and provided further, that this Lodge may, by proper by-law, limit the time for which the Lodge shall be liable for the payment of night watchers or nurses for any sick or disabled beneficiary member of this Lodge in any one sickness or disability.

Sec. 12. Non-beneficial and non-contributing members shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and advantages of membership, except the right to receive financial benefits, and shall be subject to all penalties and liabilities as other members. No financial benefits shall be allowed to any non-beneficial or non-contributing member, nor shall any pecuniary relief be extended to any such member from the funds of the Lodge, except upon the recommendation of some committee; provided, no non-beneficial or non-contributing member shall be assessed for the purpose of raising a fund for the payment of sick or disability benefits.

Sec. 13. The special funds of this Lodge shall be sacredly devoted to the purposes for which they may be raised; and the general fund shall be considered sacredly pledged to the relief of distressed brothers, the payment of benefits, the furnishing of the Lodge room, and such other necessary expenses as are and may be recognized and authorized by the laws of the Order

Sec. 14. The stocks, securities, investments and funds of this Lodge shall not be transferred, in whole or in part, but by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting. The resolution therefor shall have been presented at least one week before final action.

ARTICLE XI.—TERMS AND REPORTS.

Section 1. Semi-annual terms shall commence on the first regular meetings in April and October; the annual term, on the first regular meeting in April.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the retiring officers, at the close of each semi-annual term, to prepare and forward to the Grand Lodge, immediately, a full report of the work of the term, upon the blank forms furnished from the office of the Grand Secretary, and in conformity with the instructions of that officer, accompanied by whatever amount may be due to the Grand Lodge; and at the close of each annual term, in like manner, the Annual Report of Membership.

Sec. 3. This Lodge shall forfeit its charter if it fails to comply with the requisitions and laws of the Grand Lodge; and in such case it shall be the duty of the last installed officers to comply with the provisions of the first and second sections of Article II of the By-Laws of the Grand Lodge.

ARTICLE XII.—CONSTRUCTION, AMENDMENTS, ETC.

Section 1. When doubts arise of the true meaning of any of these articles, it shall be determined by the Noble Grand, his interpretation being subject to an appeal to the Lodge, and its decision being subject to an appeal to the Grand Master, thence to the Grand Lodge; provided, the Grand Master may refer the decision of the Lodge direct to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, thence to the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 2. These articles, or any part thereof, shall not be altered, amended, suspended or annulled, except on motion made in the Grand Lodge in a regular session, in writing; and such motion shall not be finally acted upon on the day of its presentation, except by a four-fifths vote of all members present; provided, said motion shall fully set forth the proposed amendment or alteration and how the whole section or sections would read if amended or altered as proposed.

Sec. 3. This Lodge shall stand fully invested with power to adopt such By-Laws and Rules of Order, from time to time, as may be deemed expedient; provided they do not in any way contravene any of these articles, the Laws and Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, or of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, or the principles of the Order.

Two copies of the By-Laws, or any amendment thereto, certified by the Secretary under the seal of the Lodge, shall, immediately after adoption by the Lodge, be sent by the Secretary to the Grand Secretary for the approval of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, which approval shall be necessary before said By-Laws or amendments thereto shall become operative.

After approval or amendment of the same, one copy to be left in the office of the Grand Secretary; the other copy to be returned to the Lodge. The By-Laws shall not be suspended, set aside or altered, except by regular process of amendment, a written proposition for which shall have been before the Lodge for at least one week.

RULES OF ORDER FOR SUBORDINATE LODGES.

Rule 1. When the presiding officer takes his chair, the officers and members shall take their respective seats, and at the sound of the gavel there shall be general silence.

2. ORDER OF BUSINESS.

I.—Calling roll of officers.

II.—Presentation of cards of visitors in waiting. Visitors should also be received at any later stage of the proceedings until the Noble Grand rises to close the Lodge.

III.—Reading and disposing of the Minutes.

IV.—Consideration of previous proposals for membership or reinstatement.

1. Reports of Investigating Committees.
2. Applications for Degrees.
3. Balloting for Admission; for Degrees.
4. Initiation and conferring Degrees.

V.—Does any member know of a sick brother, or a brother in distress?

Does any brother know of a vacancy where a brother of the Order might obtain employment?

VI.—Communications read and disposition of the same.

1. From the Grand Lodge.
2. From other Lodges.
3. From persons.
4. Bills against the Lodge.

VII.—Reports of Officers and Committees.

1. Of Treasurer, first meeting in each month.
2. Of Secretaries, and Treasurer, at the close of term.
3. Of Trustees.
4. Of Visiting Committee.
5. Of Finance Committee.
6. Of other Standing Committees.
7. Of Special Committees, by seniority.

VIII.—Unfinished Business.

1. Excuses of Absentees.
2. Special Order of the Evening.
3. Other Matters on the Record.

IX.—New Business.

1. Proposals for Membership or Reinstatement.
2. Applications for Cards, Dismissal Certificates, or Certificates of other kinds.
3. Resignations of Office or Membership.
4. Nominations for Office.
5. Elections.
6. Installations.
7. Appointments.
8. Resolutions and Motions.

X.—Good of the Order.

1. Has any Brother anything to offer for the Good of Order?
2. Applications for Benefits.
3. Are there any cases requiring the Charity of the Order?

XI.—Announcements.

1. Of Special Meetings.
2. Of Encampment Meetings, Rebekah Meetings, Canton Meetings, Committee Meetings, Anniversary Celebrations, etc.
3. Of Receipts of the Evening.
4. Of Disbursements of the Evening.

NOTE.—Receipts and Disbursements to be announced in detail by the Financial and Recording Secretaries, respectively.

XII.—Closing the Lodge.

3. The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum, and pronounce the decision of the Lodge on all questions. He may speak on points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose. He shall decide all points of order without debate, unless he entertain doubts on the point, subject to an appeal to the Lodge by any two members; on which appeal no member shall speak more than once.

4. Previous to taking the vote on any subject, the Noble Grand shall, in an audible voice, ask: "Is the Lodge ready for the question?"

after which, if no member rises to speak, he shall rise and put the question.

5. No member shall speak to another, or otherwise interrupt the business of the Lodge, while the minutes are being read, or while any member is addressing the Chair.

6. No member shall disturb another while addressing the Chair, unless to call him to order. No member shall rise from his seat while another member is speaking, nor on any pretense shall one pass between the speaking member and the presiding officer.

7. No member shall speak on any question before the Lodge unless he rise from his seat and respectfully address the Chair. A member speaking shall confine himself to the subject under debate, and shall use no personal, indecorous or sarcastic language, to reflect on the Lodge or its members; and when his speech shall have been concluded he shall resume his seat.

8. If two members, or more than two, rise at the same time to speak, the Chair shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

9. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject unless all the members present wishing to speak shall have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without permission from the Chair; and no member, while speaking, shall name another except by the appropriate title designating his rank in the Order.

10. Whenever a member, while speaking, shall be called to order, he shall resume his seat until the question is settled and leave is given him to proceed.

11. No motion shall be debated until the same is seconded and stated to the Lodge by the Chair, and any motion shall be reduced to writing on the request of any member.

12. When a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be in order but these: (1) to adjourn, or its equivalent, to proceed to close; (2) to lay on the table; (3) the previous question; (4) to postpone indefinitely; (5) to postpone to a certain time; (6) to commit; (7) to amend; and these motions shall be privileged and have precedence in the order in which they are made to succeed each other by this rule; and motions to adjourn, to proceed to close, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate.

13. When the previous question is moved and seconded it shall be put at once in these words: "Shall the main question be now put?" If decided in the affirmative, the debate ceases, and the Chair puts to vote all pending amendments, in their proper order, and the main question; if the previous question be decided in the negative, the question shall remain before the Lodge as before.

14. When a blank is to be filled, and different sums, numbers or times shall be proposed, the question shall first be put on the highest sum or number, and on the longest or latest time.

15. Any member may call for a division of the question when it can be divided, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible, except at the option of the mover.

16. If the reading of any paper be called for and it be objected to by any member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the Lodge without debate.

17. Every qualified member present shall vote on all questions before the Lodge, unless the Lodge excuse him from so doing for special reasons.

18. On a call for the yeas and nays by a majority of the Lodge, the name of each member voting shall be entered on the minutes.

19. When a question is postponed indefinitely, it shall not again be acted on during that or the next succeeding meeting.

20. No motion shall be heard for reconsideration of any vote of the Lodge unless the same shall be made by a member who voted with the majority in the first instance.

21. Before any communication, petition or memorial shall be received and read by the Secretary, a brief statement of its contents shall be made verbally to the Lodge, either by the member presenting the same or by the presiding officer.

22. On application to the Chair, any member may be excused from serving on a second committee, at the time of his appointment thereon, if the duties of the first committee remain unperformed and the applicant be not discharged therefrom.

23. The person first named on a committee shall act as chairman thereof, unless the committee select a different member for that office. The mover and seconder of a resolution referred to a special committee are usually the first named thereon.

24. No committee can be finally discharged until all debts contracted by it shall have been paid.

25. The consequences of any measure may be reprobated in strong terms; but to arraign the motives of those who propose or advocate it is a personality and against order.

26. When a member shall be called to order for words spoken, the objectionable words shall (if required) be taken down in writing by the Secretary.

27. No motion can be made by one member while another is speaking, and no motion shall be received unless the member making it shall rise and address the Chair.

28. The affirmative of a question is first put, then the negative; but in matters of form or of course, such as reading reports, petitions, memorials, or other papers, withdrawing motions, etc., to save time, the Chairman usually assumes the assent of the Lodge when, on inquiry, no objection is expressed.

29. The Noble Grand, or any member doubting the decision of the Lodge, may call for a count or a division of the votes.

30. All questions not herein provided for shall be decided upon the principles laid down in Robert's Rules of Order.

31. These Rules of Order may be temporarily suspended by general consent or by special vote of two-thirds of the members present; and they may be permanently amended in the same manner as the By-Laws.

MODEL BY-LAWS FOR SUBORDINATE LODGES IN ILLINOIS.

ARTICLE I.—MEETINGS.

Section 1. This Lodge shall hold its regular meetings on.....
.....evening of each week.

Sec. 2. The hour of meeting shall be: During the months of November, December and January, at.....o'clock; during February, March, September and October, at.....o'clock; and during April, May, June, July and August, at.....o'clock p. m.

ARTICLE II.—FEES, DUES, BENEFITS AND FUNDS.

Section 1. The fees for admission to membership in this Lodge shall be as follows:

For admission by initiation, if the applicant be years of age or less, $.....; if over, $....., in addition to the above fee for each additional five years of age or part thereof .

For admission by card, if the applicant be years of age or less, $.....; if over, $..... in addition to the above fee for each additional five years of age or part thereof.

For admission as an Ancient Odd Fellow, if years of age or less, $.....; if over, $..... in addition to the above fee for each additional five years of age or part thereof.

The fee for reinstatement after dropping shall be one year's dues in all cases, except under Section 4, Article VIII, of the Constitution, when the price of a card shall be added thereto.

The fee for each degree shall be $.....

Sec. 2. Every beneficial member of this Lodge shall pay into the funds as dues.....per quarter; every non-beneficial member shall pay as dues.....a quarter; each to be reckoned by weekly periods in determining a brother's standing, but charged by the quarter for convenience.

Sec. 3. Should there be less than $..... cash in the treasury when a sick benefit is called for, an assessment, the amount of which shall be determined by the Finance Committee, subject to the revision of the Lodge, shall be laid upon the members, payable immediately.

Sec. 4. When a funeral benefit is due, or funeral expenses accrue, the Financial Secretary shall enter an assessment ofupon each member's account, payable immediately.

Sec. 5. The fee for a card shall be.....; but if a brother pays a year's dues in advance he shall be entitled to a visiting card without fee.

Sec. 6. The sick benefits shall be $......a week, if of the Third Degree; but if of a lower degree, $......a week.

Sec. 7. Any brother suffering himself to become in arrears for dues accruing during a period of more than thirteen weeks shall not again become beneficiary until the expiration of thirteen weeks from the date of payment in full of all arrears for dues, fines and assessments charged to his account, as permitted by Section 8, Article X, of the Constitution.

Sec. 8. The funeral benefit shall be $.....

ARTICLE III.—SICKNESS, FUNERALS, AND FINES.

Section 1. Any brother becoming sick shall send notice thereof, as soon as may be, to some member of the Visiting Committee. No brother living within five miles of the Lodge room shall be entitled to benefits whose case has not been reported to the Visiting Committee, unless it shall appear that he used due diligence to report himself to them, and no benefit shall be allowed for more than one week's sickness prior to such notice being sent to the committee.

Sec. 2. Repealed by implication. [See Section 9, Article X, of the Constitution.]

Sec. 3. Upon the death of a brother who is a beneficiary member of this Lodge, or of a traveling brother, entitled to burial by the Order, deceased near this Lodge, the Noble Grand shall solicit the permission of the family of the deceased to conduct the funeral according to the custom of the Order; and upon obtaining their consent, he, in concert with the Visiting Committee, shall take charge of the funeral, or co-operate with the friends or family in making arrangements; and he shall cause the Secretary to notify the members of the Lodge to assemble and attend the funeral.

Sec. 4. Failure to attend as a watcher with a sick brother, or at the funeral of a brother, when notified to watch or in any way informed of the funeral, is an offense, the penalty of which shall be a fine of; and if it be accompanied by aggravating circumstances, such other penalty may be inflicted as the Lodge may determine. A practicing physician may be exempt from watching. Reasonable excuse may be offered in bar or mitigation of the above fines, opportunity for which shall always be allowed, and the matter shall be decided by the Noble Grand; and any appeal from his summary decision must be taken at the time thereof.

ARTICLE IV.—AMENDMENTS.

Section 1. These By-Laws shall not be repealed, amended or added to, unless a written resolution embodying the proposed alteration shall have been submitted and read on at least two regular meetings previous to the time at which final action is had on the proposition; and if the proposition proposes an amendment, it shall set forth the section to be altered or amended as it would read if altered or amended. Final action on proposed amendments or repeals shall be taken only at a regular meeting, and can only be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members present entitled to vote; and before the adoption of such resolution repealing or amending any part of these By-Laws, notice thereof shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, as is required by Section 3, Article XII, of the Constitution of this Lodge,

Sec. 2. All former By-Laws not contained herein are hereby repealed.

INDEX TO REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

On Revision of the Code.

Final report, by Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., Chairman—The committee report their action during the year, and the completion of the work committed to their charge. Three meetings of the committee were held. Each part of the work has been gone over as carefully as the time available would permit, not only as to the plan and scope of the work as outlined, but also the completed work of the editor. The completed work speaks for itself. The total expenses of the committee during the two years of its existence were $215.21. The total cost to the Grand Lodge of the 2,000 copies printed, including expenses of the committee, editorial contract, printing and binding, measuring the work, and postage on those sent to lodges, was $3,583.29—a fraction of a cent less than $1.80 per copy. The committee commend the excellent results secured by the editor, and express gratification to learn of the very general satisfaction with which the work has been received. Presented, 33; approved, 372.

On Analysis and Distribution.

Report by Bro. Willis Melville, Chairman—On Reports of Grand Officers, assigning the several matters therein to Standing and Special Committees. Presented and adopted, 318.

Tellers.

First report, being result of first ballot for Grand Warden, 332.
Second report, being result of second ballot for Grand Warden, 336.

On Illinois Odd-Fellows' League.

See report of Committee on Analysis and Distribution, 318; first report of Committee on the State of the Order, 338, 354, 368; G. Master's reference, 342; sixth report of Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, 369.

On Memorials.

Reports by Bro. Duncan McDougall, Chairman—
1. Clark Bates Samson, 363.
2. Mrs. Sarah Lewis Coon, 364.

On Staff Work.

Report by Bro. W. H. Pease, of 80—The committee were present at Arion Hall, and witnessed the work of the Initiatory Degree by John Ericsson Lodge, No. 361, Staff, of Chicago; the First Degree by Sangamon Lodge, No. 6, Staff, of Springfield; the Second Degree by I Will Lodge, No. 141, Staff, of Chicago; the Third Degree by Cook County Lodge, No. 240, Staff, of Chicago. The committee expresses the opinion that the highest praise and commendation should be given to each of the staffs. The report closes with the suggestion that the degrees be exemplified at each Grand Lodge session, when the same can be done without expense to the Grand Lodge. Presented and adopted, 370.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

On Credentials.

First report, by Bro. J. S. Cruttenden, Chairman—On Representatives and Representatives-elect to the Grand Lodge, applying for the Grand Lodge Degree. Presented and adopted, 377.

Second report, by Bro. E. E. Skillin—On credentials of sundry Past Grands. Presented and adopted, 320.

Third report, by Bro. J. S. Cruttenden—On credentials of sundry Past Grands. Presented and adopted, 353.

On the State of the Order.

First report, by Bro. Wm. F. Douglas—On portions of the Grand Officers' Reports referred to the committee, recommending approval, except so much as is found under the heading "Illinois Odd Fellows' League," on page 38; that section they recommend be referred to a special committee, to ascertain and define the status of the League, and report with recommendations. Presented, 338; adopted, 354. Reconsidered, 367, and amended by excluding from the subjects considered by the committee the question of appropriating money for permanent improvements at the Orphans' Home (see pages 194-196). Thus amended, the report was again adopted, 368. [On Illinois Odd Fellows' League, see top of page 342, and sixth report of Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, p. 369.]

Second report, by Bro. I. G. Wise—On Document 4, page 314, recommending reference of the subject matter to the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, for report to the Grand Lodge. Presented, 338; adopted, 355.

Third report, by Bro. R. T. Walton—On resolutions (Doc. 3, p. 313) favoring the establishing of libraries at the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, recommending their adoption. Presented, 338; adopted, 355—the committee to be appointed for one year.

Fourth report, by Bro. Walton—On Doc. 2, page 313, proposing to limit the payment of mileage and per diem to members in attendance during the entire session of the Grand Lodge, recommending non-adoption. Presented, 339; adopted, 355.

Fifth report, by Bro. Walton—On Doc. 13, page 317—that the Grand Master direct the installing officer to commit the charges to memory, etc.—approving the resolution. Presented, 339; adopted, 355.

Sixth report, by Bro. Walton—On Doc. 20, page 328, instructing the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home to inquire into the feasibility of establishing a Manual Training and Domestic Science Department at the Home, etc. Presented, 339; adopted, 355.

Seventh report, by Bro. Alfred Orendorff, P.G.M., Chairman—On the subject of the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home, as presented in the Grand Master's Report, on pages 19 to 23 inclusive. The committee commends and approves the action of the Grand Master, and recommends the adoption of such portion of the report as calls for the appointment of three Trustees to invest the Endowment Funds. Presented, 346; adopted, 355.

On Legislation.

First report, by Bro. H. T. Pemberton—On correspondence of the Grand Master relating to the Endowment Funds, pages 19 to 21. The committee asks to be relieved from consideration of the subject, and that the matter be referred to the Committee on the State of the Order. Presented, and referred as requested, 337.

Second report, by Bro. George W. Lemmers—On the subject of "Salaries" in the Grand Master's Report, pages 34 and 35, asking to be relieved from consideration of the same, and suggesting that the matter be referred to the Committee on Finance. Presented, and referred as suggested, 337.

Third report, by Bro. Lemmers—On Doc. 12, page 317. The committee recommends the adoption of amendments to Sections 5 and 6 of Article III of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, striking out so much of said sections as exempts the Secretaries from payment of dues. Presented, 348; considered and postponed, 356; amended, 365; again considered, and adopted as amended, 369.

Fourth report, by Bro. S. L. McCrory—Amending the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, Section 14 of Article IV, relating to Bonds of Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. Presented, and entered on the Journal for consideration at the next annual session, 356.

Fifth report, by Bro. John L. Bolen—On the subject of Trustees for the Endowment Funds of the Old Folks' Home and the Orphans' Home, recommending the enactment of a law in seven sections, to be known as "Section 2780A of the Code of 1906." Presented, and withdrawn for corrections, 350; again presented as corrected, 357; considered seriatim, each section except the sixth adopted as presented, the sixth section amended and adopted, 358-359; the report as amended adopted, 359.

Sixth report, by Bro. Geo. F. Howard, P.G.M.—On Document 11, page 316—amending Article X, Section 5, of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, and Section 1945 of the Code of 1906, by adding a proviso that "said members, while residents of the I. O. O. F. Old Folks' Home, shall not receive sick benefits from their lodge if exempt from the payment of weekly dues." Presented, 350; adopted, 359.

Seventh report, by Bro. Howard, P.G.M.—Recommending amendment to Section 2 of Article X of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges, substituting the words "territorial jurisdiction" for the word "vicinity" wherever it occurs in said section, to make the same conform to new legislation of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Presented, and withdrawn for amendment, 351; amended and again presented, 359; considered and adopted, 360.

Eighth report, by Bro. McCrory—On the subject of requiring a bond in the sum of $2,000 from the Secretary of the Orphans' Home Board, as recommended in the Grand Master's Report, page 37, with a resolution to carry into effect the recommendation. Presented and adopted, 360.

On Finance.

First report, by Bro. James Ewing Davis—On business of the Grand Secretary's office for the six months from November 1, 1905, to May 1, 1906. The committee made an inventory of the stock and fixtures on hand; checked up the office, and found the business conducted in a very satisfactory manner, and the funds and property duly and properly accounted for; audited the bills for expenses, finding proper vouchers on file. The report closes with a list of Lodges delinquent in reports or capitation tax, or both. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 53; adopted, 331.

Second report, by Bro. George F. Koester—Giving the result of the investigations of the committee as to the condition of the Old Folks' Home on the occasion of their visit to that institution on the 9th of October. The committee commends the business-like manner in which the Board of Trustees have transacted their business, and compliments the Secretary of the Board for the excellent manner in which his books are kept. The condition of the Home and the Farm is pronounced commendable. Some repairs and other improvements are needed. The several items of expenditure for the coming year sum up $22,350, the appropriation of which amount is asked for. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 55; adopted, 331.

Third report, by Bro. E. H. Kinney—The committee visited the Orphans' Home on the 10th of October, and found the general condition of the Home to be first class. A reform in bookkeeping is recommended. The committee expresses the opinion that a team of mares purchased at a cost of $700 is a much better team than was necessary. Repairs and some new boilers in the heating plants are needed. The report closes with a financial statement. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 57; adopted, 331.

Fourth report, by Bro. Davis—Result of the investigation ordered by the Grand Lodge at session of 1905 (see Journal 1905, p. 336) of the reports of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 58; adopted, 331.

Fifth report, by Bro. Koester—In their examination of affairs of the two Homes, the committee found that no complete inventory of personal property had ever been kept at either, and suggest that the management of each be requested to make at once and hereafter to keep such inventory of personal property in their care. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 59; adopted, 331.

Sixth report, by Bro. Kinney—On business of the Grand Secretary's office for six months ending October 31, 1906. The committee made their customary semiannual visit on the 7th of November, and thoroughly investigated all departments of the office. The result of the investigation is given in detail. Presented in Grand Master's Report, 59; adopted, 331.

- Seventh report, by Bro. Kinney—On that portion of the Grand Master's Report (pages 23 to 26) relating to the "California Disaster." The committee have checked up the account, and find the total receipts to be $8,574.47; the total amount remitted, $9,549.07. They recommend that the balance, $25.40, received since the last remittance, be turned into the Special Relief Fund. Presented, 342; adopted, 355.
- Eighth report, by Bro. Davis—On the subject of appropriations to the Old Folks' Home. The committee recommend itemized appropriations aggregating $21,350, to be added to the several balances now remaining from former appropriations, for the purposes specified. Presented, 342; adopted, 355.
- Ninth report, by Bro. Koester—Commending the action of the Grand Master as set forth in his report on pages 30 and 31, in making donations from the Special Relief Fund; expressing the opinion that interest received on investments of the Relief Fund should be credited to that fund. Presented, 343; adopted, 355.
- Tenth report, by Bro. Davis—On Report and Accounts of Grand Treasurer. The committee say they have examined the Grand Treasurer's Report (pp. 198-205), checked the same up, item by item, and performed all the additions, and find the same correct in all respects. The Grand Treasurer has exhibited to them cash items and interest bearing securities, of which they give a detailed list, aggregating $75,840.16. The balance now in the treasury exceeds that of one year ago by $12,224.56. The committee find the books and accounts of the Treasurer kept in his usual efficient manner. It is recommended that the cancelled vouchers be filed with the Grand Secretary for future reference; also, that all papers, bonds, and securities be stamped "Property of Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., State of Illinois." Presented, 344; adopted, 355.
- Eleventh report, by Bro. Kinney—On Document 9, page 316. The committee has not been able to find any person who is familiar with the pedigree of the mares referred to, but understands that they are sound and well bred. The committee has made a former report (see 3d report, page 57), and is still of the opinion therein expressed. Presented, 345; adopted, 355.
- Twelfth report, by Bro. Koester—Supplemental report on finances of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home. The committee recommends certain rules in relation to remittances for either of the Homes, and defines the duties of the Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer in connection therewith. Presented, 345; adopted, 355.
- Thirteenth report, by Bro. Koester—Recommending payment of bill for bringing the Orphans' Home Band to Springfield and their expenses while here—$33.20. Presented, 347; adopted, 355.
- Fourteenth report, by Bro. Davis—Recommending appropriations for the Orphans' Home for maintenance and repairs amounting to $21,000, in addition to the balances now standing to the credit of those accounts; also, recommending that all donations and cash sales be added to the maintenance account. Presented, 348; adopted, 355.
- Fifteenth report, by Bro. Kinney—On resolutions (Documents 17 and 18, page 327) proposing to increase the rate of capitation tax, the additional amount to be divided between the two Endowment Funds equally. The committee say: "We do not think that the capitation tax at this time should be raised, as the membership at large has just contributed handsomely to both these funds; and we feel that this interest of the membership at large in the Homes should be kept up, by keeping these Homes prominently before the members by an occasional donation from the funds of the Lodge to such Endowment Funds." Presented and adopted, 360.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. Koester—On Bond presented by the Grand Treasurer-elect. The committee say: "The responsibility of the sureties is certified to by the Circuit Clerk of Washington County, under the seal of his court; from which, and from our own personal investigation, we conclude that the surety is sufficient, and recommend that it be accepted. We further recommend that this bond, if accepted by the Grand Lodge, be placed in the hands of the Grand Master for safe keeping." Presented and adopted, 360.

Seventeenth report, by Bro. Kinney—On Bond presented by the Grand Secretary-elect. "We have made due examination as to the sufficiency of the sureties, and recommend that said bond be accepted. We further recommend that this bond, if accepted by the Grand Lodge, be placed in the hands of the Grand Master for safe keeping." Presented and adopted, 360.

Eighteenth report, by Bro. Koester—On Bill of Grand Treasurer for clerk hire—$100. "As the Grand Treasurer receives no compensation, and as it requires considerable additional clerk-hire to keep his books in such eminently satisfactory manner, we recommend that the bill be allowed and voucher ordered drawn." Presented and adopted, 360.

Nineteenth report, by Bro. Davis—Fixing Salaries and other allowances of Grand Master, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer for the ensuing year. Presented, considered seriatim, each item adopted separately, and the report then adopted as a whole, 363-369.

Twentieth report, by Bro. Kinney—Recommending appropriations for services of Assistant Secretary, Janitors and others for this session of the Grand Lodge. Presented and adopted, 365.

Twenty-first report, by Bro. Davis—Estimates of Receipts and Disbursements for the next fiscal year, appropriating $76,230.00 to meet estimated expenses, and fixing the Capitation Tax at 90 cents per member. Presented and adopted, 372.

Twenty-second report, by Bro. Koester—On bill of expenses connected with the publication of the Daily Journal, recommending payment. Presented and adopted, 369.

Twenty-third report, by Bro. Kinney—On the report of Committee on Revision of the Code (pages 33-34) recommending approval. Presented and adopted, 372.

Twenty-fourth report, by Bro. Koester—Recommending that $200 be appropriated to pay for new Regalia for Officers of the Grand Lodge purchased by the Grand Master. Presented and adopted, 372.

On Rebekah Degree.

No report.

On Mileage and Per Diem.

One report, by Bro. E. R. Sayler, Chairman—With tabulated statement of mileage and per-diem for the session as computed by the committee. Presented and adopted, 340; tabulated statement, 432.

On Railroads.

One report, made to the Grand Master, October 4th, giving in detail arrangements made with the Central Passenger Association and the Western Passenger Association for transportation of members of the Grand Lodge, the Grand Encampment, and the Rebekah Assembly, and members of their families, to and from Springfield. Page 41.

On Printing.

First report, by Bro. John R. Camp, Chairman—On printing and binding the Illinois I. O. O. F. Code of 1906. Bids in detail on composition, presswork, paper, and binding were received from seven bidders. Tabulation and comparison showed that of Phillips Brothers, of Springfield, to be by far the lowest, and the contract was awarded to that firm. The work was completed for but little more than half the estimated cost. Presented, 329; adopted, 354.

Second report, by Bro. H. Dinkelman—Giving bids and their action on same for printing the Grand Lodge Journal of Proceedings, the Daily Journal, the Officers' Reports, the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, and Stationery and Supplies, for all of which contracts were awarded to the Illinois State Journal Company, their bids being the lowest. Presented, 329; adopted, 354.

Third report, by Bro. Camp—Being Bill of Expenses incurred, which the committee ask be allowed. Presented and referred, 336. [See 22d report of the Committee on Finance, page 369.]

On Judiciary and Appeals.

First report—Proceedings of the Committee at the four regular sessions held during the year, as follows:

Session of February, 1906, pages 170-173.

Session of May, 1906, pages 173-175.

Session of August, 1906, pages 176-179.

Session of November, 1906, pages 179-180.

Second report, by Bro. ———— On Document No. 5, page 314. The committee declare that each Subordinate Lodge has the legal right to set aside a sum not exceeding five per cent of its receipts for dues to be kept as a separate entertainment fund; but this fund should not be illegally or improperly used any more than the general fund. Each Lodge should see to it that this fund is properly used, and for the sole purpose for which the fund is created, and a Lodge failing to do this would be derelict in its duty and subject to charges the same as for any other illegal act. Presented, 328; adopted, 354.

Third report, by Bro. H. A. Stone, P.G.M.—On petition of Clarence M. Parker, a former member of Kossuth Lodge, No. 569, asking restoration to membership. The committee find the applicant vouched for as in every way worthy by three members of the Grand Lodge, who are well acquainted with him, and recommend that his petition be granted. Presented, 339; adopted, 355.

Fourth report, by Bro. M. P. Bery, P.G.M.—On Document 8, page 315, relating to error in the Code of 1906, Section 1034, on page 119, being Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution for Subordinate Lodges. The committee report: "Said section is properly printed in the new Subordinate Constitution, and your committee recommend that, in lieu of using the paster in each of said books, to correct the error, that, instead of reading said section 6 as printed in the said Code, said section 6 as printed in the New Subordinate Constitution in the Journal of this Grand Lodge for the year 1905 be, and the same is hereby declared to be, correct and the law of this Order." Presented, 347; adopted, 355.

Fifth report, by Bro. Stone, P.G.M.—Answering questions in a statement appended to the report. Presented, 366; considered, and further consideration postponed until next session, 367.

Sixth report, by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson—On the Illinois Odd Fellows' League. The committee reports: "In our opinion, it is an organization which does a great deal of good work that cannot be performed by the several Lodges, and whose work should receive the encouragement and commendation of this Grand Lodge, in all respects where the same does not conflict with the laws of the Order. As to the legal right of this League to do this work in the name of our Order, and its right to use the words 'Odd Fellows' League,' we express no opinion, for the reason that your committee believes it has no authority to pass upon that question, but refers its legal standing to the decision of the Sovereign Grand Lodge or to the Grand Sire." Presented and adopted, 369.

INDEX TO UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

For Consideration at the Annual Session of 1907.

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION OF GRAND LODGE.

Article IV, Section 14—Strike out, in the third line of the section the words "with two or more sufficient sureties," and insert the words "signed by some surety or guaranty company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is in the business of furnishing indemnity bonds, the expense of such bonds to be defrayed by the Grand Lodge."—Document 52, page 356.

Article VI, Section 10—Resolved, That, as a compliment for the faithful services given to the Grand Lodge by the Past Grand Masters, they be allowed mileage and per-diem when in attendance upon sessions of the Grand Lodge.—Document 19, page 327.

Article VI, Section 10—Amend the section by striking out the words "two dollars" in the last line, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "three dollars."—Document 37, page 340.

Article VII, Section 1—Amend the section so as to read as follows: "The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the second Tuesday in October."—Document 7, page 315.

Article VII, Section 4—"Resolved, That no member of the Grand Lodge be allowed to vote except the Officers and Representatives."—Document 10, page 316.

OTHER MATTERS.

Resolution of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home, page 196; Considered, and further consideration postponed until the next annual session, pages 367, 368.

Resolved, That the session of this Grand Lodge for the year 1908 shall be held in the city of Peoria.—Document 51, page 354.

Fifth report of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.—Document 63, pages 366-367.

Document 4, page 314—"Resolved, That suitable arrangements be made by this Grand Lodge at once for the erection of a separate building on the grounds of the site of the Old Folks' Home, located sufficiently distant from the main buildings of the Home as to warrant all danger of contagion, said proposed building to cost not more than $5,000 for complete construction."—Referred to the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, for report to the Grand Lodge.—2d report of the Committee on the State of the Order, page 338.

‡ Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839 Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.

NOTICES.

The next Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., will be held in the City of Springfield, on the third Tuesday of November, 1907, viz: the 19th day of the month, at 7 o'clock p. m.

The special attention of Secretaries and others is directed to the following law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

Resolved, That Grand Scribes and Grand Secretaries are hereby prohibited from delivering or transmitting visiting or withdrawal cards to any person whatever, or to any Encampment or Lodge, excepting upon the order in writing of an Encampment or Lodge, signed by its Scribe (in the case of an Encampment) or by its Secretary (in the case of a Lodge), and authenticated by the official seal of the Encampment or the Lodge.

Also, to this law of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed not to fill any orders for supplies, for Lodges or individuals, unless the cash accompany such order.

Prices for supplies may be found on the reverse side of this leaf.

In ordering such supplies as are sent by express (see next page), give full instructions; state to what office or station, and in whose care they may be forwarded.

All communications intended for the Grand Lodge, or the Grand Secretary, must be addressed to the undersigned at Springfield. The Grand Secretary's office is in the Odd Fellows' Building, corner Monroe and Fourth streets.

JOHN H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., 1907.
